

Z 31B25140 1xCD-ROM

THIRD EDITION

Grammar Practice

for Upper Intermediate Students with key

Debra Powell with Elaine Walker and Steve Elsworth

PEARSON
Longman

Contents

GRAMMAR

Nouns, pronouns, determiners and articles

Nouns, determiners, articles

1	Articles	4
2	Types of noun	6
3	Countable and uncountable nouns	7
4	Singular and plural nouns	9
5	some, any, no, none , etc.	11
6	much, many, a lot , etc.	13
7	both, either, neither , etc.	16
8	Pronouns	18
9	Possessive 's, possessive of , etc.	20
Check 1	Nouns, determiners, articles	22

Adjectives, adverbs and comparison

Adjectives and adverbs

10	Position and order of adjectives	24
11	Adjective or adverb?	26
12	Position and order of adverbs	28
13	Comparison of adjectives, adverbs and nouns	30
14	Comparative structures	32
15	so ... that, such ... that, too, enough, very	33
16	Adverbs of degree: very, absolutely , etc.	35
17	Sentence adverbs: certainly, clearly , etc.	37
Check 2	Adjectives and adverbs	38

Tenses

Present tenses

18	Present simple or continuous?	40
19	State verbs	42
20	Present perfect: ever, never , etc.	44
21	Present perfect: just, already, yet , etc.	46
22	Present perfect: for, since	48
23	Present perfect simple and continuous	50
Check 3	Present tenses	52

Past tenses

24	Past simple and continuous	54
25	Past perfect simple and continuous	56
26	used to, would, be/get used to	58
Check 4	Past tenses	60

Future forms

27	Future forms and meanings (1)	62
28	Future forms and meanings (2)	65
29	Other ways of talking about the future	67
30	Future in the past	68
Check 5	Future forms	70

Modal verbs

31	Ability and possibility	72
32	Degrees of certainty	74
33	Obligation and necessity	77
34	Advice, recommendations and criticism	80
35	Permission, requests, offers and suggestions	82
Check 6	Modal verbs	84

Sentence and text structure

Statements and questions

36	Basic sentence types	86
37	Question forms	88
38	Question tags and reply questions	90
39	Avoiding repetition: so, neither, too , etc.	91
40	Exclamations and emphatic forms	93
Check 7	Statements and questions	94

-ing forms and infinitives

41	Verb + -ing form or infinitive?	95
42	Verb + object + -ing form or infinitive?	97
43	Other uses of infinitives	99
44	Other uses of -ing forms	102
45	doing, (to) do, being done, (to) be done , etc.	104
Check 8	-ing forms and infinitives	105

Reported speech

46	Reported statements: tense changes	107
47	Reported statements: no tense changes	109
48	Reported questions, commands and requests	111
49	Reporting verbs	113
Check 9	Reported speech	115

Noun clauses

50	Noun clauses as object	117
51	Other uses of noun clauses	119
Check 10	Noun clauses	122

Relative clauses

52	Defining relative clauses	123
53	Non-defining relative clauses	125
54	which referring to a whole clause	127
55	Other ways to identify people and things	128
Check 11	Relative clauses	130

Linking words and structures

56	Compound and complex sentences	132
57	Adding and listing	133
58	Contrast and concession	134
59	Cause, reason, purpose and result	136
60	Time clauses	137
61	Common linking expressions in speech	139
62	Participle clauses: contrast, reason, result	140
63	Participle clauses: time	141
64	Past participle clauses	143
Check 12	Linking words and structures	144

Conditionals

65	The zero and first conditionals	146
66	The second conditional	147
67	The third conditional	149
68	unless, provided (that), in case, etc.	151
69	Mixed conditionals	152
70	I wish, if only	153
71	Other ways to express hypothetical meaning	155
Check 13	Conditionals	156

Changing sentence structure

72	Changing word order	158
73	The passive (1)	159
74	The passive (2)	161
75	The passive (3)	162
76	The causative: have/get something done	164
77	there is/are or it is/they are?	165
78	Emphasis: It was ... that, What, All	166
Check 14	Changing sentence structure	168

VOCABULARY

Prepositions

79	Prepositions of place and movement	170
80	Prepositions of time	172
81	Other prepositions	174
82	Prepositional phrases	175
Check 15	Prepositions	177

Words that go together

83	Adjective + preposition	178
84	Verb + preposition	180
85	Noun + preposition	182
86	Phrasal verbs	184
87	Confusing words (1)	186
88	as, like	187
89	Confusing words (2)	188
Check 16	Words that go together	190

Word formation

90	Prefixes	192
91	Forming adjectives: suffixes	193
92	Forming nouns: suffixes	194
93	-ing and -ed adjectives	195
94	Compound adjectives	196
95	Compound nouns	197
Check 17	Word formation	198

Appendices	199
------------	-----

Index	205
-------	-----

Answer key	209
------------	-----

Nouns, determiners, articles

1 Articles

Definite or indefinite meaning?

- We use the indefinite article a/an + singular countable noun to refer to any one of a kind or group, or when a noun is mentioned for the first time: I'd like an apple. Anne's a doctor. I've got a cold/headache. I met a nice girl on holiday.
- We use the definite article the + countable, uncountable or plural noun when the noun refers to something specific or unique, or to something already mentioned: Let's go to the park. What's the capital of your country? The weather's awful. Which is the longest river in the world? The boy I met is called Andrew.

General meaning

- We use zero article (no article) + plural countable noun or uncountable noun to make generalisations: I like cats better than dogs. Water contains oxygen. Modern life is stressful. (Not The modern life is stressful.)
- We can also use a/an to refer to all examples of the same kind: A doctor earns more than a teacher.* (= all doctors, all teachers)
- We can use the to refer to a whole class:
 - before singular nouns for species, inventions and musical instruments: The whale is a mammal. Who invented the computer? I play the piano.*
 - before plural nationality adjectives and some adjectives with plural meaning: the Americans the Japanese the rich the old*
- We use the before superlative adjectives: the best the most expensive*

Other uses of articles

- We use a/an with expressions of quantity and frequency: a half a couple a million €2 a kilo (= per kilo) 50 km an hour (= in an hour) twice a week*
- We use the with plural names of countries, oceans/seas, rivers, deserts, mountain ranges, groups of islands and regions: the United States the Pacific the North Sea the Thames the Sahara the Alps the Maldives the Middle East*
- We also use the with names of hotels, cinemas, theatres, museums and newspapers: the Hilton the Odeon Cinema the National Theatre the Natural History Museum the Times*
- We use zero article with names of continents and most countries, states, cities/towns, mountains, lakes, streets/roads, parks, shops, restaurants and some magazines: Europe Spain California Paris Mount Everest Lake Ontario Oxford Street Hyde Park Harrods Hello Magazine
- We also use zero article with meals, games, sports, subjects, languages, some illnesses and institutions (unless referring to a specific one): lunch chess tennis maths Italian sunburn cancer school university prison

▶▶ For prepositional phrases, see Unit 82.

PRACTICE

1a Complete the sentences. Use a, an or the.

- 0 Have you seen the newspaper? I can't find it anywhere.
- 1 I got my sister CD and new book for her birthday. I don't think she liked CD, though.
- 2 Is this first time you've stayed at Hilton?
- 3 She started her career as teacher but now she's journalist.
- 4 Is Nile or Amazon longest river in world?
- 5 I took bus and then train to the airport. bus was on time but train was late.
- 6 Several million visitors year are attracted to ski slopes on Alps.
- 7 I'll meet you outside post office. I'll be there in quarter of hour.
- 8 We lived in Netherlands before moving here. But before that we worked in Middle East.

1b Complete the essay. Use the or zero article (-).

Urban life past and present

(0) young people tend to think that (1) life was more difficult for (2) people in the past. Of course, (3) lives our parents led were different from (4) lives we lead today. For example, they couldn't rely as much on (5) modern technology as we do. When my parents were young, (6) computers were as big as a room and (7) mobile phone hadn't been invented yet!

On the other hand, I don't think there were as many social problems in those days. This is partly because (8) family was very important. For instance, (9) families took care of (10) old and weak so (11) homelessness wasn't (12) problem that it is today. In fact, in many ways (13) life was better in the past.

1c Complete the sentences. Use a, the or zero article (-).

- 0 In my opinion, education should be free.
- 1 education I got at school was excellent.
- 2 I'd like my children to have good education.
- 3 car is expensive to own and run but it's a reliable form of transport.
- 4 Unfortunately, car is a major cause of air pollution and global warming.
- 5 In some cities cars have been banned from the centre.

2 Types of noun

- There are two main types of noun: common nouns and proper nouns.
- A common noun is any noun that is not the name of a particular person, place or thing. Common nouns can be countable or uncountable: a queen boys sugar
- A proper noun names an individual person, place or thing and is spelt with a capital letter. Proper nouns include:
 - the names of people and titles when we are referring to specific people: Helen Mr Smith the President (of France) the Queen (of Sweden)
 - places: Thailand Vancouver the Tower of London
 - nationalities and languages: British Turkish Venezuelan
 - days and months (but not seasons): Monday July
 - titles of books, newspapers, films, paintings, etc: Crime and Punishment the Daily Telegraph The Lord of the Rings the Mona Lisa
 - religions and festivals: Buddhism/Buddhist Christianity/Christian Islam/Muslim Easter Ramadan

▶▶ See Appendix 1: Punctuation rules, page 199.

PRACTICE

2 Re-write the sentences. Use capital letters where necessary.

- 0 I went to buckingham palace today. It was great.
I went to Buckingham Palace today. It was great.
.....
- 1 It's open to visitors daily in the summer, from august to september.
.....
- 2 I took the train to london and then the underground to victoria station. It's a short walk from there.
.....
- 3 Fortunately, I speak german so I was able to join a group of tourists from germany, who were being shown round by a guide.
.....

- 4 Have you met my sister jane? She's studying at the university of manchester.
.....
- 5 She's coming home for christmas and then she's returning to manchester for new year's eve.
.....
- 6 Would you like to come with us to see titanic at the odeon cinema on wednesday?
.....

- 7 Did you hear about grace's promotion? She's taken over as head of the european division of the company.
.....
- 8 That's great news! Does this mean she'll be moving to paris before the autumn?
.....

3 Countable and uncountable nouns

- Countable nouns have a singular and plural form. Singular countable nouns can be used with a/an: an appointment → two appointments
- Uncountable nouns don't have a plural form and can't be used with a/an. They are followed by a singular verb. They refer to substances we think of as a mass or to abstract ideas: bread water air life love wealth happiness
- Some common uncountable nouns are: accommodation, advice, beauty, behaviour, bread (and other types of food), English (and other languages), equipment, exercise, food, furniture, health, information, knowledge, luggage, maths (and other subjects), money, music, news, permission, progress, research, scenery, steel (and other metals), success, traffic, travel, trouble, water (and other liquids), weather, work: I'd like some information.
- Some -ing words for activities are also uncountable: dancing, running, swimming: Swimming is one of the best forms of exercise.*
- We can use countable noun + of to count many uncountable nouns:
 - 300 grams of cheese a kilo of sugar a litre of milk
 - a bottle of shampoo a can of cola a carton of juice a cup of coffee a glass of water a jar of jam a tin of olives a tube of toothpaste
 - a bar of chocolate a piece of advice/equipment/furniture a handful of rice a loaf of bread a sheet of paper a slice of bread a spoonful of honey
- Some nouns can be countable or uncountable, often with a change of meaning.

Uncountable noun	Countable noun
Beauty is only skin deep.	She's a beauty . (= a beautiful woman)
The napkins are made from linen cloth .	He wiped the table with a clean cloth .
Do you like your coffee black or white?	I'd like a coffee . (= a cup of coffee)
She has long dark hair .	There's a hair in my soup. (= one hair)
I don't eat chicken .	I bought a chicken for dinner.
I have experience in management.	I had a bad experience at work today.
Move over – I need more room .	There's an empty room next door.
There's plenty of space to study.	Sue cleared a space on her desk to work.
They're busy and haven't got time .	They had a good time .
He started work when he was fourteen.	He owns the collected works of Shakespeare.

You have beautiful hair.

There's a hair in my soup.

PRACTICE

3a Complete the conversations. Use the nouns in the box and a/an where necessary.

cloth cloth experience experience glass glass noise ~~room~~ room university education

- 0 A: Is there going to be enough room in the fridge for all this food?
B: Don't worry – it's a large family-size fridge.
- 1 A: Could I have of water, please?
B: Sure. Sorry. I've spilled it. Would you hand me to wipe it up, please?
- 2 A: I see you don't have
B: No, but I have years of managing a business.
- 3 A: Nice suit. Is it silk?
B: According to the label, it's made of fine woollen
- 4 A: I was really frightened last night. I was sure I heard downstairs.
B: I had like that once and I called the police straightaway.
- 5 A: I need for the night. Have you got any vacancies?
B: Yes, you're in luck. There's one free on the top floor.
- 6 A: What's happened? There's all over the floor.
B: Oh, one of the kids kicked a football through the window again.

3b Complete the leaflet. Use the nouns in the box and a/an where necessary.

appointment classes exercise information progress swimming time time up-to-date equipment valuable advice work

We're open from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. so if you can't find (0) time to work out during the day, you can fit us in before or after you go to (1) However, do try and make (2) to consult one of our qualified instructors at (3) that's convenient for you. They will give you (4) about choosing the best exercise programme. Then once you start your programme, they will also help you make (5) towards becoming fitter and healthier.

Our gymnasium has a full range of (6) for running, cycling and weightlifting. Or, if you prefer (7), try our Olympic size pool. We also have day and evening (8) in yoga and Pilates for those who would like a gentler form of (9) For more (10) about what we offer, you can phone, e-mail or drop by and see us!

4 Singular and plural nouns

- Most countable nouns have a singular and a plural form.
- To form the plural, we add -s to most nouns. There may also be other spelling changes: event → events tomato → tomatoes opportunity → opportunities knife → knives wolf → wolves
- Some nouns have an irregular plural: child → children foot → feet man → men mouse → mice person → people tooth → teeth woman → women
- Some nouns borrowed from other languages also have an irregular plural: crisis → crises phenomenon → phenomena
- Some countable nouns have the same form in the singular and plural: aircraft → aircraft deer → deer fish → fish sheep → sheep
- Some nouns end in -s in both the singular and plural: crossroads → crossroads means → means series → series species → species
- Some nouns that end in -s are uncountable and are followed by a singular verb: athletics, economics, maths, measles, news, physics: Maths is my best subject.
- Some nouns are only plural and are followed by a plural verb. These include:
 - nouns ending in -s for things with two parts: binoculars, glasses, jeans, pyjamas, scissors, shorts, trousers. To count these nouns, we can use a pair of: These jeans are too big for me. This pair of jeans is too big for me.
 - other nouns ending in -s: belongings, clothes, congratulations, earnings, remains, outskirts, surroundings: Where are your belongings?
- Some nouns can have a different meaning when they are in the plural.

Singular/Plural	Plural
She hurt her arm .	They carried arms . (= weapons)
Don't challenge his authority !	The authorities are worried about the problem.
Cheese has a high fat content .	The contents of the letter are a secret.
The premise of the novel is that there is life on other planets.	The company's premises are in the city centre.
Canada has vast natural resources , including oil.	He has considerable inner resources .
The operation restored his sight .	Let's go into town and see the sights .
You can go out on one condition : that you're home by midnight.	The conditions inside the prison were terrible.
Travel broadens the mind.	He wrote a book about his travels in the Far East.

- Collective nouns refer to groups of people: army, audience, class, committee, community, company, crew, family, gang, government, group, orchestra, police, staff, team. They can be followed by a singular or plural verb: The school staff is excellent. (= the group as a whole) Our staff are here to help. (= each individual in the group)

▶▶ See Appendix 2: Spelling rules, page 200.

PRACTICE

4a Complete the sentences. Use the plural of the nouns in brackets.

- 0 There are sheep and cows grazing in the field. (sheep, cow)
- 1 There were , and aboard the doomed flight. (man, woman, child)
- 2 Technology has opened up new job in this field. (opportunity)
- 3 It was one of the best television of the last ten years. (series)
- 4 Before you serve the steaks, decorate with a few of lettuce. (leaf)
- 5 I've put the next to the and (glass, knife, fork)
- 6 The two faced each other across the river. (army)
- 7 Do you know how many of birds there are in the world? (species)
- 8 There were at least a thousand at the demonstration but nobody was carrying (person, arm)

4b Circle the correct answer.

There is little doubt that pollution (0) is / are contributing to changes in weather patterns. The melting of the polar ice is receiving a great deal of publicity but there are other (1) phenomenon / phenomena which we can also attribute to global warming. Plant and animal species (2) is / are losing their natural habitats and are in danger of extinction. Meanwhile, living (3) condition / conditions in many countries (4) has / have been affected by floods and droughts. Some say that governments (5) is / are not doing enough to solve the problem, while politicians claim they are doing the best they can with limited (6) resource / resources. In any case, we find ourselves at (7) a / some crossroads. Perhaps only a (8) crisis / crises will encourage us to change our habits.

4c Complete the news flashes. Use one word in each gap.

(0) An aircraft has gone down and news (1) now coming in about the crash. Rescue services have been sent to the area but the authorities (2) not releasing any more information about the accident at this point.

Fire has destroyed a home in South London. All the members of the family (3) safe but their belongings (4) been destroyed and they will be homeless for some time. The family (5) said they have no idea what caused the blaze. The police (6) treating the incident as suspicious.

5 some, any, no, none, etc.

- We use the following quantifiers with plural countable nouns and uncountable nouns: some, any, a lot of, lots of, enough and plenty of.
- We use some in affirmative sentences, requests and offers to mean 'not much/many' or 'a certain amount/number of': There are some eggs in the cupboard. Can I have some tea?
Some can also mean 'a large number/amount of': It will be some time before we're ready.
- We use any in negative sentences and questions: I don't have any time. (not any = no) → I have no time. (Not ~~I don't have no time.~~) Do you need any more information? There was hardly any traffic on the roads. (hardly any = very little)
- Compare: Is there any bread left? (a neutral question) Is there some bread left? (I hope or expect the answer will be 'yes'.)
- In affirmative sentences, any means 'it doesn't matter which one': You can have any item on the list.
- A lot of and lots of refer to large quantities. They are informal. Other expressions include loads of (informal) and dozens of: I eat a lot of fresh vegetables and fruit. Do you have lots of luggage? Don't worry – there's loads of time. She's got dozens of DVDs.
- Enough means 'as much as we need'; plenty of means 'more than we need': Do we have enough food? They have plenty of money.

some/any/none + of before pronouns, etc.

- We can use some/any/none of before pronouns (you, us), possessives (my, his), this/that, etc.: Some/None of us left early. Were any of his friends there?*
- We use none of to talk about three or more things or people. We can use a singular or plural verb. A singular verb is more common in formal writing: None of my friends was/were at the party.*

some, any, none, enough, plenty as pronouns

- Some, any, enough and plenty can also be pronouns. None is always a pronoun: Would you like some? I haven't got any. 'Have you had enough to eat?' 'Yes, plenty!' There are none left.

someone/somebody, anyone/anybody, no one/nobody

- The differences between the pronouns someone, anyone, etc. are the same as those between some, any, etc.
- We use someone/somebody, anyone/anybody and no one/nobody to refer to people. The pairs of words mean the same: Someone/Somebody is at the door. No one/Nobody should leave the room.*
- We use something/anything/nothing to refer to things or actions: There's something on your jacket. I'm not telling you anything. (= I'm telling you nothing.) Nothing happened yesterday.*

PRACTICE

5a Complete the sentences. Use some, any, no or somebody, anybody, etc.

- 0 Some of us are going to a club tonight. Would you like to come?
- 1 I think there's at the door. Do you see ?
- 2 There was traffic on the roads so they got here very quickly.
- 3 Is there I can do to help with dinner? If not, I'll do my homework.
- 4 This town is really boring – ever happens here.
- 5 The loan went way towards paying her university fees.
- 6 There was hardly at the cinema – it was nearly empty.
- 7 Thank you for listening to me. Now, if has any more questions, we'll finish for today.
- 8 Please don't make noise. The baby's sleeping.

5b Complete the e-mail. Use one word in each gap.

New Message

I haven't heard from you for (0) some time so I thought I'd get in touch. There's hardly (1) time left until our exams and for weeks it seems as if I've done (2) but study. The teachers keep reminding us that (3) of the exams will be easy and no doubt they will be even more difficult than I expect. But there's (4) I can do except keep working.

When the exams are over, I'm going to take (5) time off and go on holiday with (6) people in my class. (7) of us care where we go as long as it's somewhere warm!

Anyway, why haven't I heard (8) from you? Are you seeing (9) these days? I was going out with (10) but that finished a few weeks ago. Just as well – I have (11) time for a social life at the moment and I won't have (12) until these exams are over!

5c Complete the conversations. Use some (of), any (of), no, none (of), enough or plenty. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

- 0 A: Oh, dear! Isn't there any money left?
B: Yes, there is – a little. Why? Do you need to borrow some ?
- 1 A: us are happy about what you did.
B: Sorry, but you gave me alternative.
- 2 A: Did you have trouble finding us?
B: at all. I came straight here.
- 3 A: I'd love some tea. Have you got ?
B: Sorry, there's left.

- 4 A: There aren't chairs for everyone.
 B: Don't worry! There are in the next room.
- 5 A: You can choose the books on the list. It doesn't matter which ones.
 B: Thanks. I've already read them.
- 6 A: Have you prepared food for the party?
 B: ! I'm sure people won't be able to eat it all and we'll probably have to throw away.

6 much, many, a lot, etc.

Quantifiers with plural countable nouns

- We use many, a few, few, several and a large number of with plural countable nouns.
- Many is mainly used in questions and negatives. In affirmative sentences it is more formal than a lot of/lots of: How many times have you been there? There aren't many fish in this lake. Many people travel to the city centre for work.
- Too many means 'more than we need': There are too many violent programmes on television these days.
- A few (= some) has a positive meaning: I've got a few minutes if you want to talk to me about it.
- Few (= almost none) has a negative meaning and is formal: Few people remember what happened.*
- Several means 'more than a few but not a lot': I reminded him several times but he forgot.
- A large number of is formal. It is usually followed by a plural verb: A large number of people were at the party.*

Quantifiers with uncountable nouns

- We use much, a little, little and a great deal of with uncountable nouns.
- Much is mainly used in questions and negatives. In affirmative sentences it is more formal than a lot of/lots of: How much money have you got? I haven't got much time left. After much discussion we arrived at a decision.
- Too much means 'more than we need': You added too much water.
- A little (= some) has a positive meaning: I can translate for you – I speak a little German.
- Little (= almost none) has a negative meaning and is formal: We have little money to waste on luxuries.
- A great deal of (= a lot of) is formal: There's a great deal of work to be done.

many/much, etc. + of

- We can use many/much/a few/few/a little/little/several + of before pronouns, articles, possessives, this/that, etc.: Many of them travel by train. I'd like a little of that. Several of our friends were at the party.*
- We can also use dozens/hundreds/thousands + of + plural noun: Thousands of people gathered to watch the parade.*

PRACTICE

6a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 A: He's a new artist and his work is attracting a large number of / a great deal of attention.
 B: That's right. A large number of / A great deal of visitors attended his last exhibition.
- 1 A: I have very few / little time – just a few / a little minutes.
 B: Don't worry. This won't take much / many time.
- 2 A: I have to buy a little / a few things at the supermarket.
 B: We only have a little / a few milk left. Would you get some while you're out?
- 3 A: I don't have much / many money with me. Could I borrow some, please?
 B: How much / How many would you like to borrow?
- 4 A: Do you get much / many visitors here in the winter?
 B: Not really. That's why much of / many of our staff are part-time.
- 5 A: There's too much / too many work here for one person to do.
 B: I know, and there are too little / too few people to help.
- 6 A: There's been a great deal of / a large number of interest in the house but no one's made an offer to buy it yet.
 B: I'm surprised. There aren't many / much places as nice as this in the area.
- 7 A: I don't know how many / how much people are likely to come to the meeting.
 B: I'm sure some won't be able to make it. Few / A few have already sent their apologies.
- 8 A: Is Anne here?
 B: I'm afraid she left an hour ago with several / several of her colleagues.

6b Complete the sentences. Use a little, little, a few or few.

- 0 There's little doubt in my mind that he's guilty.
- 1 We have time, so don't hurry too much.
- 2 I paid attention to what he was saying, I'm afraid.
- 3 She called to say she's going to be minutes late.
- 4 There's money left – in fact, we're virtually broke.
- 5 Unfortunately, there were very people in the audience.
- 6 Would you like more coffee?
- 7 There are more things I'd like to discuss.
- 8 All we can offer at the moment are low-paid jobs that people want.

6c Complete the sentences. Use of where necessary.

- o Much*of*..... the city was destroyed in the war but a great deal*of*..... it has been restored since then.
- 1 I've lived in this village for a number years.
- 2 I've never seen this many people at a local event.
- 3 Jane arrived at the meeting with a few her colleagues – several them had come to support her.
- 4 Much this work was started last year.
- 5 Very little his money was left after the taxes had been paid.
- 6 You may have to wait several months for the decision.
- 7 Hundreds people were killed when the earthquake struck.
- 8 Too much time has been spent on this problem.

6d Look at the results of a survey about what young people do after school. Then complete the text. Use one word in each gap.

Number of people interviewed: 60

19 years old: 70% 18 years old: 10%
17 years old: 5% 16 years old: 15%

Results of survey

		Yes	No
1	Do you take part in sporting activities?	48	12
2	Do you take advantage of extra tuition offered by your school/college?	40	20
3	Do you have a part-time job?	22	38
4	Are you a member of a school/college club or society?	10	50
5	Do you do volunteer work (work for which you don't get paid)?	4	56

We asked sixty students what activities they took part in after school or college. The students were aged sixteen to nineteen but a large (o) number were closer to nineteen years of age. On the whole, the students that we interviewed expressed a great (1) of interest in sports. Extra tuition in difficult subjects was also popular with (2) students although one third did not take advantage of this opportunity. (3) students had a part-time job but most said they preferred to concentrate on their studies.

Turning to the less popular activities, there wasn't a (4) deal of interest in joining school clubs. Although a (5) students said they were members of a club, more than 80% said they preferred to do other things. Volunteer work was the least popular activity and there was (6) interest in this activity; very (7) students said they did unpaid work after school.

7 both, either, neither, etc.

both (of), either (of), neither (of)

- We can use both (of), either (of) and neither (of) to talk about two people or things.
- Both means 'one and the other'. The pattern is: both (of) + plural noun + plural verb: Both shoes have holes in them. Both of my parents are teachers.
- Either means 'one or the other'. The pattern is: either + singular noun + singular verb OR either of + plural noun + singular/plural verb: 'What shall we go to see tonight?' 'Either film is fine. / Either of these films is/are fine.'
- Neither means 'not one or the other'. The pattern is: neither + singular noun + singular verb OR neither of + plural noun + singular/plural verb: Neither team is winning. Neither of her grandparents is/are alive.
- We use both/either/neither + of before pronouns: Both of us can help you.
- We can use both (of)/either (of)/neither (of) + noun/pronoun after the verb: I bought both T-shirts. I don't like either pair of shoes. I called neither of them.
- We can use both, either and neither on their own: I've got two brothers and both are at college. Neither is married.

each (of), every

- We use each/every + singular noun + singular verb. We prefer each when we think of the people or things in a group separately and every when we think of them together: Each member of the family contributes. Every room was painted white.
- We use each (one) of/every one of + plural noun/pronoun/possessive + singular verb: Each (one) of/Every one of the boys has a job.
- We use each but not every to talk about two people or things: Each tyre on my bicycle has a puncture.
- We can use each as a pronoun, before a verb, after a verb and object, or after the verb be: They each left early. I gave them ten pounds each. The tickets are each worth twenty pounds.
- We use every but not each with almost, nearly and not: Nearly/Almost every child attended the party but not every one enjoyed it.

all (of), half (of), the whole (of)

- To talk about the complete amount or total number of people or things in general, we use all: All living things need oxygen to breathe. I hate all violence.
- To talk about the people or things in a specific group, we can use all (of): All (of) the people on the bus were tired.
- We use all (of)/half (of)/a quarter of, etc. + uncountable noun + singular verb OR all (of)/half (of)/a quarter of, etc. + plural noun + plural verb: All (of) the information was useful. All (of) the children are here.
- We use the whole + singular countable noun + singular verb: The whole world was shocked by the catastrophe.
- We use all/half (of) + noun/pronoun: All/Half (of) the food was eaten.
- We use all and whole in some time expressions: all day/evening the whole day/evening all my life my whole life
- Compare: All the people are leaving now. Everybody is leaving now.

PRACTICE

7a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 All / Every cats are born with blue eyes.
- 1 Wheat is grown on all / every continent except Antarctica.
- 2 All / Each person has a unique fingerprint and tongue print.
- 3 The giraffe, camel and cat are the only animals that move both / either their left feet and then both / neither their right feet when walking.
- 4 Only about a tenth / a tenth of the plants and animals that ever lived inhabit the earth today.
- 5 Honeybees kill more people than each of / all of the poisonous snakes in the world combined.
- 6 A worker bee produces less than a teaspoon of honey in its all / whole life.

7b Complete the sentences. Use the present simple of the verbs in brackets.

- 0 A: Are either of the twins good swimmers? (be)
B: Yes, both of them are excellent swimmers. (be)
- 1 A: Which newspaper would you like to read?
B: The Times or the Guardian. Either fine, thanks. (be)
- 2 A: every child a prize? (get)
B: No, but each child who takes part a small gift. (get)
- 3 A: Who each person in the team responsible to? (be)
B: Everyone to the Sales Manager. (report)
- 4 A: Where all the money I gave you? (be)
B: Half of it still in my bank account. (be)
- 5 A: all of the things I asked you to get in the kitchen? (be)
B: Yes. I put them away for you.

7c Complete the text. Use one word in each gap.

"I come from a large family. (0) Both my parents are doctors but they're retired now so (1) of them practises any longer. I have two sisters but I don't think (2) of them will go to university as they're (3) married and (4) of them has a child – one sister has a little boy and the other has a girl.

Because I'm my parents' only son, (5) person in the family expected I'd go to medical school – so that's what I did. When I graduated, my (6) family came to the ceremony. My parents (7) come from a large family so I have a lot of aunts, uncles and cousins – and almost (8) of them came to the ceremony too. Afterwards we had a party at our house. (9) guest brought something to eat and to my surprise, they'd (10) brought me a gift! The best part of the (11) day, though, was having (12) room in the house filled with family that I hadn't seen for ages."

8 Pronouns

Subject pronouns	Object pronouns	Reflexive pronouns
I	me	myself
you	you	yourself
he, she, it	him, her, it	himself, herself, itself
we	us	ourselves
you	you	yourselves
they	them	themselves

Subject and object pronouns

- We use subject pronouns before the verb in a clause or sentence. We use object pronouns after the verb or a preposition: I left early. My friend and I watched TV. Come and see us. Look at John and her! (Not ~~Look at John and she!~~) I have a problem and I'd like to talk to you about it.

 Notice this informal use of the object pronoun me: Me and my family live in Glasgow.

- You can mean 'people in general', including the speaker. One has a similar meaning but is formal: You can't be too careful these days! Great art makes one think.
- They can mean 'people in general', excluding the speaker, or 'the authorities': They say it's going to be a hot summer.
- They and them can refer to a single person after someone, anyone and no one: Someone said they would lock up after the meeting. If anyone rings, tell them I'm in a meeting.

Reflexive pronouns

- We use reflexive pronouns after a verb or preposition when the same person is the subject and object of the verb: I've cut myself. We bought them for ourselves.
- When the subject and object are not the same, we can use each other or one another: We bought them for each other/one another.
- A few verbs are followed by a reflexive pronoun to form an idiom: Behave yourself! We enjoyed ourselves. They helped themselves to sandwiches.

 These verbs don't normally take reflexive pronouns in English: wash, shave, dress: Gerald shaves every morning. (Not ~~Gerald shaves himself every morning.~~)

- We can use a reflexive pronoun to emphasise the noun or pronoun before it. If the reflexive pronoun refers to the subject, it can come at the end of the sentence: Amelia herself designed the house. Amelia designed the house herself.
- by myself/himself, etc. means 'alone': I live by myself. (= on my own)

one, ones

- We can use one/ones to avoid repeating a countable noun: We missed the bus so we waited for the next one. My favourite biscuits are the ones with chocolate chips.

PRACTICE

8a Complete the sentences. Use pronouns or one another.

- o I'm hungry. I think I'll make myself something to eat.
- 1 A: Did you decorate the house ?
B: Yes, we did most of it
- 2 The train was crowded so we decided to catch a later
- 3 I'm surprised they didn't do the job I suppose was too much work for
- 4 Isabel and Tyler are neighbours. They see nearly every day.
- 5 A: My wife and are going on holiday.
B: Be sure you send my husband and a postcard.
- 6 say it's only through solitude that one gets to know
- 7 The washing machine switches off when it's done.
- 8 My sister and I always call during the holidays.
- 9 It was the King who gave the opening address.
- 10 Please help to another slice of cake. There's plenty left.
- 11 I hope Maria behaved at school today.
- 12 I don't know whether to buy the small blue glasses or the large green Please help to choose.

8b Complete the texts. Use pronouns.

"Any city can be dangerous but a little common sense will keep (o) you safe. Let's talk about how to take care of (1) when (2) 're travelling. If (3) 're walking, choose busy streets during the day and never walk through dark areas by (4) at night. Always go out with a friend at night – there's safety in numbers. If (5) 're using public transport, put handbags and packages on your lap – not on an empty seat where (6) can be grabbed by a passing thief. Finally, if your car breaks down and someone offers to help, don't unlock your car door – ask (7) to ring the police instead. (8) say you can never be too careful – and I'm afraid that's absolutely correct."

It is important that one knows how to take care of (9) when travelling in a city.

- When on foot, (10) should choose busy streets whenever possible during the day and avoid walking by (11) at night.
- On public transport, handbags and packages should be kept on one's lap and not left by (12) on an empty seat.
- Car doors should be kept locked. If one's car breaks down and a stranger offers to help, (13) should not be allowed to enter the car.

Remember: (14) can never be too careful.

9 Possessive 's, possessive of, etc.

We can show the relationship of possession between nouns/noun phrases in several ways.

Possessive 's

- We usually use the possessive 's for people, groups of people and animals. We add 's to singular nouns and plural nouns that don't end in -s, and an apostrophe (') to plural nouns that end in -s: Sarah's shoes the government's policy the cat's whiskers my friend's mother (one friend) my friends' mothers (two or more friends) men's clothing Liam and Chloe's home
- We can omit the second noun when the meaning is clear from the context: when we are talking about where someone lives or works, or for some shops and businesses: 'Did you go to John's party?' 'No, I went to Roger and Clare's.' (= Roger and Clare's party) *We had dinner at Barbara's. (= Barbara's house) *He's going to the chemist's. (= the chemist's shop)
- We can use 's or an apostrophe in some expressions with periods of time: today's weather yesterday's newspaper this term's results a week's holiday three minutes' silence
- When a proper name ends in -s, we can use 's or an apostrophe: Charles'/Charles's flat

noun + of + noun

- We usually use noun + of + noun to talk about things: the back of the house (Not the house's back) the top of the mountain
- We prefer 's when the first noun/noun phrase is much shorter than the second noun/noun phrase: the school's rules regarding truancy and lateness (Not the rules regarding truancy and lateness of the school)
- We sometimes use of + 's together: a cousin of my mother's (= my mother's cousin)

noun + noun

- We often use noun + noun, especially when we are talking about parts of things: the bathroom door a computer screen

PRACTICE

9a Circle the correct answer.

- A: Have you heard the news of yesterday / yesterday's news about the plane crash?
B: No. Where did it happen?
- 1 A: I've only read the book's first chapter / the first chapter of the book so far.
B: Keep going. It's a really interesting story.
- 2 A: Are you going to Jane's and Mark's / Jane and Mark's wedding on Saturday?
B: No, we're going to Nathan and Alison's / Nathan's and Alison's. They're friends of my parent's / friends of my parents'.
- 3 A: Have you got the front door's key / the key of the front door in your bag?
B: No. Haven't you got it?

- 4 A: I've got a toothache. I have to go to the dentist's / the dentists.
 B: Good luck. When I tried to make an appointment, I had to wait for three weeks.
- 5 A: Do you know what the university's policy on handing in late assignments / the policy on handing in late assignments of the university is?
 B: No, but why don't you ask the secretary?

9b Complete the sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- o I'm going to my aunt's house tonight. It's her eightieth birthday. (aunt / house)
- 1 The to the film was positive. (audience / reaction)
- 2 Yesterday we celebrated my (parents / wedding anniversary)
- 3 They've closed the for refurbishment. (women / changing room)
- 4 We spent the weekend at my It's a lovely place. (friend / cottage)
- 5 are predicted to be even higher than (next year / sales figures, this year)
- 6 is going to Leeds University next year. (James / daughter)
- 7 The gave each child a small present. (boys / teacher)
- 8 The are well known. (city / problems of crime and unemployment)
- 9 I'm taking in (two weeks / holiday, a week / time)
- 10 Don't pull the It's cruel and besides, the dog might bite you. (dog / tail)

9c Complete the sentences. Use one word from each box in each sentence.

centre children computer daughter front kitchen table top city friends leg page party queue screen window

- o They waited for ages to get to the front of the queue but the performance was worth the wait.
- 1 We invited our youngest to the house for a when she turned ten years old.
- 2 He opened the to let out the smoke from the burnt roast.
- 3 Public transport will take you into the , where you will find many shops and restaurants.
- 4 Before you start the test, write your name at the
- 5 That is broken so don't put anything on the table or it will collapse.
- 6 She gets headaches if she stares at a for many hours.

Check 1 Nouns, determiners, articles

1 Choose the correct answer A, B, C or D.

Violet Jessop was a stewardess on the White Star Line for (1) years in the 1900s. In 1911 she was serving on the Olympic when it collided with another ship, HMS Hawke. (2) ships were damaged but fortunately, (3) on either ship lost their lives.

The following year Violet was serving on the Titanic when it struck an iceberg and sank. As we know, (4) the passengers and (5) lost their lives but Violet survived. In 1916, during (6) First World War, Violet was working as a Red Cross nurse aboard HMS Britannic when it also sank after striking a mine. (7) of those on board died. Violet was washed overboard and hit by one of (8) ship's propellers but she managed to save (9) by grabbing on to a life jacket as it floated past her.

Violet had never learned to swim. (10) might say that Violet had (11) luck because she was involved in three disasters at sea. On the other hand, for a non-swimmer with a career on the sea, it could be said she had (12) of luck!

- | | | | |
|------------------|------------------|------------------|----------------|
| 1 A plenty | B many of | C several | D several of |
| 2 A Both | B Each | C Either | D Neither |
| 3 A someone | B anyone | C no one | D everyone |
| 4 A many | B many of | C much | D much of |
| 5 A crew | B crews | C crew's | D a crew |
| 6 A a | B some | C any | D the |
| 7 A A great deal | B A large number | C A little | D Much |
| 8 A a | B some | C any | D the |
| 9 A her | B herself | C it | D – |
| 10 A One | B Oneself | C She | D Herself |
| 11 A few | B a few | C little | D a little |
| 12 A enough | B much | C a large number | D a great deal |

/ 12

2 Complete the sentences. Use a, an, the or zero article (–).

- rich should do more to help poor.
- travel adds interest and variety to life.
- dictionary is important tool in learning language.
- You should leave space between paragraphs.
- horse has been domesticated for thousands of years.
- Excuse me, but is there room for my luggage over there?
- I don't have time now. Could we speak later?

/ 7

3 Correct the sentences.

- 20 A: Is Thailand a Buddhist country?
B: Yes, it is.
.....
- 21 A: What do you think of the president of France?
B: I'm not sure.
.....
- 22 A: I'd love to buy new furniture for my home.
B: Perhaps one day you will.
.....
- 23 A: He felt like a King when he won first prize!
B: I bet he did!
.....
- 24 A: Are the binoculars yours?
B: Yes.
.....
- 25 A: Physics are my worst subject.
B: Really?
.....
- 26 A: Have you ever watched a game of American football?
B: No. Have you?
.....

/ 7

4 Complete the conversations. Use one word in each gap.

- A: Have you got any money for the groceries?
B: I've got £50.
A: That's (27) ! We only need bread and milk.
.....
- A: I didn't understand (28) Johan said. Did you?
B: No, but don't pay (29) attention to him. Sometimes he (30) doesn't know what he means.
.....
- A: Where has (31) gone?
B: Home. They left a couple of hours ago.
.....
- A: Is the job finished yet?
B: Yes, (32) the work has been done.
.....

- A: Is everybody happy with the decision?
B: Not really. (33) of us has a different opinion about what we should do.

/ 7

5 Circle the correct answer.

- 34 A: We have an hour's wait / an hours' wait before the meeting.
B: As long as that?
- 35 A: I'm looking for a book on the history of Turkey / Turkey's history.
B: Try the third shelf down on your left.
- 36 A: I've got three week's holiday / three weeks' holiday this year.
B: I bet you're looking forward to it!
- 37 A: Don't leave your belongings / belonging unattended when you're at the airport.
B: Of course. I'll be careful.
- 38 A: How many of the girl's mothers / the girls' mothers came to the meeting?
B: Most of them, I think.
- 39 A: Are the children old enough to dress / dress themselves?
B: Not quite.
- 40 A: We're spending a week at Helmut and Trudy's / Helmut's and Trudy's.
B: That sounds like fun.

/ 7

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
6, 8, 13, 14, 15, 17	Unit 1	Exercise 1
20, 21, 23, 26	Unit 2	Exercise 2
16, 18, 19, 22	Unit 3	Exercise 3
5, 24, 25, 37	Unit 4	Exercise 4
3, 27, 28, 29, 31	Unit 5	Exercise 5
1, 4, 7, 11, 12	Unit 6	Exercise 6
2, 32, 33	Unit 7	Exercise 7
9, 10, 30, 39	Unit 8	Exercise 8
34, 35, 36, 38, 40	Unit 9	Exercise 9

Now do Check 1

Adjectives and adverbs

10 Position and order of adjectives

- Adjectives can come before a noun (attributive adjectives). They can also come after linking verbs (predicative adjectives): appear, be, become, feel, get, grow, keep, look, seem, smell, sound, stay, taste, turn: She's an intelligent woman. In the summer it gets very hot. The leaves of the trees turned red and brown in autumn.
- Some adjectives can only come before a noun: chief, elder, indoor, inner, live, main, only, outdoor, outer, principle: It was a live concert.
- Some adjectives can only come after a verb:
 - fine, ill, (un)well: 'How is she?' 'She's fine.'
 - afraid, alike, alive, alone, asleep, awake: He was alone and felt frightened.
 - glad, sorry, upset: You seem upset. What's wrong?
- If there is more than one adjective before a noun, this is the most common order:

Opinion	Size	Other qualities	Age	Shape	Colour	Origin	Material	Type
beautiful	large	cold	old	oval	brown	Chinese	wooden	electric

- We don't usually use commas between the adjectives before a noun:
an ugly concrete building a tiny round brass button a difficult new theory blue Italian ceramic tiles expensive electronic equipment
- If there are two adjectives of the same type before the noun, we can join them with and. When there are more than two adjectives, we use commas and and before the last adjective. The order of adjectives is usually not important in these cases: It's a violent and shocking/shocking and violent film. She wants a stable, warm and loving relationship.
- We always use and to join two colour adjectives and after linking verbs: The boy wore a red and blue shirt. It's small and lightweight. I feel cold and tired.

PRACTICE

10a Put the words in the correct order. Use commas where necessary.

0 unwell / is / James / feeling / today
James is feeling unwell today.

1 hair / grey / to turn / Alice's / is beginning

2 that / delicious / beef stew / smells

3 you / I'll meet / main / entrance / outside / the

4 a(n) / have / Eric and Mary / indoor / swimming pool

5 the neighbours' / kept / me / party / awake / all night

6 about / Mark / something / upset / looks

7 they / gave me / round / photograph frame / a / silver-plated / gorgeous

8 carpet / a(n) / Mia / bought / old / beautiful / Chinese

9 a / Samuel / businessman / well-respected / is / and / wealthy

10 wore / silk / and / Julie / a / pink / brown / dress

10b Complete the letter. Use the words in the box. Put them in the correct order and add and where necessary.

amazing / antique / Chinese black / gold / wooden charming / stone / whitewashed clean / linen / white enjoyable / restful summer / fantastic Greek / small outdoor / traditional lovely / warm round / wooden

I must tell you about the (0) fantastic summer holiday we're having. We're staying in a(n) (1) house on a(n) (2) island. It's close to the sea, which at this time of year is (3) - the perfect temperature for swimming.

The food here is very good. For lunch we usually go to a(n) (4) restaurant, sit in the garden at (5) tables with (6) tablecloths and treat ourselves to the local specialities. This evening we're going to a nearby taverna and then on to a live performance of music and dancing.

The local shops are a lot of fun. You know I've been looking for something for my sitting room? The other day I was walking through the flea market and I saw a(n) (7) mirror with a(n) (8) frame. Of course, I bought it immediately - now all I have to worry about is getting it home on the plane!

Speaking of the plane, we fly home in a couple of days. It's been a(n) (9) holiday and I'll be sorry to leave this island.

11 Adjective or adverb?

- Adjectives describe a noun or pronoun: There was a magnificent view from the top of the mountain. The view was magnificent. It was magnificent.
- Adverbs describe verbs. We form many adverbs by adding -ly to an adjective: *bad → badly easy → easily economic → economically
- Some words that end in -ly are adjectives, not adverbs: friendly, lively, lonely, lovely, silly. We can't make adverbs from them so we use an adverbial phrase: in a friendly/lively/silly way: They greeted me in a friendly way.
- Some adjectives and adverbs have the same form: early, fast, free, hard, high, late, straight, wide: Let's catch the early train to London. We arrived at the train station early. There is snow all year round on some high mountains. She threw the ball high into the air.
- Some adjectives form two adverbs with different meanings: free → free/freely hard → hard/hardly high → high/highly late → late/lately wide → wide/widely: You can get advice free from the local library. I can breathe more freely now. He works hard. I hardly know him. I came home late last night. I've been really tired lately.

PRACTICE

11a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 Olivia's looking very healthy / healthily since she came back from her holiday.
- 1 Luke did very good / well in the exam.
- 2 I want you to answer the question truthful / truthfully.
- 3 Entering the war was a political / politically mistake.
- 4 The local team won the match easy / easily.
- 5 Since moving out of the family home, Alex has felt lonely / in a lonely way.
- 6 The teacher conducted the lesson lively / in a lively way.
- 7 I'll finish the report by Friday – it won't be late / lately.
- 8 He gave the door a hard / hardly push but it hard / hardly moved.

11b Complete the sentences. Use adverbs or adverbial phrases.

- 0 Amelia gave a confident presentation. She presented her ideas confidently .
- 1 Gavin gave me a sincere apology. He apologised
- 2 The children are noisy. They're playing
- 3 This building makes economic use of space. It uses space
- 4 Adrian's behaviour was sensible. He behaved
- 5 The match will be shown on national television. It will be shown
- 6 I know I was foolish. I don't know why I behaved so
- 7 My teacher has a friendly smile. She smiles
- 8 Michael is a fast driver. He drives

11C Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the words in the box.

free (x2) hard (x2) high (x2) late (x2) wide

- o A: I can hardly believe it. I've passed my driving test!
B: Why are you surprised? You worked hard and you deserved to pass it.
- 1 A: How much are the tickets?
B: They're five pounds for adults but children can travel
- 2 A: Where have you been? I haven't seen you around
B: Didn't I tell you? We've been on holiday. We stayed at a fabulous hotel in the mountains.
- 3 A: Let's go outside so that we can talk
B: Why? Are you afraid of being overheard?
- 4 A: Do be careful. That solvent is flammable so you must keep it away from open flames.
B: Don't worry. I'll put it outside in the garden shed.
- 5 A: Open your mouth, please. The tooth that's bothering you is right at the back.
B: I know. Will this take long? I don't want to be getting back to work.

11d Complete the article. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

THE LEAST SUCCESSFUL TOURIST

In 1977 Mr Nicholas Scotti of San Francisco flew to Italy to visit some cousins. The plane stopped (0) briefly (brief) in New York and Mr Scotti (1) (mistaken) believed he had arrived at Rome Airport. He got out of the plane but of course, his cousins were not there to greet him. Mr Scotti (2) (eventual) decided to try to find his own way to their address. On the journey he noticed that English was spoken (3) (wide). 'You can't escape from Americans,' thought Mr Scotti, a little (4) (sad). 'They're everywhere.'

Mr Scotti did not speak much English himself so he (5) (polite) asked a policeman, in Italian, the way to the bus station. (6) (lucky), the policeman was from Naples and replied in the same language. After travelling around on buses for twelve hours, Mr Scotti was taken by a kind bus driver to a second policeman, who spoke to Mr Scotti in English. The policeman tried (7) (hard) to explain but Mr Scotti (8) (stubborn) refused to believe he was in New York. In the end, they took him to the airport in a police car. They didn't have much time so they had to drive very (9) (fast). 'You see,' said Mr Scotti (10) (confident), 'I know that I'm in Italy. This is the way that Italians drive.'

12 Position and order of adverbs

Adverbs and adverbial phrases can come in different positions in a sentence: at the beginning, in the middle or at the end. The position depends partly on the kind of adverb/adverbial phrase and what we want to emphasise in the sentence.

Adverbs of frequency

- Adverbs of frequency (e.g. always, often, rarely) usually come before the main verb but after an auxiliary verb or the verb be: We sometimes meet for lunch. I have always wanted to go there. I am usually in bed before midnight.
- Some adverbs of frequency (e.g. often, sometimes, occasionally) can also come at the beginning or end of the sentence. The position at the beginning gives the adverb greater emphasis: She helps me sometimes. Sometimes she helps me.
- Adverbial phrases of frequency can come at the beginning or end of a sentence, not in the middle: I go shopping on Fridays. On Fridays I go shopping.

Adverbs of manner, place and time

- If there is more than one kind of adverb in a sentence, the order is usually manner, place, time: I lived happily in Singapore for many years.
- The most neutral position for adverbs/adverbial phrases of manner is at the end of a sentence: They did their work quietly. They did it without a fuss.
- For greater emphasis, they can come at the beginning of the sentence: Slowly, he opened the door.
- Adverbs of manner ending in -ly can also come between the subject and the main verb for greater emphasis: He stupidly went out without locking the door.
- The most neutral position for adverbs/adverbial phrases of place and time is at the end of a sentence: I bought these shoes in a market. I saw Gina yesterday.
- For greater emphasis, they can come at the beginning of the sentence: In Athens, we stayed in the city centre. In Crete, we stayed at a hotel near the beach.
- Some indefinite adverbs of time can come between the subject and main verb: I recently changed my job. (Not ~~I last month changed my job.~~) 12a Re-write the sentences. Put the words in brackets in the most neutral position.

PRACTICE

- 0 Bianca is the last person to leave work. (always, in the evening)
Bianca is always the last person to leave work in the evening.
.....
- 1 Ross ran. (quickly, to the bus stop)
.....
- 2 I worked in order to get good exam results. (for months, hard)
.....
- 3 The children played. (happily, outside, today)
.....
- 4 I thought you explained your ideas. (in the meeting, last week, very well)
.....
- 5 She slept. (all afternoon, in the chair, soundly)
.....

12b Re-write the sentences. Put the words in brackets in the correct position.

- o We all know that if we eat and exercise, we will maintain an ideal weight. (healthily, regularly)
We all know that if we eat healthily and exercise regularly, we will maintain an ideal weight.
- 1 As we become busier, many of us don't have the time to eat or exercise as often as we should. (at home and at work, sensibly)
- 2 Many fashionable diets promise you will see results without working to achieve them. (quickly, hard)
- 3 However, these diets involve cutting out certain types of food. (often, completely)
- 4 Many diet pills which advertisers claim have been tested are either dangerous or ineffective. (scientifically)
- 5 In fact, the only way to lose weight is to eat less and exercise more. (safely and permanently)

12c Complete the extract from a story. Use the words in the box.

across the fields always badly completely directly for some days often (x2) recently slowly suddenly

After the lonely wet nights he had spent (0) recently, Inman felt half-dead. He stopped, put his boot on the roadside fence and looked out (1) . The wound in his neck felt raw and hurt (2) . He put his finger underneath the bandage and was surprised to find that the wound had healed over almost (3) . He calculated that he had been walking (4) . His wound forced him to walk (5) and rest more (6) than he wished. He felt very tired and also rather lost, still trying to find a route that went (7) to his home in the Appalachian mountains. And the weather had been bad, with rain that came (8) , with thunder and lightning, day and night. Each farm he passed had two or three dogs and he was (9) forced to fight off their attacks. The constant danger from dogs and the Home Guards meant that he was (10) nervous travelling through the dark nights.

13 Comparison of adjectives, adverbs and nouns

- To form the comparative and superlative of most short adjectives, we add -er (than) and the + -est. To form the comparative and superlative of longer adjectives, we add more (than) and the most: Janet's brighter than her sister but her sister is more attractive. The Eiffel Tower used to be the tallest building in the world.
- To form the comparative and superlative of adverbs ending in -ly, we add more (than) and the most. To form the comparative and superlative of adverbs that have the same form as the adjective, we add -er (than) and the + -est: He drives more carefully than she does. I think Ashley works the hardest of all.
- We can also use less (than) and the least with adjectives and adverbs: Emily is less bright than her sister. They work the least efficiently.
- Some adjectives and adverbs have irregular comparative and superlative forms:
good/well → better → the best bad/badly → worse → the worst far → farther/further → the farthest/furthest
- We can use superlatives in these patterns:
 - one of the + superlative: Anne is the best teacher I've ever had. She's also one of the most experienced teachers in the school.
 - the second/third + superlative: Coffee is the second most popular drink in the world.
- We can also compare numbers and quantities. We can use:
 - many/much → more → (the) most (with countable and uncountable nouns):
There were more people at the performance on Tuesday than on Monday but most people came on Friday.
 - little → less → the least (with uncountable nouns): We have less time.
 - few → fewer → the fewest (with countable nouns): I made fewer mistakes.

▶▶ See Appendix 2: Spelling rules, page 200.

PRACTICE

13a Complete the conversation. Use the comparative or superlative form of the words in brackets.

A: How are you enjoying the new house?

B: It's nice. It's (0) more spacious (spacious) than our old house and one of the (1) (good) things is having our own garden.

A: So it's much (2) (good) here than in London, then?

B: Well, I'm not sure. (3) (bad) thing about London was the pollution – and it's certainly (4) (polluted) here in the country. And I suppose it's (5) (stressful). I sleep (6) (soundly) here without all the noise. But I miss the cultural diversity of London. Shopping there was much (7) (interesting) than it is here. And the people here are (8) (varied) than they are in London. On the other hand, it's (9) (safe) here – London has the second (10) (high) crime rate in the UK!

A: Well, I know this is (11) (far) from London you've ever lived but it's one of the (12) (beautiful) places I've ever seen.

13b Complete the conversation. Use the comparative or superlative of much/many, little or few.

- 0 A: Why are you late?
B: Sorry. There was*more*..... traffic than usual this morning.
- 1 A: Doctors recommend eating salt.
B: I know. Salt's bad for you.
- 2 A: All these products are friendly to the environment but this one causes damage.
B: Can you prove that?
- 3 A: I wish there were hope that we will succeed.
B: Don't give up!
- 4 A: He has hobbies than his wife.
B: That's because he's always working.
- 5 A: A lot of people have read the book, you know.
B: Yes, that's true – but even have seen the film.
- 6 A: We have information about her life after she became successful than about her earlier life.
B: And I suppose we have information about her childhood.
A: That's right. We know almost nothing about it.
- 7 A: Who got marks in the test? Anke, Serena or Malcolm?
B: Anke, of course. She made mistakes. In fact, she only made one.
- 8 A: I'm so tired! I wish I had free time and work.
B: Well, can't you go away for a few days and relax?

13c Complete the memo. Use the comparative or superlative form of the words in brackets.

MEMO

The company's annual report shows that unfortunately, our sales figures were (0)lower..... (low) than those for the previous year. This is no surprise but what is (1) (alarming) is that a number of our (2) (old) clients have switched to another supplier. We are aware that there are (3) (expensive) suppliers than ourselves but cost may not be (4) (important) factor in our clients' decision to switch suppliers. One former client, for example, has said that their new supplier is not only (5) (efficient) but also offers a (6) (good) all-round service. Reports like these are (7) (worrying) than anything else. If we cannot compete (8) (effectively), then we will not survive. We have to make every effort to convince our clients that we can still give them (9) (good) value for their money than anyone else.

14 Comparative structures

- We use (just) as + adjective/adverb + as to compare two equal things and not as + adjective/adverb + as to mean 'less ... than': My house is as big as yours.
- To express a big difference between two things, we can use:
 - not nearly as + adjective/adverb + as: The exam wasn't nearly as easy as I thought it would be.
 - far/a lot/much + comparative (+ than): She's far happier than she used to be.
 - by far/easily + superlative: He's by far the most charming man I've ever met.
- To express a small difference, we can use a (little) bit/slightly + comparative (+ than): The coach is slightly cheaper than the train.
- To compare quantities, we can use (not nearly) + as much/many + noun + as OR far/a lot/much + more + noun (+ than): There wasn't nearly as much information on the Internet as I had hoped. She made a lot more mistakes than me.
- We can also use other expressions to compare things: Her car is (exactly) the same as his. I'm almost as tall as you are. This painting looks (very) similar to the one over there. Bobby's personality is (very) different from his sister's.
- We use comparative + and + comparative to show that something is increasing or decreasing: The city is growing bigger and bigger.
- To say that one situation depends on another, we can use the + comparative + the + comparative: The harder I try, the better I do.*
- Many expressions use the structure the + comparative + the + comparative: 'Can I bring a friend with me to the party?' 'Of course! The more, the merrier.'

PRACTICE

14a Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

- 0 He's driving much more quickly than he should. (much / quickly)
- 1 Football is sport in Europe today. (by far / popular)
- 2 My car is yours but I think it's a car. (not / expensive, good)
- 3 I don't have you but I'm (nearly / much / money, far / happy)
- 4 Ted got Valerie did. (same / mark)
- 5 Audrey's personality is her brother's. (very similar)
- 6 The house looks the way it looked before it was painted. (completely / different)
- 7 He cared and about the band and eventually he decided to leave. (little, little)
- 8 I become, mistakes I seem to make. (old, many)

WEATHER ON OTHER PLANETS

If you think the weather on Earth is weird, the weather on other planets is (0) far stranger (far / strange). Even though the sun shines (1) (much / weakly) on Mars than it does on Earth, Mars gets (2) (far / many) ultraviolet tanning rays. At the same time, the temperature on Mars is usually (3) (much / cold) than the temperature at our North Pole. That's warm, though, compared to Neptune's (4) (large) moon Triton, which scientists believe is (5) (cold) place in our solar system. Are you looking for somewhere (6) (a little / warm) than Mars? Then try Venus, where the sun is so hot that a picnic lunch would vapourise (7) (almost / quickly) you unpacked it. We might complain about the weather on Earth but it's (8) (by far / good) place to live in our solar system!

15 so ... that, such ... that, too, enough, very

so ... that, such ... that

- We can use so + adjective/adverb and such (+ a/an) + adjective + noun for emphasis: You've been so kind! I've had such a busy day! They're such nice people. It was such terrible weather!
- We can use so + adjective/adverb + that and such (+ a/an) + adjective + noun + that to describe cause and effect: The box was so heavy that we couldn't lift it. It was such a dull day that we stayed indoors. They were such beautiful songs that I went out and bought the CD. It was such hard work that they felt exhausted.
- We use so + much/many/little/few + noun + that to emphasise quantities or numbers: There were so many people in the street that we couldn't move.

too, enough, very

- Too has a negative meaning: 'more than you need'. Enough has a positive meaning: 'as much as you need'. We use them in these patterns:
 - too + adjective/adverb (+ for someone) (+ to-infinitive): It's too expensive; I can't buy it. It's too expensive for me. The coffee is too hot to drink. Hurry up! You're walking too slowly for us to catch the train.
 - enough + noun: We have enough money – we can buy it.
 - (not +) adjective/adverb + enough (+ for someone) (+ to-infinitive): The weather isn't warm enough for us to go swimming.
- We can use very to emphasise a positive or a negative quality. Compare: It's very kind of you to help. The traffic is moving very/too slowly.

PRACTICE

15a Complete the conversations. Use so, such or such a.

- o A: It's^{so}..... hot! Shall we go to the beach?
B: No, there'll be^{so}..... many people there today that it'll be awful.
- 1 A: Daniel has lovely voice!
B: I agree. I didn't realise he could sing well.
- 2 A: Why are you late?
B: It was good film that we stayed and saw it a second time.
- 3 A: These shoes were poor quality that they're coming apart!
B: So they weren't good bargain after all!
- 4 A: I feel ill that I can't go to work.
B: You've had much time off that your boss will get annoyed.
- 5 A: We've had awful weather that we're coming home early.
B: That's a shame.

15b Re-write the sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- o He's not well enough to travel (so)
He's so ill that he can't travel.
.....
- 1 It was too cold for us to go swimming. (enough)
.....
- 2 The old lady was so weak that she couldn't stand up. (too)
.....
- 3 They're going so slowly that they'll never get there on time. (enough)
.....
- 4 The music is too loud for me to hear you. (so)
.....
- 5 The children are too young to travel long distances. (enough)
.....

15c Complete the conversation. Use one word in each gap.

- Doctor: What seems to be the problem?
Patient: I'm (o)^{so}..... tired in the mornings that I can't get out of bed and in general, I haven't been feeling (1) well.
Doctor: I see. Do you get (2) exercise?
Patient: Not really. I've joined a fitness centre but I'm having (3) a busy time at work (4) I don't have time to go there.
Doctor: And how's your diet?
Patient: I'm (5) eating (6) fruits and vegetables – I don't really like them. And I eat (7) much fast food.
Doctor: Yes, well, many of my patients come to see me because they're (8) busy (9) take care of themselves properly.
Patient: There's one more thing, doctor. Lately, I've been getting (10) terrible headaches (11) I have to lie down. I'm starting to feel (12) worried about them.
Doctor: We can look into that. I'll book you in for some tests next week.

16 Adverbs of degree: very, absolutely, etc.

- Gradable adjectives and adverbs refer to qualities that we can grade or compare; they usually have a comparative and superlative form.
- We can use adverbs of degree to make gradable adjectives and adverbs stronger or weaker: He's a fairly good painter but he needs to improve his technique. They work together extremely efficiently.
- We can use very with all gradable adjectives and adverbs. We can use extremely and really with many of them: very intelligent/badly extremely hot/old-fashioned really happy/colourful
- Ungradable adjectives and adverbs refer to extreme qualities that we don't grade or compare; they don't usually have a comparative and superlative form. Compare these pairs of gradable and ungradable adjectives and adverbs: angry – furious badly – appallingly big – gigantic well – brilliantly hot – boiling important – essential tired – exhausted
- We can use absolutely and really to emphasise many ungradable adjectives and adverbs but we cannot make them weaker: absolutely brilliantly really awful
- Some adverbs of degree tend to collocate with certain adjectives:
 - utterly impossible/miserable/ridiculous/useless
 - highly amusing/improbable/skilled/successful
 - totally different/exhausted/satisfied/unnecessary
 - completely accurate/relaxed/free/satisfied/useless
 - entirely clear/happy/satisfactory/sure
- The adverbs quite and rather can have different meanings, depending on how they are used:
 - quite (= fairly) + gradable adjective/adverb: It's quite good.
 - quite (= absolutely) + ungradable adjective/adverb: The team played quite brilliantly.
 - rather (= fairly) + negative gradable adjective/adverb: She's rather angry.
 - rather + comparative adjective/adverb: Their last CD was rather better than this one.
 - rather (= to a greater degree than expected) + positive gradable adjective/adverb: That programme was rather interesting.
- With a noun, we can use the following patterns: It was quite a pleasant surprise. It was rather a pleasant surprise. It was a rather pleasant surprise.

PRACTICE

16a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 Your prediction was accurate. In fact, you were (absolutely) / extremely right.
- 1 Carlos is an extremely / absolutely hard worker. He also works absolutely / very quickly.
- 2 It's absolutely / really cold outside. Shall we stay in?
- 3 Is it very / absolutely important that I go out tonight? I'm absolutely / really tired.

- 4 She was really / fairly furious with him for leaving the baby alone.
- 5 If you follow the instructions, it's absolutely / fairly simple to assemble the bookcase.
- 6 Are you absolutely / extremely certain that the information is accurate?
- 7 Hygiene is absolutely / extremely important in places like hospitals.
- 8 He was absolutely / very devastated by the accident. Luckily, all of his friends responded absolutely / very sympathetically.
- 9 Budapest is a beautiful city with some really / very magnificent buildings.
- 10 You should go and see the exhibition at the museum. It's absolutely / very interesting.

16b Circle the correct answers. There may be more than one correct answer.

- 0 The meal is absolutely / fairly / really delicious.
- 1 The film we saw was quite / totally / highly amusing.
- 2 You've made fairly / quite / very a big mess.
- 3 I always have a(n) absolutely / really / very wonderful time when I go there.
- 4 He looked entirely / very / utterly ridiculous in those clothes.
- 5 They weren't entirely / rather / utterly happy with the results.
- 6 If you aren't highly / completely / rather satisfied with your purchase, we'll give you your money back.
- 7 They make a(n) absolutely / extremely / very attractive couple, don't you think?
- 8 She's a(n) entirely / extremely / highly successful surgeon.
- 9 Donna hates her new school. In fact, she is utterly / highly / absolutely miserable there.
- 10 There's a lot of traffic on the roads and I think it's very / entirely / highly improbable that they'll arrive on time.

16c Complete the conversations. Use quite or rather. Sometimes both are possible.

- 0 A: We're quite amazed at how quickly he's recovered from the illness.
B: I know. It's rather surprising but such a relief!
- 1 A: You look exhausted. How do you feel?
B: I've just had a rest but I'm still tired.
- 2 A: I think Sue behaved appallingly this evening. Don't you?
B: Well, you're over-reacting a little but she did behave badly.
- 3 A: The lead singer performed splendidly this evening.
B: She did perform well given that her reviews haven't been very positive.
- 4 A: Sula understands English well but she finds it difficult to speak.
B: True, but she did better than I expected on her last test.
- 5 A: I think Hong Kong is an amazing city.
B: Yes, and it's fascinating too.

17 Sentence adverbs: certainly, clearly, etc.

- Sentence adverbs modify the whole sentence or clause. Some adverbs express how certain the speaker is: certainly, definitely, probably, possibly. In affirmative sentences, these adverbs usually come after the verb be or after the auxiliary. In negative sentences, they come before the auxiliary: I'll probably be late for dinner tonight. I certainly won't be early.
- Some adverbs often come at the beginning of the sentence and may be followed by a comma: clearly, honestly, hopefully, luckily, naturally, obviously, personally, surely: Clearly, the situation is serious. Surely we should be doing more about environmental issues.
- These adverbs can also come before the verb, after the verb be or after the auxiliary: Figures clearly show a drop in sales. The situation is obviously serious.
- Some sentence adverbs help to organise a text or conversation. Anyway shows that the speaker is about to end a conversation, go back to an important topic or change to a new topic. By the way introduces a new idea or topic: Anyway, as I said, he is arriving tomorrow. By the way, have you seen my keys?

PRACTICE

17a Re-write the sentences. Put the adverbs in brackets in the correct position.

- o I'm not sure where she is but she's still at work. (probably)
I'm not sure where she is but she's probably still at work......
- 1 The disease was caused by lead poisoning. (possibly)
.....
- 2 I didn't expect this to happen. (certainly)
.....
- 3 She knew the money was stolen. (surely)
.....
- 4 He's very attracted to you. (obviously)
.....
- 5 There are no easy answers to the problem. (clearly)
.....

17b Circle the correct answer.

- A: You look like you've been enjoying yourself. Where have you been?
B: To see the new Bond film. It's (o) naturally / (probably) the best one yet.
A: I'm surprised. The reviews (1) certainly / surely haven't been very good.
B: (2) Obviously / Personally, I enjoyed it. You can't always trust the critics.
A: I suppose not. (3) Anyway / By the way, you've convinced me. I'm
(4) definitely / surely going to see the film now.
B: (5) Anyway / By the way, I heard that you'd had an accident but that
(6) luckily / surely, it wasn't anything serious. Is that right?
A: I'm afraid so. (7) Fortunately / Hopefully, I was wearing my seatbelt.
(8) Naturally / Personally, I was shaken up but I'm fine now.

Check 2 Adjectives and adverbs

1 Tick the correct sentence in each pair.

- 1a He was upset.
- 1b He had an upset feeling.
- 2a The sisters are alike.
- 2b They are alike sisters.
- 3a They are afraid children.
- 3b The children are afraid.
- 4a I wear often jeans to work.
- 4b I often wear jeans to work.
- 5a I submitted the report on Tuesday.
- 5b I submitted on Tuesday the report.

/ 5

2 Put the words in the correct order.

- 6 live / large / in / stone / a / my family and I / farmhouse
.....
.....
- 7 gets / my country / rarely / in / it / this hot
.....
.....
- 8 wanted / to go / always / to Paris / have / I
.....
.....
- 9 new / our / blue / is / and / sofa / green
.....
.....
- 10 she / camera / bought / digital / expensive / a(n) / new
.....
.....

/ 5

3 Circle the correct answer.

- 11 A: What's the matter? You look absolutely angry / furious.
B: I am. I've just had a fight with Dave.
- 12 A: What time are you coming home this evening?
B: Well, hopefully / certainly, I'll be home by seven – unless the traffic is bad.

- 13 A: Whose gloves are these?
B: They're certainly / presumably not mine. They're too small.
- 14 A: Are you going to get a visa?
B: I don't need one. If you're a member of the EU, you can travel free / freely between member states.
- 15 A: The bill for the job seems high. Is it correct?
B: Yes. We did the work as economic / economically as we could.

/ 5

4 Complete the conversations. Use one word in each gap.

- A: My favourite meal is steak and fried potatoes.
B: I like it too but we really should eat (16) red meat than we do and (17) fresh vegetables. In fact, neither of us eats enough fresh vegetables!
.....
- A: How was your tennis game?
B: I played a (18) better today than yesterday but I didn't play (19) as well as I wanted to.
.....
- A: I like my new English teacher.
B: Why's that?
A: She teaches in such a lively (20) that lessons are never boring.

/ 5

5 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 21 When you study a lot, you get better marks. more
The marks you get.
- 22 Your coat and mine look almost the same. similar
Your coat mine.
- 23 This sentence is so complicated that I can't understand it. too
This sentence to understand.

- 24 Your room is bigger than mine. big
My room yours.
- 25 Hilary is a more imaginative writer than anyone else in the class. the Hilary in the class.
- 26 I didn't have time to think because things happened very quickly. so
Everything happened
..... I didn't have time to think.
- 27 It's too cold to go swimming. warm
It to go swimming.
- 28 Radu got more right answers than anyone else. mistakes
Radu made anyone else.

/ 8

6 Choose the correct answer A, B, C or D.

New Message

It was (29) to hear your news. We're having a (30) wonderful time here in the Maldives! The weather's better (31) we expected. In fact, it's such warm weather (32) the locals are worried. Global warming is (33) a serious topic here – these beautiful islands may soon disappear because of rising sea levels! (34) , that would be a tragedy – the Maldives are as close to being a paradise (35) you could imagine!

(36) , on a happier note, there's a lot to do here. We've been snorkelling nearly every day. This is also a great place for whale and dolphin watching – there are over twenty different species in the waters here. Spinner dolphins are the (37) species and it's (38) easy to see them at certain times of day.

(39) , I'm going to have to stay in the shade for a couple of days. I spent (40) more time in the sun yesterday than I should have and I got sunburnt.

- 29 A good B well
C better D best
- 30 A highly B very
C really D completely
- 31 A as B than
C that D from
- 32 A than B that
C so D to
- 33 A absolutely B highly
C very D quite
- 34 A Definitely B Obviously
C Possibly D Luckily
- 35 A as B than
C that D what
- 36 A Anyway B By the way
C Fortunately D Clearly
- 37 A common B commonly
C more common D commonest
- 38 A absolutely B too
C highly D very
- 39 A Naturally B Obviously
C Unfortunately D Certainly
- 40 A as B nearly
C far D very

/ 12

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 10	Unit 10	Exercise 10
14, 15, 20, 29	Unit 11	Exercise 11
4, 5, 7, 8	Unit 12	Exercise 12
16, 17, 25, 28, 31, 37	Unit 13	Exercise 13
18, 19, 21, 22, 24, 35, 40	Unit 14	Exercise 14
23, 26, 27, 32, 38	Unit 15	Exercise 15
11, 30, 33	Unit 16	Exercise 16
12, 13, 34, 36, 39	Unit 17	Exercise 17

Now do Check 2

Present tenses

18 Present simple or continuous?

Present simple

- We use the present simple to talk about permanent situations: I live in London but I come from Canada.
- We also use the present simple:
 - for habitual actions or routines, or events or actions that happen regularly, often with a time expression or an adverb of frequency: We see each other every day. She always catches the 8.00 train. It snows here in the winter.
 - for a general truth or statement of fact: Water boils at 100 degrees Centigrade. Cats don't like water.
 - in instructions and directions: To get to my house, you take the first turning on the left.
 - in film reviews and plot summaries: Bullock gives a plausible performance in the lead role. The thrills are non-stop as the bus speeds out of control.
 - in sports commentaries to describe what is happening as the commentator speaks: *Beckham passes the ball to Cole – and he scores!
- These adverbs of frequency and time expressions are often used with the present simple:
 - never, hardly ever, rarely, seldom, occasionally, sometimes, frequently, often, usually, always: I sometimes work late.
 - every day/week, in the morning/evenings, on Mondays/Tuesday, once a week/year: I get up early in the morning.

Present continuous

- We use the present continuous for activities and situations that are temporary: I'm only staying here for a short time.
- We also use the present continuous for:
 - actions in progress at the moment of speaking: 'What are you doing?' 'I'm taking a break.'
 - situations that are changing: Traffic is getting worse every year.
 - annoying habits, with always: You're always forgetting your keys!
- These time expressions are often used with the present continuous:
 - always, still, currently (usually after the auxiliary verb): I'm still working for the same company.
 - at present, at the moment, (right) now: Janice is living in Madrid at present.

- ▶▶ For adverbs of frequency, see Unit 12.
- ▶▶ See Appendix 2: Spelling rules, page 200.

PRACTICE

18a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 I usually drive / 'm usually driving to work but this week I take / 'm taking the bus because my car is at the garage.
- 1 Make sure you lock / 're locking the doors and windows before you leave the house.
- 2 She plays / 's playing tennis once or twice a week but she doesn't play / isn't playing this week because she's hurt her wrist.
- 3 A: Where does Evan come / is Evan coming from?
B: I'm not sure, but his parents live / are living in New Zealand.
- 4 The film begins / is beginning with a death and ends / is ending with a dramatic car chase through the streets of New York.
- 5 And the Ferrari takes / is taking the last corner at high speed, races / is racing towards the finish line and crosses / is crossing it! What a race!
- 6 A: What do you do / are you doing?
B: I wait / 'm waiting for the bus. It runs / 's running late.
- 7 You always leave / 're always leaving the lights on! It doesn't matter how many times I remind / 'm reminding you.
- 8 There is so much fast food available that people forget / are forgetting how to cook.
- 9 If you don't watch / aren't watching the television, would you turn it off?
- 10 According to recent research, too little sleep causes / is causing young people to gain weight.

18b Complete the information from a website. Use the present simple or continuous of the verbs in the box.

gain go on learn offer organise perform remain study take

This year the International School for Languages has about 100 part-time students who (0) are taking evening classes and a further 300 who (1) full-time. Many of them (2) a new language to improve their job prospects or to prepare for university. The European languages (3) very popular but Chinese and Japanese (4) in popularity.

The school (5) an excellent range of learning facilities and (6) social activities like excursions to local areas of interest.

Every year our students (7) extremely well in their examinations and many (8) to study at top universities in the country.

18c Complete the fact sheet. Use the present simple or continuous of the verbs in brackets.

GEOGRAPHY

The landscape (0) rises
(rise) from the lowlands in the east to the Himalayas in the west. High plateaux and mountains (1)
(occupy) one third of the area. The coastline on the Yellow Sea is flat at the mouths of China's two major rivers, the Yangtze and the Huanghe. Unfortunately, rapid industrialisation (2) (destroy) much of the plant and animal life in the country.

ECONOMY

Most people (3) (live) in rural regions. Rice production (4) (provide) enough food for the local population and surpluses are exported. However, the economy (5) (develop) rapidly and as a result, China (6) (open up) to world markets. China (7) (export) many inexpensive processed goods, including machinery and textiles, and income from foreign trade and tourism (8) (increase).

19 State verbs

- Action, or 'dynamic', verbs describe activities, e.g. run, drive, listen, watch. They can be used in the simple or continuous form.
- State verbs describe a state, not an activity. They cannot normally be used in the continuous form. They include:
 - mental/thinking verbs: agree, believe, disagree, doubt, expect, forget*, know, realise, remember*, suppose, think*, understand*
 - attitude verbs: dislike, hate, like, love, need, prefer, want
 - sense/perception verbs: hear, see, smell*, taste
 - appearance, qualities: appear, look* (= seem), resemble, seem, sound*
 - being, possession: be, belong to, consist of, contain, have*, include, own, possess*
 - other verbs: come, cost, depend*, fit, matter, mean, owe, weigh
- The verbs marked with an asterisk (*) can be used in the continuous form, but with a change of meaning: I think you're right. (= This is my opinion.) I'm thinking of buying a new car. (= I'm considering it.) He's nice. (= It's one of his character traits.) He's being nice. (= He's behaving in a nice way at the moment.)
- With verbs like feel and look (= seem), we can use either the simple or the continuous form with no change in meaning: I feel/I'm feeling ill.

PRACTICE

19a Complete the sentences. Use the present simple or continuous of the verbs in the box.

appear (x2) be ~~belong to~~ come have (x2) taste weigh

- 0 Who does that beautiful house on the hill belong to
- 1 That soup delicious! What have you put in it?
- 2 My sister doesn't resemble me. For a start, she blond hair.
- 3 It that she's changed her mind about taking the job.
- 4 I can't believe you so unreasonable! What's wrong?
- 5 We lunch. Can I phone you back in half an hour?
- 6 Now all new cars with one year's free insurance.
- 7 Alex is working. He on stage in a play by Agatha Christie.
- 8 How much an adult African elephant

19b Complete the article. Use the present simple or continuous of the verbs in brackets.

Singer and songwriter James Sharp (0) has (have) a new hobby – golf. He (1) (have) lessons every day and spends so much time on the course that his girlfriend, actress and model Sophie Clarke, (2) (think) of taking up the sport as well so she can spend more time with him!

What (3) he (think) of the rumours that he and Sophie are planning to get married? 'Every day I (4) (see) things written about me that aren't true. One day they say we're getting married and the next that I (5) (see) another woman. I just try to ignore all of it.'

James's new album came out last month and so far the critics have been positive. The album (6) (include) a mixture of familiar and new musical styles and (7) (contain) remixes of some old favourites. James is pleased with the reviews but it's his fans that (8) (matter) most to him. However, if they (9) (hope) for something that (10) (sound) like his last album, they may be disappointed.

So is James worried? Not at all. 'I need to grow as an artist and that (11) (mean) taking risks. I hope that never changes.'

Somehow, we (12) (not think) his fans will be disappointed.

20 Present perfect: ever, never, etc.

- We use the present perfect for states or for single or repeated actions that happened at an unspecified time in the past. The exact time is not important: Diana's been ill quite often recently. I've seen the film but I haven't read the book.
- We often use expressions of frequency with the present perfect: often, once/twice/several times, the first/second time, ever, never: They've visited Spain several times. This is the first time I've met his parents. Have you ever ridden a camel? It's the best meal we've ever eaten. She's never been to Belgium.
- We use the past simple for finished events or actions that happened at a definite time in the past. We usually say when they happened, using expressions like yesterday, last week/month/year, (two days) ago: I rang her last week from Tokyo. Compare:
I've been to Spain but I've never been to Portugal. I went to Spain last year. 'Have you ever eaten octopus?' 'Yes, I ate it when I was on holiday last year.'

Note the difference between have been and have gone:

Richard's been to Spain. (= He went to Spain but he's back home now.)

Richard's gone to Spain. (= He's in Spain now.)

See Appendix 2: Spelling rules, page 200.

PRACTICE

20a Circle the correct answer.

- 1 We spoke / 've spoken to them yesterday.
- 2 Katie had / 's had several jobs abroad and now she went / 's gone to Turkey to work for a large multinational.
- 3 There were / have been several major earthquakes in Japan recently. In fact, there was / has been a serious one about a week ago.
- 4 I'm afraid he isn't here. He left / 's left an hour ago.
- 5 Did you see / Have you seen any good films recently?
- 6 I visited / 've visited their offices a few days ago but not their factory.
- 7 They never ate / 've never eaten such spicy food before but they're enjoying it!
- 8 I tried / 've tried to contact her several times but the last time I talked / 've talked to her, she put / 's put the phone down on me.
- 9 That's the silliest article I ever read / 've ever read!
- 10 A: Did you ever work / Have you ever worked in an office?
B: Yes, I worked / 've worked in one last year but I didn't like / haven't liked it.
- 11 They say it's the first time he ever lost / 's ever lost a game.
- 12 I always dreamed / 've always dreamed of becoming a doctor and I hope to study medicine.
- 13 She only went / 's only been to Manchester once before and she doesn't remember it well.

20b Complete the e-mail. Use the present perfect or past simple of the verbs in the box.

always / want encourage ever / have find happen have invite meet (x2) see start (x2)

New Message

Dear Anna,

It seems like ages ago since I last (0) saw you! So much (1) recently that I don't know where to begin. First of all, I (2) someone special. His name is Steve and we're planning to get married. We (3) a little over a year ago at Gill's wedding.

Secondly, I (4) a new job as an editorial assistant for a local newspaper. I wasn't going to apply but Steve (5) me and much to my surprise, they (6) me for an interview! I (7) working there six months ago.

What else? We're busy planning the wedding but we still (8) time to take a holiday in Turkey last month. I (9) to go there and we (10) a great time.

Anyway, you'll be hearing from me again soon. I hope you're well – I really think this is the best year I (11) !

Love, Suzanne

20c Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 0 This is the saddest film I have ever seen. never
 I have never seen such a sad film.
- 1 She has never done anything like that before. ever
 It's the first time she anything like that.
- 2 This is Sean's first time in a helicopter. flown
 Sean in a helicopter before.
- 3 Andy and Rachel are still on holiday in Italy. gone
 Andy and Rachel to Italy on holiday.
- 4 I have been to Russia once before. second
 This I have been to Russia.
- 5 We still remember the times we spent together. forgotten
 We the times we spent together.
- 6 I went to the exhibition at the National Gallery last week. been
 I the exhibition at the National Gallery.
- 7 You have never told anyone the story before, have you? ever
 Is this the first time anyone the story?

21 Present perfect: just, already, yet, etc.

- We use the present perfect for recently completed single actions, when the result of the action is important in the present: I've broken my leg. (Result: I can't walk.)
- We often use just, already (= sooner than expected) and yet (= up to now) for emphasis. Notice the word order: The taxi has just arrived. She's already told them what happened. They've finished their work already. Have you already eaten? Have they finished yet? He hasn't seen the film yet.
- We can also use recently (= a short time ago): Have you spoken to them recently?
- We use the past simple for a completed past action which does not affect the present. Compare: Have you had a good holiday? (You've just returned from your holiday.) Did you have a good holiday? (You returned from your holiday some time before this question.)

In American English, people often use the past simple instead of the present perfect:

British English	American English
They've just arrived.	They just arrived.
I've already eaten.	I already ate.
Have they come yet?	Did they come yet?

PRACTICE

21a Complete the sentences. Use the present perfect or past simple of the verbs in brackets.

- A: Have you spoken to Jim recently?
B: I spoke to him last week. (you / speak, speak)
- I Claire. We at the end of term party. (already / meet, meet)
- Harriet me anything yet but her sister me yesterday that Harriet's expecting a baby. (not tell, tell)
- Look! I all my exams! I'm so relieved because I them all last year. (pass, not pass)
- My parents They in a taxi about five minutes ago. (just / arrive, arrive)
- A: your wallet yet?
B: Yes, I it under the sofa this morning. (you / find, find)
- Someone the window – there's glass everywhere. They it last night. (break, break)
- Nathan his hand so he can't write. He it last week playing tennis. (hurt, hurt)
- If you're looking for Carol, I her. I her a few minutes ago in the canteen. (just / see, see) 21b Complete the conversations. Use the words in brackets and just, already, yet or recently.

- o A: Would you like something to eat?
B: No, thanks. I've just had lunch. (I / have / lunch)
- 1 A: Is Tony here?
B: I'm sorry. (you / miss / him)
- 2 A: (you / taste / the chocolates?)
B: Yes, and they're delicious.
- 3 A: Why are we hurrying?
B: We're late. (the film / start)
- 4 A: Why is all this laundry still here?
B: (they / not repair / the washing machine)
- 5 A: (you / finish / your homework?)
B: No, but it won't take me much longer!
- 6 A: Congratulations! (I / hear / the news)
B: Thanks. We're delighted.
- 7 A: Would you like a coffee?
B: No, thanks. (I / have / three cups)
- 8 A: I hear Gemma isn't well. (you / see / her?)
B: No, not for a few days. Perhaps we should drop by.

21c Complete the e-mail. Use the present perfect or past simple of the verbs in brackets.

New Message

Dear Javier,

I'm sorry I (0) haven't been (not be) in touch recently but I (1) (be) really busy. I (2) (go) to my third job interview this morning but unfortunately, no one (3) (offer) me a job yet. I (4) (look) everywhere and I (5) (fill in) dozens of application forms. Still, I'm not discouraged. Some things take time.

In fact, I'm really enjoying myself here. I (6) (already / see) Cats and I (7) (just / buy) tickets for the next Madonna concert – I (8) (stand) in line for an hour this afternoon but it was worth it. Also, I like the family I'm staying with – they (9) (give) me lots of advice about finding work and last night they even (10) (take) me out for a meal. We talk all the time and as a result, my English (11) (already / improve) a lot. Anyway, someone (12) (just / come) to the door. I hope it's the pizza I (13) (order) an hour ago. I'll write more often in future – I promise.

Farida

22 Present perfect: for, since

- We use the present perfect with for and since to talk about states, events or actions that began in the past and continue up to now. We use for + a period of time and since + a point in time: for a month/three years/ages since 2004/yesterday/I was four: We've known each other for years/since 1997. (Not We know each other for years.)
- We use the past simple for states, events or actions that began and ended in the past. We can use for to talk about a finished period of time. Compare:
She's been a doctor for twenty years. (She's still a doctor.)
She was a doctor for twenty years. (She isn't a doctor now.)
'How long has he been in the army?' 'For five years.' (He's still in the army.)
'How long was he in the army?' 'For five years.' (He isn't in the army now.)
- To talk about an unfinished time period, we use the present perfect with expressions such as today, this morning/week. We use the past simple for a finished time period. Compare: Have you been busy this morning? (It's still morning.) Were you busy this morning? (It's now afternoon or evening.)

PRACTICE

22a Re-write the sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- 0 It's weeks since we last saw one another. (seen)
We haven't seen one another for weeks
- 1 When did you get married? (been)
How long
- 2 They haven't seen their parents for two weeks. (since)
It's two weeks
- 3 I'm tired because the last time I slept was two days ago. (for)
I'm tired because I
- 4 When Owen left his job, he began to feel more relaxed. (felt)
Since Owen left his job,
- 5 Vanessa hasn't been to the cinema for months. (since)
It's months
- 6 I started working as a waiter and quit a month later. (for)
I
- 7 It's many years since they visited their grandparents. (for)
They
- 8 How long have Belinda and Roderick been married? (get)
When
- 9 She met them when she was a child. (known)
She
- 10 They're angry because the last time they got paid was two months ago. (been)
They're angry because they 22b Complete the conversations. Use the present perfect or past simple of the verbs in brackets. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

- o A: Have you had (you / have) a busy day today?
 B: Not really. I finished (finish) writing my essay this morning and then I went (go) windsurfing.
- 1 A: (you / talk) to Hunter today?
 B: No. He (not come) in to work this morning. He (be) ill since Tuesday.
- 2 A: Sales (increase) in the first three months of this year and the prediction is that they will continue to rise.
 B: Excellent news!
- 3 A: Where (you / be) last night? I (wait) for hours.
 B: Sorry, I should have rung. I (be) at work.
- 4 A: (the package / arrive) yesterday?
 B: No, and it (not arrive) this morning either. Perhaps it'll come later this afternoon.
- 5 A: I (not see) Catherine today. What about you?
 B: I'm seeing her tomorrow.

22c Complete the texts. Use the present perfect or past simple of the verbs in the box.

be	catch (x2)	collect	drop	introduce	keep not see	phone	study	suggest

Carrie and I (o) studied together at university for three years. We (1) in touch but I (2) her for ages. To my surprise, she (3) me last week and (4) we meet for lunch today. I (5) the bus to town this morning but although I (6) here for over an hour, there's no sign of her. I hope she's all right.

We're here this morning in Marylebone Road in London, where traffic police (7) these cameras a year ago to catch drivers who break the law. Since then, the police (8) thousands of motorists on camera and (9) many thousands of pounds in fines. Officials claim that traffic congestion (10) by almost 20% since the cameras were installed.

23 Present perfect simple and continuous

Present perfect simple	Present perfect continuous
We use the present perfect simple:	We use the present perfect continuous:
to describe an activity that is complete: I've read several books about windsurfing. (I've finished them.)	to describe an activity that is incomplete: I've been reading a book about windsurfing. (I haven't finished it yet.)
to emphasise the result or consequence of a completed action: We've already seen that film. (We don't want to see it again.)	to focus on an activity, not the result or consequence of that activity: 'You look tired. What have you been doing?' 'I've been working hard.'
to say how often something has happened: He's read that book twice.	to emphasise how long an activity has been going on: He's been reading that book for over two weeks.
to describe a permanent state: She's lived here for six years. (This is her home now.)	to describe a temporary state or activity: She's been living here for six months. (But she intends to move.)

 We don't use the present perfect continuous with verbs describing an action that lasts a short time: begin, break, finish, start, stop: He's started a new job. (Not He's been starting a new job.)

▶▶ For state verbs, see Unit 19.

▶▶ See Appendix 2: Spelling rules, page 200.

PRACTICE

23a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 You'd better put some boots on. It 's rained / 's been raining all week and it's very muddy outside.
- 1 I 've e-mailed / 've been e-mailing him several times but he hasn't answered / hasn't been answering any of my messages.
- 2 We 've expected / 've been expecting them to arrive since last Thursday.
- 3 Have you finished / Have you been finishing your project yet? You 've worked / 've been working on it for ages.
- 4 Kevin 's looked / 's been looking for a job since he finished school but he's still unemployed.
- 5 Audrey 's learnt / 's been learning to play the guitar since she was a child and now she 's started / 's been starting piano lessons too.
- 6 They 've watched / 've been watching a film on television all evening. It's their favourite film and they 've seen / 've been seeing it three times.
- 7 Daniel 's moved / 's been moving house five times in the last five years!
- 8 I 've asked / 've been asking him to repair the television for ages. In fact, I 've asked / 've been asking him twice this week already.

23b Complete the conversations. Use the present perfect simple or continuous of the verbs in brackets.

A: You look hot. What (0) have you been doing (you / do)?

B: I (1) (run).

A: In this heat? How far (2) (you / run)?

A: You look pleased about something. What (3) (happen)?

B: I (4) (just / pass) my driving test.

A: Congratulations! You deserve to pass. You (5) (practise) for months, haven't you?

B: That's right. My father (6) (give) me lessons.

A: Where (7) (you / be)?

B: At the doctor's. I (8) (not feel) well lately. I'm tired and a bit run-down.

A: I'm sorry to hear that. (9) (you / work) too hard?

B: I hope that's all it is but the doctor (10) (do) some tests and she'll let me know the results soon, I hope.

A: You look frustrated. What's the matter?

B: I (11) (try) to learn my lines for the play but I'm finding it difficult. I (12) (only / manage) to learn the first scene so far.

A: Can I help in any way?

23c Complete the article. Use the present perfect simple or continuous of the verbs in the box.

avoid do eat invite lose make order pay off set stick watch

They (0) have set the date, picked the dress and are making the final preparations for the big day. Lyndsey Young (1) also sure she will look her best when she marries Ben O'Neill later this week.

For the past five months, she (2) to an exercise programme in which she (3) forty or fifty minutes of exercise a day. She (4) also her diet. She (5) high-calorie foods and (6) lots of fruit and vegetables instead. Thanks to all of her hard work, she (7) nearly ten kilos. Lyndsey's efforts (8) and she looks fabulous. The couple (9) huge amounts of food and beverages for the wedding, which will take place at a secret location, but sources say that Lyndsey and Ben (10) only family and close friends to the wedding. The stage is set for what will surely be the wedding of the year.

Check 3 Present tenses

1 Complete the sentences. Use the present simple, present continuous, present perfect simple, present perfect continuous or past simple of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 Anthony isn't usually easy to get on with but he very co-operative these days. (be)
- 2 What of her? Will she be easy to work with? (you / think)
- 3 I can't talk now. We a meeting. I'll ring you later. (have)
- 4 Jessica back from work and she's exhausted. (just / come)
- 5 I Bertha for ages. Where is she? (not see)
- 6 He his car. Someone bought it last week. (already / sell)
- 7 How long that you're going to have a baby? (you / know)
- 8 She unemployed for a long time but thankfully, she's got a job now. (be)
- 9 I to contact them for days but they any of my calls yet. (try, not return)
- 10 I his latest book but I it yet. (read, not finish)
- 11 Terry the kitchen all morning. He must be exhausted! (paint)
- 12 I preparing dinner yet so I'd better hurry. (not start)

/ 12

2 Circle the correct answer.

The Tower of London (13) survived / has survived centuries of warfare but it could vanish from sight in the twenty-first century, experts (14) warned / have warned yesterday. The ancient fortress, which (15) dominates / has dominated the city skyline for almost a thousand years, could be placed on a United Nations list of endangered landmarks because developers (16) put up / are putting up new buildings in the area and a number of high-rise buildings (17) ruin / are ruining views of the famous World Heritage site, according to the UN's cultural body UNESCO.

British officials have until the end of the month to show UNESCO that they can save the Tower. If not, the Tower could be put on UNESCO's World Heritage in Danger list. UNESCO inspectors (18) visited / have visited London last year after they received a damning report that the City of London (19) doesn't appear / isn't appearing to do enough to protect the setting of some of Britain's important sites. Other buildings under threat (20) include / are including Westminster Abbey and the Houses of Parliament.

/ 8

3 Complete the article. Use the present simple, present continuous, present perfect simple or present perfect continuous of the verbs in brackets.

According to research, the demand for alternative medicine (21) (rise) recently and approximately 20 per cent of the UK's population regularly (22) (turn) to alternative treatments when they (23) (be) ill. Consequently, more and more British doctors (24) (offer) their patients choices of treatment these days and many of them (25) (usually / combine) alternative treatments with conventional medicine.

Although alternative medicine (26) (become) increasingly popular, doctors (27) (disagree) about whether or not the treatments are effective. Of course, people (28) (use) alternative medicine for hundreds of years but many practitioners of conventional medicine (29) (claim) that so far they (30) (not see) any convincing proof that alternative treatments are safe or effective.

Today, the most widely practised alternative treatments are acupuncture, aromatherapy, massage and herbal medicine but other forms of treatment (31) (also / gain) in popularity.

What about you? (32) (you / ever / try) an alternative treatment? If so, was it successful? Send your views and experiences to:

/ 12

4 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 33 How long have you lived in this house? move
When to this house?
- 34 I started cooking an hour ago. been
I an hour.
- 35 I haven't seen Vasily for a few days. since
It's a few days Vasily.
- 36 She paid back the money she owed me very quickly. already
She the money she owed me.
- 37 A minute ago Katsu told me he has got a new job. just Katsu me he has got a new job.
- 38 They started working this morning and they are still working. been
They this morning.
- 39 They have never been to Paris before. ever
This is the first time to Paris.
- 40 When did you meet your wife? known
How long your wife?

/ 8

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
16, 17, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 29, 31	Unit 18	Exercise 18
1, 2, 3, 19, 20, 27, 14, 18, 30, 32, 39	Unit 19 Unit 20	Exercise 19 Exercise 20
4, 6, 12, 21, 36, 37	Unit 21	Exercise 21
5, 7, 8, 13, 15, 33, 35, 40	Unit 22	Exercise 22
9, 10, 11, 28, 34, 38	Unit 23	Exercise 23

Now do Check 3

Past tenses

24 Past simple and continuous

- The past simple describes actions which are complete. We use the past simple for:
 - a past action or a sequence of past actions: I woke up very early. Then I got dressed, had breakfast and left the house.
 - a state, event or action that lasted for a period of time in the past: The Smiths owned a farm in the north of the country. It rained for several days and nights. The students waited for a month to get their exam results.
 - a habit in the past: When we were children, we often went to the cinema.
- The past continuous describes states, events or actions which are temporary or incomplete. We use the past continuous:
 - to emphasise that a past event continued for some time: It was raining all night.
 - to describe an action in progress at a particular time in the past, or a temporary past situation or event: We were watching TV at nine o'clock last night.
 - to describe two or more past actions happening at the same time: He was cooking the dinner while she was talking to him.
 - to set the scene in a story: We set off early. Before long the sun was rising above the distant hills and the birds were singing their morning chorus.
 - to talk about something we were planning or expected to happen: We were planning to move to Canada but decided to stay here instead.

▶▶ For future in the past, see Unit 30.

- We use the past simple and the past continuous with when and as/while to talk about a past action or event that was interrupted. Notice when we use a comma: They arrived while we were having dinner. While we were having dinner, they arrived. We were having dinner when they arrived. When they arrived, we were having dinner.

⚠ Sometimes we can use either the past simple or the past continuous, depending on what we want to emphasise. Compare: I lived there for five years. (I don't live there now.) I was living there for five years. (This emphasises that my residence there was temporary/the period of time I lived there.)

PRACTICE

24a Circle the correct answer.

It (0) happened / was happening in June 1985. It was summer and we (1) relaxed / were relaxing in the garden. My mother (2) read / was reading a book and my uncle (3) dozed / was dozing peacefully in the sun. We children (4) looked / were looking for worms and insects. And then he (5) arrived / was arriving. He was a handsome man with piercing eyes and he (6) looked / was looking straight at my mother. Her face (7) went / was going pale.

'Arthur, I (8) thought / was thinking you were dead!' she said.

Jussi and I (9) met / were meeting while we (10) lived / were living in London. I (11) rented / was renting a room in a house in North London and he (12) stayed / was staying with friends who'd offered to put him up. We both (13) had / were having temporary jobs – at one time he (14) waited / was waiting on tables in a café and I (15) washed / was washing dishes in a small restaurant. Anyway, we (16) got on / were getting on really well and before long we (17) planned / were planning to go on a long holiday together. That (18) was / was being before the accident.

I (19) sat / was sitting in my taxi reading the morning newspaper when the alarm in the bank across the street (20) went off / was going off. I (21) looked / was looking up and (22) saw / was seeing two masked men running towards me. There was confusion everywhere. Police cars (23) raced / were racing towards the bank while pedestrians (24) ran / were running away from it. I (25) turned / was turning the key in the ignition when the masked men (26) forced / were forcing their way into my taxi and (27) told / were telling me to drive off. It was the scariest thing that had ever happened to me.

24b Complete the extract from a story. Use the past simple or continuous of the verbs in brackets. Sometimes both tenses are possible.

As I (0) was going (go) to sleep, I (1)
 (tell) myself that I would avoid the man who was sharing the room.
 I (2) (sleep) deeply when I was suddenly woken by a loud noise. To judge from the sound, my companion must have jumped down from the upper berth to the floor in a single movement.
 I (3) (hear) him trying to open the door; it
 (4) (open), and then I (5)
 (hear) him running at full speed down the passage, leaving the door open behind him. The ship (6) (roll) a little and I (7) (expect) to hear him fall but he
 (8) (run) as though for his life. The door
 (9) (swing) open and shut with the movement of the ship and the sound (10) (annoy) me.
 I (11) (get up) and (12)
 (close) it and (13) (find) my way back to my berth in the darkness. I (14) (go) to sleep again but I have no idea how long I slept.

25 Past perfect simple and continuous

Past perfect simple

- We use the past perfect simple:
 - to describe an event or action that happened before another past event or action. The past perfect simple makes it clear that one action or event was completed before the second one started. Compare: When I arrived, the train had left. (= The train left before I arrived.) When I got there, the train left. (= The train left as I was arriving or immediately after I arrived.)
 - to describe an event or action that happened before a particular time in the past: It was June 1991. Ann and Michael had just got married. It was midnight and the children had gone to bed hours ago. By nine, most of the workers had arrived.
- We use the past perfect simple with many of the adverbs and expressions we use with the present perfect: just, already, yet, for, since, ever, never, it was the first/second time, it was the most ... : Blake and Julie had just left and there was nobody at home. Sophie and Austin met again at the reunion. They hadn't seen each other for several years. It was the first time in his life he'd felt truly happy.
- We often use the past perfect simple in clauses with when, before, after, until, as soon as and by. When the sequence of events is clear, we can also use the past simple: When we finished/'d finished the meal, I made some coffee. As soon as I told/'d told her the news, I regretted it.*

Past perfect continuous

Affirmative	I/you/he/she/it/we/they had been waiting
Negative	I/you/he/she/it/we/they hadn't been waiting
Question	Had I/you/he/she/it/we/they been waiting?

- We use the past perfect continuous:
 - to emphasise how long an event or action lasted: It had been raining for three days when the dam burst.
 - to describe an action whose effects, results or consequences were clear in the past: I'd been moving house and I was tired and dirty.

PRACTICE

25a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 It was only four o'clock but everyone already left / had already left the office.
- 1 He was / 'd been in hospital for days before I heard / 'd heard about the accident.
- 2 I could tell they did / 'd done something wrong because they were looking guilty.
- 3 By the time she was / 'd been ten years old, she already appeared / 'd already appeared in a West End play.
- 4 The performance just started / had just started when we arrived / 'd arrived.
- 5 Max never left / had never left home before without telling me where he was going.
- 6 By nine that evening, most of the guests already left / had already left the party.

25b Complete the sentences. Use the past simple or past perfect continuous of the verbs in brackets.

- 0 Everyone felt exhausted because they 'd been working all day. (feel, work)
- 1 She paint on her hands because she the kitchen. (have, decorate)
- 2 After they for several hours, they to stop for a rest. (drive, decide)
- 3 We there for many months before we to notice the problems. (not live, begin)
- 4 long before the train ?
(you / wait, arrive)
- 5 I for months but I still enough money to buy a new car. (save, not have)
- 6 We them to arrive for several hours when they finally into the drive. (expect, pull)

25c Complete the first part of an article. Use the past simple or past perfect simple of the verbs in brackets.

Pirate of the Caribbean

Black Sam Bellamy was an original pirate of the Caribbean. In 1984 Black Sam's ship, the Whydah, (0) became (become) the first pirate ship ever recovered from the sea.

According to experts, Sam was probably a democratic leader because divers

(1) (find) gold ornaments on the ship which were cut into pieces so they could be shared with the crew.

Black Sam (2) (leave) England and (3) (sail) to America in the early 1700s. We don't know much about the life he (4) (leave) behind. We do know that he was dark and handsome and that he (5) (wear) his long black hair tied in a ponytail.

By 1715 Black Sam (6) (already / meet) his lover, Maria Hallett, in Cape Cod, Massachusetts. While living in Cape Cod, Black Sam (7) (hear) of a fleet of Spanish treasure ships which (8) (sink) in the Caribbean earlier that year. He (9) (decide) to look for the sunken treasure but he (10) (need) a ship to do so. He (11) (persuade) a friend, Palgrave Williams, to buy him one. Black Sam (12) (go) looking for the lost treasure but when he (13) (not find) it, he (14) (turn) to piracy.

25d Complete the second part of the article. Use the past simple, past perfect simple or past perfect continuous of the verbs in brackets.

By 1717 Black Sam and his crew (0) had captured (capture) over fifty ships but none was as large or as rich as the slave ship, the Whydah. In April of 1717 the Whydah (1) (just / sell) a cargo of slaves and was returning to London when Black Sam (2) (begin) to chase her. By the time he (3) (capture) her, he (4) (chase) her for three days.

At last Black Sam (5) (find) the wealth he (6) (look) for and he (7) (decide) to sail back to Cape Cod. But the Whydah (8) (sail) into a storm and strong winds (9) (drive) her towards land. The ship (10) (strike) rocks a hundred yards from the shores of Cape Cod and (11) (sink). Two men (12) (swim) to shore but Black Sam wasn't one of them.

According to legend, Black Sam (13) (travel) home to meet Maria Hallett. Some people believe he (14) (decide) to propose marriage. They also say Maria (15) (wait) for his return and was watching from the cliffs of Cape Cod when the Whydah (16) (go) down. Was Maria saddened to lose her lover – or was she glad to be rid of such a dangerous man? No one knows.

26 used to, would, be/get used to

- We use used to to talk about past states: She used to have long hair but she cut it. Did they use to live here? I didn't use to like fish but I do now.
- We use used to or would to talk about habits or repeated actions in the past: When we were children, we used to/would go out together. My grandmother used to/would bake a cake every weekend. We never used to do/would never do our homework until Sunday evening.
- When we use would to talk about a past habit, we must use a past time reference. Used to can be used with or without a past time reference: Before I got this job, I used to/would go out a lot. I used to go out a lot. (Not ~~I would go out a lot.~~)
- We use be/get used to + noun/pronoun/-ing form to talk about something that is or becomes normal because we have experienced or done it before. Compare: I used to eat a lot of junk food. (= I don't eat a lot any more.) I'm getting used to eating fresh vegetables. (= I'm becoming accustomed to eating fresh vegetables.)
- We can use be/get used to in various tenses: *She isn't used to living in a small village but she's getting used to it. When my parents were young, they had to get up at five every morning. However, they were used to getting up early so it didn't bother them. Don't worry about the noise; you'll get used to it!

PRACTICE

26a Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of used to or would. Use would wherever possible.

- 0 When I was a child, I would dream of travelling round the world.
- 1 She have lots of free time before she started working here.
- 2 In the summer holidays we go to the beach nearly every day.
- 3 Before Harry moved here, he take the bus everywhere but now he needs a car.
- 4 They drink coffee but recently they've got into the habit of drinking several cups a day.
- 5 A: you have a beard?
B: Yes, but it bother me so I got rid of it.

26b Complete the texts. Use the correct form of used to or be/get used to.

"I (0) used to be several kilos heavier than I am now. That's because I (1) hate exercising. But now I (2) working out at the gym regularly and I've lost a lot of weight. I (3) being fit and healthy and I never want to be overweight again."

"We live in London now but we (4) live in a small town. When we moved here, I (5) the noise of the traffic and I missed the country. However, I (6) city life now and I like it!"

26c Complete the essay. Use the correct form of used to, would or be/get used to and the verbs in the box.

be	complete	go	have (x2)	light	pack
	rush	spend	stop	walk

Some of my happiest memories are of summer holidays with my family. Every year we (0) would pack our suitcases and drive off to the seaside. Some years we (1) halfway and spend the night in a motel. But usually we (2) the journey in a day.

As soon as we arrived, we (3) down to the sea. The beach was rocky and for the first few days we had to walk carefully because we (4) over the sharp stones with our soft winter feet. We had lots of friends whom we saw only in the summers so we (5) a lot of time with them. During the day we (6) swimming and at night we (7) a fire on the beach, chat and listen to the waves.

By the end of the holidays, we (8) great suntans and our feet (9) hard from running over the rocks. We (10) mixed feelings about leaving. We didn't want to leave our friends behind but at the same time we looked forward to going home.

Check 4 Past tenses

1 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 When I was a child, we often used / would often sit in the garden on summer evenings.
- 2 As soon as she put the phone down, she started / had started to cry.
- 3 I used to / would own a house in the country but I sold it.
- 4 We waited until we had finished work and then we took / had taken a break.
- 5 They didn't used to live / weren't used to living in a flat but they don't mind it now.
- 6 It was now evening and we were driving / had been driving all day.
- 7 Where did you use to / would you work before you got this job?
- 8 Giles and Max used to argue / were used to arguing but they get along fine now.

/ 8

2 Complete the conversation. Use the past simple or continuous of the verbs in brackets.

- A: I (9) (phone) you this morning but you (10) (not answer). What (11) (you / do)?
- B: I (12) (hear) the phone but I (13) (have) a shower. Anyway, what (14) (you / want)?
- A: Well, last night I (15) (clear) out my desk when I (16) (find) these old photos. Do you want them?

/ 8

3 Complete the extract from a story. Use the past simple, past perfect simple or past perfect continuous of the verbs in the box.

arrive go only / be rain smell talk

It was a beautiful morning. It (17) in the night and the next morning the air (18) fresh. No one was awake, though, because we (19) to bed late the night before. Our cousins (20) unexpectedly that evening and we (21) for most of the night. By eight o'clock in the morning we (22) in bed for three hours.

/ 6

4 Complete the article. Use the past simple, past continuous, past perfect simple or past perfect continuous of the verbs in brackets.

A Japanese businessman recently made medical history by surviving without food and water in near-freezing weather for about three weeks.

Mr Mitsutaka Uchikoshi, 35, climbed up Mount Rokko in western Japan for a barbecue party with friends but decided to come back down on his own. While he (23) (walk) down the mountain, he (24) (slip) in a stream and (25) (break) his pelvis. Until he (26) (become) unconscious, he survived by sipping the remains of a bottle of barbecue sauce that he (27) (carry) with him at the time of the accident.

When searchers (28) (rescue) him, he (29) (appear) to be in a coma. His pulse was almost undetectable and his body temperature (30) (drop) to 32 degrees. He (31) (also / lose) a lot of weight. Doctors (32) (treat) Mr Uchikoshi for hypothermia, multiple organ failure and blood loss. By the time he was rescued, he (33) (miss) for twenty-five days.

Remarkably, he (34) (recover) fully. One of his doctors said, 'He was frozen alive and survived. If we can understand why, it opens up all sorts of possibilities for the future.'

/ 12

5 Complete the texts. Use the correct form of used to or be/get used to and the verbs in brackets.

I (35) (hate) working at weekends but I (36) it now and I don't mind it any more.

I can't (37) the idea that my daughter is grown up. I still think of her as a child. I remember how I (38) (hold) her in my arms when she was a baby.

My wife and I (39) (never / go) abroad for our holidays. We (40) (spend) our summers in Cornwall.

/ 6

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
4, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 23, 24, 25, 28, 29, 32, 34	Unit 24	Exercise 24
2, 4, 6, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 26, 27, 30, 31, 33	Unit 25	Exercise 25
1, 3, 5, 7, 8, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40	Unit 26	Exercise 26

Now do Check 4

Future forms

27 Future forms and meanings (1)

will, shall

- We use will:

- for statements of fact or general predictions about the future: We'll have a break at six. The President will outline his policy tomorrow. They'll be here soon.
- for decisions we make at the time of speaking: 'Would you like to come with us to the theatre tonight?' 'All right. I'll join you.'
- in offers, promises and requests: I'll do that for you. Will you help me, please?
- with verbs like believe, doubt, expect, hope, suppose and think, and adverbs like perhaps, probably and definitely: I expect they'll be here soon. Do you think they'll win? They probably won't come by taxi.

- We use shall:

- with I or we in offers and suggestions: Shall I come with you? Shall we go out?
- in place of will in more formal English, especially written English: We shall make every effort to deal with your complaint.

be going to

We use be going to:

- for things we expect to happen based on present evidence: Look at that plane. It's going to land.
- for intentions, when we have already decided to do something: They're going to visit Madame Tussaud's when they're in London.

 Compare will and be going to: Student numbers are going to fall over the next five years. (The speaker is thinking of present trends and has evidence for the statement.) Student numbers will fall over the next five years. (This is the speaker's opinion or belief.)

Present continuous

We use the present continuous for future events we have planned and arranged. The time reference must be stated or clear from the context: I'm meeting her for lunch tomorrow.

 Compare the present continuous and be going to: I'm visiting my aunt in hospital tomorrow. (The speaker has arranged to do this.) I'm going to visit my aunt in hospital tomorrow. (This is the speaker's intention.)

 With go and come we prefer the present continuous to be going to: I'm going to university next year.

Present simple

We use the present simple:

- to talk about timetables and schedules: The plane leaves at eight fifteen.
- to refer to the future in clauses of time and condition after if, unless, when, after, before, as soon as, until and by the time: We'll phone you when we get there.

PRACTICE

27a Complete the conversation. Use will or be going to and the verbs in brackets.

- A: Have you decided what you (0) 're going to do (do) this weekend?
B: Well, Mark phoned last night and he (1) (visit) us at the weekend.
A: Really? I'd like to see him. I think I (2) (phone) him tonight and arrange something.
B: Why not? We're planning to spend the day at the beach on Saturday. I hope the weather (3) (be) warm enough. The weather forecast says it (4) (be) a nice weekend – apparently, there's warm weather coming in from Europe later on this week. And then on Saturday night we (5) (see) a film.
A: Well, I've got nothing planned so I (6) (join) you on Saturday morning if that's OK.
B: Sure. I (7) (pick) you up from your flat after breakfast.
A: Great! And what about the film? What time (8) (you / see) that?
B: We (9) (see) the early show at six and after that we (10) (probably / go) somewhere for a meal.
A: Sounds good. I (11) (see) you on Saturday!

27b Complete the conversations. Use the present continuous or be going to and the verbs in brackets. Use the present continuous wherever possible.

- A: I (0) 'm going to ring (ring) Suli. Would you like me to tell her anything?
B: Tell her I've spoken to Ned and I (1) (meet) him for lunch tomorrow.

A: Where (2) (you / go)?
B: Home. (3) (you / come) with me?

A: Shall we go to the cinema tonight?
B: I (4) (take) Alice out for dinner. I've booked a table at a nice restaurant and I (5) (ask) her to marry me.

A: That child on the bicycle isn't looking where he's going. Oh, dear! He (6) (crash) into the wall if he's not careful!
B: You're right. Look! He's hurt himself. He (7) (need) stitches for that cut on his leg.

A: Could you help me decorate the living room this afternoon?
B: Sorry, I can't. I (8) (play) tennis with Tom. We've already booked the court.
A: I hope you're playing indoors. It's nice now but they say it (9) (rain) later today.

27c Complete the e-mail. Use the present simple or continuous of the verbs in brackets.

9.00 am	Leave Brighton	6.00 pm	Supper
10.30 am	Madame Tussaud's and guided tour	7.30 pm	Phantom of the Opera
12.00 pm	Lunch	10.30 pm	Leave Victoria Station
1.00 pm	Free	12.00 am	Arrive Brighton

New Message

The coach (0) leaves (leave) Brighton at nine and we (1) (arrive) at Madame Tussaud's at ten thirty. When we get there, we (2) (go) on a guided tour – it's all been arranged for us. After that we (3) (have) lunch somewhere nearby and in the afternoon we can do what we like – some of us (4) (go) shopping. If you (5) (not want) to do that, there'll be lots of other things we can do in London. We (6) (meet) up in the evening for something to eat and then we (7) (take) the Underground to Piccadilly Station. We can walk from there to the theatre. Phantom of the Opera (8) (start) at seven thirty and (9) (finish) at ten. At ten thirty the coach (10) (leave) Victoria Station for Brighton.

27d Complete the sentences. Use will, shall, be going to, the present simple or continuous and the verbs in brackets.

- 0 If you see Pete, would you tell him I'm looking for him? (see)
- 1 A: Luis and Sondra round for a meal? (we / invite)
B: That's a good idea.
- 2 I think things better after a good night's sleep. I'm sure you so bad in the morning. (look, not feel)
- 3 What's wrong? You look as if you (cry)
- 4 They on Saturday morning and they back for three weeks. They booked the holiday months ago. (leave, not come)
- 5 I any more work today. My train in half an hour. (not do, leave)
- 6 Zoe round the world when she school. (travel, finish)
- 7 The President the nation at two this afternoon. (address)
- 8 We our computer system later this year. We don't know exactly when the work but we hope it finished by the end of the summer. (change, start, be)

28 Future forms and meanings (2)

Future continuous	will be + present participle: I'll be doing
Future perfect simple	will have + past participle: I'll have done
Future perfect continuous	will have been + present participle: I'll have been doing

Future continuous

- We use the future continuous:
 - for an activity that will be in progress at a point in time or for a period of time in the future: This time tomorrow we'll be sitting on a plane. I'll be studying in the library all evening.
 - for intentions or events that are fixed or expected to happen: They'll be going to town tomorrow to do some shopping. He'll be arriving at six.
 - to talk about a future activity without expressing deliberate intention: She'll probably be running her own company in a few years' time!
- Compare the future continuous and future simple (will): I'll go and see Ethan tomorrow. (a deliberate intention or promise) I'll be seeing Ethan tomorrow so I can give him your message. (an action that will happen anyway, one not specially planned)

Future perfect simple

- We use the future perfect simple for an action that will be completed before a particular time in the future, often with by or by the time + present simple: I'll have finished this job by Friday. We'll have cooked dinner by the time you get here.

Future perfect continuous

- We use the future perfect continuous with for to emphasise the duration of a state or action which will probably continue after the time mentioned: We'll have been living here for two years in January.

PRACTICE

28a Complete the conversations. Use the future simple (will) or future continuous of the verbs in brackets.

A: Would you like to come for lunch on Saturday?

B: Unfortunately, I (0) 'll be working (work) all day on Saturday.

A: That's too bad. I (1) (phone) you on Sunday.

(2) (you / be) in?

A: Do you ever think about what you (3) (do) in ten years' time?

B: Sometimes I imagine I (4) (have) a much more interesting job and I (5) (earn) a lot of money. But to be honest, I think I (6) (probably / work) here, doing the same job as now.

A: I'm taking the car so I (7) (give) you a lift tonight.

B: Thanks. I (8) (play) tennis until seven but I

(9) (be) back shortly after that.

28b Write sentences. Use the future continuous, future perfect simple or future perfect continuous.

What will life be like in fifty years' time?

- 0 we / use / energy that doesn't harm the environment
We'll be using energy that doesn't harm the environment.
.....
- 1 scientists / discover / life on other planets
.....
- 2 the Earth's climate / become / much hotter than it is today
.....
- 3 we / not use / fossil fuels like coal and oil
.....
- 4 doctors / not find / a cure for the common cold
.....
- 5 people / live / on the moon for several years / by then
.....
- 6 the Internet / replace / television / as our main source of entertainment
.....

28c Complete the interview. Use the future simple (will), future continuous or future perfect of the verbs in brackets.

Interviewer: Today we're talking to Professor Marjorie Brown about life in the future. Let's start with homes. Professor, what will our homes be like?

Professor: Well, they might not look very different from homes today but (0) there will certainly be (there / certainly / be) differences. In twenty years' time homes (1) (become) smaller. This is because more and more people (2) (live) in crowded cities. However, designers (3) (undoubtedly / find) ways of making small homes more comfortable. For example, the homes of the future (4) (have) walls that can be moved so that space can be used in different ways. Scientists (5) (also / invent) glass that can change from transparent to black. Transparent glass lets light and heat in and out. Black glass keeps it in. This (6) (help) us to control the temperature of our homes.

Interviewer: (7) (there / be) any other changes to the way we live?

Professor: Yes, one major change. Experts predict that by 2024 humans (8) (live) on the moon. One can only imagine what homes there (9) (look) like! And I think that by then many of us (10) (take) at least one holiday in space and maybe even to the moon. Imagine that.

29 Other ways of talking about the future

- We use be + to-infinitive to talk about formal plans or arrangements, instructions and prohibitions: The Queen is to arrive at 10.00 to begin the ceremony. You are to be there no later than eight o'clock.
- We use be due + to-infinitive to talk about events that we expect to take place at a fixed time, e.g. with timetables: The bus is due to arrive any minute.
- We use be (just) about + to-infinitive or be on the point of + -ing form to talk about events that we expect will happen very soon: We're (just) about to leave. I think he's on the point of asking her to marry him.
- Some verbs refer to the future: plan/hope/intend + to-infinitive: The company plans to build a new supermarket. I hope to study law next year.

PRACTICE

29a Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 0 You must pay your fees before classes begin. are
You are to pay your fees before classes begin.
- 1 Dylan isn't going to spend the night here. intend Dylan the night here.
- 2 The judges will announce the winner any moment now. about
The judges the winner.
- 3 The President will announce his resignation very soon. point
The President is his resignation.
- 4 Elizabeth thinks she will travel to Africa next year. hopes Elizabeth to Africa next year.
- 5 Charles isn't going to write his essay tonight. plan
Charles his essay tonight.
- 6 They must not begin without me. are
They without me.
- 7 The police are going to stop the search very soon. about
The police the search.
- 8 Clarissa is having her operation in three weeks. due
Clarissa her operation in three weeks.

29b Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the words in the box.

be / about / make	be / due / open	be / on the point of / call
hope / find	hope / have	intend / finish
not be / come	not be / due / arrive	not plan / go

- A: You've got school tomorrow so you (o) are not to come home any later than ten.
B: Oh, all right.
-

- A: I hear you're expecting a baby. Congratulations!
- B: Thank you. My husband (1) a girl this time but I don't mind as long as it's healthy. And now there's another baby on the way, we're moving into a bigger house.
- A: That's a big decision. Have you seen anywhere you like?
- B: Yes. In fact, we (2) an offer for a house near where we live now.
-
- A: We've been waiting for ages. What time is the bus supposed to be here?
- B: I'm afraid it (3) for another twenty minutes.
- A: I'm so cold I (4) a taxi. What do you think?
- B: I don't mind. But how (5) you ? I don't have that much money with me.
-
- A: What's happening with the new hospital?
- B: Well, they say it (6) next month but I don't think that's likely.
- A: I think you're right. I'm sure everyone (7) projects like these on time but they never do.
-
- A: What are you going to do next year when you finish college?
- B: Well, I (8) a job. I (9) to university for at least another year.

30 Future in the past

When we are talking about the past, we sometimes need to refer to events that were still in the future at that point. To do this, we use the same forms we use to refer to the future but we make the verbs past.

Future	Future in the past
am/is/are going to ▶▶ See Unit 27.	was/were going to: We were going to travel by car but we changed our minds.
Present continuous ▶▶ See Unit 27.	Past continuous: I left work early as I was meeting a friend.
will ▶▶ See Unit 27.	would: I had met the man I knew I would marry.
am/is/are + to-infinitive ▶▶ See Unit 29.	was/were + to-infinitive: The guests were to arrive before the Queen.
am/is/are + due + to-infinitive ▶▶ See Unit 29.	was/were + due + to-infinitive: The bus was due to arrive at ten so I waited in the café.
am/is/are + about + to-infinitive ▶▶ See Unit 29.	was/were + about + to-infinitive: I was about to ring you.

PRACTICE

30a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 All the way there I knew we were going to / were about to be late.
- 1 The film was due to / was about to be released in October.
- 2 He looked as if he was crying / was going to cry at any moment.
- 3 When they last saw her, she would get / was getting married the following day.
- 4 The ceremony was to / was about to take place at the palace but they were forced to change the venue.
- 5 The instant they met, they knew they were due to / were going to be friends.
- 6 I was going to / was to move to London but decided against the idea.
- 7 We took our seats because the film would / was about to begin.
- 8 Liam was going to buy / was buying a new car but in the end he decided not to.
- 9 I always thought I was to / would be famous one day.
- 10 Hailey was to / was about to go out when the phone rang.

30b Complete the conversation. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

A: What happened? I thought you (0) were going (go) on holiday yesterday.

B: We were – and then everything went wrong. We'd made all the arrangements and a taxi
(1) (take) us to the airport but just before it (2)
(be / due / arrive), we heard there was terrible traffic on the roads and they were advising people not to use the motorway. So when the taxi came, we told the driver we
(3) (go) to the train station instead of the airport. He dropped us off and we got onto the train. But as it

(4) (be / about / pull away), it broke down and we were stuck at the station. We were sure we (5) (be) late but eventually, another train arrived and we got to the airport. We
(6) (be / just about / check in) when we heard that they'd changed the departure time of our plane – it (7) (not leave) for another twenty-four hours! So we put our bags back on the train and here we are!

A: What a nightmare! I hope you intend to make a complaint.

B: Of course. I (8) (plan / be) on a beach right now and instead I'm waiting for another taxi.

Check 5 Future forms

1 Complete the sentences. Use will, be going to or the present continuous and the verbs in brackets.

- 1 I to the concert this evening with Andy. What about you?
(go)
- 2 I think you should know: I Ben you borrowed his car without asking him. (tell)
- 3 You look as if you Are you ill? (faint)
- 4 We anything special at the weekend. I expect we at home. (not do, stay)
- 5 me lift this, please? It's heavy. (you / help)

/ 5

2 Circle the correct answer.

- 6 The book was due / was about to be published six months ago.
- 7 She was going to move / was moving house but changed her mind.
- 8 After she graduates, she is about / intends to travel round the world for a year.
- 9 According to the invitation, we are / are due to be there no later than seven.
- 10 I always thought that one day I was writing / would write a best-selling novel.

/ 5

3 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 11 We were getting ready to leave when we got the call. about
We when we got the call.
- 12 Avril is leaving her job very soon. point
Avril is her job.
- 13 According to the schedule, the project will finish next year. due
The project next year.
- 14 You must not write on the question paper. are
You on the question paper.
- 15 When are they going to get married? plan
When married?
- 16 I had arranged to meet Liz for lunch but she cancelled. meeting
I Liz for lunch but she cancelled.
- 17 I was about to ring you when you rang me. going
I you when you rang me.
- 18 We expected to see them at the concert. would
We thought we them at the concert.

/ 8

4 Circle the correct answer.

WIND POWER

If the British government gets its way, the 'fuel' of the future (19) will / is about to be the air we breathe. The government (20) is on the point of using / plans to use electricity from wind farms to help meet its targets for renewable energy. With government approval, private firms (21) will have built / are to build offshore wind farms in the southeast of England. One of these, the London Array wind farm, (22) will be / will have been the largest in the world when it (23) is / will have been completed. Together, the London Array and Thanet wind farms (24) will produce / are producing enough electricity to power a million homes.

London Array have not yet announced when they (25) begin / will begin construction of the wind farm. However, they expect that they (26) will be completing / will have completed it by 2010 or 2011. The smaller wind farm in Thanet (27) is going to supply / will be supplying electricity to about 240,000 homes by 2008.

However, the farms are controversial. Developers (28) were hoping / would hope to build a third farm in the Lake District but the government rejected their plans because they are concerned about the effect of the farm on the countryside and on tourism.

Environmentalists say we (29) will have to / are having to do much more than build wind farms in the future. Otherwise, climate change (30) will have / will be having a devastating effect on the environment.

/ 12

5 Complete the conversations. Use the present simple, future simple (will/shall), future continuous, future perfect simple or future perfect continuous and the verbs in brackets.

- A: I'd love to read that book.
 B: I think I (31) (finish) it by the weekend and then you can borrow it.
 A: Really? Thanks.
 A: I (32) (take) the car to work tomorrow. Would you like a lift?
 B: Thanks, that would be great.
 A: I (33) (leave) the house at seven thirty so I can collect you shortly afterwards.
 B: That's fine. The bus I usually catch (34) (leave) at seven.
 A: Why don't you come to our place this evening at nine? The children (35) (go) to bed by then.
 B: Thanks, I will. (36) (I / bring) a DVD?
 A: Good idea. (37) (you / eat) or should I prepare some food?
 B: Oh, please don't bother. I (38) (have) dinner with my parents tonight.
 A: Fine. I (39) (work) all day and I probably (40) (not feel) like cooking.

/ 10

Total: / 40

 Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 19, 22, 23, 24, 25, 29, 30, 34, 36, 40	Unit 27	Exercise 27
26, 27, 31, 32, 33, 35, 37, 38, 39	Unit 28	Exercise 28
8, 9, 12, 13, 14, 15, 20, 21	Unit 29	Exercise 29
6, 7, 10, 11, 16, 17, 18, 28	Unit 30	Exercise 30

Now do Check 5

Modal verbs

REMEMBER!

The modal verbs are: can, could, may, might, will, would, shall, should and must.

- We use a modal verb with a main verb to express ability, obligation, etc.
- After modal verbs, we use the infinitive without to: I can speak English.
- Modal verbs don't add -s after he/she/it: He can drive. She might come.
- In questions and negative sentences, we don't use the auxiliary do: May I come in?*
- Modal verbs don't have past, perfect or future forms, or participle forms. We use other verbs instead: They had to leave early yesterday. We haven't been able to find suitable accommodation. Will you be able to get here next week? Having to take exams is a bore!
- These verbs and expressions have similar meanings to modal verbs: be able to, manage to, have (got) to, need to, be allowed to and ought to.

31 Ability and possibility

- To talk about general ability or possibility in the present, we use can or be able to. Be able to is more formal and less common than can: I can speak French fluently but I can't speak Spanish. (general ability) You can buy the tickets online or at the box office. (possibility) We aren't able to/re unable to take your call at the moment.
- To talk about general ability in the past, we use could/couldn't or was/were (not) able to: She could/was able to read when she was very young but she couldn't/wasn't able to write until she was older.
- To talk about the ability to do something on a single occasion in the past, we use was/were able to + infinitive, not could: He didn't understand but I was able to explain the problem to him. (Not ~~I could explain the problem to him~~)
- To talk about the ability to do something in the future, we use can or will be able to + time expression: I can'll be able to come and see you tonight.
- We use will be able to, not can, to talk about an ability we will have or a skill we will acquire in the future: I'll be able to drive by next summer so we can hire a car.
- We use can/could to talk about typical behaviour or events: It can rain a lot at this time of year. He could be charming when he wanted to be.
- We use could have + past participle to talk about an unfulfilled possibility in the past: I could have gone on holiday but I decided not to.
- For grammatical forms that are not possible with can, we use be able to: They like being able to work at home. I'd like to be able to help you. We've been able to work much faster since we got the computer.
- The verbs succeed and manage suggest that something is achieved with difficulty: Did you succeed in finding a hotel? We managed to get home at last.

PRACTICE

31a Circle the correct answers. There may be more than one correct answer.

- A: My father's really fit for his age. He plays tennis a lot and he (o) can / could / will be able to run quite a distance.
- B: I wish my father were the same! He (1) can / could / was able to play tennis well a few years ago but not any longer. Sometimes I worry about his health. He was so ill a year ago that he (2) can die / could die / could have died but fortunately, he's all right now.
- A: Perhaps I should introduce him to my father and they (3) can / are able to / manage to play tennis together.
-
- A: Where have you been?
- B: I had an important letter to post. Luckily, I (4) could get / was able to get / could have got to the post office just as it was closing.
-
- A: Congratulations! I hear you passed your driving test. Was it difficult?
- B: I had lessons for months and I (5) can't / couldn't / wasn't able to pass a driving test. But then I found a good instructor and I (6) could / managed to / succeeded in pass on my third attempt!
- A: That's great news. Personally, I love (7) being able to / been able to / can drive.
-
- A: (8) Can you / Will you be able to / You could come to the party tomorrow?
- B: I think so. I (9) was eventually able to / eventually managed to / eventually succeeded in arranging a lift.
- A: I thought you might have to work.
- B: I (10) can / 'll be able to / 've been able to get so much more done since I got the new computer that I (11) can / be able / could have take some time off.
- A: Great! I'm sure someone (12) will be able to / will succeed in / being able to give you a lift home.

31b Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- o We got lost but we managed to find our way home using a map. were
We got lost but we were able to find our way home using a map.
- 1 I am afraid it is not possible for him to see you now. unable
I am afraid he you now.
- 2 You will have the ability to understand Spanish after a few lessons. able
You Spanish after a few lessons.
- 3 Lucy is often bad-tempered when she is working under pressure. can Lucy when she is working under pressure.
- 4 They managed to persuade Francis to join them. succeeded
They Francis to join them.
- 5 Joan managed to get to the bank just before it closed. was Joan to the bank just before it closed.
- 6 Alex had the opportunity to leave work early but he decided to stay on. have Alex work early but he decided to stay on.

32 Degrees of certainty

- To show how certain we are that something is true or will happen in the present or future, we use may, might, could, must, can and can't.
- We use may (not), might (not) and could, but not couldn't, to talk about something we think is possible now or in the future: They may/might/could take a trip to the States next summer. She isn't in the office but she may/might/could be working at home. She may/might not be feeling well.
- We don't use can to talk about future possibility: There may/might/could be snow this evening. (Not There ~~can be~~ snow this evening.)
- We use must or have to when we are certain something is true in the present. Have to is informal: He isn't at home. He must be on his way here. There has to be some mistake! You have to be joking!
- We use can't when we are certain something is impossible: You can't be hungry! You've only just had lunch!
- To talk about something which is possible in theory, we use can or could: Can/Could there be life on Mars? I suppose you can/could go by train.*
- ⚠ Compare: We may/might not get there on time. (= Perhaps we'll be late.)
We can't/couldn't possibly get there on time. (= We'll certainly be late.)
- To speculate about the past, we use may/might/could/must/can't/couldn't have + past participle OR may/might/could/must/can't/couldn't have been + present participle.
- To talk about the possibility that something happened, we use could/may (not) / might (not) have + past participle OR could/may (not)/might (not) have been + present participle: They may/might not have had time to finish the job. He didn't answer the phone – he could/may/might have been sleeping.
- When we are certain something happened, we use must have + past participle OR must have been + present participle: It's wet. It must have been raining.
- When we are certain something didn't happen, we use can't/couldn't have + past participle OR can't/couldn't have been + present participle: He can't/couldn't have committed the robbery. He was with me.

PRACTICE

32a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 Her new car looks expensive. It must / can't have cost a fortune!
- 1 They might / can't have gone home. I don't see them anywhere.
- 2 Surely he mustn't / can't still be alive after all this time!
- 3 Our car broke down and we couldn't / may not have enough money to pay for the repairs.
- 4 Many accidents could / must be prevented with a little care.
- 5 She couldn't / might not want to come with us.
- 6 Mr Morris must / can't be nearly ninety years old but he doesn't look it.
- 7 I don't know where Bernard is – he must / could be playing tennis with Carrie.
- 8 They're going whitewater rafting. They have to / may be mad to do such a thing!

32b Correct the incorrect sentences.

0 That mustn't be the right answer. You've made a mistake.

That can't be the right answer.

1 She's wearing a nurse's uniform. She can be a nurse.

2 I don't know if Dominic's here – he must be outside.

3 She isn't here and she hasn't rung. She can have forgotten our appointment.

4 He spoke to me about it this morning so he could have forgotten about it.

5 I think it can rain this afternoon – it's very cloudy.

6 A: Why didn't she come to the party last night?

B: I don't know. She might be feeling tired.

7 Mickey can be going out. He's wearing a coat and boots.

8 That mustn't have been Davina you saw last night. She's abroad.

9 Our neighbours can be going away. Their cases are packed and there's a taxi waiting for them.

10 Some scientists believe there can be life on other planets.

32c Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

0 It's lunchtime and I'm sure you're hungry. must

It's lunchtime so you must be hungry.

1 It's possible that we'll get a reply in a few weeks. could

We a reply in a few weeks.

2 Perhaps Sandy is playing golf this afternoon. might

Sandy golf this afternoon.

3 I'm certain Emily realises that she's made a mistake. must

Emily that she's made a mistake.

4 I'm sure they're out because they aren't answering the phone. be

They aren't answering the phone so they at home.

5 It's possible that the man I saw her with was her brother. could

The man I saw her with her brother.

6 I'm certain Richard's new car cost around £20,000. must

Richard's new car around £20,000.

7 I'm sure Suzanne was running to catch the bus when I saw her. must

Suzanne to catch the bus when I saw her.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE DINOSAURS?

Many people think that because the dinosaurs died out so many years ago, we (0) may never know (may / never / know) what really happened to them. In fact, there are several theories.

Some scientists claim that a single event (1) (might / kill) these enormous reptiles. They believe that a large asteroid

(2) (must / collide) with the Earth about 65 million years ago and that the impact resulted in dramatic climate change. There is some evidence for this theory: in the Yucatan peninsula in Mexico there is an enormous crater measuring ten to sixteen kilometres across, which (3) (may / be) caused by an asteroid strike.

Other scientists say that this theory (4) (can't / be) the whole truth and that a single event – even one as cataclysmic as an asteroid strike – (5) (can't / cause) all the dinosaurs to die out at once. They think that in future other evidence (6) (might / provide) us with important clues about conditions on Earth at the time of the great extinctions. They speculate that intense volcanic activity (7) (may / cause) the Earth's climate to change and this (8) (could / destroy) the dinosaurs' natural habitats.

And finally, a large number of scientists think that the dinosaurs (9) (may not / die out) at all. They claim that today's birds (10) (could / be) the descendants of the dinosaurs – and there is some very persuasive anatomical evidence to back up their claim. If you would like to find out more about the subject, there are a number of very interesting websites:

33 Obligation and necessity

Obligation, lack of obligation and prohibition

- To say it is important or essential to do or not to do something, we use must/mustn't and have (got) to.
- Must/mustn't is used:
 - when the speaker feels that an action is necessary: I must ring Adele today. She's expecting to hear from me. We mustn't be late for the film.
 - by someone in authority, e.g. a parent or teacher: You must hand in your homework by Friday. You mustn't talk to your father like that!
 - in written rules, instructions and notices: All visitors must report to Reception.
- We use have (got) to when an action is necessary because someone else requires it or because of a rule or law. Have got to is more informal than have to. Have to and have got to are more common than must in speech: I have to be at the hospital at four. We've got to pay for the tickets in advance.
- We use have to, not have got to, for habits. Have got to can only be used for single actions: I have to catch the bus to work every day. I have to/ve got to catch the bus to work today.
- We usually use have to, not must, in questions: Did you have to get a visa?* But we can use must when we query an order: Must I really be home by midnight?*
- We use mustn't when it is important not to do something: You mustn't wait here. (= You aren't allowed to wait here.)
- We use don't have to when there is no obligation to do something: You don't have to wait. (= There is no obligation but you can wait if you wish.)
- For grammatical forms that are not possible with must, we use have to, not have got to: I had to get a prescription from the chemist. I don't like having to tell my parents where I'm going.
- To talk about the future, we use must/have (got) to/will have to + time expression: I must e-mail them tomorrow. We'll have to get there before five.

Necessity and lack of necessity

- To express necessity and lack of necessity, we use need to, needn't, don't need to, didn't need to and needn't have + past participle.
- Need is a main verb and is followed by to-infinitive: Everyone needs to eat a balanced diet. You don't need to come if you're busy. Do I need to bring anything with me? I needed to see the boss. If he gets the job, he'll need to buy some new clothes.
- We use needn't and don't need to to talk about lack of necessity in the present or future. Needn't is more formal: You needn't come/don't need to come if you don't want to. (= It isn't necessary to come.)
- Compare these ways of talking about lack of necessity in the past: We didn't need to get up early because we had no morning classes. (= We didn't get up early because it wasn't necessary.) We needn't have got up early. Our morning class was cancelled. (= We got up early but it turned out that it wasn't necessary to do so.)

Don't have to and don't need to are very similar and can usually be used interchangeably: It's Saturday tomorrow so you don't have to/don't need to get up early. She e-mailed me so I didn't have to/didn't need to phone her.

PRACTICE

33a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 You mustn't / don't have to touch that! You'll hurt yourself.
- 1 I 've got to / have to be at work every morning at nine but I think I'm going to be late today!
- 2 The children will be safe with me so you don't need / needn't worry.
- 3 The £55 passport fee must / need accompany your application.
- 4 Did you have to / Must you have a new engine put in when the car broke down?
- 5 Larry doesn't have / doesn't need to pick me up from the airport. I'll take a taxi.
- 6 Most people hate must / having to do the ironing.
- 7 We mustn't / don't have to hurry. There's plenty of time.
- 8 You needn't have worried / didn't need to worry so much. We were quite safe.
- 9 He must have forgotten / had to forget all about the appointment.
- 10 We mustn't / won't have to meet again tomorrow – I can finish the job on my own.
- 11 They'd given us a key to let ourselves in so fortunately, they didn't need to wait / needn't have waited up for us.
- 12 When we were children, we didn't have e-mail so we must / had to write letters.

33b Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of must or have to and the verbs in brackets.

- 0 She had to leave at eleven o'clock because the last bus left at twenty past. (leave)
- 1 You in a hostel. You can stay with us. (stay)
- 2 He to the station because he was late. (run)
- 3 Attention, please! All accidents reported to the safety officer. (be)
- 4 I don't like everything my boss tells me. (do)
- 5 They late tonight. They can finish the job tomorrow. (work)
- 6 I my parents. I'm really worried about them. (ring)
- 7 a uniform when you were at school? (you / wear)
- 8 You late for English classes. Otherwise, the teacher will lock you out. (be)
- 9 Barbara for a new car because her parents gave her one for her birthday. (save)
- 10 Aidan gets ill all the time. He a doctor three times so far this year. (see)
- 11 You to switch off all electric appliances before you leave the building. (forget)
- 12 Why so suddenly? Was anything wrong? (they / leave)

33c Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 0 There was very little petrol left so it was necessary to buy some. had
We had to buy some petrol as there was very little left.
- 1 It is important that you make an effort to be on time. got
You an effort to be on time.
- 2 It is not necessary to buy any more food for the weekend. need
We any more food for the weekend.
- 3 They weren't obliged to be home before midnight during the week. have
They home before midnight during the week.
- 4 If you park your car on a yellow line, you will get a parking ticket. must
You your car on a yellow line or you will get a parking ticket.
- 5 It wasn't necessary to spend so much money on Moira's present but I did. spent
I so much money on Moira's present.
- 6 He has been forced to cancel five appointments this month. had
He five appointments this month.
- 7 Was it necessary for her to book tickets for the concert in advance? need
Did tickets for the concert in advance?

33d Complete the conversation. Use the correct form of must, have to or need. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

A: Hi. Where are you going in such a hurry?

B: I (0) have to post this letter and after that I (1) get something to eat before my driving lesson. I'm starving.

A: I didn't know you were learning to drive. How's it going?

B: Fine. I've thought for a long time I really (2) learn and when we moved out of the city, I (3) start taking lessons – the public transport in the village where I'm living is terrible. But enough about me. Where are you off to?

A: I'm running a little late too. I (4) catch a train to London because I have a job interview and I (5) be late because I really (6) get a job and start earning some money.

B: I know. I (7) get a job earlier this year to pay for these driving lessons. It wasn't fair to ask my parents for the money.

A: Lessons are really expensive. I was lucky – I (8) have any because my brother taught me.

B: Lucky you! Did you pass first time?

A: No, I failed and I (9) take a second test. I can't tell you how nervous I was the second time but I (10) worried because I passed it without any difficulty.

B: All I can say is I hope I (11) take more than one test. The sooner I finish these lessons, the better!

34 Advice, recommendations and criticism

- We use should/shouldn't or ought (not) to to give advice or to say that something is or isn't a good idea in the present or future. Should is more common than ought to, especially in questions: You should/ought to try to lose some weight. Children shouldn't/ought not to be allowed to stay up late at night. We should/ought to be leaving soon. Should we ask/Ought we to ask them for permission?
- We often use should and ought to with I think and Do/Don't you think ... ?: Do you think I should/ought to call him? Don't you think we should/ought to be leaving?*
- To give strong advice and to make recommendations about a course of action in the present or future, we use must/mustn't: You must work harder or you'll never succeed. You must come over for a meal.
- We use had better (not) + infinitive without to to give strong advice or a warning: You'd better be on time for the interview. You'd better not tell Lance about it.
- We use should/shouldn't/ought (not) to have + past participle OR should/shouldn't/ought (not) to have been + present participle to express criticism of someone's behaviour in the past: I ought to have called my parents last night. He shouldn't have been wasting time like that. He should have been working.

PRACTICE

34a Tick the correct sentences and correct the incorrect sentences. There are five incorrect sentences, excluding the example.

- 0 You should to watch the programme. It's fascinating. should watch
- 1 You ought have called her to say you're sorry.
- 2 We really must try to take a holiday abroad this year.
- 3 I better not go out tonight. I'm exhausted.
- 4 I oughtn't to have eaten so much – I feel sick.
- 5 They should have call their parents earlier.
- 6 You were out enjoying yourself when you must have been studying.
- 7 You'd better to ask your mother if you can go out tonight.
- 8 Should we eat before we go out tonight?

34b Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of must or should and the verbs in brackets. Use must wherever possible.

- 0 It's your own fault you're tired. You shouldn't have gone to bed late last night. (go)
- 1 You and see us one evening. We'd love to see you. (come)
- 2 She a bath right now. We've got to leave in ten minutes! (have)

- 3 They him what happened. Now he'll never get over it. (tell)
- 4 Marcus and Wanda that new Japanese place. It's the best restaurant in town. (try)
- 5 You when I came into the room, not talking. (work)
- 6 I that suit. It was a waste of money. (buy)
- 7 You to your mother in that tone of voice ever again. (speak)
- 8 Do you think I my hair or I it as it is? (dye, leave)
- 9 You really us soon, Jeremy. We'd love to see you. (visit)
- 10 Why aren't they at the gym? They hard for the championship. (train)

34C Re-write the advice. Use must, mustn't, should or shouldn't.

GOLDEN RULES FOR TANNING SAFELY

- 0 It is very important to use your common sense when tanning.
- 1 It is very important not to sunbathe more than once a day.
- 2 It is not a good idea to have more than ten tanning sessions in two weeks.
- 3 We strongly recommend that you wear protective goggles and keep your eyes closed if you use a sun bed.
- 4 It is very important to use a sun cream that protects you against ultraviolet rays.
- 5 It is a good idea to use skincare products after tanning as well.
- 6 It is very important to check with your doctor that it is safe to tan if you are taking medication.

- 0 You must use your common sense when tanning
- 1 You
- 2 You
- 3 You
- 4 You
- 5 You
- 6 You

35 Permission, requests, offers and suggestions

Permission

- To talk about permission or lack of permission in the present or future, we use can/can't, am/is/are (not) allowed to and may (not): You can/are allowed to park your car here. You can't/aren't allowed to keep pets in the hostel. You may stand or sit, whichever is more comfortable.
- May (not) and must (not) are sometimes used in notices and written rules: Each player may look at the cards once. Travellers may not bring meat products into the country. Candidates must not start writing until the examiner tells them to.
- To talk about permission or lack of permission in the past, we use could/couldn't and was/were (not) allowed to. Compare: At school we could/were allowed to eat in the playground but we couldn't/weren't allowed to eat in the classrooms. (general permission) We were allowed to bring food into the classroom for the end of year party. (permission on a particular occasion) (Not ~~We could bring food into the classroom for the end of year party.~~)
- To ask for permission, we use can, could (more polite) or may (formal). We don't use be allowed to: Can/Could I borrow your pen? May we wait inside?*
To give permission, we can answer: Yes, sure/all right/of course/certainly.
To refuse permission, we can answer: (No,) I'm sorry, you can't.

We can use couldn't but not could to talk about permission on a particular occasion in the past: Last night I was allowed to go out with my friends but I couldn't/wasn't allowed to stay out late.

Requests

To make a request, we use:

- Can I/you ... ? or Could I/you ... ? (more polite): Can I have a drink of water, please? Could you help me lift this box?*
- Will you ... ? or Would you ... ? (more polite): Would you phone me later?*
- Would you mind + -ing? or Would you mind if I + past simple (very polite): Would you mind closing the door? Would you mind if I opened the window?*

Offers

To make an offer, we use:

- Shall I/we ... ? (polite): Shall I carry that for you?*
- Would you like ... ?: Would you like a sandwich?*
- I'll/Let me (informal): I'll make some breakfast.*
- Can/Could I ... ? or May I ... ? (more formal): Can I help you? May I take your coat?*
- I/We can/could (polite): 'I can't answer this question.' 'I could help you if you like.'

Suggestions

To make suggestions, we use:

- Shall we ... ?: Shall we go out for dinner?*
- We can/could (more polite): We could see a film this afternoon.*
- Why don't we ... ?/Let's (informal): Why don't we have a game of tennis?*
- What/How about + -ing? (informal): What about having dinner at my place next week?*

PRACTICE

35a Circle the correct answer. Then match the questions (0–6) and the responses (a–g).

- | | | |
|---|---|---------------------------------------|
| 0 | May / Shall I use your phone? | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> b |
| 1 | Shall / Will I make sandwiches for lunch? | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2 | Will / Would you mind if I turned the heating up? | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3 | Will / Might you wait here for me, please? | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4 | Shall / Let me do that for you. | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5 | Could / Shall I borrow £10 until tomorrow? | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6 | May / Will I leave my bag here? | <input type="checkbox"/> |

- a I'm sorry, but no one is allowed to leave unattended luggage.
 b Of course. Dial 9 for an outside line.
 c No, thanks. I've already had something to eat.
 d I can't lend you anything, I'm afraid. I haven't been to the bank.
 e Actually, it's quite warm in here, don't you think?
 f Thanks. I could use some help.
 g OK. How long will you be?

35b Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the words in the box.

be / allow / smoke could not / keep how about / go I / can / get
 I / can / have ~~I / may / come~~ I / may / park I / shall / take you / would / like you / would / mind / take off

- Lin: I understand you have a room to let. (0) May I come in and look around?
 Jen: Of course. (1) your coat? And (2) something to drink?
 Lin: No, thanks. I can't stay long. So, are there any house rules?
 Jen: Not really. Oh, (3) your shoes, please? What else? Let's see ... No one (4) in the house – I'm a non-smoker. And pets are a problem. The last person who rented the room had a cat but I'm allergic to cats so she (5) it here.
 Lin: That's not a problem. I don't smoke and I don't have any pets – but I do have a car. (6) it on the drive if I take the room?
 Jen: Yes, of course. I don't have a car so that's not a problem.
 Lin: Thank you. In the last place I stayed, I had to park my car on the street – that was a nuisance.

 Jen: Hi. Come in. (7) you anything?
 Bob: (8) a cold drink, please? So, how was your day?
 Jen: Good. I think I've found someone who wants to rent the spare room.
 Bob: That's great news. (9) out for a pizza to celebrate?

Check 6 Modal verbs

1 Circle the correct answer. In one question all answers are correct.

A: I saw someone in my class cheat in our last exam and I didn't say anything.

What do you think I (1) should / ought / need to do now?

B: I think you (2) should say / should have said / had better say something at the time. You (3) could / may / might talk to a teacher in confidence now but it

(4) could / may / might be too late for the school to take action. Whatever happens, I don't think you (5) could / may / should be too hard on yourself.

/ 5

2 Complete the conversations. Use one word in each gap.

A: (6) don't we watch a film at my place this evening?

B: Good idea. I've got a new DVD. (7) I bring it?

A: I'm sorry, but you (8) only have one piece of hand luggage.

B: But the last time I flew I (9) allowed to bring two bags onto the plane.

A: I'm afraid the regulations have changed.

A: I don't feel well. I've got a headache.

B: You'd (10) not go to work today then.

A: Would you (11) ringing the office for me?

A: How's your new job?

B: It's good. I don't like (12) to travel to London three days a week but I do like (13) able to work from home the rest of the time.

/ 8

3 Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of must or need and the verbs in brackets.

14 You any money with you if you don't want to. I have plenty. (bring)

15 You here. If you do, they'll tow your car away. (park)

16 I myself – we'd already met. (introduce)

17 They early tomorrow – they can lie in for a change. (get up)

18 You really the film – it's brilliant! (see)

19 She bought three bottles of milk but she There was plenty in the fridge. (do)

20 You to ring me. Otherwise, I'll worry about you. (forget)

/ 7

4 Complete the article. Use one word in each gap.

When scientists dug up the fossilised bones of a camel in the Arctic, they (21)n't believe their eyes. How was it possible that animals whose descendants usually live in hot desert areas were (22) to survive in the cold Canadian north? But these bones suggest that thousands of years ago the Arctic can't have (23) as cold and barren as it is today and somehow, the camels (24) able to find food and survive.

Scientists know that the Earth's climate goes through cycles of warmer and cooler periods but they haven't been able (25) find out why these occur. They are sure that something (26) affect the amount of heat the Earth receives from the sun. One suggestion is that in the past a thick cloud of ash and gas from a volcanic eruption might (27) blocked out the sun's heat, causing the Earth to cool. Another theory is that the Earth's irregular orbit (28) have taken it farther away from the sun. Either of these events could (29) had a great impact on the climate.

(30) we be in for another ice age? Some scientists believe that under normal circumstances, we would now be due for a cooling period. Against this, the greenhouse effect is warming the planet so the Earth (31) get warmer or cooler in the long term - no one (32) be certain.

/ 12

5 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 33 The hills are often cold at night. can
The hills at night.
- 34 I wish I could speak Japanese. able
I would like Japanese.
- 35 He had the opportunity to go to university but decided not to. could
He to university but decided not to.
- 36 I was able to open the door only after pushing really hard. succeeded
I the door only after pushing really hard.
- 37 Would you advise me to call them? should
Do you them?
- 38 It wasn't necessary for her to work at the weekend. have
She at the weekend.
- 39 Shall I make us something to eat? to
Would us something to eat?
- 40 Let's go somewhere different tonight. going
How tonight?

/ 8

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
13, 21, 22, 24, 25, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36	Unit 31	Exercise 31
4, 23, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31	Unit 32	Exercise 32
12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20, 38	Unit 33	Exercise 33
1, 2, 5, 10, 18, 37	Unit 34	Exercise 34
3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 39, 40	Unit 35	Exercise 35

Now do Check 6

Statements and questions

36 Basic sentence types

- In English, a sentence must have a subject and a verb. The verb may be followed by an object, a complement and/or an adverbial. The subject tells us the topic of the sentence. The object tells us the person or thing affected by the verb. Subjects and objects can be nouns, noun phrases, pronouns or -ing forms.

Subject	Verb	Object
My brother Jon	has bought	a beautiful sports car.
He	loves	showing off his new car.

- Intransitive verbs don't have an object. They can be followed by adverbials (an adverb or a prepositional phrase): Sales rose in January. They rose sharply.
- Transitive verbs have an object (+ adverbial).

Subject	Verb	Object	Adverbial
Jon	bought	the car	last week.

- Some transitive verbs can have two objects. Two patterns are possible:

Subject	Verb	Direct object + to/for + Indirect object / Indirect object + Direct object
Marian's mother	baked	a cake for her daughter / her daughter a cake.
She	posted	the cake to her daughter / her daughter the cake.

- When the direct object is a pronoun, we usually put the pronoun first: Marian's mother baked it for her daughter. She posted it to her daughter.
- Some transitive verbs have a complement after the object. This tells us more about the object and can be an adjective, noun phrase or prepositional phrase.

Subject	Verb	Object	Object complement
I	find	the room	cold.
Harriet and Ivan	called	their baby	Quentin.
They	took	the bags	to the car.

- Linking verbs like be, become, feel, get, look, seem and smell are followed by a complement, not an object:

Subject	Verb	Subject complement
The meal	smells	really delicious.
Your coat	is	in the wardrobe.

- Adverbials can come before the subject or verb, or after the verb, object or complement: Unfortunately, we soon realised how difficult the work would be. She posted the letter yesterday.
- We can use conjunctions to join sentences: He missed supper and he's starving.

PRACTICE

36a Decide if the underlined words are direct or indirect objects, complements or adverbial phrases.

The Least Sudden Wedding

Octavio Guillen met (0) a young girl in 1900. Her name was (1) Adriana Martinez. He proposed (2) two years later and when she accepted, he gave (3) her (4) a ring and announced (5) their engagement to their families. Octavio and Adriana finally married (6) in Mexico in 1969. They were (7) in their eighties and they had been (8) engaged for sixty-nine years!

- | | | |
|------------------------------------|---------|---------|
| 0 direct object | 1 | 2 |
| 3 | 4 | 5 |
| 6 | 7 | 8 |

36b Put the words in the correct order. Some sentences have two clauses separated by a dash (-). Begin these sentences with the clause given first.

- 0 Larry Page / met / Serge Brin – when / graduate students / were / they / at Stanford University Larry Page met Serge Brin when they were graduate students at Stanford University.

- 1 although / at first / disliked / they / one another – they / to work together / soon / started
- 2 started / Page and Brin / in a friend's garage / the Google business / in 1998
- 3 had been working on / since 1996 / they / a search engine called 'Backrub'
- 4 when / to work together / started / Page and Brin – they / in making money / interested / weren't
- 5 to share / they / with the world / wanted / their ideas
- 6 today / use / Google / millions of people – is / worth several billion dollars / and / the company

37 Question forms

Yes/No questions

Auxiliary/ Modal verb	Subject	Verb	Completion	Short answers
Are	you	coming	with me?	No, I'm not.
Can	you	help	her?	Yes, we can.
Did	Tim and Mia	report	the robbery?	Yes, they did.
Has	he	done	his homework?	No, he hasn't.

Wh- questions

Question word	Auxiliary/ Modal verb	Subject	Verb	Completion
Where	are	you	going	now?
How	will	I	tell	her the news?
Who	do	they	work	for?

- Prepositions usually go at the end of a wh- question: What are you listening to?
- Notice these questions with what and how:
 - What + noun: What colour is it? What subjects are you studying?
 - How + adjective/adverb: How big is it? How often do you see them?
 - How + much/many: How much are the tickets? How many sisters do you have?
- Compare what and which: What's your favourite colour? (There are many colours.)
Which colour do you prefer, red or blue? (There is a limited number of colours.)

Subject/Object questions

Who, what, which, whose and how much/many can be the subject or object of a question.

Subject	Object
Who married Linda? I married her.	Who did Linda marry? Linda married me .
What will happen? Nothing will happen.	What will you do? I will do nothing .
Whose car is the Fiat? The Fiat is Jon's.	Whose car do you like? I like Jon's car .
How many guests came to the wedding? 150 guests came.	How many guests did you invite? I invited 150 guests .

Negative questions

- We make questions negative by adding not to the auxiliary or modal verb.
- We use negative yes/no questions to ask for confirmation, express surprise or annoyance: Doesn't the room look nice? (= I think it looks nice.) Haven't you finished that yet? (= You should have finished.)
- We use negative wh- questions to ask for information, make suggestions or criticise past actions: Who hasn't got a cup of coffee? Why don't we go out for a meal? Why didn't you do as I asked?

▶▶ See Appendix 1: Punctuation rules, page 199.

PRACTICE

37a Write questions.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 0 | They're leaving for the theatre. | Are they leaving for the theatre? |
| 1 | He should fix the car this weekend. | |
| 2 | She's looked everywhere for her keys. | |
| 3 | Conrad wants to borrow this book. | |
| 4 | They'd given the money to Vince. | |
| 5 | You were watching a play last night. | |
| 6 | She'll have finished the book by then. | |

37b Write questions for the underlined answers.

- | | | |
|---|--|--|
| 0 | A: How much money have you got? | B: I've got ten pounds . |
| 1 | A: | B: The new carpet is red . |
| 2 | A: | B: I enjoyed Maths most. |
| 3 | A: | B: They play three times a week . |
| 4 | A: | B: He bought a dozen eggs. |
| 5 | A: | B: Eva met Keith at the cinema. |
| 6 | A: | B: Eva met Keith at the cinema. |
| 7 | A: | B: I borrowed Julie's electric guitar. |
| 8 | A: | B: Paul left the newspaper on the sofa. |

37c Complete the conversations. Write negative questions. Use the words in brackets.

- | | | |
|---|---|------------------------------------|
| 0 | A: Hurry or you'll be late. | Weren't you late yesterday? |
| | (you / be / late / yesterday) | |
| | B: No, I wasn't. I was on time. | |
| 1 | A: I've got some spare copies. | |
| | (who / have got / one) | |
| | B: I haven't. Could you give me one, please? | |
| 2 | A: We're going to be late! | |
| | (why / you / get / ready / sooner) | |
| | B: I was busy. Anyway, I don't see the problem – we're only a few minutes late. | |
| 3 | A: You're washing the car! | |
| | (you / have got / anything better to do) | |
| | B: No, I haven't. And besides, I enjoy washing the car. | |
| 4 | A: There's no room on the mantelpiece for that vase. | |
| | (why / you / put / it / here) | |
| | B: That's a good idea. I'll do that. | |
| 5 | A: The car has been running well since we had it serviced. | |
| | (the garage / do / a great job) | |
| | B: Yes, they certainly did. You'd think it was a new car. | |

38 Question tags and reply questions

Question tags

- We form question tags with an auxiliary/modal verb + pronoun. We use negative question tags after positive statements and positive question tags after negative statements: You're coming tonight, aren't you? The Browns live here, don't they?
- The question tag with imperatives is will you: Close the door, will you?
- The question tag with Let's is shall we: Let's go for a walk, shall we?
- We use they in question tags after someone, everyone, etc. and it in question tags after nothing, something and everything: Someone rang earlier, didn't they? Nothing ever happens here, does it?
- We use question tags:
 - to invite agreement (our voice goes down): 'We haven't met before, have we?' (= I don't think we've met.) 'No, we haven't.'
 - as 'real' questions when we aren't sure if something is true (our voice goes up): 'You like fish, don't you?' 'Yes, I do. / No, I don't.'

Reply questions

- We use reply questions to show that we are interested in or surprised by what someone is saying: 'You left your bag here.' 'Did I? How silly of me!'
- We use a positive question after a positive statement and a negative question after a negative statement: 'I'll finish it for you.' 'Will you? Thanks.' 'I haven't been well.' 'Haven't you? I'm sorry.'

PRACTICE

38a Complete the questions. Use question tags.

- Put that cat down, will you ?
- I'm too thin to wear that dress, ?
- We haven't finished yet, ?
- Let's have some lunch, ?
- You won't leave, ?
- Jane left a message, ?
- Everyone is here now, ?
- You don't eat meat, ?
- Something fell on the floor, ?

38b Complete the conversations. Use reply questions.

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------|
| 0 A: I left my ring by the sink. | B: Did you? |
| 1 A: There won't be any problems. | B: |
| 2 A: You said you'd ring me. | B: |
| 3 A: I couldn't get anyone to help me. | B: |
| 4 A: He isn't sure how to do this. | B: |
| 5 A: She plays the guitar. | B: |

- 6 A: They've left their front door open. B:
- 7 A: There aren't any messages for you. B:
- 8 A: I can speak several languages. B:

38c Complete the conversations. Use one or two words in each gap.

- A: Put the screwdriver down over there, (0) will you?
 B: Sure. No problem. You've done this before, (1) you?
 A: Of course. I put up all the shelves in my last house.
 B: (2) you? But someone helped you, (3) they?
 A: Let's see the new Bond film this evening, (4) we?
 B: Great idea! I've seen every Bond film they've ever made.
 A: (5) you?
 A: You haven't got a pencil I could borrow, (6) you?
 B: I think so. Here you are. Now have a look at page five, (7) you?
 A: Thanks. I see what you mean. That calculation can't be right, (8) it?

39 Avoiding repetition: so, neither, too, etc.

- We can use the following structures to avoid repeating the same words when we add more information to a statement:
 - so/neither/nor + auxiliary/modal verb + subject: *Jan was upset and so was I. (= I was also upset.) *I can't sing and neither can Kate. (= Kate can't sing either.)
 - subject + auxiliary/modal verb + too: *Jake's taken a year off work and I have too.
 - subject + negative auxiliary/modal verb + either: *I won't come and my brother won't either.
- We can use these structures to agree with someone:
 - 'I've enjoyed myself.' 'So have I. / I have too.'
 - 'I don't have any money.' 'Neither/Nor do I. / I don't either.'
- To answer a question, we can use I'm afraid/believe/expect/hope/think + so and I don't think/expect so or I hope not: 'Is she very ill?' 'I'm afraid so.' 'Is Helen joining us later?' 'I think so.' 'Will we get paid this week?' 'I don't think so.' 'Has everything been destroyed?' 'I hope not.'
- To answer questions beginning with Shall we ... ?, we use 'Yes, let's. / No, let's not: 'Shall we stop for a meal?' 'Yes, let's.'
- We often shorten sentences to avoid repetition:
 - when we ask and answer questions: 'Have you ever studied abroad?' 'No, I haven't. Have you?' (= No, I haven't studied abroad. Have you studied abroad?)
 'I can't speak Mandarin. Can you?' (= Can you speak Mandarin?)
 - when we respond to statements, requests, etc.: 'It must be time for lunch.' 'I think it is.' (= It is time for lunch.) 'Please help yourself.' 'Thanks, I will.' (= I will help myself.)
 - in clauses: *I said I would finish by nine and I did. (= I did finish by nine)
*I'd be there if I could. (= if I could be there)

PRACTICE

39a Complete the conversations. Use one word in each gap.

- A: Will you be working this weekend?
 B: I hope (0) not I could do with a rest.
 A: (1) could I. Maybe we should go away together for a few days.

- A: Have you seen Axel recently?
 B: I'm afraid (2) I haven't seen him for days.
 A: (3) have I. I wonder if he's avoiding us.

- A: Do you understand what the boss wants us to do?
 B: I think (4)
 A: Well I (5)n't and neither (6) Eleanor.

- A: Haven't we met before?
 B: I don't (7) so. I'm afraid I don't recognise you.

- A: I haven't seen the new animated film.
 B: I haven't (8) Shall we go this weekend?

- A: You should try that new Italian restaurant. It's really good.
 B: I (9) We were there at the weekend.

39b Complete the conversations. Use the words in brackets.

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| 0 A: I've never been abroad. (either) | B: I haven't either. |
| 1 A: I haven't had anything to eat yet. (neither) | B: |
| 2 A: I'm very fond of Linda. (so) | B: |
| 3 A: I disagreed with her suggestion. (too) | B: |
| 4 A: I don't like the new teacher. (nor) | B: |
| 5 A: I'm going to Italy this summer. (so) | B: |
| 6 A: I don't like horror movies. (neither) | B: |
| 7 A: I couldn't get in touch with Greg. (either) | B: |
| 8 A: I'll order the vegetarian option. (too) | B: |

39c Cross out the words in italics that are not necessary. Don't change the meaning of the sentence.

- 0 A: I wish you were here! B: I'd be there if I could be there.
- 1 A: Have you had lunch yet? B: No, but I'm going to have lunch in a minute.
- 2 A: I think we should stop somewhere for something to eat.
 B: Yes, I think we should stop somewhere for something to eat.
- 3 A: Please sit down. B: Thank you, I will sit down.
- 4 She promised she would pick me up at six and she did pick me up at six.
- 5 I offered to pay for the tickets and I did pay for them.
- 6 I won't be attending the conference. Will you be attending the conference?

40 Exclamations and emphatic forms

- Exclamations express strong feelings. They are formed in the following ways:
 - That + verb + adjective: 'I've won the lottery!' 'That's amazing!'
 - adjective + noun/pronoun: Lucky you! Poor Ian! Silly me!
 - How + adjective (+ subject + verb): How interesting! How ill she looked!
 - What (+ adjective) (+ a/an) + noun (+ subject + verb): What a day! What a wonderful view! What enormous trees! What dreadful weather we're having!
- Exclamations are also formed in other ways:
 - so + adjective/adverb or such (+ a/an) (+ adjective) + noun: It's so hot! This is such a good book! Vera and Bob are such nice people!
 - negative questions: 'Wasn't that film terrible?' 'Awful!'
 - question word + on earth ... ?: What on earth are you doing?
 - question words with -ever: however, whatever, etc: Whatever can he mean? However will I manage without you?
 - do in imperatives and in sentences where there is normally no auxiliary verb: Do sit down. She does work hard. I do like Janice.

▶▶ See Appendix 1: Punctuation rules, page 199.

PRACTICE

40a Complete the conversations. Use the words in the box.

didn't do how however lucky you so that what why on earth

- 0 A: Why didn't you call? We were ^{so} worried!. B: I'm sorry.
- 1 A: Harry's been in an accident. B: awful!
- 2 A: I think I've lost my passport. B: 's terrible!
- 3 A: I've just won a holiday in New York! B: !
- 4 A: a fantastic holiday that was! B: Wasn't it great?
- 5 A: didn't you ask me to help?
B: I thought you were busy.
- 6 A: they make a good job of the report? B: Very good!
- 7 A: did he get that job?
B: He must know the right people.
- 8 A: have another piece of cake.
B: Thank you. It's delicious.

40b Re-write the sentences.

- 0 How beautiful this view is! What a beautiful view this is !
- 1 What strange birds they are! How the birds are!
- 2 What rude children they have! They !
- 3 Her poems are so difficult! What she writes!
- 4 She's so beautiful! She's woman!
- 5 It's such a complicated problem! The problem !

Check 7 Statements and questions

1 Put the words in the correct order. Some sentences have two clauses separated by a dash (-). Begin these sentences with the clause given first.

- 1 good / the meal / look / although / didn't / very - was / tasty / it / quite
.....
.....
- 2 call / why / you / didn't / me - you / as soon as / arrived / at the hotel / ?
.....
.....
- 3 you / have / here / been waiting / for a long time / ?
.....
.....
- 4 is / leaving / Sylvia / next month - I / so / and / am
.....
.....
- 5 the bus / left / Lance / his briefcase / on / yesterday
.....
.....

/ 5

2 Circle the correct answer.

- 6 A: I haven't seen Janice here before.
B: Haven't you? / Have you? She comes here often.
- 7 A: I posted to her the letter / the letter to her last week.
B: And she still hasn't received it?
- 8 A: Do you / Don't you look nice today!
B: Thank you. I'm wearing a new suit.
- 9 A: I'll clean the car this afternoon - it's filthy!
B: Will you? / Won't you? That would be great.
- 10 A: Sam is a such / such an easy person to be around!
B: Do you think so?

/ 5

3 Complete the e-mail. Use one word in each gap.

New Message

Dear Sebastian,

I'm so sorry to hear you've got the flu!
(11) rotten luck!

We went out for dinner last night as planned. Flora couldn't make it and
(12) could Miles but everyone else was there. I arrived late and
(13) did Sath but it didn't spoil the evening. We all had (14) fun!

I spoke to Danielle and she said that you haven't sent (15) a copy of the report yet. I know you'd have sent it if you
(16) have. Let me know if you need help, (17) you?

I (18) hope you feel better soon. Let's arrange another meal when you're well, (19) we? (20)n't you think that new Italian restaurant will be nice?

Regards, Albena

/ 10

Total: / 20

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
1, 5, 7, 15	Unit 36	Exercise 36
2, 3, 8, 20	Unit 37	Exercise 37
6, 9, 17, 19	Unit 38	Exercise 38
4, 12, 13, 16	Unit 39	Exercise 39
10, 11, 14, 18	Unit 40	Exercise 40

Now do Check 7

-ing forms and infinitives

41 Verb + -ing form or infinitive?

- Some verbs are followed by an -ing form. The -ing form often describes an activity: We enjoyed seeing you last week. I miss going to the beach every day.
- Some verbs are followed by a to-infinitive. The to-infinitive often describes an intention or a future event: I hope to see you soon. They promised not to tell her.
- Some verbs can be followed by either an -ing form or a to-infinitive with no change in meaning: We prefer travelling/to travel by train. The baby started crying/to cry.
- Sometimes there is a difference in meaning between like + -ing and like + to-infinitive: I like swimming. (This is something I enjoy doing.) I like to finish all the boring jobs first and then focus on more creative work. (I don't (necessarily) like the boring jobs but I prefer to do them first.)
- Some verbs can be followed by an -ing form or a to-infinitive with a change in meaning. Compare:

The car needs washing . (= Someone needs to wash the car.)	He needs to get up early (= It's necessary for him to get up early.)
I regret upsetting her. (= I'm sorry that I upset her.)	I regret to inform you that you didn't get the post. (= I'm sorry but I have to tell you that you didn't get the post.)
I remember speaking to her last night. (= I remember that I spoke to her.)	I remembered to speak to her. (= I remembered and then I spoke to her.)
We stopped talking when she came in. (= We were talking but when she came in, we stopped talking.)	We stopped to have a cup of tea. (= We stopped what we were doing in order to have a cup of tea.)
We tried living in the United States for a while but we didn't like it. (= We lived in the United States for a while to see if we would like it but we didn't.)	They try to exercise every day. (= They make an effort to exercise every day.)
He went on working until he was in his seventies. (= He didn't stop working until he was in his seventies.)	After her studies she went on to become a successful surgeon. (= She became a successful surgeon after she had finished her studies.)

- Would like, would prefer and would love are always followed by a to-infinitive, not an -ing form: I'd prefer to travel by train. (Not I'd prefer travelling by train.)
- We use the infinitive without to after:
 - modal verbs: I must go. You shouldn't tell him.
 - had better and would rather: We'd better go. I'd rather stay here.
 - Let's and Why not ... ?: Let's have something to eat.

►► See Appendix 3: Verbs followed by -ing form, page 201; Appendix 4: Verbs followed by to-infinitive, page 201; Appendix 5: Verbs followed by -ing form or to-infinitive page 201.

PRACTICE

41a Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- 0 The architect expects to complete the building in April. (complete)
- 1 I really didn't mean you. (offend)
- 2 Zac gave up several years ago. (smoke)
- 3 We managed to avoid an accident. (have)
- 4 Have you finished your essay yet? (write)
- 5 I chose German rather than French. (learn)
- 6 Young children enjoy round the house. (help)
- 7 Geraldine is hoping law at Cambridge. (study)
- 8 My new job will mean all over the world. (travel)
- 9 Dmitri and Ursula have postponed married for a few months. (get)
- 10 Magnus refused any money for the work he'd done. (accept)

41b Circle the correct answer.

- 0 I'd like to go / I like going on holiday to a different place every summer.
- 00 I'd like to go / I like going somewhere different this summer. Any ideas?
- 1 I regret to tell / telling you that your contract will not be renewed.
- 2 I regret to tell / telling you about it because it upset you.
- 3 He stopped to have / having coffee because it kept him awake at night.
- 4 He stopped to have / having a coffee and then he went back to work.
- 5 I know you're tired but please try to concentrate / concentrating for a few more minutes.
- 6 I'm going to try to drink / drinking warm milk before I go to bed; it might help me sleep better.
- 7 Alice went on to act / acting until she was forced to retire because of her health.
- 8 Although Alice started out in television, she went on to act / acting on the stage.
- 9 He remembered to close / closing the windows so the rain didn't get in.
- 10 He remembered to close / closing the windows so he was surprised to find them open when he got home.

42 Verb + object + -ing form or infinitive?

verb + object + to-infinitive

- Some verbs must be followed by an object before the to-infinitive: Water came into the boat and caused it to sink. They forced him to tell them the secret.
- Some verbs can be followed by an object before the to-infinitive, or an -ing form with no object: They don't allow visitors to park their cars here. They don't allow parking here.
- Some verbs can be followed by an object, depending on the meaning of the sentence. Compare: I expect to be on time. (= I expect that I will be on time.)
I expect you to be on time. (= I expect that you will be on time.)

verb + object + infinitive without to

- Make and let are followed by object + infinitive without to: You can't make me tell you – it's a secret! Some people let their children do whatever they like.
- Help is followed by object + infinitive with or without to: I helped her (to) carry her cases.

verb + object + -ing form

- Some verbs are followed by object + -ing form: I caught him looking in my desk. I couldn't stop her biting her nails.

see, hear, watch, etc.

- Verbs of perception (e.g. see, notice, look at, watch, hear, listen to, feel, smell) can be followed by object + -ing form, or infinitive without to. Compare:
I watched him play football. (= I watched him during the whole game.)
I watched him playing football. (= I watched him for a period of time while the game was in progress.)
The -ing form is more common. The difference in meaning between the two forms is often small: I can hear the birds sing/singing in the mornings.

▶▶ See Appendix 6: Verbs followed by object + to-infinitive, page 201.

PRACTICE

42a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 They wouldn't allow / forbid / (let) him go out with his friends.
- 1 Les assisted / helped / taught me set up the new computer.
- 2 Their parents make them staying / to stay / stay home on weekdays.
- 3 They wouldn't allow / let / make us to go into the building.
- 4 What caused / forced / made you change your mind?
- 5 The factory lets / makes / allows eating in the canteen only.
- 6 Bad health forced / let / made him to leave his job.
- 7 She likes / expects / imagines to finish the project by January.
- 8 I was shocked to see her going / to go / go through my bag.

42b Join the sentences. Use the -ing form or to-infinitive.

- 0 Several cars collided on the motorway. Poor weather conditions caused this.
Poor weather conditions caused several cars to collide on the motorway.
.....
- 1 Motorists should avoid that section of the motorway. Police are advising this.
.....
- 2 Injured people are getting to hospital. Rescue services are helping them.
.....
- 3 People might panic. Police are anxious to stop this.
.....
- 4 People can call a special number for more information. Police are encouraging this.
.....
- 5 Motorists should not approach the scene of the accident. Police are preventing this.
.....

42c Complete the extract from a story. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Sometimes more than one form is possible.

She invited me (0) to sit [sit] down and then she excused herself from the room. I heard her (1) [make] the tea in the kitchen and listened as she set out the cups and saucers. The room had begun (2) [feel] a little odd and I regretted (3) [take] off my jacket. I noticed the fire (4) [begin] to die down in the grate, watched the second hand (5) [move] slowly round the clock face and wondered how long it would be before she would allow me (6) [leave].

A few minutes later I heard the tea trolley (7) [roll] on its wheels through the kitchen and then into the sitting room, where I was waiting. I started (8) [drink] the tea she had poured for me and she let me (9) [continue] in silence. I felt her (10) [watch] me and looked up quickly, hoping to catch her (11) [stare] at me, but she was looking instead at the cup of tea in my hand. Nervously, I sipped some more. It tasted slightly of bitter almonds but I carried on (12) [drink] it to be polite. At last I finished the unpleasant brew and set my cup down in the saucer.

'Would you like me (13) [pour] you another cup?' she asked.

'No thank you,' I said, reaching unsteadily for my briefcase. 'I must be going if I expect (14) [be] home in time for dinner.'

43 Other uses of infinitives

adjective + to-infinitive

We can use the to-infinitive:

- with adjectives such as (un)able, certain, determined, keen, (un)likely, ready, sure and (un)willing. The infinitive often refers to a future event: They aren't willing to do it. She's determined to win. It's certain to rain tomorrow. He's sure to be late again.
- with adjectives such as afraid, amazed, ashamed, delighted, disappointed, glad, happy, sad, sorry and surprised, to describe feelings: I'm pleased to meet you. We were sorry to hear your news.
- with adjectives such as careless, good, kind, nice and wrong, to express an opinion or make a judgment. We can also use *it + be + adjective (+ of someone) + to-*infinitive: She was wrong to do that. It was wrong (of her) to do that.
- after adjectives such as difficult, easy, exciting, expensive, fun, hard, impossible and interesting, to describe an action or activity. We can also use *it + be + adjective (+ for someone) + to-*infinitive: This language is easy to learn. It's easy to learn this language. The article is impossible to understand. It's impossible for us to understand the article.

noun/pronoun + to-infinitive

We can use the to-infinitive:

- to refer to an event in the future. The pattern is *noun + be + to-infinitive: My ambition is to be a doctor. His first thought was to ring us.
- with nouns such as attempt, chance, decision, desire, effort, intention, opportunity, plan and time, to complete their meaning: I finally made a decision to leave my job.
- to give more information about a noun: Let's find a place to eat. (= Let's find a place where we can eat.) We had a long journey to make. (= We had a long journey that we had to make.)
- with something, anything, somewhere, etc.: Is there anywhere (for us) to sit down? There's nothing to do in this place.
- with the/first/second/last/only/best, etc.: She was the only person to succeed. (= She was the only person who succeeded.) It was their first attempt to climb Mount Everest.
- to describe purpose. The pattern is *for + noun + to-*infinitive: I left the window open for the cat to get out. (= so that the cat could get out)

▶▶ For to-infinitive after too and enough, see Unit 15. For infinitive of purpose, see Unit 59.

PRACTICE

43a Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box.

agree be (x2) go keep leave look love spend stay travel understand work

- A: Aren't you ready (0) to go yet?
B: I'm sorry (1) you waiting. I'll be ready in fifteen minutes.
A: All right, but please hurry. It's not polite (2) late for dinner and we have a long way (3)
A: You hate your job. Why don't you leave?
B: Look, it's not hard (4) why I stay here. My ambition is
(5) sales manager and I've made a decision
(6) here for another year because it'll be good for my career.
A: I think we should find somewhere (7) the night. It's getting late.
B: It's expensive (8) in a hotel. Where do you suggest?
A: I don't know, but I brought a guidebook for us (9) at. Why don't we see if there's a nice bed and breakfast nearby?
A: Did you leave the door open?
B: I don't think so. Hazel was the last person (10) the house – it must have been her that left it open.
A: I'm lonely. I need someone (11)
B: Have you considered getting yourself a puppy?
A: I must have been crazy (12) to this.
B: Don't worry. Everything will be all right – you'll see.

43b Join the sentences. Use the to-infinitive.

- 0 We're going to do our best. We're ready.
We 're ready to do our best
- 1 He's going to move to Italy next year. He's keen.
He
- 2 Don't interrupt people all the time. It's rude.
It's
- 3 She's starting up her own business. That's her intention.
Her
- 4 I want to take part in the Olympic Games one day. That's my ambition.
It's
- 5 He bought a DVD. He'll watch it this evening.
He bought
- 6 I disagreed with him. I was the only person.
I was

43c Complete the e-mail. Use the correct form of the words in the box.

aim / save complicated / work out easy / work great / have important / get place / stay someone / replace sure / be time / apply welcome / share wonderful / hear

43d Re-write the sentences. Use the to-infinitive.

- o Nobody left the party before him.
He was the first person to leave the party
- 1 I received your letter and I was delighted.
I was delighted
- 2 Heating this house is very expensive.
It's very expensive
- 3 Having interests outside work is important.
It's important
- 4 That child learns very quickly.
That child is
- 5 How do you think I should cook this fish?
What's the best way ?
- 6 There was nobody who saw him after we did.
We were the last people

44 Other uses of -ing forms

We can use -ing forms:

- as the subject of a sentence, sometimes after an adjective: Smoking is bad for you. Regular swimming is good for you.
- as the complement of be: His favourite activity is watching television and mine is going to the gym.
- as uncountable nouns, often after a determiner (e.g. a, the, this, a lot of) + adjective. The -ing form may be followed by of: I was woken up by the ringing of the doorbell. This constant arguing has got to stop!
- after go to mean that we do an activity, often a sport: We went swimming yesterday. She goes skiing every winter. They've gone shopping.
- after expressions with can't: can't bear, can't face, can't help, can't stand, can't stop: I can't face doing the washing up – let's leave it until the morning. They couldn't stand not knowing the truth.
- after for to describe purpose: It's a knife for cutting bread.
- after some adjectives to talk about an activity in progress: We're busy decorating the flat. It's nice not being at work.
- after some nouns: Sometimes she has difficulty saying 'no' to people. I'm having trouble checking my e-mails.
- after spend/waste + period of time: We spent many weeks studying.
- in some expressions: it's no good/use, there's no point (in), it's worth, it's a waste of time: It's no good/use complaining – you have to take the test again. There's no point (in) trying to change his mind. The film is worth seeing.

PRACTICE

44a Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box.

argue	be	do	eat	feel	find	get give	measure	shop	sit	ski	work

- 0 A: What are you doing during the holidays?
B: We're going skiing in the French Alps – if there's enough snow, that is.
- 1 A: What's wrong?
B: It's awful here. I can't stand at a desk all day in an office – I'm used to being outdoors.
- 2 A: What's that?
B: It's an instrument for the amount of moisture in the air.
- 3 A: I can't help there's been a mistake.
B: Yes, I agree with you.

- 4 A: I'm afraid isn't allowed in the library.
 B: I'm sorry. I'll have my sandwich outside.
- 5 A: It's a waste of time her advice – she won't listen to you.
 B: Perhaps, but I have to try.
- 6 A: Are we lost?
 B: Not really, but I'm having trouble the address.
- 7 A: You look sad. What's wrong?
 B: I miss with my family. I've never been away from home before.
- 8 A: I'm sorry we can't agree but it's no use
 B: You're right. There's no point in angry with one another just because we have different points of view.
- 9 A: Where on earth are Arthur and Olivia?
 B: They're in town. I think they've gone for some curtain material.
- 10 A: I phoned you last night but you weren't at home.
 B: I'm sorry. I was busy some research at the library and I must have left my mobile switched off.

44b Complete the e-mail. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

New Message

Hi, Nigell!

Just to say I've moved into my new university accommodation. I (0) spent a few days packing (spend / a few days / pack) everything into boxes but I paid someone to move the stuff. In the end, I decided it (1) (be / worth / pay) professionals to do the job – I've got a lot of expensive electronic equipment and I (2) (can't face / the thought of it / get) damaged. Right now I (3) (be / busy / take) everything out of boxes and putting it away. They say that (4) (move) house is really stressful – and they're right!

Now I'm here, though, I think I'll like my new place. It's right next to the fitness centre so I'm able to (5) (go / swim) every day – they have an Olympic-size pool there. Unfortunately, some nights I have (6) (trouble / study) because of the people next door. They're so noisy! It's probably (7) (a waste of time / ask) them to be quieter but I might go and speak to them.

Anyway, it (8) (be / always / great / hear) from you so keep in touch.

Alistair

45 doing, (to) do, being done, (to) be done, etc.

-ing form	doing	I hate asking people their age.
passive -ing form	being done	I hate being asked my age.
perfect -ing form	having done	I'm proud of having completed the race.
perfect passive -ing form	having been done	I disliked having been ignored . (= I was ignored and I disliked it.)
infinitive	(to) do	I want to invite them to the party.
passive infinitive	(to) be done	I want to be invited to the party.
perfect infinitive	(to) have done	I'd like to have invited all of my friends to the party but I couldn't.
perfect passive infinitive	(to) have been done	I'd love to have been invited to the party but I wasn't.
continuous infinitive	(to) be doing	Beth's health seems to be improving .

The perfect -ing form and the perfect passive -ing form are very formal and we avoid them. We use the -ing form and passive -ing form instead: I regret telling/having told him the truth. They enjoyed being taken/having been taken to the park.

PRACTICE

45a Circle the correct answer.

"I look young for my age and I hate (0) asking / being asked for identification when I go out with my friends. When we go to a club, they ask me (1) to show / to be shown proof that I'm eighteen. We went out last night and I resented (2) having asked / being asked for identification at the club door. Still, once I got inside, it was so good (3) to be relaxing / to have relaxed with friends that I forgot all about (4) to be annoyed / being annoyed. If it's still happening in a few years' time, though, I'm sure I'll be flattered (5) to ask / to be asked to prove my age!"

45b Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- 0 I think we should postpone going on holiday. (go)
- 1 I don't like what to do. I'll make up my own mind. (tell)
- 2 He denied anything to me but I can prove he did. (say)
- 3 She was a difficult child, probably due to by different foster parents. (look after)
- 4 Karin decided to Rome for her holidays. (go)
- 5 I'd love a blank cheque and told to spend the money on anything I like. (give)
- 6 He seems a lot of weight since I last saw him. (lose)
- 7 I saw Amy last night. She seems better, slowly but surely. (get)

Check 8 -ing forms and infinitives

1 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 Although it was many years ago, Connie clearly remembers cry / crying when her cat died.
- 2 I like to do / doing the unpleasant jobs before I do the gardening.
- 3 Judy and Gordon like their new home but they miss to live / living by the sea.
- 4 The airline allows passengers carry / to carry one item of hand luggage.
- 5 The cost of borrowing has forced many companies to close / closing.

/ 5

2 Complete the conversation. Use one word in each gap.

- A: What's that?
B: It's a jack (6) lifting a car. I need to change a flat tyre.
A: Will you be long? I want to (7) shopping and I'd prefer not (8) walk.
B: It'll take me about half an hour but there's no point (9) waiting: I'll be using the car this afternoon.
A: And I suppose it's a (10) of time trying to convince you to (11) me to have the car instead.
B: I'm afraid so. I'll give you a lift to the bus stop, though.
A: Thanks, but I can't (12) the thought of taking the bus today – it's too hot.
B: Fine, so if you're staying in, will you (13) me change this tyre?

/ 8

3 Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- 14 The weather is unlikely in the next few days. (improve)
- 15 Melanie is busy for her exams. (study)
- 16 Ramon thought he saw someone him. (follow)
- 17 Our plan is the house into a luxury hotel. (turn)
- 18 We had no trouble your address – your directions were perfectly clear. (find)
- 19 It's impossible an exact measurement but we can give an estimate. (give)
- 20 Dirk has no job and nowhere (live)

/ 7

4 Circle the correct answer.

I always wanted (21) to be / being / to have been a photographer. When I was a child, my father (22) allowed to use / allowed me use / allowed me to use his camera and I'll never forget (23) to take / taking / being taken hundreds of pictures. I studied photography at college and went on (24) to get / getting / having got a job as a crime photographer with the police. I don't work regular hours and it can be difficult (25) to get / get / to getting out of bed to photograph a crime scene in the middle of the night. Fortunately, I love (26) do / doing / being done my job and (27) to work / working / to be working with people who feel the same way.

I didn't intend (28) me to become / me becoming / to become a private investigator – it just happened! Fortunately, you don't need (29) to have / having / to be having any special qualifications. Many people come into the profession from a police or military background but now it's possible (30) to do / doing / to be doing a work placement course. In fact, (31) to train / training / having trained on the job is essential. I love my work but the hours are not sociable. I often find myself (32) to sit / sitting / to be sitting on my own in a car for ten to fifteen hours when I'm on a case.

/ 12

5 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 33 I want them to offer me the job. offered
I want the job.
- 34 I don't like it when people ask me to do things like that. being
I hate things like that.

- 35 It seems that Leo has left the party. to Leo seems the party.
- 36 I think Myra is studying for her exams. be Myra seems for her exams.
- 37 They think he lied in order to get the job. having
He is suspected of in order to get the job.
- 38 When I heard they had got married, I was surprised. hear
I was that they had got married.
- 39 She has tried twice to sail round the world. attempts
She has made two round the world.
- 40 Let's find a place where we can have breakfast. somewhere
Let's find breakfast.

/ 8

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
1, 2, 3, 8, 21, 23, 24, 26, 28, 29	Unit 41	Exercise 41
4, 5, 11, 13, 16, 22, 32	Unit 42	Exercise 42
14, 17, 19, 20, 25, 30, 38, 39, 40	Unit 43	Exercise 43
6, 7, 9, 10, 12, 15, 18, 27, 31	Unit 44	Exercise 44
33, 34, 35, 36, 37	Unit 45	Exercise 45

Now do Check 8

Reported speech

46 Reported statements: tense changes

- Punctuation is important in direct speech. The comma, full stop, question mark or exclamation mark come before the closing quotation mark: 'I'm leaving,' said Lottie. 'I'm tired,' she said, 'and I'm going home. Are you coming?'
- When we report someone's words, we can use a past tense reporting verb like said and told:
 - say (+ to someone) (+ that): She said (to me) (that) she had seen the film.
 - tell someone (+ that): I told them (that) I was pleased.
- After a reporting verb in the past there are usually changes to:
 - pronouns and possessive adjectives: 'I'm going out with my friends,' said Bob. → Bob said (that) he was going out with his friends.
 - verb tenses: present simple → past simple, present continuous → past continuous, past simple → past perfect simple, present perfect simple → past perfect simple, present perfect continuous → past perfect continuous, am/is/are going to → was/were going to: 'I haven't seen Yolanda,' said Claude. → Claude said (that) he hadn't seen Yolanda.
 - modal verbs: will → would, can → could, may → might, shall → should, must/have to → had to: 'I'll help you,' she said. → She said (that) she'd help me.
 - some adverbs/adverbial phrases of time: now → then, today → that day, tonight → that night, this morning → that morning, yesterday → the day before/the previous day, tomorrow → the day after/the following day, last week → the week before/the previous week, next month → the month after/the following month, (three) days ago → (three) days before: 'We did it yesterday,' they said. → They said (that) they had done it the day before.
 - here → there: 'We're staying here for a week,' she told him. → She told him (that) they were staying there for a week.
 - this → that, this/that + noun → the + noun: 'This bag is expensive,' he said. → He said (that) the bag was expensive.

►► For reporting verbs, see Unit 49.

PRACTICE

46a Circle the correct answer.

A: Have you heard the weather forecast?

B: Yes, they said it (0) is / (1) was going to rain.

A: Have you had your meeting with Mr Lewis?

B: I'm afraid not. His secretary told me he (1) couldn't / can't see me because he (2) is / was too busy.

A: Excuse me. I'm here to collect the book I ordered last week. The sales assistant told me it (3) will / would be ready for collection today.

B: I'm sorry, but it hasn't been ordered yet. I'll have to order it today.

A: Can I help you?

B: I'm here to collect a book I ordered two weeks ago. I came to collect it last week and your assistant said it (4) hadn't / hasn't been ordered yet. He (5) said / told he was sorry and (6) said / told me he would order the book (7) that / this day.

A: Have you been to the doctor yet?

B: Yes. She told me I (8) have to / had to go on a diet. She also said I (9) must / had to get more exercise.

A: Have you seen Sandy today?

B: No, and Louis told me he (10) hadn't / hasn't seen her either.

46b Re-write the direct speech as reported speech and the reported speech as direct speech.

o 'The taxi has arrived!' Dinah told us.
Dinah told us that the taxi had arrived.
.....

oo Katya told her husband that she might be late for dinner that evening.
'I may be late for dinner this evening,' Katya told her husband.
.....

1 'You can leave your things in this wardrobe if you like,' Derek said.
.....
.....

2 Beth said that they were leaving the following day.
.....

3 'It isn't far from here to my office, Ted,' said Bea.
.....

4 Evan told the police officer that he'd seen the bank robbery that morning.
.....

5 Hannah said, 'We must be patient.'
.....

6 'I've been to this restaurant once before,' said Nanette to Ian.
.....

7 Miguel told Gloria that he hadn't liked the film but he'd enjoyed the book.
.....

8 'I may have left my bag on the bus this morning,' Eva said.
.....

9 Alan said that we ought to get some flowers for Penny's birthday.
.....

10 'I won't be gone long,' Lydia told her mother.
.....

47 Reported statements: no tense changes

In reported speech, if the reporting verb is in a present tense, there is no tense change: 'They left last night.' → He tells me they left last night. 'We're having dinner.' → She says they're having dinner.

The present

- If a present situation is still true when we are reporting it, we don't need to change the tense after a past tense reporting verb: 'Alison lives with her parents,' said Nick. → Nick said that Alison lives/lived with her parents. 'Yann has been working on the project for months,' they told us. → They told us that Yann has been working/had been working on the project for months.

The past

- If a past situation is still true when we are reporting it, we don't need to change the tense after a past tense reporting verb: 'We didn't stay in the hotel because it was too expensive.' → She said that they hadn't stayed in the hotel because it was too expensive. (The hotel is still expensive.)
- When the past simple is used in a time clause, we don't usually change it: 'As soon as I got home, I went upstairs.' → She said that as soon as she got home, she went/had gone upstairs.
- We don't usually change the past continuous: 'I was working until midnight.' → She said that she was working until midnight.
- When the past continuous refers to an activity that was completed before an activity in the past simple, we usually change it to the past perfect continuous: 'We were planning to go out but then Thomas got ill.' → She said that they had been planning to go out but then Thomas got/had got ill.
- We don't change the past perfect: 'I hadn't realised how angry he was,' said Carol. → Carol said she hadn't realised how angry he was.

The future

- If an event is still in the future when we report it, we don't need to change the future form: 'We'll be at the station in thirty minutes.' → She said that they'll be/'d be at the station in thirty minutes. (They aren't at the station yet.) She said that they'd be at the station in thirty minutes. (They are at the station.)

PRACTICE

47a Report the statements. Don't change the tense unless it is necessary to do so.

- 0 'I'm planning to set up my own business.'
Paul says that he's planning to set up his own business
- 1 'When the project started, there was a lot of interest in it.'
Joan said that
- 2 'I was living in France when I met Nora.'
Josh said that
- 3 'It's pouring with rain here.'
Ali tells me that

- 4 'I was hoping to meet you for lunch but my car broke down.'
Natalie said that
- 5 'The taxi had already arrived when I rang you.'
Maria told me that

47b Read the monologue. Then complete the article.

I've been with the circus since I was eighteen years old. I do a trapeze act and every night I hang by my toes from a bar twelve metres above the ground. I've been hanging off the bar for two years and I spent six years in the circus before that.

I trained in dance and performing arts when I was younger and then I went to circus school. I wanted to join the circus because it combined all the skills I'd learnt up till then. I also wanted to do something a little crazy. I went to my first circus when I was fourteen and I loved it. I took up circus work as a hobby and now I do it professionally.

I've done about 2,300 shows with the Cirque du Soleil. Next year the show moves to Brazil but I won't be going with them. The trapeze is always challenging but I want to do other things. I want to have a baby in two or three years. I'm also planning to learn how to sing, which wouldn't be as hard on my body.

Every night trapeze artist Pauliina Rasanen hangs by her toes from a bar twelve metres above the ground. She says she (0) has been hanging off the bar for two years and she (1) six years in the circus before that.

Pauliina trained in dance and performing arts before she went to circus school. She told me that she (2) to join the circus because it combined all the skills she (3) up till then. She also wanted to do something a little crazy. She said she (4) to her first circus when she was fourteen. She (5) it so much that she (6) circus work as a hobby before working in the circus professionally.

Pauliina says that so far she (7) about 2,300 shows with the Cirque du Soleil. She told me that when the show (8) to Brazil next year, she (9) with them. Her reason? She said that she (10) to learn how to sing and she (11) to have a baby in two or three years' time.

48 Reported questions, commands and requests

Reported questions

- Reported questions have the same tense and word changes as reported statements. When we report a question, we use a reporting verb (e.g. ask, enquire, want to know, wonder). We don't use a question mark (?).
- To report a yes/no question, we use if/whether after the reporting verb: 'Have I seen you before?' → She asked (me) if/whether she had seen me before.
- To report a wh- question, we use the question word: 'Where did you go?' → He wanted to know where I had gone.
- The word order in reported questions is the same as in statements and there is no do/does/did auxiliary: 'Where are you going?' → He asked (me) where I was going. 'Do you like swimming?' → She enquired if I liked swimming.
- When we report questions with shall/should, we can use the to-infinitive after the question word: 'What should I buy for Peter?' → She asked what to buy for Peter.
- We can report indirect questions in the same way as direct questions. Compare: 'Where is the bank?' → She asked me where the bank was. 'Could you tell me where the bank is?' → She asked me where the bank was.

Reported commands and requests

- To report commands, we can use tell or order + to-infinitive: 'Be quiet!' → He told us to be quiet. 'Put your hands up!' → The police officer ordered them to put their hands up.
- To report requests, we can use ask + to-infinitive: 'Please help us.' → They asked us to help them. 'Would you shut the door, please?' → I asked him to shut the door.
- To report negative commands and requests, we use not before the to-infinitive: 'Don't stay out too late.' → She told me not to stay out too late.

PRACTICE

48a Report the questions, commands and requests.

- 0 'Where did you buy your hat?'
He wanted to know where I had bought my hat
- 1 'Would you see who is at the door, please?'
She asked her husband
- 2 'Please don't make so much noise!'
He asked them
- 3 'E-mail me if you need any help.'
She told me
- 4 'Do you know how many people are coming tonight?' Janet asked her assistant.
Janet wanted to know
- 5 'Did you enjoy yourselves at the concert?' Daryl asked them.
Daryl asked them
- 6 'Have you been eating properly?' the doctor asked me.
The doctor enquired

- 7 'Why didn't you go to the meeting?' Logan asked them.
Logan asked them
- 8 'Check this information for me, would you?' Brenda asked.
Brenda asked me
- 9 'Will you be travelling far?' Hasan asked us.
Hasan asked us
- 10 'Don't leave your bag on the floor,' Martin said to Joanna.
Martin told Joanna

48b Read the interview with a journalist. Then complete the article.

- A: What mistakes do people make when they write e-mails?
B: Often they're too vague.
A: Are there any other common mistakes?
B: Yes, they ask for information they don't need – this wastes everyone's time.
A: So how can we make a good first impression in an e-mail?
B: Be specific about the subject – and for goodness' sake, don't use words like 'hello' on the subject line!
A: How formal should we be?
B: Be as formal or casual as the person who sent you the e-mail.
A: Do people send too many e-mails?
B: Yes. E-mails are for giving and confirming information. Don't use them for negotiations.
A: Could you tell me why companies monitor their employees' e-mails?
B: Many reasons. Sometimes they want to be sure that employees aren't giving secrets away to competitors.

I asked Hamish Elphinstone (0) what mistakes people made when they wrote e-mails and he replied that people were often unclear about what they wanted. I asked him (1) any other common mistakes and he said that people wasted time by asking for information they didn't need. Next, I asked him (2) a good first impression in an e-mail. Hamish told me (3) specific about the subject and (4) words like 'hello' on the subject line.

On the subject of style, I asked Hamish (5) in an e-mail. His suggestion was that we should be as formal as the sender of the original e-mail.

Then we discussed how to use e-mail most effectively. I enquired (6) too many e-mails and not surprisingly, he said that, yes, they did. He went on to say that e-mails were for giving and confirming information and he told me (7) them for negotiations.

Finally, I asked him (8) their employees' e-mails. Apparently, some businesses are concerned that employees might be selling secrets to competitors.

49 Reporting verbs

- We often use reporting verbs to summarise what someone said: 'Would you like to come and stay for the weekend?' → He invited us to stay for the weekend. 'I'm sorry I'm late.' → She apologised for being late.
- We use the following structures with these reporting verbs. The verbs marked with an asterisk (*) can be followed by more than one structure:

verb + to-infinitive agree*, decide*, offer, promise*, propose*, refuse, threaten*	'I won't answer any questions.' → He refused to answer any questions.
verb + object + to-infinitive advise, beg, encourage, invite, persuade*, remind*, warn*	'Don't walk home alone. It's dangerous.' → She warned me not to walk home alone. 'It's a good idea to walk home with a friend.' → She advised me to walk home with a friend.
verb + -ing form/noun admit*, deny*, recommend*, suggest*	'Yes, I broke the window.' → He admitted breaking the window. 'Let's have a party.' → I suggested having a party.
verb (+ object) + preposition + -ing form/noun accuse someone of, advise* someone against, agree* (with someone) on/about, apologise (to someone) for, complain* (to someone) about, congratulate someone on, insist* on, warn* (someone) against/about	'I'm sorry I was late.' → He apologised (to us) for being late. 'I'll pay for the meal!' → She insisted on paying for the meal. 'You passed your driving test! Well done!' → We congratulated him on passing his driving test.
verb + that clause admit*, agree*, announce, boast, complain*, decide*, deny*, explain, promise*, suggest*, threaten*	'We'll be on time.' → They promised (that) they would be on time.
verb + object + that clause inform, persuade*, promise*, remind*, warn*	'Don't forget – we have a meeting this afternoon.' → She reminded me (that) we had a meeting that afternoon.
verb + that clause with should insist*, propose*, recommend*, suggest*	'Why don't we ask Cindy to help us?' → I suggested that we should ask Cindy to help us.

Insist, propose, recommend and suggest are followed by different structures, depending on the subject of the sentence in direct speech. Compare:
'Why don't we stay longer?' → I suggested staying longer. (I suggested; we (including myself) stay)
'Why don't they stay longer?' → I suggested that they should stay longer. (I suggested; they stay)

PRACTICE

49a Report the statements.

Laura wants to quit university and look for a job. Read what she said and how other people responded.

- o 'I want to leave university and find a job,' said Laura.
Laura announced that she wanted to leave university and find a job
- 1 'You should finish your degree first,' said her tutor.
Her tutor advised
- 2 'Please think carefully before you take such a big step,' said her mother.
Her mother begged
- 3 'You'll never find a good job if you drop out,' her father said.
Her father warned
- 4 'I'll stop paying your rent if you leave university,' he said.
He threatened
- 5 'I'll let you stay at my flat until you find a place to live,' said her best friend.
Her best friend offered
- 6 'I think you should ask your tutor for advice,' said her sister.
Her sister suggested
- 7 'I'll buy you a car when you graduate,' said her grandmother.
Her grandmother promised

49b Report the statements. Use the verbs in the box.

accused	advised	apologised	complained offered	refused	reminded	warned

- o 'I can see you're busy. I'll help you prepare that report if you like,' she said.
She offered to help me prepare the report.
- 1 'I'm not going to discuss the problem with you. It's a waste of time,' he said.
.....
- 2 'I want you to know I'm upset that I wasn't invited to the meeting,' she said.
.....
- 3 'You mustn't do it again or we'll fine you,' said the police officer.
.....
- 4 'I know someone's been reading my e-mails. It was you, wasn't it?' she said.
.....
- 5 'You've got to apply for a new passport. Yours is out of date,' he said.
.....
- 6 'I'm sorry about the trouble I caused. I didn't mean to do anything wrong,' she said.
.....
- 7 'You've been very ill. You should stay home for a few days,' said the doctor.
.....

Check 9 Reported speech

1 Circle the correct answer.

A: Did you see Roy yesterday?
 B: No, he rang and said he (1) can't / couldn't meet me.

A: Where's Dylan?
 B: I don't know. He (2) said / told he (3) 'll / 'd help me yesterday but he must have forgotten.

A: Have you heard from Yvette?
 B: She called yesterday. She says they (4) 're having / were having a great time (5) here / there.

A: I saw you talking to Rajiv.
 B: Yes. He asked if I (6) went / 'd gone to the meeting last night.

A: I spoke to Naomi and she (7) asked / told me why (8) hadn't you called / you hadn't called her last week.

B: I hope you told (9) to her / her the reason. How is she?

A: She says she (10) 's feeling / was feeling much better.

/ 10

2 Report the statements and questions.

- 11 'I was watching television when they arrived.'
 Malcolm said that
- 12 'I'll be there in an hour.'
 Amy says that
- 13 'Niels hadn't left when I rang an hour ago.'
 Ulrich said that
- 14 'Where have you left the newspaper?'
 Astrid asked me
- 15 'Please don't say anything to Beatrice.'
 Leslie asked me
- 16 'Shall I ask Sophie out for a meal?'
 Jack wondered
- 17 'Do we have to stay here all evening?'
 Milos asked

- 18 'Are you going out this evening?'
 Dieter asked Eve
- 19 'I've been living in Cardiff for ten years.'
 Sian says that
- 20 'I'll love you for ever.'
 Rodney told Winnie that

/ 10

3 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 21 'I think you should rest for a few days,' the doctor told me. advised
 The doctor for a few days.
- 22 'Remember you have to book your holiday,' Aaron told him. reminded Aaron his holiday.
- 23 'I don't think you should go there,' Edith told her daughter. not Edith warned her daughter there.
- 24 'Would you like to have dinner with me?' Brian asked me. invited
 Brian dinner with him.
- 25 'You've passed all your exams! Well done!' said my father. congratulated
 My father all my exams.
- 26 'Would you clear the table?' Vivian asked her son. to Vivian the table.
- 27 'Don't move!' said the police officer to the man. told
 The police officer move.
- 28 'It was me who took the car,' Robin said. admitted
 Robin the car.

/ 8

4 Choose the correct answer A, B, C or D.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to complain about a television set which I bought in the sale last week. When I asked the assistant why (29) the only set of that make and model on sale, he (30) me that it (31) used for demonstrations on the shop floor. I also asked him (32) it was in good working order and he assured me that it (33) perfectly. He also promised (34) I could return the set within fourteen days for any reason and receive a full refund.

Unfortunately, when I took the television home, I discovered that the sound and picture quality were poor. I called the shop and asked someone (35) me through to the manager. The manager explained (36) I could not get a refund as the television was a sale item. She (37) to have the television repaired but said that the repairs (38) at my expense. I would also like to add that the assistant who sold me the television (39) promising me a refund if there was a problem with the set.

The manager suggested (40) Head Office, which is why I am writing to you. I would like a full refund on the television as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully,

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| 29 A was this
C this had been | B it was
D it had been |
| 30 A said
C told | B says
D told to |
| 31 A is
C has been | B is being
D had been |
| 32 A if
C how | B why
D that |
| 33 A works
C worked | B is working
D would be working |
| 34 A me that
C if | B me if
D to me |
| 35 A put
C putting | B to put
D that I put |
| 36 A me
C that | B me that
D me how |
| 37 A said
C informed | B told
D offered |
| 38 A are
C has been | B were
D would be |
| 39 A denied
C informed | B refused
D decided |
| 40 A to contact
C that contacting | B me to contact
D that I should contact |

/ 12

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
1, 2, 3, 6, 9, 20, 30, 31, 33, 38	Unit 46	Exercise 46
4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 13, 19	Unit 47	Exercise 47
7, 8, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 26, 27, 29, 32, 35	Unit 48	Exercise 48
21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 28, 34, 36, 37, 39, 40	Unit 49	Exercise 49

Now do Check 9

Noun clauses

50 Noun clauses as object

- We can use a noun clause after verbs that express thoughts and feelings: agree, assume, believe, doubt, expect, forget, hope, imagine, know, predict, presume, realise, regret, remember, suppose, think, understand, wonder.
- A noun clause can be introduced by that. In informal speech that is often omitted: I imagine (that) you're feeling homesick. I presume (that) we'll be there by six o'clock.
- After a past tense verb, the verb in the noun clause is often also in a past tense. Compare: I think that you're being unfair. I thought that you were being unfair.
- A noun clause can also be introduced by a question word or if/whether, indicating an indirect question: I don't understand what you are saying. She wondered where he had gone. I doubt if they're going to come to the party. Can you remember whether he eats meat?
- A noun clause introduced by a question word has the same word order as a statement. It doesn't require a question mark unless the first part of the sentence is a question. Compare: I know where he lives. Do you know where he lives?
- We use question word + to-infinitive after verbs for mental processes and verbs of reporting and communicating: decide, describe, discuss, explain, find out, forget, know, learn, remember, see, suggest, think, understand, wonder: The leaflet explains what to do to protect yourself. You never forget how to ride a bicycle.
- The verbs ask, show, teach and tell must be followed by an object: My English teacher showed me how to write an essay.

PRACTICE

50a Complete the letter. Use one word in each gap.

By now you've arrived at school and I hope (0) that you're feeling comfortable in your new surroundings. I remember (1) excited I was when I went abroad for the first time. I don't know (2) your experience will be like mine but I did think that you (3) being a little optimistic when you predicted that you (4)n't be homesick at all. I imagine (5) you may start to feel a little lonely in the next few weeks. Just in case, I'm attaching a leaflet on 'culture shock'. It explains (6) you might have certain feelings and tells you (7) to do about them.

Anyway, I'm sure that you'll have a great time in England - but always remember (8) you can rely on me if you need anything.

50b Join the sentences. Use noun clauses beginning with that.

- 0 You're going with him. At least, I presume so.
I presume that you're going with him.
.....
- 1 He expected us to work on Sunday! I couldn't believe it.
.....
- 2 Anja's coming round tonight. Have you forgotten?
.....
- 3 The car will be fixed by Friday. At least, I'm hoping so.
.....
- 4 Football is boring. I used to think so, anyway.
.....
- 5 You're an hour late! Do you realise?
.....
- 6 It's too late to apply for the job. At least, I suppose it is.
.....
- 7 The treatment may not work. I understood that.
.....
- 8 It's my father's birthday on Sunday. I suddenly remembered it.
.....

50c Re-write the questions.

- 0 How did we get here? I don't know how we got here
.....
- 1 Where did I leave my bag? I've forgotten
- 2 Has he left his contact details? I can't remember
- 3 Will we get there on time? I wonder
- 4 Why don't you listen to me? I don't understand
- 5 When did she arrive? I don't know
- 6 What time does the class start? Can you remember
- 7 Will he recognise us after all these years? I wonder
- 8 Have many people turned up? I don't know

50d Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box and a question word.

assemble catch ~~change~~ complete put send

- 0 A: I've got a flat tyre!
B: Don't worry. I'll show you how to change it.
- 1 A: Will you teach me a group e-mail?
B: Of course. It's easy.
- 2 A: Could we discuss these forms, please?
B: Sure. They're a little confusing but I can help you.

- 3 A: I want to take the bus but I need to find out it.
B: You need the number 50. It stops outside the chemist's on Brooke Street.
- 4 A: The instruction manual explains the parts.
B: Will it look like the model in the picture when I've put it together?
- 5 A: Would you tell me these papers?
B: On the shelf there, please.

51 Other uses of noun clauses

- We can use a noun clause introduced by that as the subject of a sentence: That you don't love him is obvious. That he won the game didn't surprise me. However, it is more usual to use it + that clause: It is obvious (that) you don't love him. It didn't surprise me that he won the game.
- Noun clauses introduced by a question word or whether or not can also be the subject of a sentence: What happened between us is a secret. Why she ran away is a mystery. Whether or not he's coming tonight is uncertain. / Whether he's coming tonight or not is uncertain.
- ⚠ Only whether is possible in the expression whether or not: We need to know if/whether you agree or not. We need to know whether or not you agree. (Not We need to know if or not you agree.)
- We can use that clauses after adjectives describing how we feel: angry, annoyed, glad, grateful, happy, interested, pleased, sad, sorry, surprised, upset, worried: I'm grateful (that) so many people offered their help. I was worried (that) we wouldn't have enough money.
- We can use that clauses after adjectives describing how certain we are: certain, confident, convinced, doubtful, positive, sure: We're confident (that) he can do the job well. I'm positive (that) the work will be finished on time.
- We can also use a wh- clause or question word/whether + to-infinitive after some of these adjectives: He isn't certain why they did this. I hope we don't get lost. I'm not sure how to get there. I'm not sure whether to ring them or not.
- We can use clauses beginning with if/whether after doubtful: It's doubtful if/whether we'll arrive on time.
- We can use a that clause after a noun as the subject or object of a sentence. Such nouns include belief, fact, idea, hope, news, promise, suggestion, thought: The thought that I upset her is awful. (subject) I like the suggestion that we should work together. (object)
- We cannot omit that when it comes at the beginning of a sentence or after an abstract noun: That he spoke to the police is surprising. The papers carried the news that a senior politician was about to resign.
- We can use that clauses, wh- clauses and question word + to-infinitive after be: My feeling is that we will lose the election. The puzzling thing is how he managed to escape. The problem is which one to choose.

PRACTICE

51a Join the sentences. Use noun clauses.

- o They're getting married. I'm delighted.
I'm delighted that they're getting married.
.....
- oo They didn't lie to you. The suggestion is ridiculous.
The suggestion that they lied to you is ridiculous.
.....
- 1 She hasn't made a complaint. We should be grateful.
.....
- 2 He didn't tell her the truth. She seems very angry about that.
.....
- 3 She'll write to us. She promised.
.....
- 4 He's lying to you. I'm sure about that.
.....
- 5 We might not get a pay rise. I don't like the thought.
.....
- 6 I don't know where to go on holiday. This is my problem.
.....
- 7 We were going to meet outside the club. It was my understanding.
.....
- 8 They won't have enough money to pay their bills this month. They're concerned.
.....

51b Correct the mistakes. Add, delete or change only one word in each sentence.

- o The thought I might not have a job next year is troubling.
The thought that I might not have a job next year is troubling.
.....
- 1 That you're not happy about the decision it's clear.
.....
- 2 The idea all people are equal is important in many societies.
.....
- 3 If you give me the information now or later is not important.
.....
- 4 The result gave me hope our team could win the championship.
.....
- 5 I'm surprising that no one was there to meet us.
.....
- 6 I have a promise the job will be mine if I apply for it.
.....
- 7 I didn't pass all of my exams is disappointing.
.....
- 8 That we didn't notice anything it was not surprising in the circumstances.
.....

51c Complete the conversations. Use the words in brackets.

- 0 A: How well do you think you did in the Maths test?
B: It was easy so I'm sure that I passed it. (sure / pass)
- 1 A: Have you spoken to Linda recently?
B: No, and I'm (worried / she / be / ill)
- 2 A: Have you heard yet whether you got the job?
B: Not yet. Of course, there's always in the post. (a possibility / the letter / get / lost)
- 3 A: Have you decided which university you're going to?
B: I'd love to go to Oxford. It's a top university but it's me a place. My results weren't that brilliant. (doubtful / they / offer)
- 4 A: Ivor is coming with us, isn't he?
B: Yes, but here on time is another matter. (whether or not / he / be)
- 5 A: What do you think of on other planets? (the theory / there / be / life)
B: Oh, I'm convinced of it.
- 6 A: What is your daughter going to do when she leaves school?
B: Well, a vet so I guess she'll try to get a place at a good university. (her ambition / be / become) 51d Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 0 Why the ancient city fell into ruins is a mystery. is
It is a mystery why the ancient city fell into ruins.
- 1 It isn't clear if they broke the law or not. or Whether the law isn't clear.
- 2 No one knows his reason for lying about his whereabouts. lied
Why isn't known.
- 3 I am surprised that they decided to cancel the event. is
That they decided surprising.
- 4 Perhaps I shouldn't accept the job. whether
I am not sure the job.
- 5 It is embarrassing to think that I made such a mistake. thought
The such a mistake is embarrassing.
- 6 I believe that we will find a cure for cancer. belief
It is find a cure for cancer.
- 7 Anyone can see that he has emotional problems. is That obvious.
- 8 How to solve the problem isn't clear. certain
I am the problem.

Check 10 Noun clauses

1 Join the sentences. Use noun clauses.

- 1 She may have passed her exams. I don't know.
I don't know
- 2 Tursun's coming round this evening. Have you forgotten?
Have you forgotten
- 3 How's Hannah? Do you know?
Do you know
- 4 Some people are coming to the meeting.
I don't know how many.
I don't know
- 5 He isn't dead. She still holds on to that belief.
She still
- 6 She didn't lie to you. That suggestion is ridiculous.
The suggestion

/ 6

2 Complete the conversation. Use one word in each gap.

- A: Do you know yet (7) or not you've got the position?
 B: Yes. They rang this morning and offered it to me!
 A: Congratulations! You deserve it.
 B: Thanks. My only worry is (8) I'm much younger than the people I'll be managing.
 A: Oh, I wouldn't worry about that. I doubt (9) any of them will even think about the age difference. Besides, they'll soon get used to the idea (10) you're the boss.
 B: I'm sure you're right. And if there is a problem, I'll decide (11) to deal with it at the time.
 A: Absolutely. I know you weren't (12) that it was the right job for you – but I know you'll be great.

/ 6

3 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 13 What you want me to do isn't clear.
understand
I you want me to do.
- 14 I can't remember the solution to the problem.
solve
I can't remember the problem.
- 15 He learnt how to write an essay from Chloe.
taught
Chloe an essay.
- 16 She may not be telling the truth. or
I don't know she is telling the truth.
- 17 It is sad to think we may never see them again. thought
The may never see them again is sad.
- 18 No one knows for certain why the accident happened. not Why clear.
- 19 That they are getting married is not surprising. surprise
It is no married.
- 20 I don't think he will accept the job. doubtful
It is the job.

/ 8

Total: / 20

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
1, 2, 3, 4, 9, 11, 13, 14, 15	Unit 50	Exercise 50
5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20	Unit 51	Exercise 51

Now do Check 10

Relative clauses

52 Defining relative clauses

- We use defining relative clauses to give essential information about a person, thing, place, time or reason and to make it clear which one we are talking about: *She's the woman who was driving the car at the time of the accident.
- We don't use commas to separate a defining relative clause from the main clause: *How well do you know the people who live next door?

Subject relative pronouns

- A relative pronoun (who, which, that) can be the subject of a defining relative clause. We use who or that for people and which or that for things. Who and which are more common: *The talk was given by a man who/that used to live in Russia. (The subject of used to live is who/that.) *Did you see the letter which/that came today? (The subject of came is which/that.)

Object relative pronouns

- A relative pronoun (who(m), which, that) can be the object of a defining relative clause: *There are a few things which/that I need to buy before we leave. (The object of buy is which/that.) (Not There are a few things ~~which/that I need to buy them before we leave.~~)
- Whom is more formal than who: *The woman who/whom we elected as chairperson has a great deal of experience.
- We often omit the relative pronoun when it is the object: *There are a few things (which/that) I need to buy before we leave.
- When the verb has a preposition, the preposition usually comes at the end of the relative clause: *That's the hotel (which/that) we were looking for.
- In formal English the preposition can come before the relative pronouns whom or which, but not before who or that: *They're the people to whom we gave the money. (Not They're the people ~~to who we gave the money.~~) *That's the information for which they were looking. (Not That's the information ~~for that they were looking.~~) whose, when, where, why

- We use whose to show possession: *That's the man whose car was stolen.
- We use where, when/that and why/that to refer to place, time and reason:
 - place: *That's the town where my grandmother was born.
 - time: *2001 was the year when/that we moved here.
 - reason: *Its location is the reason why/that we chose this flat.

Compare:

That's the hotel. We spent our holiday there. → That's the hotel where we spent our holiday.

That's the hotel. We spent our honeymoon in it. → That's the hotel (which) we spent our honeymoon in. / That's the hotel in which we spent our honeymoon.

PRACTICE

52a Complete the article. Use relative pronouns.

Britain's largest cave was discovered in the Peak District by a group of people (0) who followed the clues in a 200-year old book. The cave, called Titan, is about 140 metres from floor to ceiling. It also has a huge waterfall (1) falls far below the level of the ground.

Dave Nixon read about the cave in a paper (2) was written in 1793. The writer, James Plumtree, was an academic about (3) we know very little and (4) paper was found by Mr Nixon in a university library. In this paper, Plumtree described a cave system (5) went far beyond what anyone had explored in the area.

Mr Nixon and a group of friends spent three more years removing the rocks (6) concealed the entrance to the cave. He pointed out that it was research and hard work (7) helped him and his collaborators find the cave, not luck. The cave is now an important tourist attraction in the area (8) it was discovered.

52b Join the sentences. Use the underlined sentences to form defining relative clauses. Omit the relative pronoun where possible.

- 0 She's the one. I told you about her.
She's the one I told you about.
.....
- 1 The family moved here from Ireland. They live next door.
.....
- 2 The woman is coming back to work soon. I'm doing her job.
.....
- 3 This is the job. I've always wanted it.
.....
- 4 It was during my first year of university. I first met Bernard then.
.....
- 5 The hotel is the most expensive in the area. It overlooks the sea.
.....
- 6 That's the house. We lived there when we were university students.
.....

53 Non-defining relative clauses

- Non-defining relative clauses add extra information to the main clause and are not essential to identify what we are talking about. They are separated from the main clause by a comma or commas. Compare:
Defining relative clause: The couple who bought that house have three children. The clause who bought that house tells us which couple we are talking about.
Non-defining relative clause: The Andersons, who bought that house, have three children. The clause who bought that house gives us extra information about the Andersons. The main clause makes sense without the relative clause: The Andersons have three children.
- The relative pronouns who and which can be the subject of a non-defining relative clause: This is my friend Ali, who has just returned from Thailand. Their country house, which was built in 1856, was famous for its staircase.
- The relative pronouns who, whom and which can be the object of a non-defining relative clause: Liz Barnes, who/whom I know well, has worked with me for years. Her latest book, which I finished last week, is fascinating.
- We can use whom in formal English but it is more usual to use who: Philip mentioned the problem to his new manager, who/whom he had only just met.
- When the verb has a preposition, the preposition usually comes at the end of the relative clause. In formal English it can also come before whom and which: Anna, who/whom I was speaking to, is a good friend of mine. Anna, to whom I was speaking, is a good friend of mine. (Not Anna, to who I was speaking, is a good friend of mine.)
- We cannot use that or omit the object pronoun in non-defining relative clauses: That old car, which my parents bought for me, has never given me any trouble.
- We use whose for possession, where for place and when for time: Inez, whose family I know well, lives in Majorca. Canada, where I grew up, is a multicultural country. They moved here last summer, when their first child was born.

PRACTICE

53a Join the sentences. Use the underlined sentences to form non-defining relative clauses.

- 0 My parents are coming to visit me in England. They live in Australia.
My parents, who live in Australia, are coming to visit me in England.
.....
- 1 Their e-mail says they'll be staying for a week. I received it yesterday.
.....
- 2 My fiancé is looking forward to their visit. They haven't met him.
.....
- 3 Naturally, my parents want to meet my fiancé. His parents want to meet mine.
.....
- 4 My mother is also planning to visit Scotland. She was born there.
.....
- 5 She wants to go in August. The heather blooms then.
.....

53b Complete the article. Use relative pronouns.

Lacrosse, (0) which was invented by the Native North Americans, is widely considered to be the first real American sport. However, the game has changed drastically since the fifteenth century, (1) it was first played.

In early versions of the game, each team could have 100 to 1000 players, (2) played on an enormous field. Players threw balls, (3) could be made from deerskin, clay, stone or wood, at a tree or rock to gain points. Lacrosse games, (4) could last for days, were used to settle arguments between tribes and to prepare young men for war. Players sometimes killed or injured members of the other team, (5) they would attack in order to score a goal more easily.

In the nineteenth century, (6) lacrosse had become less violent, French Canadians started to play the game. Today lacrosse is the fastest growing sport in the United States and is popular throughout Canada, (7) it is the official summer sport. Balls are now made of rubber and there are ten players in a team, not hundreds. But lacrosse is still dangerous and players have to wear special protective clothing.

53c Join the sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- 0 J.K. Rowling is the creator of Harry Potter. She worked as an English teacher. (who)
J.K. Rowling, who worked as an English teacher, is the creator of Harry Potter.
- 1 Pablo Picasso suffered from dyslexia. His paintings are some of the most famous in the world. (whose)
.....
- 2 William Shakespeare is considered to be one of the greatest playwrights of all time. He wrote about thirty-seven plays. (who)
.....
- 3 Muhammed Ali won the world heavyweight boxing title in 1964. He defeated Sonny Liston that year. (when)
.....
- 4 In the 1980s Brad Pitt moved to Los Angeles. He took acting classes and worked as a chauffeur there. (where)
.....
- 5 Cleopatra is one of the most famous rulers in history. She married two of her brothers. (who)
.....
- 6 Bill Clinton was the forty-second President of the United States. His father died three months before he was born. (whose)
.....
- 7 Although he was born in Bonn, Ludwig van Beethoven moved to Vienna in 1792. He soon established a reputation there as a piano virtuoso. (where)
.....

54 which referring to a whole clause

- In a coordinating relative clause, which refers to the whole main clause. Compare: He decided to see a doctor about the problem which had been bothering him. (Which refers to the problem and which had been bothering him is a defining relative clause.) He decided to see a doctor about the problem, which was a good idea. (Which refers to the fact that he decided to see a doctor about the problem.)
- Coordinating relative clauses come at the end of the main clause and are separated from it by a comma: She spent the day resting in bed, which was unusual. (= The fact that she spent the day resting in bed was unusual.)

PRACTICE

54 Write sentences with coordinate relative clauses. Use the sentences in the box.

It made them ill.
It was a sign that he was getting angry.
It was a surprise for everyone.
It was frightening for my sister and her husband.
It will give her the rest she needs.
This is impressive for a woman of her age.
~~This is making her very unhappy.~~
This means you should pack lots of warm clothing.
This was an expensive mistake.

- She's going to have to sell the business.
She's going to have to sell the business, which is making her very unhappy.
.....
- 1 My grandmother runs five miles every day.
.....
- 2 She's going to take a month off work.
.....
- 3 He spent a lot of money on a car he couldn't afford.
.....
- 4 The weather there is very cold at this time of year.
.....
- 5 She arrived a day earlier than we expected.
.....
- 6 My nephew had to go into hospital suddenly.
.....
- 7 He suddenly got very red in the face.
.....
- 8 The children ate too much cake at the party.
.....

55 Other ways to identify people and things

We can add information about a person or thing in a number of ways:

- We can use a prepositional phrase instead of a relative clause: They live in a flat (which is) in the city centre. Only people with plenty of money can afford to shop here. (= who have plenty of money) Suzanne is the woman in the black silk dress. (= who is wearing the black silk dress)
 - We can use a present participle clause to replace:
 - a relative pronoun + present/past continuous verb: The train which is arriving at Platform 1 is the 14.35 for London. → The train arriving at Platform 1 is the 14.35 for London. The man who was leaving by the back door was acting suspiciously. → The man leaving by the back door was acting suspiciously.
 - a relative pronoun + present/past simple verb to describe a permanent state: The woman who works at Reception is good at her job. → The woman working at Reception is good at her job. The old man who lived next door had an accident. → The old man living next door had an accident.
-  We cannot use a present participle clause to talk about a single past action: The people who stopped me in the street were tourists. (Not The people stopping me in the street were tourists.)
- We can use a past participle clause instead of a passive relative clause: The identity of the man who was known as 'Jack the Ripper' remains unknown. → The identity of the man known as 'Jack the Ripper' remains unknown.
 - If the participle clause replaces a non-defining relative clause, it is separated from the main clause by commas: Buckingham Palace, (which was) built in 1703, is the official residence of the monarchs of Britain.

PRACTICE

55a Re-write the sentences. Use the underlined words to form prepositional phrases.

- 0 Manfred's the boy who's wearing the white jumper.
Manfred's the boy in the white jumper.
.....
- 1 We have already watered the flowers which are at the front of the house.
.....
- 2 Clara is the girl who's got blond hair and green eyes.
.....
- 3 Hester brought us some vegetables which came from her garden.
.....
- 4 Alan is the tall man who's wearing the uniform.
.....
- 5 We play tennis at the courts which are opposite the park.
.....
- 6 Our players are the ones who have the red and white shirts.
.....

55b Re-write the numbered sentences in the articles. Use participle clauses or prepositional phrases.

(0) A dog which was looking for food for her puppies found a baby in a forest in Kenya. (1) The dog took the baby, which was wrapped in a dirty cloth, and put it next to her puppies.

(2) A witness said he heard a baby which was crying. (3) Another witness said she saw a dog that was carrying a baby across a road. Eventually, the baby was found and taken to hospital.

(4) A homesick Chinese cat that was given away by its owner walked forty days and a hundred miles to return home. (5) The cat's owner is a woman who has a small flat in Beijing. (6) She gave the cat to a friend who was living in the country. The cat's owner has promised not to give it away again.

- 0 A dog looking for food for her puppies found a baby in a forest in Kenya.
- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6

55c Re-write the relative clauses that can be shortened. Tick the ones that cannot be shortened.

New photographs (0) which were taken from an orbiting spacecraft suggest there may have been water on Mars until relatively recently. The photographs were taken by NASA's Mars Global Surveyor, (1) which has been photographing the planet since 1996.

The evidence, (2) which suggests that there may be water (3) which is on the planet, raises an interesting question. The photographs show marks (4) which could be riverbeds. Many scientists claim this is evidence of life on a planet (5) which was once thought to be lifeless.

- 0 taken from an orbiting spacecraft
- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Check 11 Relative clauses

1 Complete the sentences. Use relative pronouns.

- 1 Is she the manager 's taking over our department?
- 2 Jody made the best suggestion, was unusual.
- 3 The shop on the corner, I used to buy most of my food, closed last year.
- 4 The case was stolen had some valuable papers in it.
- 5 Ian Fleming, books have been made into successful films, was a prolific writer.
- 6 Philip Pullman, wrote His Dark Materials, is a fine author.
- 7 Oksana's flat, she bought last year, is near the park.
- 8 Autumn is the season I feel most restless.
- 9 Marcella's decided to teach abroad, will be a great experience for her.
- 10 This is a picture of the place we're spending our holidays.

/ 10

2 Join the sentences. Use the underlined sentences to form relative clauses.

- 11 I discussed the problem with my cousin. She is a lawyer.
.....
- 12 This is Will. I've known his sister since we were children.
.....
- 13 Last year we moved back to the town. I was born there.
.....
- 14 The Richardsons are the people. We met them on holiday last year.
.....
- 15 The children refused to eat the food. Their mother had prepared it.
.....
- 16 Elli called her brother. She hadn't spoken to him for weeks.
.....
- 17 We walked to the top of the hill. We had a picnic there.
.....
- 18 Do you know the people? They live next door.
.....
- 19 They moved in 1997. Their first child was born then.
.....
- 20 I put my contact details on the Internet. This was a mistake.
.....

/ 10

3 Complete the article. Use the clauses in the box.

conducted on two groups of people
controlling appetite
he or she can help you with in which one group slept that shows
they had seen
which is not enough
which is the recommended average which we can then access
who get less than eight hours a night
who had had a good night's sleep
who had not slept

DO YOU GET ENOUGH SLEEP?

Despite evidence (21)
how sleep can affect our health, a large number of people suffer from a lack of it. Many adults get less than six hours of sleep a night, (22) In fact, most of us need seven to eight hours,
(23)

CAN SLEEP AFFECT YOUR WEIGHT?

Apparently, it can. Sleep affects the hormones (24) According to one study, people (25) are more likely to be overweight.

WILL SLEEP MAKE ME MORE INTELLIGENT?

No, but sleeping on a problem can help solve it.
When we sleep, the brain puts the day's memories into 'files', (26) In tests (27), researchers showed each group a list of related words. Both groups were asked to remember the words
(28) after a period of time
(29) and the other was awake. The people (30) remembered more words. When they were asked to remember the ideas linking the words, the group (31) forgot 25% more than the group who had.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I CAN'T SLEEP WELL?

See your doctor. Your difficulties may result from a problem (32)

/ 12

4 Complete the article. Use prepositional phrases or participle clauses formed from the relative clauses in brackets.

In the opening scene of Titanic,
Brock Lovett is a treasure hunter (33) (who is searching for a diamond necklace) (34) (which is believed to have sunk with the famous ship).
He finds a safe (35)
(which has a photograph of a woman)
(36) (who is wearing the necklace). He shows the photo on television and an old woman (37) (who is called Rose Dawson Calvert) comes forward and claims that she is the person (38) (who is in the photograph).

Rose, (39) (who is played by Kate Winslett), boards the Titanic when she is just seventeen years old.
She is unhappily engaged to an American (40) (who has a lot of money). Rose falls in love with Jack Dawson (Leonardo DiCaprio), a third-class passenger on the ship. The historic events that follow change their lives forever.

/ 8

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
1, 4, 8, 10, 13, 14, 15, 18, 21, 25, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32	Unit 52	Exercise 52
3, 5, 6, 7, 11, 12, 16, 17, 19, 22, 23, 26	Unit 53	Exercise 53
2, 9, 20	Unit 54	Exercise 54
24, 27, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40	Unit 55	Exercise 55

Now do Check 11

Linking words and structures

56 Compound and complex sentences

Compound sentences

- We can link simple sentences consisting of subject + verb to form compound sentences of two or more clauses. In a compound sentence, the clauses are of equal importance.
- We use the coordinating conjunctions and (addition), but (contrast), so (result) and or (alternative) to link the clauses. Usually there is no comma before the conjunction: It's an old car but it's very reliable. Hurry up or we'll be late.
- We can also link sentences with linking adverbs like moreover/furthermore (addition), however (contrast) and therefore (result). Notice the use of the semi-colon and the comma: She was unhappy; therefore, it came as no surprise when she left.

Complex sentences

- Complex sentences have a main clause and a subordinate clause. The subordinate clause depends on the main clause for its meaning.
- We use subordinating conjunctions before the subordinate clause, e.g. although/ even though/though (concession), because (reason), if/unless (condition). If the subordinate clause comes before the main clause, we use a comma: Even though the car is old, it runs well. / The car runs well even though it is old. Because I lost my job, I had to move. / I had to move because I lost my job.

▶▶ See Appendix 1: Punctuation rules, page 199.

PRACTICE

56 Complete the sentences. Use the conjunctions in the box. Add commas where necessary.

although and because but however if moreover or so

- 0*If*..... you don't hurry up and get ready, we'll be late.
- 1 He was busy working he couldn't come with us.
- 2 Shall we go to the cinema should we stay at home?
- 3 You should try to eat less you should get more exercise.
- 4 a Rolls Royce is a beautiful car it's expensive to maintain.
- 5 They installed a new security system; they hired extra guards.
- 6 We've cut costs and increased production; we're still not making a profit.
- 7 he wasn't feeling well I offered to do the shopping for him.
- 8 Carla was supposed to drive us to the station her husband needed the car.

57 Adding and listing

- Also, too and as well (as) have a similar meaning to and. We can use them to add or join ideas in a sentence. Also is the most formal and as well is the least formal. Notice their positions in the sentence: He speaks perfect French and German. He speaks English too/as well. He also speaks Italian. / Also, he speaks Italian.
- We use as well as before a noun or -ing form: As well as speaking several languages, she is a talented sportsperson.*
- We use both ... and, either ... or and neither ... nor for emphasis when we link ideas in a sentence.
 - Both ... and link two similar ideas: Both Gina and her husband enjoy tennis. They can speak both English and Japanese.*
 - Either ... or link alternatives: You can have either French fries or mashed potatoes with your steak. You can either leave now or apologise.
 - Neither ... nor link two similar negative ideas: Neither his mother nor his father came to the wedding. The equipment was neither safe nor accurate.*
- We use expressions like in addition, moreover and furthermore to add information or arguments. These expressions are quite formal and we use them mainly in writing. They are usually followed by a comma: The rent is reasonable. Moreover, the location is perfect.
- We can also use these expressions for listing ideas or arguments: first of all/firstly/first, secondly/second, thirdly/third, then, next, finally/lastly: The project was not practical. Firstly, it was too expensive. Secondly, the local people did not support it. Lastly, it would take too long to complete.

We don't use too at the beginning of a clause. We don't usually use also at the end of a clause.

PRACTICE

57a Circle the correct answers. There may be more than one correct answer.

- 0 It's a more efficient system and (also) / as well / too, it's quite cheap.
- 1 She's a valued colleague and a great friend as well / as well as / too.
- 2 Smoking makes you ill. Also / As well / Too, it costs a lot.
- 3 He lived in both / either / neither Britain and the States for several years.
- 4 First / First of all / Furthermore, mix the flour and sugar. Next / Then / In addition, add the eggs.
- 5 Neither Piet and / nor / or his wife ate any meat dishes – they're vegetarians.
- 6 The food was terrible and the weather was awful as well / either / too.
- 7 Both / Either / Neither she leaves and / or / nor I will. It's your choice.
- 8 Also / As well / As well as being bad for your teeth, sugar can contribute to heart disease.
- 9 He's a successful actor. Also / In addition / Too, he's a talented singer.
- 10 Pamela should retire. Her health is poor; as well / furthermore / moreover, she's lost interest in the job.

57b Complete the essay. Use one word in each gap.

Today 20% of the world's population consumes 80% of the world's natural resources. That same 20% (0) also creates half of the world's fossil fuel pollution. Unfortunately, our lifestyle (1) increases our well-being (2) makes the world a better place for our children.

Let's start by looking at our attachment to the car. As well (3) being a status symbol, the car is convenient but how else does it affect us? (4) of all, we spend hours every week inside a car and this isolates us from nature. (5) , driving has replaced walking and other forms of exercise. And finally, gas emissions from cars are threatening to destroy the planet. (6) we face the problems now (7) we will have to deal with the consequences.

So what can we do to take better care of our planet? To begin with, we can leave our car at home and start walking, running or cycling to work. We can spend more time outdoors (8) In (9) , we can encourage others to do the same and teach our children a sense of responsibility for their environment.

58 Contrast and concession

These words and phrases have a similar meaning to but and link contrasting ideas.

- Although, though, even though, while and whereas introduce a subordinate clause. If the subordinate clause comes before the main clause, we use a comma.
 - We use although and though to introduce an idea that makes the idea in the main clause seem surprising. Even though is more emphatic than although/though:
Although her health was poor, she continued to work. He went ahead with the experiment even though he knew it was dangerous.
 - Though can come at the end of a sentence in informal English: I think she's Swiss. I'm not sure, though.
 - While and whereas are quite formal. We use them to highlight a difference:
The old system was complicated while/whereas the new one is simple.
- We use in spite of/despite to link ideas in these ways:
 - in spite of/despite + noun/pronoun/-ing form: He seemed unhappy in spite of his wealth. He seemed unhappy despite being wealthy.
 - in spite of/despite + the fact that + clause: In spite of the fact that he was wealthy, he seemed unhappy.
- We use however to contrast ideas across sentences or paragraphs. It usually comes at the beginning of a sentence but a middle or end position is also possible: We can provide breakfast. However, there is an extra charge for this. / There is, however, an extra charge for this. / There is an extra charge for this, however.
- We use on the one hand ... on the other hand to introduce two contrasting facts or opinions: On the one hand, nuclear power is cheap. On the other hand, you could argue it's not safe.

PRACTICE

58a Circle the correct answer.

In 2006 more than 25% of holiday makers booked their holiday less than four weeks before leaving (0) although / (whereas) last year fewer than 5% made arrangements in the month before they went away. In 2005 35% of holiday makers booked a trip six months or more in advance (1) however / while only 13% do so now, said a travel industry researcher.

Another trend is that travellers are now more likely to research and book their own holidays. (2) On the one hand / Whereas previously they would rely on a travel agent, travellers are now obtaining their information through the Internet. Budget airlines are also having an effect on the travel industry. (3) Despite / Although the fact that these airlines offer only a basic service, they are a popular choice with many travellers.

The types of holidays people take are also changing. They are going away more frequently (4) and / however short breaks have replaced the traditional two-week summer holiday. (5) Even though / In spite of all of these changes, the number of people booking traditional package holidays is expected to remain the same over the next five years. (6) But / However, the number of people who take adventure or sporting holidays is expected to increase by 200%.

(7) On the one hand / However, these changes could be disastrous for tour operators and travel agents. (8) Despite / On the other hand, the changes are an opportunity for the travel industry to adapt and enter new markets, the report concludes.

58b Re-write the sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- 0 I'm not sure if my answers are right but you can copy them. (although)
Although I'm not sure if my answers are right, you can copy them.
- 1 Despite the fact that her doctor told her to rest, she went to Spain.
(even though)
.....
- 2 She joined the company only a year ago but she's been promoted already.
(in spite of)
.....
- 3 He hasn't got any experience but he's keen to learn. (however)
.....
- 4 I'd like to eat out but I should be saving money. (while)
.....
- 5 I thought he looked ill; however, I wasn't completely sure. (but)
.....
- 6 Even though it was raining, we went out for the day. (despite)
.....
- 7 The government spent money on weapons but it neglected education. (whereas)
.....

59 Cause, reason, purpose and result

- To introduce a cause or reason, we use because/since/as + clause: He couldn't come because he had to work. As it was dark, we took a torch with us.
- We can also introduce a cause or reason with because of/due to/owing to + noun. Due to and owing to are more formal: Because of the bad weather, the flight was cancelled.
- We can also use because of/due to/owing to + the fact that + clause: Due to the fact that the weather was bad, the flight was cancelled.
- To talk about purpose, we can use so (that) + clause: They'll take a map so (that) they don't/won't get lost. We left early so (that) we wouldn't be late.
- We can also use so as (not) to/in order (not) to/to + infinitive to talk about purpose. So as to and in order to are more formal than to: He trained hard in order to improve his performance. We whispered so as not to disturb anyone.
- To talk about a result, we use so + clause: I was tired so I went to bed.
- Therefore, as a result and for this reason have a similar meaning to so. They usually come at the beginning of a sentence but a middle position is also possible for therefore: Airline pilots are on strike. Therefore/As a result/For this reason, flights have been cancelled. /Flights have therefore been cancelled.

PRACTICE

59a Circle the correct answers. There may be more than one correct answer.

Youngest children often feel frustrated (0) because / since / due to the fact that everyone in the family wants to take care of them. They (1) for this reason / therefore / as a result need to prove to others that they can make their own decisions (2) so that / in order to / so as to others will take them seriously.

Middle children, on the other hand, can feel left out (3) because / because of / owing to they don't get the advantages that come with being the eldest or youngest child. However, there is a positive side to being a middle child. They are usually loyal and sociable and they are most likely to develop their talents fully (4) due to / so / as this is a way of getting attention.

(5) Therefore/ Since / As their parents want the best for them, eldest children get lots of attention. They often take their responsibilities seriously and (6) so as to / so that / as a result, they work hard (7) so / so that / in order to prove they deserve the attention they get.

59b Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- o All my clothes got wet because of the storm. there
All my clothes got wet because there was a storm.
- 1 The car crashed because the driver was careless. of
The car crashed carelessness.
- 2 I studied for many years so that I could become a doctor. order
I studied for many years a doctor.
- 3 I lied to him because I didn't want to hurt his feelings. in
I lied to him his feelings.
- 4 She is studying because she has a test tomorrow. so
She she is studying.
- 5 He had to leave his job owing to poor health. since
He had to leave his job poor.
- 6 Let's leave early to avoid the rush hour. that
Let's leave early the rush hour.

60 Time clauses

The future

- We use the present simple to refer to the future in time clauses with after, before, when, as soon as, until and once: I'll wait here until you get back.
- We use the present perfect to emphasise that an action will be complete before the action in the main clause: Once you've had a good night's sleep, you'll feel better.*
- Often the meaning is the same if we use the present simple or the present perfect but sometimes it is different. Compare: I'll give you the report when I finish/have finished it. (= First I'll finish the report and then I'll give it to you.) When I speak to her, I'll mention the subject.* (= I'll mention the subject at the same time I am speaking to her.) When I've spoken to her, I'll ring you.* (= First I'll speak to her and then I'll ring you.)
- We use the present continuous with when and while to refer to an action that will be in progress in the future: I'm going to talk to him about the problem when/while we're having lunch.

The present

We use present tenses in both clauses to talk about the present. When can mean 'every time': When I see them, I remember all the good times we had together.*

The past

We can use after, before, when, while, as soon as, until and once to refer to actions in the past: When they arrived, we were eating. They arrived while we were having dinner. I saw them a few days before they left. After they left/had left, we stayed in contact for some time.*

PRACTICE

60a Join the sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- 0 The children will finish their homework. We'll go out then. (when)
When the children have finished their homework, we'll go out.
.....
- 1 He'll be working. She'll be lying on the beach. (while)
.....
- 2 You'll tell me what really happened. Only then will I help you. (once)
.....
- 3 Jake will finish the report he's writing. He'll come over to my place. (as soon as)
.....
- 4 Petra and Otto will go swimming. They'll do the washing up first. (after)
.....
- 5 I'll see Helen. I'll give her your regards. (when)
.....
- 6 Gareth will keep looking for his wallet. He'll find it. (until)
.....
- 7 First you have to pass a driving test. Then you can get a driving licence. (before)
.....
- 8 She'll add some herbs to the dish. It will taste better. (when)
.....

60b Complete the interview. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- A: So what are you going to do after you (0) graduate (graduate)?
- B: Well, some of my friends are planning to see the world before they
(1) (start) work. But I travelled quite a lot after I
(2) (finish) school. As soon as I (3)
(leave) university, I want to get a job and start paying off my student loan.
- A: That sounds very practical. Do you think it will be easy to find work?
- B: Well, when I (4) (choose) to study Physics, I knew there was a shortage of people with science degrees. In fact, before I
(5) (come) to university, I did a lot of research – I wanted to be sure I wouldn't be wasting my time and money here!
- A: Do you think you made the right decision?
- B: I think so. After I (6) (give) my options a lot of thought, I decided to do a 'sandwich course'. That means I work for a year as part of my studies. So when prospective employers (7) (look) at my CV, they (8) (see) that I've had work experience – and that will make a difference to my job prospects.
- A: And are you enjoying your course?
- B: Most of the time. Sometimes, when I (9) (have) a paper to write, I (10) (think) I should be lying on a beach somewhere instead! But once I (11) (get) my degree, I don't think I'll have any regrets.

61 Common linking expressions in speech

- To give information a second time for emphasis or to explain what we mean, we can use in other words: The new tax only affects people with large incomes, or in other words, the rich.
 - To emphasise or support something we have just said, we can use after all: I don't know why you're so worried. After all, it's not your problem.
 - To add emphasis, to fill a pause or to show surprise or anger in a conversation, we can use well: Well, I think it's a good idea. Well, let me think. Well, you could have phoned to say you'd be late.*
 - To emphasise that something is true or to disagree politely, we can use actually: I'm not disappointed. Actually, I'm rather glad I didn't get the job.
 - To add information or to correct what we have just said, we can use I mean or or rather: You're better at writing reports than I am. I mean, you've had all that experience. We all went in Sonia's car, or rather, her father's car.
 - To say that something is not important or to end a conversation, we can use anyway or anyhow (less formal): They didn't have trainers in my size and anyway, I don't need another pair. Anyhow, I must be going now.
 - To change the subject in a conversation, we can use anyway/anyhow or by the way: Anyway, how have you been? By the way, have you seen my keys?*
- ⚠ We can use on the contrary to show that we disagree but this is more common in writing: It wasn't a good idea. On the contrary, it was a huge mistake.

PRACTICE

61 Circle the correct answer.

- A: (0) By the way / On the contrary, I've just remembered. Have we got a birthday card for Ingrid yet?
- B: No, I thought you were getting one.
- A: We must buy one today. (1) After all / Anyway, it's her eighteenth birthday.
- A: That was an interesting lecture.
- B: (2) Anyhow / Actually, I thought it was dull, (3) in other words / or rather, the subject is dull. I don't like accounting.
- A: Have you got the tickets for the concert tonight?
- B: (4) Well / I mean, I haven't got them yet.
- A: (5) After all / In other words, you've forgotten to buy them.
- A: It was an exciting film, don't you think?
- B: (6) By the way / On the contrary, I had trouble staying awake.
- A: (7) Well / I mean, if you didn't want to see it, you should have said so.

62 Participle clauses: contrast, reason, result

- Participle clauses have the same subject as the verb in the main clause. They are quite formal and we use them more often in writing. We can use present participle clauses:
 - to replace clauses of contrast or concession. We use while, in spite of or despite to introduce the participle clause: Although I understand your problem, I can't allow you to break the rules. → While/In spite of/Despite understanding your problem, I can't allow you to break the rules.
 - to replace clauses of result: He told her about the party they'd planned and so he ruined the surprise for her. → He told her about the party they'd planned, ruining the surprise for her.
 - to replace clauses of reason: We left early because we wanted to catch the last train. → Wanting to catch the last train, we left early. Because I'm a quiet sort of person, I didn't want to get involved in the argument. → Being a quiet sort of person, I didn't want to get involved in the argument.
 - We can use a perfect participle (having + past participle) to replace a clause of reason in the present perfect or past perfect: As he's lived here all his life, he knows a lot about the town. → Having lived here all his life, he knows a lot about the town.
- ▶▶ For reduced relative clauses, see Unit 55. For participle clauses of time, see Unit 63.

PRACTICE

62a Re-write the sentences. Use participle clauses.

- 0 I went round to see her as I was hoping I could apologise.
Hoping I could apologise
....., I went round to see her.
- 1 While he hated the job, he carried on doing it for many years.
....., he carried on doing it for many years.
- 2 I had plenty of time to spare so I had a good look round the town.
....., I had a good look round the town.
- 3 I had been out all day so I was quite happy to stay in for the evening.
....., I was quite happy to stay in for the evening.
- 4 Since I had failed one of my exams, I couldn't get into university.
....., I couldn't get into university.
- 5 They managed to settle their disagreement because they were good friends.
....., they managed to settle their disagreement.
- 6 As I was happy with my exam results, I decided to go out and celebrate.
....., I decided to go out and celebrate.
- 7 Although I want them to like me, I can't be dishonest about who I am.
....., I can't be dishonest about who I am.
- 8 Because she was scared of spiders, she refused to go down to the cellar.
....., she refused to go down to the cellar.

62b Read the book review. Then re-write the numbered sentences. Use the words in brackets to form participle clauses.

(0) Charles Frazier got an idea for a story from a real-life journey made by his great-great-uncle and he decided to write a novel. (having) Cold Mountain is set in the American Civil War and tells the story of a soldier called Inman. (1) Inman has been wounded so he deserts the army. (having) (2) He journeys through the Appalachian Mountains because he wants to return home to the woman he loves. (wanting) (3) He struggles to stay alive because he faces many dangers. (facing)

(4) Cold Mountain is a deeply moving novel because it looks at war and its effect on people. (looking at) (5) It is also a powerful love story so it appeals to a wide readership. (being) (6) I have read the book and seen the film and I would strongly recommend either. (having)

- 0 Having got an idea for a story from a real-life journey made by his great-great-uncle, Charles Frazier decided to write a novel.
- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5
- 6

63 Participle clauses: time

- We can use a participle clause to replace and + coordinate clause. The two actions in the sentence happen at the same time or at different times. When one action follows another, the action which takes place first comes first in the sentence: I stood in the garden and watched the children. → *I stood in the garden watching the children. (same time) I switched off the light and tried to get some sleep. → Switching off the light, I tried to get some sleep.* (different times)
- We can use a participle clause after after, before, since, while, on, etc. The two actions happen at the same time or at different times: When I met him, I didn't like him. → On meeting him, I didn't like him.* (same time) I spoke to him and then I felt better. → *I felt better after speaking to him. (different times)
- When we want to emphasise that one action happened before another, we use a perfect participle (having + past participle). The clause with having comes first: I'd made a decision and I was anxious to act on it. → Having made a decision, I was anxious to act on it.*

PRACTICE

63a Re-write the sentences. Use participle clauses.

- 0 She came in and she looked furious.
She came in looking furious.
.....
- 1 He set off on his journey and he carried only one small bag.
.....
- 2 I've changed my job since I last wrote to you.
.....
- 3 Before I give you an answer, I need to discuss the situation with my parents.
.....
- 4 He left school and then he worked in a restaurant for a year. (Begin: Having ...)
.....
- 5 She switched on her computer and started to work.
.....
- 6 We turned the corner and we saw a huge traffic jam ahead of us.
.....
- 7 After he bought the painting, he discovered that it was a fake. (Begin: Having ...)
.....
- 8 We had an argument and never saw one another again. (Begin: Having ...)
.....

63b Join the sentences. Use participle clauses and the words in brackets.

- 0 I'd forgotten to set my alarm. I woke up late the morning of the interview.
Having forgotten to set my alarm, I woke up late the morning of the interview.
.....
- 1 I threw back the bedcovers. I rushed downstairs to the kitchen.
.....
- 2 I made some coffee. Then I went back upstairs to have a shower and get dressed.
.....
- 3 I put on my best suit and tie. Then I noticed that my jacket had a coffee stain down the front. (before)
.....
- 4 I changed my clothes quickly. I rushed to the station to catch the train.
.....
- 5 I reached the train station. I saw my train pulling away from the platform. (on)
.....
- 6 I reached for my mobile so that I could ring and say I'd be late for the interview. I noticed that someone had left a message.
.....
- 7 I read the message. I laughed out loud with relief.
.....
- 8 I bought myself some breakfast at the station. Then I sat down to plan how to get to the interview on time the following day. (after)
.....

64 Past participle clauses

- We use a past participle clause in place of subject + passive verb.
- Past participle clauses can replace clauses of cause, reason or condition: He was bored with his job so he decided to leave. → Bored with his job, he decided to leave. If I were given the opportunity, I would go back to school. → Given the opportunity, I would go back to school.
- We can use being + past participle after after, before, since, while, on, etc.: After it was cleaned, the bike looked as good as new. → After being cleaned, the bike looked as good as new. Since the government was elected, it has had a series of problems. → Since being elected, the government has had a series of problems. When I was informed, I called them. → On being informed, I called them.

PRACTICE

64 Re-write the sentences. Use past participle clauses.

- 0 I was exhausted by lack of sleep and dozed off at my desk.
Exhausted by lack of sleep, I dozed off at my desk.
.....
- 1 Peter was abandoned by his parents at an early age and took to stealing.
.....
- 2 Since I was promoted, I've had no time to go out.
.....
- 3 After Richard was released from prison, he couldn't find a job anywhere.
.....
- 4 When she was caught, she confessed to the crime.
.....
- 5 If I am allowed to do so, I would like to present my side of the argument.
.....
- 6 The money was hidden in the cellar and it wasn't discovered for many years.
.....
- 7 Unless he is treated with more respect, he will leave the company.
.....
- 8 If I am given the opportunity, I know I can make a success of the project.
.....
- 9 Linda was saddened by the death of her father and needed to spend time alone.
.....
- 10 Although it was written many years ago, the book is still relevant today.
.....
- 11 Before you are allowed to enter the building, you will be searched.
.....
- 12 She was scared of the dark so she switched on all the lights.
.....

Check 12 Linking words and structures

1 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 I'm sorry I wasn't here earlier but I came before / as soon as I could.
- 2 I won't believe it until / as soon as I've seen it for myself.
- 3 Finished / Having finished work for the day, I got ready to go home.
- 4 Leaving / Since leaving school, Jasper has done a number of jobs.
- 5 We've invited the Kerrs but / however they may decide not to come.

/ 5

2 Complete the conversations. Use the words in the box. You do not need all of them.

actually after all anyway
by the way or rather too well

- 6 A: Do you get on with your new flatmate?
B: I'm not sure. , she's only just moved in and I haven't had a chance to get to know her yet.
- 7 A: I thought you were going to get a new mobile phone?
B: I was, but this one works fine and , I can't afford the one I want.
- 8 A: Wasn't the Maths exam difficult?
B: , I didn't think it was too bad.
- 9 A: Rodrigo doesn't want to come to the game with us.
B: , he should have told us. I've already bought a ticket for him.
- 10 A: Are you going out with Pauline this evening?
B: We're going to a club. Why don't you come along ?

/ 5

3 Complete the essay. Use one word in each gap.

(11) the damaging effects of the motor car are well known, the number of vehicles on the road is growing rapidly. In 1950 there were fewer than 50 million cars in use round the world (12) in 2006 there were almost 33 million cars in the UK alone. Let's examine some problems associated with the car and a possible solution.

(13) of all, more people are killed in accidents involving cars than any other form of transport. (14) , road accidents receive less attention from the media than other less common but more spectacular accidents.

In (15) , the car is a major cause of pollution and petrol emissions are damaging to our health and to the environment (16) well. (17) spite of this, car sales continue to grow. Unfortunately, it seems that (18) concern for ourselves (19) concern for the planet will convince us to change our habits.

An obvious answer to the problem is better public transport. (20) public transport were cheaper, more comfortable and more reliable, we would be less inclined to use the car. But we need to act (21) it is too late. We must change our attitudes and priorities (22) that future generations can live in a better world.

/ 12

4 Circle the correct answer.

Vincent Van Gogh is one of the world's most famous painters. Sadly, his talent was not widely recognised during his life. It was, (23) but / however / although, much appreciated after his death.

(24) Because failed / Having failed / Being failed in every career he attempted, Van Gogh turned to art (25) in order to / so that / for express his strong religious feelings. (26) On / When / Until he decided to start painting around 1880, he used quite dark colours to create pictures of peasants and miners.

Then in 1886 Van Gogh visited his brother Theo in Paris. (27) Attracted / Attracting / Since being attracted by the work of the Impressionists that he saw there, Van Gogh decided to stay in Paris. He met Picasso (28) and / as well / also was encouraged by him to use more colour in his painting.

(29) In addition / However / As a result, Van Gogh's later work was brighter and more colourful.

In 1888 Van Gogh moved to the south of France. (30) Inspired / Inspiring / Having inspired by the wonderful landscape, he began to work frantically. This activity was interrupted by periods of depression but it (31) too / as well / also produced many of his most famous paintings. One of these is a self-portrait which Van Gogh painted (32) since / after / as soon as cutting off his own ear. A year later he committed suicide.

A lot is known about Van Gogh's life (33) because / because of / since the letters written to him by his brother Theo. Theo believed in his brother's genius (34) whereas / although / so he always encouraged him in his work. He was the person closest to Van Gogh.

/ 12

5 Re-write the sentences. Use the words in brackets to form participle clauses.

- 35 I decided to go into town because I had nothing better to do. (having)
- 36 We moved quietly so as not to disturb anyone. (wanting)
- 37 I wish I could help you but I can do very little. (while)
- 38 Because Hal is so conscientious, he rarely leaves the office early. (being)
- 39 Bettina heard a suspicious noise so she called the police. (hearing)
- 40 All patients are examined when they are admitted to hospital. (on)

/ 6

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
5, 20, 28	Unit 56	Exercise 56
10, 13, 15, 16, 18, 19, 31	Unit 57	Exercise 57
11, 12, 14, 17, 22, 23	Unit 58	Exercise 58
25, 29, 33, 34	Unit 59	Exercise 59
1, 2, 21, 26, 32	Unit 60	Exercise 60
6, 7, 8, 9	Unit 61	Exercise 61
24, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39	Unit 62	Exercise 62
3, 4	Unit 63	Exercise 63
27, 30, 40	Unit 64	Exercise 64

Now do Check 12

Conditionals

65 The zero and first conditionals

The zero conditional

- We use the zero conditional to talk about things that are always or generally true as a result of an action or situation. We form zero conditional sentences with if/when + present simple + present simple: If/When I get ill, I rest in bed.
- When the if clause comes at the beginning of the sentence, we put a comma after it: If I don't use sun cream, I get burnt. I get burnt if I don't use sun cream.

The first conditional

- We use the first conditional to talk about something that is likely to happen in the future as a result of an action or situation. We usually form first conditional sentences with if + present simple + will: If she does well in her exams, she'll go to college.
- In the if clause we can also use the present continuous, present perfect simple, present perfect continuous, can and should: If he's still waiting for you, he'll be angry. If she's been listening to the news, she'll be worried. If I can finish work early, I'll come and help you. If I should hear from them, I'll let you know. (should = it's not very likely I'll hear from them)
- In the main clause we can also use be going to, the future continuous, future perfect, imperative, can, could, may, might, should, ought to and must: If she passes her exams, we're going to buy her a car. If you arrive late, use your key to get in. If you phone me after eleven, I might be in bed.
- When the if clause comes at the beginning of the sentence, we put a comma after it: If you fix my computer, I'll give you twenty pounds. I'll give you twenty pounds if you fix my computer.

PRACTICE

65a Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- 0 If you don't tell him the truth, I'm sure you 'll regret it one day. (not tell, regret)
- 1 She disappointed if she the job. (be, not get)
- 2 If we this holiday today, we on a warm beach in two weeks' time. (book, lie)
- 3 Please me if you any help. (call, need)
- 4 If he your e-mail yet, you from him today. (not read, not hear)
- 5 If I cheese, I in a terrible rash. (eat, break out)
- 6 If it all night, I the grass today like I'd planned. (rain, not cut) 65b Complete the article. Use the words in the box.

are be can does feel if leaning learn should stand up try will

Body language can make a bigger impression on people than you might think. If you (0) learn how to use it correctly, body language (1) help you to make and keep friends. For example, if you (2) straight, you (3) look confident and attractive, while arms crossed over your chest say 'stay away'.

Mirroring is another way of sending out the right signals. (4) you want someone to like you, you (5) copy their body language. Why? If someone (6) what we do, we (7) that we have a lot in common with them. So if you (8) having a drink with someone, (9) taking a sip of your drink a few seconds after they do. Look at their posture. If they are (10) forwards, you should (11) doing the same. Of course, you have to be careful. You don't want to look as if you're making fun of them!

66 The second conditional

- We use the second conditional to talk about:
 - unlikely future events or situations: If she changed her job, she'd be much happier.
 - imaginary or improbable situations in the present: If they were here, they'd tell us what to do. (They aren't here so they can't tell us what to do.)
- We usually form second conditional sentences with if + past simple + would + infinitive without to: If I knew the answer, I'd tell you.
- We can use was or were in the if clause after I/he/she/it: If I was/were rich, I'd leave my job and travel with you.
- We use if I were you to give advice: I wouldn't worry about it if I were you.
- In the if clause we can also use the past continuous and could: If you were stopping for lunch, I'd join you. If I could understand his lectures, I'm sure I'd learn a lot from him.
- In the main clause we can also use could/might + infinitive without to and would/could/might + be + -ing form: If we had more free time, we could go out more often. If you asked for a pay rise, you might get one. If we had more money, we wouldn't be living here.
- In formal English we can use if + were + to-infinitive: If you asked him, he would come with you. → If you were to ask him, he would come with you.
- We can also omit if and use were + subject + to-infinitive: Were you to ask him, he would come with you.*

PRACTICE

66a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 He wouldn't come here so often if he doesn't / didn't like it.
- 1 I'd work a lot harder if I was / were you.
- 2 I wouldn't be telling you this if I thought / would think you were going to repeat it.
- 3 If I were in your position, I 'll / 'd get legal advice.
- 4 If she lived / could live anywhere she wanted to, she'd live in Brazil.
- 5 If I were / would be ten years younger, I'd go out with him.
- 6 If they had enough money, they 'd buy / bought this house tomorrow.
- 7 If they were asked / to ask me for my opinion, I'd advise them to reconsider their decision.
- 8 She might win / won first prize if she entered the competition.
- 9 Was / Were they to offer you the job, would you accept it?
- 10 If I wasn't working / didn't work this weekend, I'd spend the time with you.

66b Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

A: How's Eli?

B: Not that well. Imagine how you (0) 'd feel (feel) if you (1) (discover) that you'd failed nearly all of your exams!

A: I'd feel terrible but if it were me, I (2) (keep) trying. She can re-sit the exams she's failed in September.

A: Have you decided what you're doing this weekend?

B: If I (3) (can / borrow) some money, I (4) (definitely / go) away with you but I don't think there's anyone who can lend it to me.

A: Couldn't Nigel lend you the money?

B: Not really. You see, he's broke. He (5) (can / earn) lots of money if he (6) (want) to but money's not that important to him.

A: My car's broken down. Can you help me?

B: If I (7) (know) anything about cars, I (8) (try) to fix it but I know less than you do. If I (9) (be) you, I (10) (call) a garage.

A: Sven has everything he wants but he's always complaining. I'm sure if I (11) (have) so much money, I (12) (not complain) all the time.

B: Maybe not, but money isn't everything.

67 The third conditional

- We use the third conditional to talk about possible events in the past that didn't happen. We also use it to talk about regrets or to make criticisms: If I had worked harder, I would have passed my exams. (But I didn't work hard so I didn't pass.) If you had set the alarm, we wouldn't have missed the train. (But you didn't set the alarm so we missed it.)
- We usually form third conditional sentences with if + past perfect + would have + past participle: If you had told me it was dangerous, I would have stayed home.
- In the if clause we can also use the past perfect continuous or could have + past participle: If we had been travelling in that car, we would have been injured. If we could have got a taxi, we would have come to see you.
- In the main clause we can also use could/might have + past participle: If I hadn't gone skiing, I wouldn't have broken my leg. (certainty) If you had told me about your plans earlier, I could have arranged to meet you. (possibility) If the police had arrived sooner, they might have caught the burglars. (possibility)
- In formal English we can omit if and use had + subject + past participle: If I had known you needed help, I would have been there. → Had I known you needed help, I would have been there.

We don't use would have in the if clause: If he had married Laura, he wouldn't have been happy. (Not ~~If he would have married Laura, he wouldn't have been happy.~~) 67a Complete the articles. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

PRACTICE

Five Indonesian fishermen found themselves in deep trouble when a storm blew up suddenly off the coast of Australia and wrecked their boat. They were almost out of food when they were spotted by a rescue plane. In a way, they were unlucky: if they (0) hadn't gone (not go) out fishing, their boat (1) (not be) destroyed. But in another way, they were extremely fortunate: if the plane (2) (not see) them, they (3) (probably / die).

An English couple had a narrow escape when a large tree fell on their home. They were parking their car at the time of the accident. If the couple (4) (arrive) home a few minutes earlier, they (5) (be) in the house when the tree came crashing down and they (6) (might / be) killed.

An Australian diver who found himself in the mouth of a great white shark survived to tell the tale. The diver managed to stab the shark in the mouth with his knife and the great fish released him. If the diver (7) (not have) a knife with him, the shark (8) (not open) its mouth and the diver (9) (might not / survive).

A woman in Australia was bitten on the foot by a dangerous snake which miraculously left no poison in the bite. If the snake (10) (inject) poison into her foot, the woman (11) (could / die).

67b Re-write the sentences.

- 0 The weather was terrible so we didn't go out yesterday.
If the weather hadn't been terrible, we would have gone out yesterday
- 1 You didn't phone us so we didn't get there in time.
We
- 2 I wasn't able to help you because you didn't explain the problem to me.
I might
- 3 They weren't listening carefully so they didn't understand what she was saying.
They might
- 4 He couldn't phone her so he couldn't tell her what was happening.
If
- 5 You didn't see him because you didn't come round earlier.
If
- 6 You took me to your friend's party and I met Kazuko.
If
- 7 When she married him, she didn't know how selfish he was.
She might not
- 8 The management wouldn't agree to a pay rise so there was a strike.
Had

68 unless, provided (that), in case, etc.

- We can use unless, provided/providing (that) and as/so long as in first conditional sentences.
 - Unless means 'if not': Unless the rain stops, we'll cancel the game.
 - Provided/providing (that) and so/as long as mean 'on condition that': You can come with us as long as you pay for your own ticket.
- We can also use the following linking words and expressions:
 - even if: Even if we hurry, we'll be late. (= Hurrying will not change the situation.)
 - or else: Hurry up or else we'll miss the train. (= If you don't hurry, we'll miss the train.)
 - otherwise: We were delayed at the airport; otherwise, we'd have been there by noon. (= If we hadn't been delayed, we'd have been there by noon.)
 - assuming (that): Assuming (that) you get a university place, how will you pay for your studies? (= if you get a university place)
 - suppose/supposing/imagine (that) (= what if ...?): Suppose you lose your job, what will you do? Supposing they had lied to us, what would we have done? Imagine you've won a million pounds. Would you carry on working?
- We use in case to talk about something we do to avoid difficulty in the future. Compare: I'll buy an umbrella if it rains. (= I'll buy an umbrella if it starts to rain.) I'll buy an umbrella in case it rains. (= I'll buy an umbrella because it might rain.)

PRACTICE

68 Re-write the sentences. Use the words in brackets.

- 0 You can start training a few weeks before the marathon providing you've been running regularly for at least a year before that. (on condition that)
You can start training a few weeks before the marathon on condition that you've been running regularly for at least a year before that.
- 1 Don't consider running a marathon if you aren't in good physical condition. (unless)
- 2 Don't leave training until just before the marathon because you might injure yourself. (in case)
- 3 Take time off from running every week or else your body will not have a chance to rest. (otherwise)
- 4 Provided that you train carefully, you can avoid injury. (as long as)
- 5 If you are sensible, you should run a marathon safely and successfully. (assuming)

69 Mixed conditionals

- In mixed conditional sentences the if clause and the main clause refer to different times.
- The most common mixed conditional is one where a past event has an effect on the present. The if clause refers to the past (third conditional) and the main clause refers to the present or future (second conditional): if + past perfect + would/could/might: If I had gone to university, I might have a better job now. If she had remembered to buy a ticket, she would be coming with us to the game tonight.
- The if clause can also refer to the present or future (second conditional) and the main clause to the past (third conditional): if + past simple + would/could/might have + past participle: If she were sensible, she wouldn't have left her job. (= She isn't sensible so she left her job.) If you had a car, I would have asked you to give me a lift. (= You don't have a car so I didn't ask you to give me a lift.)

PRACTICE

69a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 If you told / had told me about the problem earlier, everything would be / would have been all right now.
- 1 If she didn't die / hadn't died so young, she would be / would have been a famous musician now.
- 2 You should relax. If you didn't work / hadn't worked so hard all the time, you wouldn't be / wouldn't have been ill last year.
- 3 If he didn't waste / hadn't wasted so much money in his youth, he could be / could have been a wealthy man now.
- 4 If I have been / were a more sensitive person, I wouldn't upset / wouldn't have upset her in the way that I did.
- 5 If they really want / wanted to emigrate, they would move / would have moved to another country by now.
- 6 If he worked / had worked harder last month, he wouldn't be / wouldn't have been so busy now.
- 7 I wouldn't be doing / wouldn't have been doing this job today if I knew / had known how boring it would be.
- 8 If the train wasn't delayed / hadn't been delayed, we will be / would be there now.
- 9 If the passenger didn't forget / hadn't forgotten her passport, she would be boarding / would have been boarding the plane now.
- 10 If you followed / had followed the diet your doctor gave you, you might not be / might not have been ill now.

69b Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box.

be (x3) begin not have (x2) not sit ~~not spend~~ not weigh set set off take out tell

A: What's wrong? You look worried.

B: I am, but I've only got myself to blame. If I (0) hadn't spent so much money, I (1) such a big credit card bill to pay next month.

A: Is Lars a careful driver?

B: No, he isn't. If he (2), he (3) that nasty accident last month. And if he (4) better insurance, his car (5) in the garage at this moment. As it is, he can't afford to have it repaired.

A: Are we nearly at Lan and Jinhai's house?

B: No, we've still got a long way to go. But if we (6) an hour earlier, we (7) nearly there now.

A: I'm sorry, but if you (8) me yesterday that you wanted to leave at eight, I (9) my alarm for seven.

B: How was I to know that you get up so late in the mornings?

A: How are things?

B: They've been better. I'm on a diet and I joined a fitness centre last week. If I (10) the diet and joined the centre six months ago, I (11) so much now and I (12) also a lot fitter.

70 I wish, if only

- To express dissatisfaction with a present situation, we use I wish + past simple: I wish I was/were rich. (But I'm not.) I wish I didn't have to go to work. (But I have to.)
 - To express regret about the past, we use I wish + past perfect: I wish I had known you were coming. (But I didn't know.)
 - To express dissatisfaction and annoyance about something that we would like to be different but that probably won't happen or that we can't control, we use I wish + would + infinitive without to: I wish my parents wouldn't treat me like a child. (But they do and I can't change them.)
 - To talk about something we are unable to do, we use I wish + could + infinitive without to: I wish I could remember his name. (But I can't.)
 - If only can replace I wish. It is usually more emphatic: If only you had told me the truth! If only they would turn the music down, we could get some sleep.
-  We use hope to talk about events that are possible and wish to talk about events that are unlikely or impossible: I hope you enjoyed the film. (It's possible you enjoyed it.) I wish you had enjoyed the film. (But I know you didn't.) I hope he'll attend the meeting. (He may attend.) I wish he would attend the meeting. (I don't think he will attend.)

PRACTICE

70a Complete the messages from a message board on the Internet. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box.

be ~~can~~ / ~~learn~~ can / study live not do start stop

- | | |
|-----------------------|---|
| locool | I really admire people who can draw and paint but I can't draw even the simplest things. If only I (0) could learn to draw! |
| Alexis | I'd gained weight, my clothes didn't fit and I didn't like myself. But since I started running every morning, I feel a lot better about myself. I wish I (1) taking regular exercise a long time ago! |
| Li | I come from a family of lawyers and my parents expect me to carry on the tradition, so even though I really wish I (2) information technology next year, I'll get a law degree first. |
| Melanie | My alarm went off at six this morning. I must have switched it off and gone back to sleep so I was late for an exam. I wish I (3) such a stupid thing! |
| timfromnowhere | Nothing exciting ever happens in my town and I get so bored! If only I (4) in a city like London or Brighton, I'd be so much happier. |
| Scott | I wish my parents (5) complaining about the way I dress. I wish I (6) more patient with them too. |

70b Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 0 It is a pity I have to go to school today. wish
I wish I didn't have to go to school today.
- 1 I am disappointed that he didn't call me. only
If me.
- 2 I regret leaving my last job. had
I wish my last job.
- 3 Please stop criticising me all the time! would
I wish me all the time.
- 4 I am sorry we can't afford a new car. could
If only a new car.
- 5 It is a shame we haven't got more time together. had
If more time together.
- 6 I regret not finishing my university degree. I
I wish my university degree.

71 Other ways to express hypothetical meaning

- We use it's time (+ for someone) + to-infinitive to say that we think an action should happen. We can also use it's time + past simple/continuous: It's ten o'clock. It's time for us to leave. / It's time we left. / It's time we were leaving.
- We use it's high time + past simple/continuous to say that we think it is urgent that an action should happen: It's high time they started studying harder.
- We use would rather + subject + past simple/continuous to say what someone would like someone else to do in the present or future: I'd rather you didn't go out alone.
- We use would rather + subject + past perfect to express dissatisfaction with what someone did in the past: I'd rather you hadn't gone without me.
- We use as if/though + present tense for something we think is true: She's looking at him as though she knows him. (Perhaps she does know him.)
- We use as if/though + past simple/past perfect when we think something is not likely to be true: She's looking at him as if she knew him. (She doesn't know him.) She looked as though she'd seen a ghost! (But she hadn't.)

PRACTICE

71 Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box.

be (x2) book go grow learn not go not leave not say ring tell win

- 0 It's time you rang your parents. You haven't spoken to them for ages!
- 1 Sometimes you speak to me as if I a child and it annoys me!
- 2 I'd rather we out tonight. I'm not feeling well.
- 3 It sounds as though she ill. I hope she gets better soon.
- 4 I'd rather you anything to my parents about my exam results – I wanted to tell them myself.
- 5 Isn't it time they their parents they're planning to get married?
- 6 You're talking as if you the game when I know you lost it.
- 7 How can I tell my housemate I'd rather he all of the cooking to me? It's high time he how to cook for himself!
- 8 Sometimes Maribel acts as if money on trees!
- 9 It's July already and it's high time we our holiday. I'm afraid we may have left it too late.
- 10 They don't want to go by themselves. They'd rather we with them to show them the way.

Check 13 Conditionals

1 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 If / Unless / In case you had a lot of money, would you give up work?
- 2 Provided / Even if / If only I could get a job! Then life here would be perfect.
- 3 Provided / As long as / Unless he asks me politely, I won't help him.
- 4 If only / I hope / I wish you've enjoyed the evening.
- 5 What if / Assuming that / When the train arrives on time, we'll see them in a few minutes.

/ 5

2 Choose the correct answer, A, B, C or D.

Dear Irene,

It was nice to hear from you, and yes, I'd love to come and visit you in Spain! (6) I can save enough money before the summer holidays start, I (7) at the end of July. (8) , I'll see you in the autumn because I'm sure I (9) enough money by October – if I (10) my job by then! Unfortunately, lots of people in our company are being made redundant. If I (11) any sense, I (12) this job ages ago. By the way, congratulations on your promotion. If you keep on like this, you (13) the school soon!

It sounds (14) the weather's been really good over there. It's been terrible here. If it (15) at the weekend, I (16) soon be emigrating to somewhere with a better climate! Seriously, I'm wondering if it's time (17) about going abroad again.

Look forward to seeing you soon. Say hello to your family for me.

Love, Violetta

- | | | | |
|----------------------|---|---|--|
| 6 A If only | B In case | <input checked="" type="radio"/> C Unless | <input checked="" type="radio"/> D Provided |
| 7 A come | <input checked="" type="radio"/> B 'll come | C 'd come | D came |
| 8 A If | B When | C Unless | <input checked="" type="radio"/> D Otherwise |
| 9 A 'll save | B 'll be saving | C might save | D 'll have saved |
| 10 A didn't lose | B don't lose | C haven't lost | D won't lose |
| 11 A have | B had | C 've had | D 'll have |
| 12 A 'll leave | B 'd leave | C 'd be leaving | D 'd have left |
| 13 A 'll run | B 'll be running | C 'll have run | D should run |
| 14 A as if | B as | C if | D only |
| 15 A still rains | B rains still | C 's still raining | D still rained |
| 16 A should | B can | C could | D have |
| 17 A for me to think | B I'm thinking | C I've thought | D I think |

/ 12

3 Re-write the sentences.

- 18 The authorities didn't issue a warning because they didn't know there was a threat.
Had
- 19 My car broke down so I was late for work.
If
- 20 The event was cancelled because it was raining.
If
- 21 I didn't meet you at the station because I didn't know you were coming.
If
- 22 He missed his flight because the taxi didn't arrive on time.
If

/ 5

4 Complete the conversations. Use the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- A: I'm having a tough time with my essay. Would you help me with it, please?
B: I'm sorry. I (23) (help) you with it if I (24) (have) more time but I'm so busy right now. Could you come back this evening?
A: Of course. Are you sure you don't mind?
B: I (25) (not help) you if I (26) (not want) to. But you do realise that if you (27) (work) harder during these past few weeks, you (28) (not have) these problems now.
- A: I wish I (29) (not agree) to take on the job. It's too much work and I really wish I (30) (have) more free time.
B: Yes, but if you (31) (not take) it on, you (32) (not have) so much money to spend when you do have free time.

/ 10

5 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 33 It is a pity he didn't accept our offer. wish
I our offer.
- 34 You should keep the papers in a safe place. were
If I the papers in a safe place.
- 35 She will bring her camera because she might want to take a photo. case
She will bring her camera to take a photo.
- 36 The farmers will be facing disaster unless it rains soon. if
The farmers will be facing disaster soon.
- 37 I think you should find a job. time
It is a job.
- 38 I would be happier if we stayed at home. rather
I at home.
- 39 I would like to lose some weight. wish
I some weight.
- 40 If they offered him the job, he would accept it. to
Were the job, he would accept it.

/ 8

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
9, 10, 13, 15, 16	Unit 65	Exercise 65
23, 24, 25, 26, 34, 40	Unit 66	Exercise 66
18, 19, 20, 21, 22	Unit 67	Exercise 67
1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 35, 36	Unit 68	Exercise 68
11, 12, 27, 28, 31, 32	Unit 69	Exercise 69
2, 4, 29, 30, 33, 39	Unit 70	Exercise 70
14, 17, 37, 38	Unit 71	Exercise 71

Now do Check 13

Changing sentence structure

72 Changing word order

- In English, we can change the normal word order of a sentence (subject – verb – object – complement) for emphasis.
 - We can begin the sentence with the object or complement. This is more common in spoken English: I enjoyed his first film. I didn't like his second film at all. → I enjoyed his first film. His second film I didn't like at all.
 - We can begin the sentence with an adverbial: I've been doing this boring job for a year. → For a year I've been doing this boring job. We often go to the cinema at the weekend. → Often, we go to the cinema at the weekend.
- ▶▶ For position of words in a sentence, see Unit 36.
- We can also begin a sentence with a negative expression or adverb: hardly ... when, little, never, no sooner ... than, not once/only/since, only after/then/after, rarely, seldom, under no circumstances. We invert the subject and verb: He had no sooner left than the phone rang. → No sooner had he left than the phone rang. She was rarely seen in public. → Rarely was she seen in public. I won't change my mind under any circumstances. → Under no circumstances will I change my mind.

PRACTICE

72a Re-write the sentences.

- 0 The disease is hardly ever fatal.
Hardly ever is the disease fatal
- 1 I have not often heard such an inspiring speech.
Seldom
- 2 Almost immediately after I had started my lunch, a client arrived to see me.
No sooner
- 3 Her words didn't seem important at the time but they did seem important later.
Only
- 4 I have never been so confused by a lecture before.
Never
- 5 She didn't ask me once how I felt about the accident.
Not once
- 6 You shouldn't sign those papers under any circumstances.
Under no circumstances
- 7 I didn't know that I would be facing such big changes at work.
Little
- 8 My parents hardly ever argue about anything.
Rarely

72b Complete the conversations. Use the sentences in brackets and change the word order to make them more emphatic.

- o A: How old do you think Mr Roberts is? Thirty?
 B: He's at least forty. Thirty he isn't. (He isn't thirty.)
- 1 A: What kind of films do you like?
 B: Well, I don't like action films. (I do like comedies.)
- 2 A: Have you always driven a Ford?
 B: No, I used to drive a Fiat. (That was my first car.)
- 3 A: When did your parents arrive? Last night or this morning?
 B: (They arrived this morning.)
- 4 A: We'd better hurry. (It'll be dark soon.)
 B: Of course. I know you don't like travelling at night.
- 5 A: How long would you like the report to be?
 B: I don't care about the details. (But I do want the gist.)

73 The passive (1)

- In an active sentence the subject is the 'doer' and performs the action of the verb. In a passive sentence the object of the active verb becomes the subject:

Active	They	have delayed	our flight.
Passive	Our flight	has been delayed.

- We use the passive:
 - to focus on the action rather than the doer (the agent) of the action: President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in 1963.
 - to avoid using a vague subject like they or someone: *My watch has been stolen!
 - when the doer of the action is obvious: He was arrested last night. (It's clear who arrested him: the police.)
 - to avoid saying who was responsible for something: *Your parcel has been lost.
 - in written reports, signs and notices, and to describe processes: *Shoplifters will be prosecuted. The fruit is treated with wax and then stored.
- If we want to mention the agent, we use by. We use with to mention the tool or instrument that was used: *St Paul's Cathedral was built by Sir Christopher Wren. He was killed with a knife.
- We form the passive with an appropriate form of be + past participle:

They feed the animals.	→	The animals are fed.
They are feeding the animals.	→	The animals are being fed.
They fed the animals.	→	The animals were fed.
They should feed the animals.	→	The animals should be fed.
-  If the verb is followed by a preposition or particle, we don't omit it in the passive sentence: *They closed the cinema down. → The cinema was closed down.
- We can use get in place of be in informal English: We often get asked this question. (= We are often asked this question.)

PRACTICE

73a Re-write the sentences. Use the passive.

- 0 They should have finished the project ages ago.
The project should have been finished ages ago.
.....
- 1 No one has cleaned the windows for weeks.
.....
- 2 His company made him redundant a year ago.
.....
- 3 The pressures of work were affecting her health.
.....
- 4 The fire fighters put out the fire before it did much damage.
.....
- 5 If it hadn't rained so much, we would have finished the job on time.
.....
- 6 The people at the garage are repairing our car.
.....
- 7 Someone hit him on the head with a heavy instrument.
.....
- 8 I hope they'll choose me for the basketball team.
.....

73b Complete the article. Use the passive form of the verbs in the box.

allow	call	can / understand	define determine	fight	may / divide	rear write

Thousands of books (0) have been written about the territorial instinct of animals. Humans are territorial too and when we understand this, some kinds of aggressive behaviour (1) more easily.

Every country is a territory with boundaries which (2) usually clearly Within each country there are smaller territories: counties and cities. Throughout history wars (3) by people protecting the territory in which they live.

However, there are other kinds of territory as well. One such territory (4) 'personal space'. For animals, the size of this space depends on the conditions in which the animal (5), whether in the wild or in a zoo. For humans, it depends on the density of the population in the place where they grew up. To some extent, the size of an individual's personal space (6) by their culture.

Personal space (7) into four zones: the intimate, personal, social and public zones. The intimate zone extends fifteen to forty-five centimetres from the body. Only close friends and relatives (8) to enter the intimate zone. If a stranger enters it, the individual becomes anxious and may feel threatened.

74 The passive (2)

- When an active verb has two objects, a direct object and an indirect object, it is more common for the indirect object to become the subject of the passive sentence:

Active They have offered me a job. (me = indirect object; a job = direct object)

Passive I have been offered a job. / A job has been offered to me.

- Some verbs (e.g. hear, help, make, see) are followed by the infinitive without to when they are active and by to-infinitive when they are passive: I heard her criticise him. → She was heard to criticise him. They made me stay at home. → I was made to stay at home.
- We can't use let + infinitive without to in the passive; we use allow + to-infinitive instead: They didn't let me go out. → I wasn't allowed to go out.
- Need doing and need to be done have a passive meaning: The house needs painting. (= The house needs to be painted.) Does this shirt need to be ironed?

PRACTICE

74a Re-write the underlined parts of the sentences. Use the passive. Do not include the agent unless it is necessary.

- 0 My new digital camera was faulty so the shop gave me a full refund.
My new digital camera was faulty so I was given a full refund
- 1 The children have to be in bed by ten and their parents don't let them use the computer after eight.
The children have to be in bed by ten and
- 2 The car is very dirty and we need to wash it.
The car is very dirty and
- 3 We're travelling by coach and a local guide will show us the sights when we get there.
We're travelling by coach and
- 4 I felt so ill that I took a taxi to the hospital but they made me wait for hours to see a doctor.
I felt so ill that I took a taxi to the hospital but
- 5 She attended the party but they saw her leave shortly after her arrival.
She attended the party but
- 6 He's getting a pay rise and the company has also promised him a bonus.
He's getting a pay rise and
- 7 My grandfather has difficulty walking but a kind passer-by helped him cross the street.
My grandfather has difficulty walking but
- 8 This information is important and you must hand it out to all employees.
This information is important and 74b Re-write the sentences. Use the passive.

- 0 Britain's banks lent nearly £12 billion to successful applicants last year.
Nearly £12 billion was lent to successful applicants by Britain's banks last year.
- 1 Unfortunately, banks let many people borrow more money than they can repay.
Unfortunately, many people more money than they can repay.
- 2 Some banks lent people a sum that was more than their annual income.
People that was more than their annual income.
- 3 They gave other loans to people who had no source of income.
Other loans who had no source of income.
- 4 Consumer groups say that both banks and borrowers need to face the problem.
Consumer groups say that the problem by both banks and borrowers.
- 5 They argue that banks should not give loans to people who can't afford them.
They argue that loans who can't afford them.

75 The passive (3)

- We can use the passive with verbs such as believe, claim, expect, know, report, say, think, understand, etc. to report an event or to talk about an opinion held by some people/a lot of people/people in general/experts, etc. The following patterns can be used:
 - it + passive + that clause: It is understood that the Queen approves of the decision.
 - subject + passive + to-infinitive: The Queen is understood to approve of the decision.
- Note the form of the verbs:
 - It is said that he is one of the richest men in the world.
 - He is said to be one of the richest men in the world.
 - It is expected that he will hand over the business to his daughter.
 - He is expected to hand over the business to his daughter.
 - It is reported that he is buying a private island.
 - He is reported to be buying a private island.
 - It is believed that he has invested much of his money in property.
 - He is believed to have invested much of his money in property.
 - It is thought that he made a billion pounds last year.
 - He is thought to have made a billion pounds last year.

PRACTICE

75a Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 0 They believe that skin cancer will cause more deaths in the coming years.

believed

It is believed that skin cancer will cause more deaths in the coming years.

- 1 People think that he is living in South America. be

He in South America.

- 2 They expect that the repairs will take three to five weeks. that

It the repairs will take three to five weeks.

- 3 People say that she left the country months ago. have

She the country months ago.

- 4 They think that the manager will resign. is

It the manager will resign.

- 5 Experts believe that the house was built in 1735. been

The house built in 1735.

- 6 The accident is reported to have been caused by human error. that

It is reported by human error.

75b Re-write the sentences in two ways. Put the underlined parts in the passive.

- 0 They say that a fire has completely destroyed the Royal Hotel.

It is said that the Royal Hotel has been completely destroyed by a fire.

The Royal Hotel is said to have been completely destroyed by a fire.

- 1 They say that the fire is still burning.

It

The fire

- 2 They think that the fire started in the kitchen.

It

The fire

- 3 They believe that ambulances have taken fifteen people to hospital.

It

Fifteen people

- 4 They report that seven people are in a serious condition.

It

Seven people

- 5 They believe that a cigarette started the fire.

It

The fire

- 6 They expect that the police will investigate the cause of the blaze.

It

The cause of the blaze

The causative: have/get something done

- We use the causative form (subject + have/get + object + past participle) when we don't do something ourselves but arrange for someone else to do it for us: We had the windows cleaned. (= We arranged for someone to clean the windows.)
 - Have something done and get something done are often interchangeable but there are some differences.
 - We use have something done to talk about something unpleasant: I had my bag stolen last week. (Not ~~I got my bag stolen last week.~~)
 - We also use have something done when we are concerned with the process itself and not the preparatory arrangements: I love having my hair done.
 - We use get something done to emphasise that we have to make an effort in order for something to be done. Compare: She has her car serviced every six months. (= A mechanic services her car every six months.) She gets her car serviced every six months. (= She goes to the trouble of taking her car to the garage, where a mechanic services it.)
 - All tenses and modal verbs are possible with have something done: We're having our flat decorated. We should have our flat decorated.
 - We don't use get something done in the present perfect or past perfect: You've had your hair cut! (Not ~~You've got your hair cut.~~)
-  We can use get something done to say that we do something ourselves. It suggests that there is a lot to be done or that it is difficult but that we manage to finish it: I got the entire report written yesterday.

PRACTICE

76 Complete the conversations. Use have or get something done and the words in brackets.

- o A: What shall we do to celebrate our anniversary?
B: Why don't we have our photograph taken ? (our photograph / take)
- 1 A: What happened to Ash? He looks terrible.
B: I think he in a fight. (his nose / break)
- 2 A: How does that feel?
B: Wonderful. I love (my shoulders / massage)
- 3 A: What have you done so far today?
B: Well, I've managed to (the invitations / send out)
- 4 A: What time is it?
B: I don't know. My watch is broken and I yet. (it / not repair)
- 5 A: The car isn't running very well.
B: I know. I last week but I didn't have time. (it / should / service)
- 6 A: That wasps' nest is dangerous. You must do something about it.
B: I know. I as soon as possible. (it / remove) 77 there is/are or it is/they are?

- We can use there/it + be as a preparatory subject in a sentence. The real subject of the sentence comes after there/it + be.
 - We use there + be + noun:
 - to say that something exists: There is a lot of traffic in the mornings.
There weren't many people at the meeting.
 - to refer to something for the first time. We use it or they when we refer to it again: There will be a concert on Friday. It will be held in the town hall.
 - We use there with:
 - all tenses of be: There will be a meeting tonight. Has there been a mistake?
 - modal verbs: There must be something wrong. There could be an explanation.
 - seems/appears + to-infinitive: There seems to be a problem.
 - We can use it + be to avoid long and complex subjects:
 - it + be + adjective/noun + to-infinitive: To take a day off work (subject) is a luxury.
→ It's a luxury to take a day off work.
 - it + be + adjective/noun + -ing form: Seeing you in person (subject) is nicer than writing to you. → It's nicer seeing you in person than writing to you.
 - it + be + adjective/noun + clause: That he didn't accept the job (subject) is a pity.
→ It's a pity that he didn't accept the job. How he did it (subject) isn't clear. → It isn't clear how he did it.
- ▶▶ For uses of to-infinitive, see Unit 44. For verb + -ing forms, see Unit 45.
- We use it + be to talk about the time, weather and distance: It's ten o'clock.
Is it still raining? It's ten miles from here to my place.
 - We can also use it + take + time reference + to-infinitive to talk about a period of time: It took hours to get there by bus.

PRACTICE

77a Complete the conversation. Use there or it.

- A: Hi. How are you? (0) It 's been ages since I saw you.
- B: I know. (1) 's a shame we haven't kept in touch. Is (2) true that you're about to move overseas?
- A: Yes, next month, in fact – to Istanbul. (3) are a lot of opportunities if you're prepared to travel. (4) 's likely that we'll be there for a couple of years. Listen, (5) are a few people coming round tomorrow evening. Are you free to join us?
- B: I'd love to. Oh, is (6) an Underground station near your place? My car is in the garage.
- A: Barking is the nearest. (7) takes ten minutes to walk from there to our place. I'll e-mail you a map with directions.

77b Complete the sentences. Use there, it or they and the correct form of an appropriate verb.

- 0 It took me a day to fill in the forms but I finished them.
- 1 I think a nice day tomorrow.
- 2 any more bread? I'm still hungry!
- 3 How long to travel from here to London? far?
- 4 to be a lack of communication between them.
- 5 wonderful to see you all. Thank you so much for coming.
- 6 some stains on the tablecloth. I think coffee stains.

77c Re-write the sentences.

- 0 Concentrating in this heat is hard.
It 's hard concentrating in this heat
- 1 Saying goodbye after all this time isn't easy.
It
- 2 That we should be there when he arrives is important.
It
- 3 When exactly they'll be sending us the papers to sign isn't clear.
It
- 4 That you still remember me is amazing.
It
- 5 Contacting her by phone was difficult so I sent an e-mail.
It
- 6 How they committed the crime is not known.
It

78 Emphasis: It was ... that, What, All

- To emphasise information, we can begin a sentence with it, what (= the thing that) or all (= the only thing).
- We can use:
 - a cleft sentence with it: it + be + emphasised word/phrase + clause:
Kirsten told me the bad news last night. →
It was Kirsten who/that told me the bad news last night. (not another person)
It was last night that Kirsten told me the bad news. (not today)
It was bad news that Kirsten told me last night. (not good news)
 - what + verb + be + emphasised word/phrase:
His tone of voice surprised me. → What surprised me was his tone of voice.
 - all (+ that) + verb/clause + be + emphasised word/phrase:
Your safety matters. → All that matters is your safety.
- We can use what/all with do/did to emphasise the actions or events in a sentence:
What he did was make a terrible mistake. All he did was tell her the truth.

PRACTICE

78a Complete the article. Use one word in each gap.

007 CREATOR'S HOME WAS FOR HIS EYES ONLY

Fans of James Bond will know that (0) it was the Jamaican island retreat of Goldeneye (1) was the secret home of Bond's creator, writer Ian Fleming. (2) they may not know (3) that Fleming also owned another tropical paradise in the West Indies – Goat Island. (4) was while he was on Goat Island (5) Fleming wrote many of his books. In fact, it (6) while he was reading a book about West Indies birdlife written by a Terence James Bond (7) he got the name of his secret agent hero.

Local historian Edward Hernandez points out that very little is known about people who went to the island. (8) visitors wanted (9) privacy – and they found it.

78b Re-write the sentences. Use emphatic forms.

- 0 Jane paid for the meal last night, not me.
It was Jane who paid for the meal last night
- 1 Children need love and affection, not toys.
What
- 2 The way he keeps changing his mind worries me.
It
- 3 The only thing I'm asking for is a little respect.
All
- 4 I really hate getting up when it's still dark.
What
- 5 I need a hammer and some nails – nothing else.
All
- 6 You should be talking to me, not them.
It
- 7 We should ring someone for help.
What
- 8 The thing they want more than anything is a less stressful life.
It

Check 14 Changing sentence structure

1 Re-write the sentences. Use the passive.

- 1 They made me wait for hours at the hospital.
.....
- 2 Rene's colleague helped him finish the report.
.....
- 3 My boss never lets me leave work early.
.....
- 4 They should have called the police when the accident happened.
.....
- 5 Many people believe that he lied about the scandal. (Begin: He ...)
.....

/ 5

2 Re-write the sentences.

- 6 As soon as she left, I realised she had taken my car keys by mistake.
No
- 7 I've never felt so confused before.
Never
- 8 They think that Gulay is selling the company.
Gulay
- 9 The result of the match disappointed us.
What
- 10 They say that the new plane is fuel-efficient.
The new plane
- 11 Everyone believes that the butler inherited her money.
The butler
- 12 Someone must be at the door.
There
- 13 We'll leave them a note so they don't worry.
What
- 14 We need twenty hours to fly to New Zealand.
It
- 15 I heard the news report only a few minutes ago.
It

/ 10

3 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 16 You should be talking to Franco. is
It be talking to.
- 17 The windows are dirty and someone needs to clean them at once. cleaned
The windows are dirty and at once.
- 18 Many people believe that the government has made a mess of things. is
The government a mess of things.
- 19 They consider that Erin is the best musician in the group. considered
Erin the best musician in the group.
- 20 Renata seldom eats at home. eat
Seldom at home.
- 21 You are not to go out under any circumstances. no
Under go out.
- 22 The only thing I care about is your safety. matters
All your safety.
- 23 The dentist hasn't checked my teeth this year. had
I checked this year.

/ 8

4 Complete the article. Use one word in each gap.

Animals on the Roads

The number of vehicles on our roads is going up every year so it is not surprising that the number of wild animals that are (24) killed is also increasing. Roads often cross the routes that (25) taken by animals when they are migrating, breeding or feeding. As a result, each year (26) are thousands of animals, including toads, badgers, hedgehogs and even birds, that fall victim to the motor vehicle. Can anything (27) done to protect them?

In 1969 a road tunnel for use by wildlife (28) built in Switzerland and was a great success. Since then, many other tunnels have (29) constructed across Europe. In Florida, where the rare Florida panther lives, authorities decided that steps needed to (30) taken to protect the animals. (31) only were tunnels built under the highway (32) fencing was put up to guide the animals safely into the underpasses.

Road signs warning drivers to look out for particular animals (33) often seen in the US and (34) is hoped that they will become a common sight on the roads of Europe. (35) is clear is that we can and should act to minimise the dangers we pose to wildlife.

/ 12

5 Complete the conversations. Use have or get something done and the words in brackets.

A: I haven't seen you for days. Have you been away?

B: No, but I've been busy writing an essay. I managed to (36) (it / finish) yesterday, just in time.

A: I thought you (37) (your hair / cut) this morning.

B: I was, but I've had to cancel the appointment. I (38) (just / my wallet / steal).

A: Oh, dear. Is there anything I can do?

A: The car isn't running very well, is it?

B: No. I (39) (a new engine / should / put in) but I can't afford it.

A: I've got a terrible headache.

B: (40) (you / your eyes / test) recently?

/ 5

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
6, 7, 20, 21, 31, 32	Unit 72	Exercise 72
4, 17, 24, 25, 27, 28, 29, 30, 33	Unit 73	Exercise 73
1, 2, 3	Unit 74	Exercise 74
5, 8, 10, 11, 18, 19, 34	Unit 75	Exercise 75
23, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40	Unit 76	Exercise 76
12, 14, 26	Unit 77	Exercise 77
9, 13, 15, 16, 22, 35	Unit 78	Exercise 78

Now do Check 14

Prepositions

79 Prepositions of place and movement

at	We arrived at the station. Who's at the door? from ... to	They drove from London to Edinburgh in a day.
in, into, out of	To talk about enclosed places: I'll wait for you in the car. (position) Could you get in/into/out of the car? (movement)
on, onto, off	To talk about a surface or line: There were some lovely pictures on the wall. (position) She walked on the pavement. (movement) She stepped onto the grass. (= movement: from the pavement onto the grass) Shall we take that mirror off the wall? (movement)
across, along	We swam across the river. (= from one side to the other) They walked along the path towards the bridge. (= They followed the path towards the bridge.)
among, between	He disappeared among the crowd. (= through a group of people) We often fly between London, Paris and Rome. (= from London to Paris, from Paris to Rome, from Rome to London) I sat down between Jane and Sue. (= in the space that separated Jane and Sue) above, below	To talk about position when something is higher or lower than something else: The mountains tower above the town. Water was dripping onto the floor below. over, under	To talk about something that is higher or lower than something else. Over and under, not above and below, are used to show position when there is contact between things or to show movement: I'm wearing a coat over my jacket and a sweater under it. (contact) They flew over France. (movement) We sailed under the bridge. (movement)
beneath, underneath	To talk about something that is higher or lower than something else. There may be contact between them or a distance: I felt the warm sand beneath/underneath my feet. on top of, against	There's a letter on top of the cupboard. The cat rubbed against my legs. opposite	There's a car park opposite the hotel. by	I stood by the window. (= close to) They walked by the river. (= close to, along)
past	She walked past me without saying 'hello'. (= movement: up to and beyond)
beside, next to, inside, outside	To show position in relation to an object, container or enclosed space: Put it on the table beside/next to the bed. I'll meet you inside/outside the theatre.

PRACTICE

79a Circle the correct answers. There may be more than one correct answer.

- 0 A lamp hung above / among / on top of the table.
- 1 The actors walked at / from / onto the stage at the end of the performance and bowed.
- 2 The road that goes above / over / against the mountain at / to / into the village is steep and dangerous.
- 3 The ball rolled along / among / between his feet and at / to / into the garden shed, where it got lost against / among / between the tools on the floor.
- 4 There's an envelope above / on top of / over the fridge with some money in / inside / into it.
- 5 I could hear voices in / at / inside the garden below / beneath / past my window.
- 6 They could see something shining below / from / in the surface of the water.
- 7 If you're going by / next to / past my house, would you give me a lift?
- 8 We walked from / opposite / along our home at / to / in the centre of town and had lunch at a restaurant against / beside / by the river.
- 9 The supermarket is along / across / next to the cinema and by / next to / opposite the car park on the other side of the street.
- 10 The shout came from at / inside / into the house across / among / past the street.
- 11 We arrived at / into / to our destination and parked the car out of / against / opposite the entrance.
- 12 The child accidentally kicked the ball above / over / on top of the wall.
- 13 He leaned against / next to / along the wall and watched the people going by.
- 14 After walking at / along / beside the river for an hour, they stopped at / into / past a small inn for a bite to eat.

79b Complete the blog. Use prepositions.

We caught the ferry (0) from Dover and travelled (1) the English Channel to France. Within an hour we had arrived (2) the ferry terminal (3) Boulogne. We went to the market (4) the main square, where I bought some souvenirs to take back to my family in England. It was a beautiful day so we had lunch (5) the beach. It was very relaxing, with the sound of the waves and the seagulls flying (6) our heads.

After lunch we walked (7) the beach (8) the old part of town. We walked uphill (9) the narrow streets towards the castle but when we got there, they told us we had to pay an admission fee to get (10) the castle so we didn't bother. Instead, we explored the old town for an hour. By then it was time to go back to the ferry terminal. All in all, it was a good day out.

80 Prepositions of time

at	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> with clock times or ages: at nine o'clock at (the age of) fifteen with points or periods of time: at the beginning/end at present at Ramadan at the weekend at lunch at night on	with days or dates: on Monday on 25th September on the morning of 4th June on a good day on Christmas Day in	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> with parts of the day, months, years, seasons and centuries: in the morning/afternoon/evening in February in 2006 in the autumn in the last century I'll see you in an hour. (= after an hour) I wrote my essay in a day. (= It took me a day to write my essay.)
by	They'll inform us of their decision by the end of the month. (= not later than the end of the month) before, after	I never go to bed before midnight. I'll meet you after the class.
since	with a point in time: We've been here since Tuesday.
for	with a period of time: They lived in Poland for three years.
during	with a period of time: I worked during the summer. (= all through the summer) She was ill during the summer. (= at some point/period of time in the summer)
until/till	The ticket is valid until/till March. (= It will not be valid after March.) He slept from midnight until/till eight o'clock. (Then he woke up.)
past	We worked past midnight. (= up to and beyond midnight)
through	She worked through the night. (= during and to the end of the night)

 We use for to say how long something lasts. During means 'while something lasts/is happening': We rented a cottage for a month. We rented a cottage during the summer. (Not ~~We rented a cottage during a month.~~)

PRACTICE

80a Circle the correct answer.

- It was by / past midnight when the party ended and everyone went home.
- My husband often works at / in night. I see him at / in the morning.
- My grandfather fought during / for the war. He was in the army during / for four years.
- They've only had the Ford for / since two months. By / Until last year they didn't own a car.
- She caught malaria during / through her holiday in Africa. Before / By then, she'd never been abroad.
- The film should be over until / by nine o'clock. We'll be home before / in an hour.
- We're leaving for Prague on / at 19th July and we'll be there through / until the end of the month.

8ob Complete the conversation. Use prepositions.

- A: Are you free to come round for a meal (o) on Saturday?
B: Do you mean (1) the evening?
A: That's right. Come round (2) eight o'clock, if that's OK.
B: Thanks, I'd love to but I'll have to leave (3) about midnight – I've got to get up early (4) Sunday morning.
A: That's all right. I don't like staying up much (5) midnight, anyway.
B: Neither do I. I stayed up (6) three o'clock last Saturday and I felt terrible (7) the morning.

8oc Complete the article. Use the prepositions in the box.

after by during (x2) for (x2) in (x2) since (x2) until Buckingham Palace has been the London home of Britain's royal family (0) since 1837.

(1) 1761

George III bought Buckingham House as a family home for his wife, Queen Charlotte. Then

(2) 1826

George IV decided to turn Buckingham House into a palace. Workmen doubled the size of the house and built the Marble Arch in front of the palace. The work continued (3) four years and (4) 1829 half a million pounds had already been spent on it. George IV never lived in Buckingham Palace.

Queen Victoria was the first monarch to make Buckingham Palace her official home. (5) her marriage to Albert in 1840, she decided that the palace needed a nursery and more guest rooms. (The Marble Arch was moved to a park in central London so that workmen could add a fourth wing to the building.) The work continued (6) 1847 and today the palace has 775 rooms. The last major changes to the building were made (7) the early twentieth century, when the stone on the front of the building was replaced.

Today Buckingham Palace is a major tourist attraction. (8) 1993 the state rooms in the west wing have been opened to the public (9) two months (10) the summer and they are visited by about 300,000 people over this period.

81 Other prepositions

by, with, from

- We can use by:
 - before the agent in a passive sentence: I was attacked by a dog.
 - to say what means or method someone uses to do something: You can reserve the tickets by phone.
- We can use with:
 - to say what instrument or tool someone uses to do something: Chop the vegetables with a sharp knife.
 - to say what covers or fills something: Her shoes were covered with mud.
 - to indicate possession: He was a tall man with a beard.
 - to say that two or more people or things are together in the same place: I saw him in town with his girlfriend.
- We can use from:
 - to say what substance is used to make something: Chocolate comes from the cocoa bean.
 - to say that something happens as a result or consequence of something else: Death rates from accidents are increasing.
 - to say where something is before it is removed: He took the knife from my hand.
 - to say what is prevented or forbidden: Cars will be banned from entering the city centre.

about, on

- We usually use about to refer to a subject or topic in vague, general terms: I'm looking for a book about birds. They said something about leaving town.
- We usually use on to refer to a subject or topic in a more specific way: You can get information on local services by calling this number. She's writing a book on the birds of central Africa.

PRACTICE

81a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 Bread is made by / from / about flour, water and yeast.
- 1 Only people by / from / with plenty of money can afford to shop here.
- 2 I borrowed a book from / on / with nineteenth century music from the library.
- 3 She said something about / from / on leaving town. Is it true?
- 4 He went to hospital because he was suffering by / from / with stomach pains.
- 5 Some of our customers prefer to pay by / from / with cheque.
- 6 They attacked the old man by / from / with a knife.
- 7 Last night we watched a documentary on / with / about Egypt.
- 8 The house is made by / from / on bricks and timber.
- 9 All our furniture was made from / with / by local craftsmen.
- 10 I'd like to find some information about / from / with the subject.

81b Complete the article. Use by, from, on or with.

All BULLYING involves attacks (0) by an individual or group on a weaker person. Bullying can be an attack (1) a weapon or words, or it can be more subtle and involve spreading lies and rumours. It can affect your self-esteem and prevent you (2) succeeding at work or school. If you are being bullied, this is what you can do:

- Get help or advice (3) an adult that you trust. Tell them what is happening. They can provide you (4) the support you need. You can also get advice (5) how to protect yourself (6) going online.
- Act confident. You are less likely to be attacked.
- Avoid being alone (7) bullies. Avoid areas that are isolated or unsupervised (8) adults.

82 Prepositional phrases

at	at breakfast/lunch/dinner at first at college/home/school/work/university at last at least at once at present at the beginning/end at the latest at the moment at the same time at times
by	by accident by air/land/sea by car/bus/plane/train by chance by cheque by credit card by far by hand by heart by mistake for	for a change for a while for ages for breakfast/lunch/dinner for ever/good for sale/hire/rent from	from bad to worse from memory from morning to night from now on from time to time in	in a hurry in a mess in advance in aid of in bed/hospital in cash in conclusion in control in danger in favour of in future in general in other words in stock in the beginning/end in the way in time in use on	on a diet on arrival on average on behalf of on business on duty on fire on foot on holiday on my own on no account on offer on purpose on the bus/train on the contrary on the phone on the way on the whole on time on television out of	out of breath out of control out of danger out of date out of doors out of fashion out of luck/money/time out of order out of sight out of stock out of the way out of touch out of work
under	under age under control under discussion under pressure under way to	to date to some extent/degree to my surprise

PRACTICE

82a Complete the sentences. Use the prepositional phrases in the box.

at last at least at the end at the latest in the end in the way in time on the way ~~to date~~

- 0 This is her best performance to date
- 1 I thought about the problem for a long time and I decided that the best thing to do was to ask for help.
- 2 He's probably to London by now.
- 3 fifty people were waiting in the queue to buy tickets for the concert.
- 4 If you have any questions, can you ask them of the lecture, please?
- 5 we can afford a holiday! We've been saving for months.
- 6 There's a car and I can't get out of the garage.
- 7 I won't be late. I should be back by eleven o'clock
- 8 Will the new stadium be finished for the match?

82b Complete the story. Use one word in each gap.

My family wanted to do something different this summer and (0) in the end, we decided to go (1) a safari holiday in Tanzania. We booked our holiday (2) advance and because I'm studying zoology (3) college, I prepared myself by learning the scientific names of many animals (4) heart!

(5) last our departure date arrived. We were met (6) our arrival in Tanzania and we travelled (7) car to our hotel in the safari park. We stopped (8) the way to the hotel and (9) my surprise, we saw a lion a few metres from the car!

Every day at the park was different and we were busy (10) morning to night. We would set off early in a Land Rover as it was too hot to go far (11) foot and return to the hotel (12) time for lunch. Most evenings we ate out (13) doors.

But it was the animals that were (14) far the best part of the holiday. Lying in bed at night, I could hear them and (15) times, they came very close to my window. But I never felt I was (16) danger. (17) the contrary, I felt closer to nature than I've ever been in my life.

(18) the end of our stay there was a farewell party attended by everyone on the safari. We were all sad to be leaving but (19) the same time, we knew we'd had the experience of a lifetime.

Check 15 Prepositions

1 Complete the fact sheet. Use prepositions.

ANTARCTICA

HISTORY: (1) 1773 Captain James Cook crossed the Antarctic Circle in his ships, HMS Resolution and HMS Adventure. (2) 14th December 1911 Roald Amundsen led the first expedition to reach the geographic South Pole. Amundsen used skis and dog sleds to travel (3) the Bay of Whales to the South Pole.

GEOGRAPHY: About 98% of Antarctica is covered (4) the Antarctic ice sheet, which is (5) least 1.6 km thick.

CLIMATE: (6) the winter months the minimum temperature is -80°C to -90°C . Antarctica receives little precipitation; the South Pole receives less than 10 cm of rain or snow per year (7) average.

ECONOMY: Tourism exists on a small scale. In 2004–2005 fewer than 30,000 tourists visited Antarctica. This number is predicted to increase to over 80,000 (8) the year 2010.

RESEARCH: Meteorites discovered in Antarctica have allowed scientists to learn a great deal (9) our solar system. The meteorites are thought to come (10) asteroids or larger planets.

POLITICS: Antarctica has no government and belongs to no country. (11) 1959 countries have been banned (12) conducting any kind of military activity on the continent, including the testing of weapons.

/ 12

2 Complete the conversation. Use the prepositions in the box. You do not need all of them.

across among by for in on opposite out of outside with

- A: I'm not sure I can meet you tomorrow – my car has broken down.
 B: Why don't you travel (13) train?
 A: I suppose I could. Where shall I meet you?
 B: When you arrive, leave the station and walk (14) the road to the coffee shop directly (15) the station. I'll meet you there.
 A: What time?
 B: About half past twelve. I'll try to be (16) time but I may be delayed by traffic. I'll stop (17) the coffee shop and wait for you (18) the car. Then we can drive somewhere nice (19) lunch.
 A: I might bring Roberta (20) me. Is that all right?
 B: Of course.

/ 8

Total: / 20

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
3, 14, 15, 17, 18	Unit 79	Exercise 79
1, 2, 6, 8, 11	Unit 80	Exercise 80
4, 9, 10, 12, 20	Unit 81	Exercise 81
5, 7, 13, 16, 19	Unit 82	Exercise 82

Now do Check 15

Words that go together

83 Adjective + preposition

- Some adjectives are followed by a to-infinitive and some are followed by a preposition. Some adjectives can be followed by either form: I'm sorry to hear you aren't well. I'm sorry for hurting your feelings.
- After a preposition, we use a noun, a pronoun or the -ing form of a verb: He's afraid of the dark. Their parents are proud of them. She isn't keen on going there alone.
- Sometimes more than one preposition is possible, depending on the meaning: The floods were responsible for over a hundred deaths. (= The floods caused them.) He's responsible for training new staff. (= He's in charge of them.) She's responsible to the Personnel Manager. (= The Personnel Manager is her boss.) They're involved in an important project. (= They're taking part in it.) She seems to be involved with some dangerous people who may be criminals. (= She has a relationship with them.) My parents are angry with me about my grades. (= They're angry with me. They're angry about my grades.)

▶▶ See Appendix 7: Adjective + preposition, page 201.

PRACTICE

83a Choose the correct answer A, B or C.

- 0 I'm tired watching television. Let's go for a walk.
A by B from C of
- 1 No matter how hard I try, I'm useless Maths.
A at B for C to
- 2 Odette wasn't amused my joke. In fact, she was offended.
A by B from C with
- 3 It's healthy for young people to be suspicious strangers.
A about B at C of
- 4 Put the cage over there, where the birds will be safe the cat.
A for B from C with
- 5 Many students are reliant their parents for financial support.
A from B in C on
- 6 People who become addicted drugs must seek help from professionals.
A by B to C with
- 7 Although they're twins, they're very different each other.
A at B from C to
- 8 He's seems very content his job, home and family.
A about B from C with 83b Complete the conversation. Use prepositions.

- A: I'm really worried (0) about Duncan.
B: Why's that?
A: He's been absent (1) quite a few classes lately and he's often late (2) the ones he does attend.
B: Yes, I've noticed. I also know he was confident (3) getting an A for his last exam and was really disappointed (4) not getting one.
A: Someone told me he's got involved (5) some strange people. I saw him the other day and he wasn't at all friendly (6) me – in fact, he was rude (7) me.
B: I'm surprised (8) that. That's not like him. And have you noticed that Ken's been acting strangely too?
A: I think he's keen (9) Mina but he's afraid (10) asking her out in case she says 'no'.
B: Well, they should both be more careful (11) how they behave. Some of their friends are getting fed up (12) them.

83c Complete the article. Use prepositions and the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

The Ferrari automobile company is famous (0) for producing (produce) fast and beautiful cars. Scuderia Ferrari is the part of the company which is concerned (1) (race) cars competitively, while Ferrari S.p.A. is involved (2) (make) exceptional sports cars which even the wealthy and famous are proud (3) (own).

Ferrari's founder, Enzo Ferrari, was born in Italy in 1898. He had little formal education but he was interested (4) (drive) fast cars. After he left the army, he applied for work at Fiat but he wasn't successful (5) (get) a job there. In 1920 he started racing cars for Alfa Romeo. After demonstrating that he was skilful (6) (win) small local races, Enzo was asked to race in larger competitions. He finished his racing career in 1932.

In 1929 Enzo set up Scuderia Ferrari, where he was responsible (7) (build) up a racing team of over forty drivers. However, it was only in 1945 that he founded Ferrari S.p.A. Enzo thought that selling sports cars would make it possible to continue financing his racing activities at Scuderia Ferrari.

The famous Ferrari logo, a black horse on a yellow background, has been in existence since the 1930s. Interestingly, however, an Austrian company called Avanti has a logo which is so similar (8) Ferrari's that it is almost identical.

84 Verb + preposition

- We use a preposition after some verbs. The most usual pattern is: verb (+ object) + preposition + noun/pronoun/-ing form: My mother paid for my driving lessons. He didn't pay me for it. I paid him for washing my car.
- Sometimes more than one preposition is possible after a verb, depending on the meaning: I've heard of him. (= I know he exists.) I've heard from him. (= He contacted me.) Did you hear about the accident? (= Do you have information about it?)
- Some combinations of verb + preposition have an idiomatic meaning: Please look after my cat while I'm on holiday. (= take care of)
- With some verbs the pattern is: verb + noun + preposition: We made friends with them. I took care of my younger sister. We took part in the school play.
- Notice the pattern with these verbs:
 - explain (something) (to someone): I explained the problem to him.
 - describe something (to someone): She described the painting to me in detail.
 - listen/write/speak to someone: I wrote to my mother last week. I spoke to them yesterday.
 - telephone someone: He telephoned us.
 - send (someone) something/something to somebody: I sent him a card. / I sent a card to him.

▶▶ See Appendix 8: Verb + preposition, page 202.

PRACTICE

84a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 I'm suffering for / (from) a bad back so I need to stay in bed.
- 1 Not many people succeed to / in losing weight and keeping it off.
- 2 We can't seem to agree on / with anything these days. We're just not getting along.
- 3 They all laughed about / at her jokes. She was very funny.
- 4 He insisted about / on carrying my bags even though I told him not to bother.
- 5 We shouted at / for them to stay away but they couldn't hear us.
- 6 I'm sorry but I don't agree about / with you. I have a different opinion.
- 7 Would you help me look for / after my glasses? I can't find them anywhere.
- 8 The judge asked the witness to describe the incident to / at him.
- 9 I heard all from / about the party. Victor told me.
- 10 Who do you take after / for? Your mother or your father?
- 11 Her parents didn't approve about / of her new boyfriend.
- 12 Thieves broke onto / into the museum and stole some priceless objects.
- 13 Sharon prefers chess to / from any other game.
- 14 The meal consisted for / of a number of delicious Indian dishes.

84b Complete the e-mail. Use prepositions. If no preposition is necessary, write – in the gap.

84c Complete the blog. Use one word in each gap.

Opening a bank account is not difficult but if you are not sure where to start, consult the welfare officer at your school. He or she will advise you (0) about what you need to do.

Once you have chosen a bank, you need to go there in person to open an account. Take your passport with you as identification. You should also ask your school (1) a letter saying that you are a student there and confirming your name and address. (The bank needs this confirmation to prevent criminals (2) opening bank accounts which they can use to deposit money from illegal activities.) If you have any difficulty providing these documents, ask the bank to refer you (3) the bank employee who is responsible for dealing (4) difficult or unusual cases. He or she will take care (5) you.

Once you have a bank account, you can deposit or withdraw money. You can also arrange to pay your bills by direct debit or standing order. This means that you can ask the bank to take money from your account to pay (6) things like gas and electricity. You should speak (7) your bank about how to set these up. The good news is that once you have an account, most services are free. However, you will not be able to borrow money (8) the bank unless you set up a special account.

85 Noun + preposition

- Some nouns can be followed by a to-infinitive and some can be followed by a preposition: I have a plan to work abroad for a year. The advantage of living in another country is that you learn about a different culture.
- After a preposition we use a noun, a pronoun or the -ing form of a verb: I have a lot of respect for her work. There was an argument about it. He has a reputation for being a brilliant actor.
- We often use the same preposition after nouns and verbs that are related: The football manager had an argument with the referee about his decision. He argued with the referee. They argued about the referee's decision. The mountaineer failed in his attempt to reach the summit. There was a failure in the computer system.
- Compare connection/relationship/contact + with or between:
 - A person/thing has a connection/relationship/contact with another person/thing: I have a good relationship with my parents.
 - There is a connection/relationship/contact between two people/things: There is a connection between smoking and cancer.

▶▶ See Appendix 9: Noun + preposition, page 204.

PRACTICE

85a Choose the correct answer A, B or C.

- There seems to be a connection pollution and the death of trees.
 A between B from C with
- There are many differences public and private schools.
A between B in C with
- He's an expert ancient Egyptian art.
A about B in C on
- A good sun cream will give you protection the harmful rays of the sun.
A for B from C of
- Officials are still looking into the cause the crash.
A for B of C to
- She stays in contact many of her ex-students.
A between B to C with
- There are several advantages getting a good education.
A for B of C to
- He expressed his admiration her exciting and innovative designs.
A about B for C with
- Recently there has been a great deal of interest the subject.
A in B about C of
- I simply don't share your fascination old coins.
A in B about C for
- What was their reaction the news?
A to B for C with 85b Complete the notes for a film review. Use prepositions.

A comparison (0) between a book and a film usually favours the book. Naturally, we mustn't forget that there are differences (1) the two.

The director has a reputation (2) making powerful films as well as a talent (3) subtle psychological development. But by comparison (4) his other films, this one is disappointing.

The beginning (5) the film is promising but it fails to keep the audience interested. One of the reasons (6) the problem is the poor choice (7) leading actors. The relationship (8) the protagonists is simply not believable.

Another problem (9) the film is the script – there's a lack (10) attention to dialogue and the exchanges between characters sound forced. And of course, part of the blame (11) the result lies with the soundtrack, which is one of the worst I've ever heard.

85c Re-write the sentences. Use the nouns in the box and prepositions.

change discussion fall increase reason relationship solution

- 0 Ruth: I get on well with my manager.
Ruth has a good relationship with her manager.
- 1 Ruth: Last week I spoke to him about my salary.
Last week she and her manager had a(n) her salary.
- 2 Ruth: I have a lot of responsibility but he won't give me a rise.
Ruth's manager won't give Ruth a(n) her salary.
- 3 Ruth: He explained why he couldn't do it.
He gave her a good not doing it.
- 4 Ruth: He's worried because sales have been dropping.
He's worried because there has been a(n) sales.
- 5 Ruth: We said we'd talk again if the situation changes.
They agreed to discuss the matter again if there is a(n) the situation.
- 6 Ruth: I'm sure we can solve the problem.
Ruth is sure they can find a(n) the problem.

86 Phrasal verbs

- A phrasal verb is a combination of verb + adverb (e.g. in, out, up) The combination often has a new, idiomatic meaning: To find out more, visit our website. (= get information after trying to discover it, or by chance) I was brought up in a large family. (= raise a child)
- Intransitive phrasal verbs have no object: We must set off early tomorrow. I grew up in London.
- The object of a transitive phrasal verb comes:
 - after or before the adverb if the object is a noun: She made up that story. *She made that story up.
 - before, not after, the adverb if the object is a pronoun: *That story's not true – she made it up. (Not she ~~made up it~~)
- Some phrasal verbs have more than one meaning. One meaning may be intransitive and the other transitive: Business has been slow but it's picking up now. (= intransitive: improve) I'll pick you up at eight. (= transitive: let someone get into your car, boat, etc. and take them somewhere) The plane took off on time. (= intransitive: if an aircraft takes off, it rises into the air from the ground) *Please take your boots off. (= transitive: remove a piece of clothing)
- A phrasal-prepositional verb is a combination of verb + adverb + preposition. The object of such a verb comes after the preposition: She came up with some good ideas. I don't get on with my cousins. I'm looking forward to taking a holiday.

PRACTICE

86a Complete the sentences. Use the adverbs in the box.

away (x2) down (x3) in (x2) on (x2) out (x2) up (x2)

- 0 She turned*down*..... the job because she didn't want to travel.
- 1 You've got exams soon. You can't carry going out every night.
- 2 We'll never get this problem sorted if we don't talk about it.
- 3 They've been asked to come with some new ideas.
- 4 He gave most of his books when he finished college.
- 5 Why don't you put your new outfit and we'll go out for dinner to that new restaurant.
- 6 I'm trying to find about Japanese courses in the area.
- 7 He was tired and didn't feel like joining the game.
- 8 I drink too much coffee but I'm trying to cut
- 9 I'm glad the situation is improving. It's time things picked
- 10 They like to get from London as often as they can.
- 11 You shouldn't look on people just because they have less money or education than you.
- 12 It's very cold. Winter seems to have set early this year.

86b Re-write the sentences. Use the correct form of the phrasal verbs in brackets.

- o It was raining so hard that they had to cancel the match. (call off)
It was raining so hard that they had to call off the match.
.....
- 1 She continued to work even after she'd had a heart attack. (carry on)
.....
- 2 They waited for him for over an hour before he finally arrived. (turn up)
.....
- 3 We went to bed later than usual because we wanted to watch the film. (stay up)
.....
- 4 After several tries I succeeded in reaching her on the telephone. (get through)
.....
- 5 It will take them ages to complete all these forms. (fill in)
.....
- 6 We can let you stay for the night in the spare room. (put up)
.....
- 7 Please stop inventing excuses for why you won't go out with me. (make up)
.....
- 8 If you don't know the meaning of a word, you can look for it in a dictionary.
(look up)
.....
- 9 The machine's stopped working so they'll have to call in someone to repair it.
(break down)
.....
- 10 She found a solution to the problem. (work out)
.....

86c Complete the article. Use the correct form of the phrasal verbs in the box.

back down bring up end up give up grow up knock out not get on with ~~take after~~ take up

Laila Ali (0) takes after her father, the great boxer Muhammed Ali. She (1) boxing when she was twenty-one. Since then she has won five women's heavyweight boxing titles.

Laila's childhood wasn't always easy. She (2) in a famous family but her parents were divorced and she (3) by her mother. Unfortunately, she (4) her father, whom she only saw during the summers. Before long, Laila started getting into trouble and fighting with people. She says that she wouldn't start the fights but she wouldn't (5) from one either. Eventually, she (6) in trouble with the law; when she was sixteen, her boyfriend gave her a credit card but he didn't tell her it was stolen.

In 1999 Laila (7) her job in a salon, joined a gym and started boxing. She had her first fight on 8th October 1999. She (8) April Fowler in the first few minutes of the fight. Since then she has never been defeated.

87 Confusing words (1)

make, do

- We can use make to mean 'create' or 'produce'. We can use do to talk about work or activities in general. We can also use make and do in fixed expressions:
 - make an attempt make a decision make an effort make an excuse make friends make an impression make a mistake make money make a noise make an offer make progress make a speech make a success make sure
 - do badly/well do your best do business do exercise do a favour do damage do research do sport do work/a job give, do

- We use give, not do, in these expressions: give a description give a party give a performance give an example give directions/instructions

take, bring, get

- We can use take to mean 'move something or go with someone from one place to another': Take a coat in case it rains. He's going to take us to the airport.
- We can use bring to mean 'take something/someone with you to the place where you are or to the place you are talking about': Please bring me my bag here.
- We can use get to mean 'receive' or 'become': I got a letter from them today. The weather is getting colder.
- We can also use take and get in fixed expressions:
 - take a breath take a bus/taxi/etc. take control take an exam take medicine take a seat take time/an hour/etc. take a walk
 - get the flu get ill/well get a mark/grade get married get a letter/e-mail get a shock

take, have

- We can use have in fixed expressions: have a bath/shower have fun have a good time have a meal/a drink have a rest have a swim have time

 Compare: This job will take time to do well. (= This job will require time.)
Fortunately, I have plenty of time.

come, go

We use come for movements toward the speaker and go for movements to other places:
Would you come closer, please? I go to work by car.

get to know, know

We use get to know to describe the process of becoming familiar with someone. We use know to describe a state: I'm getting to know him. I've known him for years.

PRACTICE

87a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 Have you known / got to know one another for very long?
- 1 Don't forget to get / take your passport with you when you go to the airport.
- 2 Is it all right if I bring / take some friends to your party?
- 3 The storm did / made a lot of damage to the buildings in the area.

- 4 I've finished doing / making my homework. I'm doing / making dinner now.
- 5 I don't understand – would you do / give me an example, please?
- 6 I'm coming / going round to Bettina's house to find out what's wrong.
- 7 I knew / got to know them quite well in the few months I lived with them.
- 8 Please take / make a seat and make yourself comfortable. I won't be long.
- 9 She gets / does really angry if you borrow her things without asking.
- 10 What time will you be going / coming home? I'll wait up for you.

87b Complete the advice. Use the correct form of the verbs in the box.

do (x3) get (x2) get to know go know make (x4) take (x2)

Are you planning to study abroad? Then read this useful advice!

- ✈ (0) Make sure you have the right clothes. If you're (1) somewhere with a cold climate, (2) plenty of warm clothes.
- ✈ If you have any special dietary requirements, the people who will be (3) your meals should (4) what these are before you arrive.
- ✈ If you (5) ill, you will (6) better faster and (7) your classmates a favour if you stay in bed until you've recovered.
- ✈ (8) your best and you'll almost certainly (9) progress.
- ✈ (10) friends. Be patient. It will (11) time to (12) the people you're living and studying with. Of course, it will help if you join a club or (13) a sport.

88 as, like

- We use like:
 - to mean 'similar to': He looks more like his father every day.
 - to mean 'for example': Avoid fattening foods like cakes and biscuits.
 - to ask for descriptions or information: What's their house like?
 - We use as:
 - to describe someone's job, role or duty: She works as a doctor.
 - to describe how we use something: They used a heavy stone as a hammer.
 - to say that something happens in a certain way. The pattern is: as + subject + verb: He repaid the money, as he promised he would.
- ⚠ Compare: Like a teacher, I want to educate people. (= In a similar way to a teacher, I want to educate people – but I'm not a teacher.) As a teacher, I want to educate people. (= In my role as a teacher, I want to educate people.)

88 Circle the correct answer.

- 0 My sister's hair is dark brown, as / like mine.
- 1 He was employed as / like an engineer by a large construction company.
- 2 The election results were seen as / like a victory for the government.
- 3 As / Like many young people, she's finding it hard to make ends meet.
- 4 The children dressed up as / like ghosts and witches for the party.
- 5 My brother has a car just as / like yours. What do you think of it?
- 6 We use the spare room as / like a study most of the time.
- 7 Fruits as / like oranges and kiwis have lots of vitamin C.
- 8 As / Like we reported earlier, the fire was probably started by arsonists.
- 9 So you went to the concert last night. What was it as / like?
- 10 As / Like most people, they would love to have a home of their own.

89 Confusing words (2)

countryside, environment, nature

- The countryside is the land outside cities/towns: We grew up on a farm in the countryside.
- The environment is the air, water and land which can be harmed by humans: Pollution caused by air travel is harming the environment.
- Nature is everything in the world that is not controlled by humans, e.g. plants, animals and the weather: Her poems are about nature, especially the sea and mountains.

fun, funny

- Fun is what we enjoy doing: The picnic was really fun.
- Something funny makes us laugh: He told them a funny story.

nervous, irritable

- A nervous person is worried or frightened: I was nervous about my exams and I couldn't sleep.
- An irritable person gets annoyed quickly or easily: Since she quit smoking, she's been really irritable.

journey, travel, trip, way

- A journey is a period of time spent travelling from one place to another: I read during the train journey to work.
- Travel is the activity of moving from place to place: We went by bus because it's the cheapest form of travel.
- A trip is a journey for pleasure or a particular purpose: How was your trip to Paris?
- A way is a road, path or direction that you take to get to a place: Can you tell me the way to the post office?

PRACTICE

89a Circle the correct answer.

- 0 We must act now to save the environment / nature for the next generation.
- 1 It's dark. Do you think you can find your way / trip back to the car park?
- 2 If this is your idea of a joke, I don't find it at all fun / funny.
- 3 We're going to take a trip / journey to the mountains. Would you like to come?
- 4 I've always been a countryside / nature lover. I enjoy spending time in the countryside / nature.
- 5 The journey / travel home from London takes six hours.
- 6 I'm feeling tired and irritable / nervous because I haven't had much sleep.

89b Complete the advertisement. Use the words in the box.

countryside environment fun nature nervous travel trip

A brief guide to volunteering abroad

Are you interested in (0) travel ?

Would you like to go abroad and do something useful at the same time?

Then why not volunteer to work in another country?

What kind of work can I do?

There are many different types of work you can volunteer for. If you are interested in helping to save the (1), you can guard endangered turtles in Panama or protect the precious rainforest in Madagascar. Either way, you will have the opportunity explore the (2) and experience the beauties of (3) at its best.

What if I haven't travelled before?

You don't have to be (4) about anything. The project organisers will assist you to make arrangements for your (5) and help you to settle in when you arrive at your destination.

How long will I be away?

You can volunteer for as little as one week or as long as a year. Find out for yourself how much (6) it can be to make a difference!

Check 16 Words that go together

1 Circle the correct answer.

- 1 My teacher uses games to make our lessons fun / funny.
- 2 Italy is famous not only for its cities but for its beautiful nature / countryside.
- 3 The journey / way from my place to Gundula's house takes about three hours.
- 4 It's expensive to live in capital cities as / like London.
- 5 Many people hate speaking in public because it makes them irritable / nervous.
- 6 Tom works as / like an assistant in a large department store.
- 7 They did / gave a wonderful performance and the audience cheered wildly.
- 8 We have a very good relationship between / with our neighbours.
- 9 Do you think she has any hope of / for winning the competition?
- 10 The country's economy depends heavily on / for tourism.

/ 10

2 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first, using the word in bold. Use between two and five words.

- 11 There is no resemblance between Stephen and his brother. look Stephen his brother.
- 12 It is Martina's job to train new staff. responsible Martina new staff.
- 13 I serve food and drink to customers in a restaurant but I want to be an actor.
waiter
I work but I want to be an actor.
- 14 Alaric's parents take pride in his achievements. proud
Alaric's parents his achievements.
- 15 Have they solved the problem? solution
Have they found the problem?
- 16 Did you lend that book to Petra? borrow Did Petra you?
- 17 I managed to convince them to come with me. succeeded
I them to come with me.
- 18 My father thinks it is a good idea. approves
My father the idea.

/ 8

3 Choose the correct answer A, B, C or D.

J.K. Rowling is the author of a successful series (19) books. She uses the initials J.K. because her publishers thought that a book by a woman might not appeal (20) boys.

Rowling was born in 1965 and brought (21) in England and South Wales. After she finished university, she got a job in London.

In 1990, while she was travelling from Manchester to London, her train was held (22) and during the four-hour delay she got the idea of writing about a young wizard. In 1991 she (23) to Portugal, where she had a job teaching English, and she (24) the manuscript for the first Harry Potter book with her. She returned to Britain in 1993 and carried (25) writing it.

Rowling completed Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone in 1995. Twelve publishers turned (26) before Bloomsbury agreed to publish it. The decision was apparently (27) by the young daughter of the company's chairman, who loved the first chapter of the book.

In 1995 Bloomsbury advised Rowling that she had little chance (28) making money writing children's books. Today she has a fortune of around $US 1 billion. Rowling believes that people who have a lot of money should (29) sure they use it responsibly. For this reason, she has given (30) millions of dollars to charitable causes.

- 19 A in B for C of D on
- 20 A for B of C on D to
- 21 A down B up C through D along
- 22 A up B on C in D back
- 23 A arrived B came C brought D went
- 24 A brought B fetched C came D took
- 25 A off B on C over D through
- 26 A it down B down it C it up D up it
- 27 A had B done C given D made
- 28 A to B for C of D about
- 29 A do B make C have D get
- 30 A away B back C in D out

/ 12

4 Complete the conversation. Use one word in each gap.

- A: I do apologise (31) forgetting about your birthday last week. Did you (32) a good time?
- B: That's all right. Unfortunately, I (33) the flu a few days before. My parents had given me tickets to the music festival but I was too ill to go. I'm upset (34) missing it.
- A: I'm not surprised. I hope you got some nice presents.
- B: Well, my parents know I'm interested (35) buying a new mobile phone so they also gave me some money to help pay (36) it. And a lot of people came (37) to see me when I was better. I even heard (38) Ken! He's travelling in Thailand these days.
- A: Is he? Anyway, would you like a lift to the match tomorrow? I can pick you (39) at eight.
- B: Thanks. I'm looking (40) to it. Are you?

/ 10

Total: / 40

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
12, 14, 34, 35	Unit 83	Exercise 83
10, 11, 16, 17, 18, 20, 31, 36, 38	Unit 84	Exercise 84
8, 9, 15, 19, 28	Unit 85	Exercise 85
21, 22, 25, 26, 30, 37, 39, 40	Unit 86	Exercise 86
7, 23, 24, 27, 29, 32, 33	Unit 87	Exercise 87
4, 6, 13	Unit 88	Exercise 88
1, 2, 3, 5	Unit 89	Exercise 89

Now do Check 16

Word formation

90 Prefixes

We use these prefixes to make words negative:

un- + adjective/verb/noun	unfair, unpack, unemployment
dis- + adjective/verb/noun	disrespectful, dislike, dissatisfaction
il- (+ -l) + adjective/noun	illogical, illegal, illegibility
im- (+ -m/-p) + adjective/noun	immoral, imperfect, impossibility in- + adjective/noun	indirect, incompetent, inconvenience
ir- (+ -r) + adjective/noun	irrational, irregularity

These are prefixes with other meanings:

co- (= together with) + adjective/verb/noun	co-operative, co-exist, co-education
mis- (= bad/wrong) + adjective/verb/noun	misguided, miscalculate, mistake
re- (= again) + adjective/verb/noun	reunited, recreate, remarriage over- (= too much) + adjective/verb/noun	overcooked, overdo, over-exposure
sub- (= under/less/lower) + adjective/noun	subnormal, submarine
under- (= not enough) + adjective/verb/noun	underfed, undercook, undergraduate

PRACTICE

90 Complete the conversations. Use the words in brackets and an appropriate prefix.

- 0 A: Haven't you*unpacked*..... your bags yet? (packed)
 B: No, but I'm about to.
- 1 A: Shall we watch Casablanca with Humphrey Bogart and Katharine Hepburn?
 B: Surely Bogart's in Casablanca was Lauren Bacall? (star)
- 2 A: How was the meeting?
 B: It got off to a bad start. We how long it would take to get there and we were twenty minutes late. (calculated)
- 3 A: Why aren't you wearing sun cream? to the sun can cause permanent damage to your skin. (exposure)
 B: You're right. I'll put some on now.
- 4 A: If we invite Ben, we'll have to invite Liz. They're (separable)
 B: Well, they've been friends since they were at Cambridge. (graduates)
- 5 A: I don't know what to do about Neville. His behaviour has made him unpopular with his teachers. (respectful)
 B: Have you tried talking to him?

91 Forming adjectives: suffixes

We often form adjectives from verbs and nouns with these suffixes:

-able/-ible	comfort – comfortable like – likeable response – responsible
-al	accident – accidental critic – critical culture – cultural
-ent/-ant	efficiency – efficient arrogance – arrogant
-ful	beauty – beautiful harm – harmful use – useful
-less	care – careless harm – harmless worth – worthless
-ic/-ical	sympathy – sympathetic analysis – analytical
-ish	baby – babyish fool – foolish style – stylish
-ive	act – active expense – expensive imagine – imaginative
-ous	courage – courageous fury – furious humour – humorous
-(l)y	guilt – guilty salt – salty wealth – wealthy week – weekly

PRACTICE

91a Complete the sentences. Use adjectives formed from the words in the box.

courage guilt imagine like nation truth

- 0 He's very likeable and has always had lots of friends.
- 1 I feel really about forgetting your birthday again.
- 2 Although he was wrong, he was enough to admit it.
- 3 She's a talented artist who makes use of colour.
- 4 I have a question and I want a(n) answer.
- 5 Before the match people stood up and sang the anthem.

91b Complete the article. Use the word at the end of some of the lines to form a word that fits in the gap on the same line.

The first Big Issue Magazine was sold as a (0) monthly MONTH publication in London in 1991. (1) sister magazines REGION were later published in the UK. Today the Big Issue is sold as a (2) magazine in countries round the world. WEEK
 It is written by (3) writers and sold by people who PROFESSION are either (4) or in danger of losing their homes. HOME
 The magazine deals with (5) social issues. It also IMPORTANCE features interviews with many (6) figures, FAME including celebrities and politicians. It is (7) of INDEPENDENCE any (8) party. Over 722,000 copies are sold POLITICS each year in the UK.

92 Forming nouns: suffixes

We form nouns from adjectives with these suffixes:

-ness	bright – brightness happy – happiness	-ence	intelligent – intelligence patient – patience violent – violence
-ity/-iety	active – activity various – variety	-th	warm – warmth deep – depth long – length strong – strength

We form nouns from verbs with these suffixes:

-ion	invent – invention destroy – destruction	-er/-or	employ – employer teach – teacher sail – sailor
-ance/-ence	disturb – disturbance depend – dependence	-ee	employ – employee refuge – refugee
-ment	advertise – advertisement agree – agreement	-y	discover – discovery recover – recovery

We add suffixes to some nouns to change their meaning:

-ian	music – musician	-ist	science – scientist
-hood	mother – motherhood	-ship	friend – friendship
-ism	terror – terrorism race – racism

Some nouns have the same form as the verb: an attack – to attack a diet – to diet transport – to transport

PRACTICE

92 Complete the essay. Use nouns formed from the words in brackets.

Human beings are characterised not only by their (0) (intelligence) (intelligent) but by their (1) (able) to use technology to shape their environment. The (2) (discover) of how to use fire was one of the most important events in the history of our species and the (3) (invent) of the plough and the wheel were also significant (4) (develop).

It is difficult to imagine what our (5) (civilise) would be like without technology. In our own time, computers and the Internet have speeded up (6) (communicate) and ordinary people now have access to (7) (inform) that was once available to only a privileged few.

However, technology also has a negative aspect. Our planet is facing (8) (destroy) because of global warming, (9) (pollute) and over-population. We will all need to work together with the help of (10) (science) and (11) (politics) to save our planet and there is no doubt that new technologies will play a role in finding (12) (solve).

93 -ing and -ed adjectives

- Many present and past participles can be used as adjectives.
 - Present participles: a crying child an exciting trip melting ice
 - Past participles: broken equipment a locked door a torn shirt
- These adjectives often mean ‘the thing/person that is ...’: a crying child = a child that is crying a broken vase = a vase that is broken
- Present participles can describe things which make us feel a certain way: She told me a surprising story. That’s an interesting question.
- Past participles can describe how we feel: I’m surprised you remembered my birthday. He’s always been interested in music.

PRACTICE

93a Circle the correct answer.

- Are you young, enthusiastic and (0) motivating / motivated to succeed?
- Are you (1) interesting / interested in making a career for yourself with a (2) respecting / respected computer software producer?
- Are you looking for (3) challenging / challenged work with a rapidly (4) expanding / expanded company?

If your answer is ‘yes’ and you hold a degree in information technology or a (5) relating / related field, then we could have an (6) exciting / excited opening for you. Send us your CV and a (7) completing / completed application form now!

93b Complete the sentences. Use adjectives formed from the words in the box.

break change continue dry embarrass love park relax steal

- 0 It was a restful holiday and I feel much morerelaxed..... now.
- 1 I kept calling her by the wrong name – it was
- 2 Please get some fruit from the supermarket so that I can make a cake.
- 3 They’ve always been poor and shortage of money is a(n) problem.
- 4 The increase in the divorce rate reflects attitudes to marriage.
- 5 The police may charge them with receiving goods.
- 6 Children should not play near cars.
- 7 They say he died of a(n) heart but I don’t know if that’s true.
- 8 They’re a(n) family who give one another a lot of support.

94 Compound adjectives

- We can form compound adjectives in a number of ways:
 - adjective/adverb + past participle: a badly-dressed woman a newly-married couple an old-fashioned idea a good-looking man a well-behaved child
 - adjective/adverb + -ing form: a best-selling novel a fast-moving story a long-running argument a slow-moving vehicle
 - adjective + noun: cutting-edge technology a fast-food restaurant a free-time activity a front-row seat a full-time job high-technology equipment a low-fat diet a modern-day problem a single-storey building
 - noun + adjective: a brand-new car duty-free goods lead-free petrol a worldwide reputation handmade shoes homegrown vegetables
- Many compound adjectives describe people: bad-tempered, big-headed, broad-shouldered, good-natured, green-eyed, grey-haired, middle-aged, right/left-handed, short-sighted, clear-thinking, easy-going, good-looking, hard-working

PRACTICE

94a Complete the sentences. Use the correct form of the words in the box.

age build go hand head make wide work write

- 0 It was a well-..... written play and the actors were also excellent.
- 1 Jenny's a hard-..... person but she's also quite easy-.....
- 2 He's a useful person in an emergency – level-..... and decisive.
- 3 Witnesses described the attacker as middle-....., tall and well-.....
- 4 All our goods are hand-..... and we use only natural materials.
- 5 It's possible to buy scissors which are made specially for left-..... people.
- 6 The televised event attracted a world-..... audience of over a billion people.

94b Complete the advertisements. Form compound adjectives.

Missing. Ming Ming is a (0) short-..... haired, (1) blue-..... Siamese cat. Last seen on Saturday night. If you have any information, please ring 0208 465 3678.

Two Cities is the latest book by (2)-selling novelist Ewan Andrews. A (3) fast-..... story of (4) modern-..... problems and (5)-fashioned solutions. Out now.

Flats to let: These modern, (6) air-..... apartments in a (7)-new, (8) high-..... block are ideal for people working in the city centre. Ring Victoria Properties today on 0207 948 3678.

95 Compound nouns

We can form compound nouns in these ways:

- noun + noun: a burglar alarm a car park current affairs traffic lights
- noun + -ing form: air conditioning food poisoning power dressing
- -ing form + noun: a dining room a driving licence opening hours
- other combinations of words: mother-in-law feedback make-up lateral thinking passer-by software sunshine upbringing

We can write compound nouns as one word, two words or with a hyphen. Some compound nouns are written as one word or hyphenated, depending on the dictionary referred to: dishwasher/dish-washer eyewitness/eye-witness

PRACTICE

95a Complete the definitions. Use one word from each box in each sentence.

air burglar feed job soft sun

alarm back conditioning
glasses sharing ware

- 0 Sunglasses are dark glasses that protect your eyes from the sun.
- 1 is a system that makes the air in a room cooler and drier.
- 2 is an arrangement by which two people both work part-time doing the same job.
- 3 is the set of programs that tell a computer how to do a particular job.
- 4 is advice or criticism about how successful or useful something is.
- 5 A(n) is a piece of equipment that makes a loud noise when someone tries to get into a building illegally.

95b Complete the conversations. Use the words in the box.

brother computer food opening pain traffic

- 0 A: Have you met my-in-law, Johann?
B: Pleased to meet you, Johann.
- 1 A: I've got an awful headache.
B: Would you like a(n)killer?
- 2 A: Turn left at the next light you come to.
B: Here?
- 3 A: What are you doing this evening?
B: I think I'll stay in and play my new game.
- 4 A: Put that in the fridge or you'll end up with poisoning.
B: Yes, you're right.
- 5 A: What are the hours for shops in the UK?
B: It depends where you are. London shops tend to have longer hours.

Check 17 Word formation

- 1 Complete the book extract. Use the word at the end of some of the lines to form a word that fits in the gap on the same line.

I have a natural (1) to find bad news. If it's out there, I want to know about it. The people who work for me realise this and keep me informed. ABLE

A lot goes wrong in any (2), even a good one. ORGANISE

A product fails. You're (3) by a customer who suddenly switches to another company. SUPRISE

A (4) brings out a product that appeals to a broad new market. COMPETE

Maybe a product is going to be late, or it's not going to do what you expect it to do, or you've been (5) to hire enough of the right kinds of people to carry out your plans. ABLE

An (6) manager wants to hear about what's going wrong before he or she hears about what's going right. EFFECT

You can't react appropriately to (7) news if it doesn't reach you soon enough. DISAPPOINT

You concentrate on bad news in order to get started on the (8) quickly. As soon as you're aware of a problem, everybody in your company must go into (9) ACT

An (10) measure of a company's digital nervous system is how quickly people in the company find out about bad news and respond to it. Digital technology speeds business response time in any emergency. IMPORTANCE

/ 10

- 2 Complete the sentences. Use words formed from the words in brackets.

11 The workers face if the factory closes. (employment)

12 I must have you. Could you repeat it? (understood)

13 The couple were after a long separation. (united)

14 I prefer fresh vegetables to ones. (freeze)

15 He is He makes stupid mistakes. (competent)

/ 5

- 3 Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

power row running series thinking

16 Vicky dreams of becoming a film star one day. She might succeed – she's just got an important part in a television

17 It's a long-..... sitcom.

18 She invited me to watch the show and made sure that I got a front-..... seat.

19 She swears that in her early days of acting it was dressing that helped her to convince people to take her seriously.

20 Personally, I think she's a creative person who's used lateral to help her find the success she wants.

/ 5

Total: / 20

Self-check

Wrong answers	Look again at	Try CD-ROM
5, 11, 12, 13, 15	Unit 90	Exercise 90
6, 10	Unit 91	Exercise 91
1, 2, 4, 8, 9	Unit 92	Exercise 92
3, 7, 14	Unit 93	Exercise 93
17, 18	Unit 94	Exercise 94
16, 19, 20	Unit 95	Exercise 95

Now do Check 17

Appendices

1 Punctuation rules

Capital letter

We use a capital letter:

- at the beginning of a sentence: They listened to the weather report before they set off.
- for proper nouns. These include:
 - the names of people, places, nationalities and languages: Richard Ms Fiona Hamilton the King of Spain Turkey Moscow Florida Lake Superior Italian
 - days and months: Monday April
 - the titles of books, newspapers and magazines: David Copperfield The Daily Mail Vogue
 - films and plays: The Lion King Hamlet
 - paintings: The Shout
 - religions and festivals: Islam Christmas Day

Full stop

We use a full stop (.) at the end of a sentence: It was a dark and stormy night.

Question mark

We use a question mark (?):

- at the end of a direct question: Have you seen the film? Where does she live?
- at the end of an indirect question if the first part is itself a question: Do you know who painted that?
- after a question tag: Let's go, shall we?

Exclamation mark

We use an exclamation mark (!) at the end of a sentence, phrase or word that expresses surprise, anger or excitement: It was a wonderful surprise! What a terrible accident! Great!

Semicolon

We use a semi-colon (;) to separate closely related independent clauses in a compound sentence: They weren't sure what to do; however, they knew they had to act quickly.

Colon

We use a colon (:) after a statement in order to introduce a list: Three languages are spoken in Switzerland: German, French and Italian.

Comma

We use a comma or commas (,):

- after a sentence adverb: Personally, I liked the book.
- to set off a word or phrase that comes between the subject and verb in a sentence: Everyone agrees that there are problems. The solutions, however, are not easy to find.
- when a secondary clause comes before the main clause in a sentence: Although I was angry, I tried not to show it.
- to set off a non-defining relative clause from the main clause: Last year we visited the Louvre, which is one of the most famous museums in the world.
- when a participle clause comes before the main clause in a sentence: Being a very tall man, he has difficulty finding clothes that fit him.
- to set off a reduced non-defining relative clause: The passengers, exhausted after their journey, waited for hours to collect their luggage.
- between items in a list. There is no comma before the last item: I'm going to the supermarket to buy some milk, cheese, eggs and spaghetti.

Apostrophe

We use an apostrophe ('):

- to indicate possession: Cora's baby James'/ James's home Danny and Sophie's wedding the dog's tail my friends' parents the children's shoes
- to indicate omission: I haven't got a brother. It's freezing today! She'll be here on time.

Dash

We use a dash or dashes (–) to set off a phrase or clause for dramatic effect in less formal writing: Douglas arrived very late – in fact, he missed the first half of the play!

Quotation marks and comma in direct speech

We use quotation marks ('...') around direct speech. A comma may be used to separate the direct speech from the reporting verb: 'Come here!' he shouted. 'What's your name?' she asked. 'Join us for dinner on Saturday,' she said kindly. I said, 'I might not be able to come.'

2 Spelling rules

Noun/Verb + -s

most nouns/verbs	add -s or -es	cat → cats wash → washes
nouns/verbs ending in consonant + -y	change -y to -i and add -es	berry → berries study → studies
nouns/verbs ending in vowel + -y	add -s	donkey → donkeys stay → stays
nouns/verbs ending in -o	add -s or -es	radio → radios hero → heroes do → does go → goes
nouns ending in -f or -fe	add -s or change -f/-fe to -v and add -s or -es	roof → roofs wolf → wolves wife → wives

Verb + -ed/-ing

most verbs	add -ed/-ing	hunt → hunted look → looking verbs ending in -e	add -d take away the -e and add -ing	live → lived live → living
verbs ending in -ee	add -d/-ing	agree → agreed agree → agreeing verbs ending in consonant + -y	change -y to -i and add -ed add -ing	carry → carried carrying → carrying verbs ending in vowel + -y	add -ed/-ing	enjoy → enjoyed enjoy → enjoying verbs ending in one vowel + one consonant	double the final consonant and add -ed/-ing if the last part of the word is stressed	hop → hopped regret → regretted hit → hitting begin → beginning But: open → opened happen → happening
verbs ending in -ie	add -d change -ie to -y and add -ing	die → died lie → lying verbs ending in one vowel + -w/-x	add -ed/-ing	snow → snowed mix → mixing
verbs ending in one vowel + -l	double the -l and add -ed/-ing	cancel → cancelled travel → travelling

Adverbs formed from adjectives

most adjectives	add -ly	slow → slowly adjectives ending in -y	change -y to -i and add -ly	heavy → heavily adjectives ending in -le	take away the -e and add -y	simple → simply adjectives ending in -ic	add -ly or -ally	public → publicly tragic → tragically

Comparative and superlative adjectives

most adjectives	add -er/-est	cold → colder → coldest adjectives ending in -e	add -r/-st	large → larger → largest adjectives ending in -y	change -y to -i and add -er/-est	easy → easier → easiest adjectives ending in one vowel + one consonant	double the final consonant and add -er/-est	slim → slimmer → slimmest

3 Verbs followed by -ing form admit	can't help	deny	fancy	hate	miss	recommend adore	can't stand	detest	feel like	imagine	postpone	resent

avoid	carry on	dislike	finish	keep	practise	risk can't bear	consider	dread	give up	mention	put off	suggest can't face	delay	enjoy	go on	mind	recall

4 Verbs followed by to-infinitive agree	choose	help	mean	pretend	want arrange	decide	hope	need	promise	would hate ask	expect	intend	offer	refuse	would like can't afford	fail	learn	plan	tend	would love

can't wait	forget	manage	prepare	try	would prefer

5 Verbs followed by -ing form or to-infinitive

(a) With no change in meaning begin	continue	prefer

bother	love	start

(b) With a change in meaning forget	like	regret	stop

go on	mean	remember	try

6 Verbs followed by object + to-infinitive

(a) Verbs that need an object before the to-infinitive advise	cause	force	invite	persuade	teach	warn allow	encourage	get	order	remind	tell

(b) Verbs that can have an object before the to-infinitive ask	help	want	would like	would prefer expect	need	would hate	would love

7 Adjective + preposition

absent from	anxious about	concerned about (someone/ something) acceptable to	ashamed of	concerned with (something) accustomed to	aware of	confident about addicted to	bad at (something)	confused about afraid of	bad for (someone)	content with amazed at/by	bored with	crazy about amused at/by	brilliant at	critical of angry about (something)	busy with	crowded with angry with (someone)	capable of	dependent on annoyed about (something)	careful about/with	delighted about/with annoyed with (someone)	certain about/of different from disappointed at/about (something) disappointed with (someone/something) engaged to enthusiastic about envious of excellent at excited about familiar to (someone) familiar with (something) famous for fed up with fond of friendly to/with frightened of full of furious about (something) furious with (someone) generous to good at (something) good for/to (someone) guilty of happy about/with (something) hopeless at impressed by/with independent of inferior to interested in involved with (someone) involved in (something) jealous of keen on kind to late for lucky for (someone) lucky in (something) married to necessary for nervous about nice to occupied with patient with patronising to pleased about (something) pleased with (someone/something) polite to proud of ready for related to reliant on responsible for/to right about rude to safe from satisfied with scared of sensitive to serious about shocked at/by short of similar to skilful at skilled at/in sorry about (something) sorry for (someone) successful at/in sure about/of surprised at/by suspicious of sympathetic to terrible at terrified of tired of typical of upset about/at/by (something) upset with (someone) useless at worried about wrong about

8 Verb + preposition

accuse (someone) of (something) advise (someone) about/on (something) agree with (someone) agree about/on (something) apologise for (something) apologise to (someone) apply for approve of argue with (someone) argue about (something) arrest (someone) for (something) arrive at/in ask (someone) about/for (something) believe in belong to benefit from bet on blame (someone) for (something) blame (something) on (someone) borrow (something) from (someone) break into care about/for change (something) into (something) collide with come from communicate with compare (someone/something) to/with (someone/something) compete against/with complain about concentrate on congratulate (someone) on (something) connect (something) to/with (something) consist of cope with count on crash into criticise (someone) for (something) deal with decide on depend on describe (someone/something) to (someone) die of differ from disagree about (something) disagree with (someone) disappear from discuss (something) with (someone) divide (something) into (something) dream about/of end in/with escape from explain (something) to (someone) feel like fight about (something) fight with (someone) fill (something) with (something) forget about forgive (someone) for (something) happen to hear about/from/of hope for improve on insist on introduce (someone) to (someone) joke about (something) joke with (someone) know (something) about (someone/something) laugh at lead to learn about lend (something) to (someone) listen to live with look after look at look for look like object to pay for persist in point at/to prefer (someone/something) to (someone something) prepare for prevent (someone/something) from (doing something) protect (someone/something) from (something) protest about/against provide (someone) with (something) provide (something) for (someone) punish (someone) for (something) quarrel about (something) quarrel with (someone) react to recover from refer to rely on remind (someone) about/of (something) reply to resign from result in return (something) to (someone) save (someone) from (something) say (something) to (someone) search for see to share (something) with (someone) shout at/to smell of smile at speak about (someone/something) speak to (someone) spend (money/time) on (something) stare at steal (something) from (someone) succeed at/in suffer from suspect (someone) of (something) sympathise about (something) sympathise with (someone) take after talk about (someone/something) talk to (someone) taste of tell (someone) about (something) thank (someone) for (something) think about/of translate (something) into (something) turn into wait for warn (someone) about/against/of (something) waste (money/time) on (something) worry about write about (someone/something) write (something) to (someone)

9 Noun + preposition

admiration for advantage of advertisement for advice about/on agreement about (something) agreement with (someone) alternative to answer to apology for application for appointment with approval of argument about (something) argument with (someone) arrival at/in attack on attitude to ban on beginning of belief in bet on blame for cause of change in/of choice of collection of collision with comment on communication with comparison between/with competition between/for complaint about congratulations on connection between/with contact between/with control of conversation between/with cost of criticism of cure for danger of debate about/on decision about/on decrease in delay in demand for departure from dependence on description of difference between difficulty in/with disadvantage of disagreement about (something) disagreement with (someone) disappearance from discussion about (something) discussion between/with (someone) division between/into drawing of dream of/about drop in effect of/on end of escape from example of excuse for experience of expert on failure at/in/of fall in fight about (something) fight between/with (someone) forgiveness for help with hesitation in hope for/of improvement in/on increase in influence on information about/on insistence on interest in interview with introduction to invitation to joke about knowledge about/of lack of matter with meaning of need for objection to opinion about/of opportunity for payment for permission for (something) permission from (someone) persistence in photograph of picture of preference for preparation for prevention against price of pride in prize for problem with protection from protest about/against provision for punishment for quarrel about (something) quarrel with (someone) reaction to reason for recovery from reference to relationship between/with (someone) reliance on reminder about/of reply to reputation for resignation from respect for responsibility for result of rise in/of room for search for smell of solution to success at/in suspicion of sympathy for talent for taste of tax on trouble with victim of warning about/against worry about

Index

The numbers in this index are unit numbers (not page numbers).

- A
- a bit* + comparative 14
 - a few* 6
 - a great deal of* 6
 - a large number of* 6
 - a little* 6
 - a lot* + comparative 14
 - a lot of* 5–6
 - a/an* 1
 - able* 91
 - about* 81
 - above* 79
 - absolutely* 16
 - across* 79
 - actually* 61
 - adjective + preposition 83
 - adjectives 10, 11, 13–14, 43, 50–51, 83, 91, 93–94
 - adverbial 36
 - adverbs of degree 16
 - adverbs of frequency 12, 18
 - adverbs 11–14, 16–18, 20–22, 36
 - after all* 61
 - after* 27, 60, 63–64, 80
 - against* 79
 - al* 91
 - all (of)* 7
 - all* 78
 - along* 79
 - already* 21
 - also* 57
 - although* 56, 58
 - am/is/are* + to-infinitive 29
 - among* 79
 - ance* 92
 - and* 56
 - ant* 91
 - any* 5
 - anybody* 5
 - anyhow* 61
 - anyone* 5
 - anything* 5
 - anyway* 61
 - articles 1
 - a/an* 1
 - the* 1
 - zero article 1
 - as ... as* 14
 - as a result* 59
 - as if* 71
 - as long as* 68
 - as soon as* 25, 27, 60
 - as though* 71
 - as well (as)* 57
 - as* 59, 88
 - assuming (that)* 68
 - at* 79–80
- B
- be able to* 33
 - be about* + to-infinitive 29–30
 - be allowed to* 35
 - be going to* 27, 30
 - be/get used to* 26
 - because of* 59
 - because* 56, 59
 - before* 27, 60, 63–64, 80
 - below* 79
 - beneath* 79
 - beside* 79
 - between* 79
 - both (of)* 7
 - both ... and* 57
 - bring* 87
 - but* 56, 58
 - by the way* 61
 - by* 73, 79–81
- C
- can* 31–32, 35
 - can't* 32
 - causative form 76
 - clauses of cause 59, 64
 - clauses of concession 58, 62
 - clauses of contrast 58, 62
 - clauses of purpose 59
 - clauses of reason 59, 62, 64
 - clauses of result 59, 62
 - clauses of time: see time clauses
 - cleft sentences 78
- co- 90
- come* 87
 - common nouns 2
 - comparative structures 14
 - comparison of adjectives 13
 - comparison of adverbs 13
 - comparison of quantifiers 13
 - complement 36
 - complex sentences 56
 - compound adjectives 94
 - compound nouns 95
 - compound sentences 56
 - conditionals 65–69
 - the zero conditional 65
 - the first conditional 65
 - the second conditional 66
 - the third conditional 67
 - mixed conditionals 69
 - continuous infinitive 45
 - coordinating conjunctions 56
 - coordinating relative clauses 54
 - could* 31–32, 35
 - countable nouns 3
 - countryside* 89
- D
- defining relative clauses 52
 - despite* 58, 62
 - determiners 5
 - different* 14
 - direct object 36
 - dis-* 90
 - do* 87
 - due to* 29–30, 59
 - during* 80
- E
- each (of)* 7
 - each other* 8
 - ed* adjectives 93
 - ee* 92
 - either (of)* 7
 - either ... or* 57
 - either* 39

moreover	57	over	79	pronouns	8
much	6	over-	90	subject pronouns	8
much + comparative	14	owing to	59	object pronouns	8
must	32–34			reflexive pronouns	8
mustn't	33			one	8
				each other	8
				one another	8
N		P		proper nouns	2
nature	89	participle clauses	55, 62–64	provided (that)	68
need	33	passive infinitive	45	providing (that)	68
negative questions	37, 40	passive -ing form	45
neither (of)	7	passive voice	73–75
neither ... nor	57	past continuous	24
neither	39	past participle adjectives	93
nervous	89	past participle clauses	55, 64	Q
-ness	92	past perfect continuous	25	quantifiers	6
never	12, 20	past perfect simple	25	question forms	37
next to	79	past simple	20–25	question tags	38
nobody	5	past	79–80	quite	16
no one	5	perfect infinitive	45
no	5	perfect -ing form	45	R
non-defining relative clauses	53	perfect passive infinitive	45	rather	16
none	5	perfect passive -ing form	45	re-	90
nor	39	phrasal verbs	86	really	16
not nearly as ... as	14	plenty	5	recently	12, 21
nothing	5	plural nouns	4	reduced relative clauses	55
noun + preposition	85	position and order of adjectives	10	reflexive pronouns	8
noun clauses	50–51	position and order of adverbs	12	relative clauses	52–55
nouns	2–4, 85, 92	position of words in a sentence	36	defining relative clauses	52
		possessive 's	9	non-defining relative clauses	53
		possessive of	9	coordinating relative clauses	54
		possessives	9	reduced relative clauses	55
		prefixes	90	reply questions	38
		prepositional phrases	55, 82	reported commands	48
		with at	82	reported questions	48
		with by	82	reported requests	48
		with for	82	reported speech	46–49
		with from	82	reported statements	46–47
		with in	82	reported commands	48
		with on	82	reported questions	48
		with out of	82	reported requests	48
		with to	82	reporting verbs	49
		with under	82	reported statements	46–47
		prepositional-phrasal verbs	86	reporting verbs	49
		prepositions of movement	79
		prepositions of place	79	S
		prepositions of time	80	second	57
		present continuous	18, 27	second conditional	66
		present participle adjectives	93	secondly	57
		present participle clauses	55, 62–63	sentence adverbs	17
		present perfect continuous	23	sentence types	36
		present perfect	20–23
		present simple	18, 27

several	6
shall	27, 35
-ship	92
should	34
similar to	14
since	22, 59, 80
singular nouns	4
slightly + comparative	14
so ... that	15
so as to	59
so long as	68
so that	59
so	39–40, 59
some	5
somebody	5
someone	5
something	5
state verbs	19
sub-	90
subject pronouns	8
subject questions	37
subject	36
subordinating conjunctions	56, 58–60
such ... that	59
such	40
suffixes	91–92
suppose (that)	68
supposing (that)	68

T

take	87
-th	92
that clause	50
that	50–53
the same as	14
the	1
there is	77
therefore	56, 59
third	57
third conditional	67
thirdly	57
though	56, 58
through	80
till	60, 80
time clauses	60
time expressions
with future forms	27, 28
time expressions
with past perfect simple	25
time expressions
with past simple	24

time expressions
with present continuous	18
time expressions
with present perfect	20–22
time expressions
with present simple	18
to -infinitive	41–43, 45, 50–51, 59
too many	6
too much	6
too	15, 39, 57
travel	89
trip	89

U

un-	90
uncountable nouns	3
under	79
under-	90
underneath	79
unless	56, 68
until	27, 60, 63–64, 80
used to	26

V

verb + preposition	84
very	15–16

W

way	89
well	61
what if	68
what	40, 78
what's ... like?	88
whatever	40
wh- clause	50–51
when	24, 27, 52–53, 60, 63–65
where	52–53
whereas	58
whether	48, 51
which	52–54
while	24, 58, 60
who	52–53
whole (of)	7
whom	52–53
whose	52–53
wh- questions	37
why	52
will	27–28, 35
with	81

word order	36, 72
would like	41
would love	41
would prefer	41
would rather	41, 71
would	26, 35

Y

-y	92
yes/no questions	37
yet	21

Z

zero article	1
zero conditional	65

Answer key

Unit 1

1a

1 a, a, the 2 the, the 3 a, a 4 the, the, the, the 5 a, a, The, the 6 a, the, the 7 the, a, an 8 the, the

1b

1- 2- 3 the 4 the 5- 6- 7 the 8 the 9- 10 the 11- 12 the 13-

1c

1 The 2 a 3 A 4 the 5-

Unit 2

2

- 1 It's open to visitors daily in the summer, from August to September.
- 2 I took the train to London and then the underground/Underground to Victoria Station. It's a short walk from there.
- 3 Fortunately, I speak German so I was able to join a group of tourists from Germany, who were being shown round by a guide.
- 4 Have you met my sister Jane? She's studying at the University of Manchester.
- 5 She's coming home for Christmas and then she's returning to Manchester for New Year's Eve.
- 6 Would you like to come with us to see Titanic at the Odeon Cinema on Wednesday?
- 7 Did you hear about Grace's promotion? She's taken over as head of the European division of the company.
- 8 That's great news! Does this mean she'll be moving to Paris before the autumn?

Unit 3

3a

1 a glass, a cloth 2 a university education, experience 3 cloth 4 a noise, an experience 5 a room 6 glass

3b

1 work 2 an appointment 3 a time 4 valuable advice 5 progress 6 up-to-date equipment 7 swimming 8 classes 9 exercise 10 information

Unit 4

4a

1 men, women, children 2 opportunities 3 series 4 leaves 5 glasses, knives, forks 6 armies 7 species 8 people, arms

4b

1 phenomena 2 are 3 conditions 4 have 5 are 6 resources 7 a 8 crisis

4c

1 is 2 are 3 are 4 have 5 have 6 are

Unit 5

5a

1 somebody/someone, anybody/anyone 2 no 3 anything 4 nothing 5 some 6 anybody/anyone 7 nobody/no one 8 any

5b

1 any 2 nothing 3 none 4 nothing 5 some 6 some 7 None 8 anything 9 anybody/anyone 10 somebody/someone 11 no 12 any

5c

1 None of, no 2 any, None 3 any/some, none 4 enough, plenty/some 5 any of, some of 6 enough/any, Plenty, some

Unit 6

6a

1 little, a few, much 2 a few, a little 3 much, How much 4 many, many of 5 too much, too few 6 a great deal of, many 7 how many, A few 8 several of

6b

1 a little 2 little 3 a few 4 little 5 few 6 a little 7 a few 8 few

6c

1 of 2- 3 of, of 4 of 5 of 6- 7 of 8-

6d

1 deal 2 many 3 Some 4 great 5 few 6 little 7 few

Unit 7

7a

1 every 2 Each 3 both, both 4 a tenth of 5 all of 6 whole

7b

1 is 2 Does (every child) get, gets 3 is, reports 4 is, is 5 Are

7c

1 neither 2 either 3 both 4 each 5 every 6 whole 7 both 8 all 9 Every 10 each 11 whole 12 every

Unit 8

8a

1 yourselves, ourselves 2 one 3 themselves, it, them 4 one another 5 I, me 6 They, oneself 7 itself 8 one another 9 himself 10 yourself/yourselves 11 herself 12 ones, me

8b

1 yourself 2 you 3 you 4 yourself 5 you 6 they 7 them 8 They 9 oneself 10 one 11 oneself 12 themselves 13 they 14 one

Unit 9

9a

1 the first chapter of the book 2 Jane and Mark's, Nathan and Alison's, friends of my parents' 3 the key of the front door 4 the dentist's 5 the university's policy on handing in late assignments

9b

1 audience's reaction 2 parents' wedding anniversary 3 women's changing room 4 friend's cottage 5 Next year's sales figures, this year's 6 James'/James's daughter 7 boys' teacher 8 city's problems of crime and unemployment 9 two weeks' holiday, a week's time 10 dog's tail

9c

- 1 daughter's friends, children's party 2 kitchen window
- 3 centre of the city 4 top of the page 5 table leg 6 computer screen

Check 1

1

- 1 C 2 A 3 C 4 B 5 A 6 D 7 B 8 D 9 B 10 A 11 C 12 D

2

- 13 The, the 14 -, -, -, - 15 A, an, a 16 a 17 The 18 - 19 -

3

- 20 Is Thailand a Buddhist country?
- 21 What do you think of the President of France?
- 22 I'd love to buy (some) new furniture for my home.
- 23 He felt like a king when he won first prize!
- 24 Are the binoculars yours?
- 25 Physics is my worst subject.
- 26 Have you ever watched a game of American football?

4

- 27 plenty/enough 28 anything(/what) 29 any 30 himself
- 31 everyone/everybody 32 all 33 Each

5

- 34 an hour's wait 35 the history of Turkey 36 three weeks' holiday
- 37 belongings 38 the girls' mothers 39 dress themselves
- 40 Helmut and Trudy's

Unit 10

10a

- 1 Alice's hair is beginning to turn grey.
- 2 That beef stew smells delicious.
- 3 I'll meet you outside the main entrance.
- 4 Eric and Mary have an indoor swimming pool.
- 5 The neighbours' party kept me awake all night.
- 6 Mark looks upset about something.
- 7 They gave me a gorgeous round silver-plated photograph frame.
- 8 Mia bought a beautiful old Chinese carpet.
- 9 Samuel is a well-respected and wealthy/wealthy and well-respected businessman.
- 10 Julie wore a pink and brown/brown and pink silk dress.

10b

- 1 charming whitewashed stone 2 small Greek 3 lovely and warm/warm and lovely
- 4 traditional outdoor 5 round wooden 6 clean white linen
- 7 amazing antique Chinese 8 black and gold/gold and black wooden
- 9 restful and enjoyable/enjoyable and restful

Unit 11

11a

- 1 well 2 truthfully 3 political 4 easily 5 lonely 6 in a lively way
- 7 late 8 hard, hardly

11b

- 1 sincerely 2 noisily 3 economically 4 sensibly 5 nationally
- 6 foolishly 7 in a friendly way 8 fast

11c

- 1 free 2 lately, high 3 freely 4 highly 5 wide, late

11d

- 1 mistakenly 2 eventually 3 widely 4 sadly 5 politely
- 6 Luckily 7 hard 8 stubbornly 9 fast 10 confidently

Unit 12

12a

- 1 Ross ran quickly to the bus stop.
- 2 I worked hard for months in order to get good exam results.
- 3 The children played happily outside today.
- 4 I thought you explained your ideas very well in the meeting last week.
- 5 She slept soundly in the chair all afternoon.

12b

- 1 As we become busier at home and at work, many of us don't have the time to eat sensibly or exercise as often as we should.
- 2 Many fashionable diets promise you will see results quickly without working hard to achieve them.
- 3 However, these diets often involve cutting out certain types of food completely.
- 4 Many diet pills which advertisers claim have been tested scientifically are either dangerous or ineffective.
- 5 In fact, the only way to lose weight safely and permanently is to eat less and exercise more.

12c

- 1 across the fields 2 badly 3 completely 4 for some days
- 5 slowly 6 often 7 directly 8 suddenly 9 often 10 always

Unit 13

13a

- 1 best 2 better 3 The worst 4 less polluted 5 less stressful
- 6 more soundly 7 more interesting 8 less varied 9 safer
- 10 highest 11 the farthest/furthest 12 most beautiful

13b

- 1 less 2 the least 3 more 4 fewer 5 more 6 more, the least
- 7 the most, the fewest 8 more, less

13c

- 1 more alarming 2 oldest 3 less expensive 4 the most important
- 5 more efficient 6 better 7 more worrying 8 more effectively 9 better

Unit 14

14a

- 1 by far the most popular 2 not as expensive as, better
- 3 nearly as much money as, far happier 4 the same mark as
- 5 very similar to 6 completely different from 7 less, less
- 8 The older, the more

14b

- 1 much more weakly 2 far more 3 much colder 4 largest
- 5 the coldest 6 a little warmer 7 almost as quickly as 8 by far the best

Unit 15

15a

- 1 such a, so 2 so, such a 3 such, such a 4 so, so 5 such

15b

- 1 It wasn't warm/hot enough for us to go swimming.
- 2 The old lady was too weak to stand up.

- 3 They aren't going fast/quickly enough to get there on time.
- 4 The music is so loud that I can't hear you.
- 5 The children aren't old enough to travel long distances.

15c

- 1 very 2 enough 3 such 4 that 5 not 6 enough 7 too 8 too 9 to 10 such 11 that 12 very/so

Unit 16

16a

- 1 extremely, very 2 really 3 very, really 4 really 5 fairly 6 absolutely 7 extremely 8 absolutely, very 9 really 10 very

16b

- 1 quite, highly 2 quite 3 absolutely, really 4 utterly 5 entirely 6 completely 7 extremely, very 8 extremely, highly 9 utterly, absolutely 10 highly

16c

- 1 quite, quite/rather 2 quite, quite/rather 3 quite, rather/ quite 4 quite, rather 5 quite/rather, quite

Unit 17

17a

- 1 The disease was possibly caused by lead poisoning.
- 2 I certainly didn't expect this to happen.
- 3 Surely she knew the money was stolen.
- 4 Obviously, he's very attracted to you. / He's obviously very attracted to you.
- 5 Clearly, there are no easy answers to the problem. / There are clearly no easy answers to the problem.

17b

- 1 certainly 2 Personally 3 Anyway 4 definitely 5 By the way 6 luckily 7 Fortunately 8 Naturally

Check 2

1

- 1a ✓ 2a ✓ 3b ✓ 4b ✓ 5a ✓

2

- 6 My family and I live in a large stone farmhouse.
- 7 It rarely gets this hot in my country. / In my country it rarely gets this hot.
- 8 I have always wanted to go to Paris.
- 9 Our new sofa is green and blue/blue and green.
- 10 She bought an expensive new digital camera.

3

- 11 furious 12 hopefully 13 certainly 14 freely 15 economically

4

- 16 less 17 more 18 bit/little/lot 19 nearly 20 way

5

- 21 more you study, the better 22 looks/is (very) similar to 23 is too complicated for me 24 isn't as big as 25 is the most imaginative writer 26 so quickly that 27 isn't warm enough 28 fewer mistakes than

6

- 29 A 30 C 31 B 32 B 33 D 34 B 35 A 36 A 37 D 38 D 39 C 40 C

Unit 18

18a

- 1 lock 2 plays, isn't playing 3 does Evan come, live 4 begins, ends 5 takes, races, crosses 6 are you doing, 'm waiting, 's running 7 're always leaving, remind 8 are forgetting 9 aren't watching 10 causes

18b

- 1 are studying 2 are learning 3 remain 4 are gaining 5 offers 6 organises 7 perform 8 go on

18c

- 1 occupy 2 is destroying 3 live 4 provides 5 is developing 6 is opening up 7 exports 8 is increasing

Unit 19

19a

- 1 tastes 2 has 3 appears 4 're being 5 're having 6 come 7 's appearing 8 does (an adult African elephant) weigh

19b

- 1 has 2 is thinking 3 does (he) think 4 see 5 'm seeing 6 includes 7 contains 8 matter 9 are hoping 10 sounds 11 means 12 don't think

Unit 20

20a

- 1 's had, 's gone 2 have been, was 3 left 4 Have you seen 5 visited 6 've never eaten 7 've tried, talked, put 8 've ever read 9 Have you ever worked, worked, didn't like 10 's ever lost 11 've always dreamed 12 's only been

20b

- 1 has happened 2 've met 3 met 4 've started 5 encouraged 6 invited 7 started 8 found 9 've always wanted 10 had 11 've ever had

20c

- 1 has ever done 2 has never flown/hasn't flown 3 have gone 4 is the second time 5 have never/haven't forgotten 6 have been to 7 you have ever told

Unit 21

21a

- 1 've already met, met 2 hasn't told, told 3 've passed, didn't pass 4 have just arrived, arrived 5 Have you found, found 6 's broken, broke 7 's hurt, hurt 8 've just seen, saw

21b

- 1 You've just missed him.
- 2 Have you tasted the chocolates yet? / Have you already tasted the chocolates? / Have you tasted the chocolates already?
- 3 The film's already started. / The film's started already.
- 4 They haven't repaired the washing machine yet.
- 5 Have you finished your homework yet?
- 6 I've just heard the news.
- 7 I've already had three cups. / I've had three cups already.
- 8 Have you seen her recently?

21c

- 1 've been 2 went 3 's offered 4 've looked 5 've filled in 6 've already seen 7 've just bought 8 stood 9 've given 10 took 11 has already improved 12 's just come 13 ordered

Unit 22

22a

1 have you been married 2 since they (last) saw their parents
3 haven't slept for two days 4 he's felt more relaxed 5 since Vanessa (last) went to/was at the cinema 6 worked as a waiter for a month 7 haven't visited their grandparents for many years 8 did Belinda and Roderick get married 9 's known them since she was a child 10 haven't been paid for two months

22b

1 Have you talked, didn't come/hasn't come, 's been 2 increased/have increased 3 were you, waited, was 4 Did the package arrive, didn't arrive/hasn't arrived 5 haven't seen

22c

1 've kept 2 haven't seen 3 phoned 4 suggested 5 caught
6 've been 7 introduced 8 have caught 9 (have) collected
10 has dropped

Unit 23

23a

1 've e-mailed, hasn't answered 2 've been expecting 3 Have you finished, 've been working 4 's been looking 5 's been learning, 's started 6 've been watching, 've seen 7 's moved 8 've been asking, 've asked

23b

1 've been running 2 have you run 3 's happened 4 've just passed 5 've been practising 6 's been giving 7 have you been 8 haven't been feeling/haven't felt 9 Have you been working 10 's done 11 've been trying 12 've only managed

23c

1 has (also) made/has (also) been making 2 has been sticking 3 has been doing 4 has (also) been watching 5 has been avoiding 6 (has been) eating 7 has lost 8 have paid off 9 have ordered 10 have invited

Check 3

1

1 's being 2 do you think 3 're having 4 's just come 5 haven't seen 6 's already sold 7 have you known 8 was 9 've been trying, haven't returned 10 've been reading, haven't finished 11 's been painting 12 haven't started

2

13 has survived 14 warned 15 has dominated 16 are putting up 17 are ruining 18 visited 19 doesn't appear 20 include

3

21 has risen 22 turn 23 are 24 are offering 25 usually combine 26 is becoming 27 disagree 28 have been using 29 claim 30 haven't seen 31 are also gaining 32 Have you ever tried

4

33 did you move 34 have been cooking for 35 since I (last) saw 36 has already paid back 37 has just told 38 have been working since 39 they have ever been 40 have you known

Unit 24

24a

1 were relaxing 2 was reading 3 was dozing 4 were looking
5 arrived 6 looked 7 went 8 thought 9 met 10 were living 11 was renting 12 was staying 13 had 14 was waiting 15 was washing 16 got on 17 were planning 18 was 19 was sitting 20 went off 21 looked 22 saw 23 were racing 24 were running 25 was turning 26 forced 27 told

24b

1 told 2 was sleeping 3 heard 4 opened 5 heard 6 was rolling 7 expected/was expecting 8 ran/was running 9 was swinging 10 annoyed/was annoying 11 got up 12 closed 13 found 14 went

Unit 25

25a

1 'd been, heard 2 'd done 3 was, 'd already appeared 4 had just started, arrived 5 had never left 6 had already left

25b

1 had, 'd been decorating 2 'd been driving, decided 3 hadn't been living, began 4 Had you been waiting, arrived 5 'd been saving, didn't have 6 'd been expecting, pulled

25c

1 found 2 left 3 sailed 4 left/had left 5 wore 6 had already met 7 heard 8 had sunk 9 decided 10 needed 11 persuaded 12 went 13 didn't find 14 turned

25d

1 had just sold 2 began 3 captured 4 had been chasing
5 had found 6 had been looking 7 decided 8 sailed
9 drove 10 struck 11 sank 12 swam 13 had been travelling 14 had decided 15 had been waiting 16 went

Unit 26

26a

1 used to 2 would 3 would 4 didn't use to 5 Did (you) use to, used to

26b

1 used to 2 'm/'ve got used to 3 'm/'ve got used to 4 used to 5 wasn't used to 6 'm/'ve got used to

26c

1 used to/would stop 2 used to/would complete 3 used to/would rush 4 weren't used to walking 5 used to/would spend 6 used to/would go 7 used to/would light 8 used to have 9 used to be 10 used to have

Check 4

1

1 would often 2 started 3 used to 4 took 5 weren't used to living 6 had been driving 7 did you use to 8 used to argue

2

9 phoned 10 didn't answer 11 were you doing 12 heard
13 was having 14 did you want 15 was clearing 16 found

3

17 had rained/had been raining 18 smelled 19 had gone 20 had arrived 21 had talked/had been talking 22 had only been

4

23 was walking 24 slipped 25 broke 26 became 27 had been carrying 28 rescued 29 appeared 30 had dropped 31 had also lost 32 treated 33 had been missing 34 recovered

5

35 used to hate 36 'm/'ve got used to 37 get used to 38 used to hold 39 never used to go 40 used to spend

Unit 27

27a

1 's going to visit 2 'll phone 3 will be 4 's going to be 5 're going to see 6 'll join 7 'll pick 8 are you going to see 9 're going to see 10 'll probably go 11 'll see

27b

1 'm meeting 2 are you going 3 Are you coming 4 'm taking 5 'm going to ask 6 's going to crash 7 's going to need 8 'm playing 9 's going to rain

27c

1 arrive 2 're going/go 3 're having/have 4 are going 5 don't want 6 're meeting 7 're taking 8 starts 9 finishes 10 leaves

27d

1 Shall we invite 2 will look, won't feel 3 're going to cry 4 're leaving, aren't coming 5 'm not going to do, leaves 6 's going to travel, finishes 7 will address 8 're going to change, will start, 'll be

Unit 28

28a

1 'll phone 2 Will you be 3 'll be doing 4 'll have 5 'll be earning 6 'll probably be working 7 'll give 8 'll be playing 9 'll be

28b

- 1 Scientists will have discovered life on other planets.
- 2 The Earth's climate will have become much hotter than it is today.
- 3 We won't be using fossil fuels like coal and oil.
- 4 Doctors won't have found a cure for the common cold.
- 5 People will have been living on the moon for several years by then.
- 6 The Internet will have replaced television as our main source of entertainment.

28c

1 will have become 2 will live/will be living 3 will undoubtedly have found 4 will have 5 will also have invented 6 will help 7 Will there be 8 will be living 9 will look 10 will have taken

Unit 29

29a

1 doesn't intend to spend 2 are about to announce 3 on the point of announcing 4 hopes to travel 5 doesn't plan to write 6 are not to begin 7 are about to stop 8 is due to have

29b

1 hopes/'s hoping to have 2 're about to make 3 isn't due to arrive 4 'm on the point of calling 5 do (you) intend/are (you) intending to pay 6 's due to open 7 intends to finish 8 hope/'m hoping to find 9 don't plan/'m not planning to go

Unit 30

30a

1 was due to 2 was going to cry 3 was getting 4 was to 5 were going to 6 was going to 7 was about to 8 was going to buy 9 would 10 was about to

30b

1 was taking 2 was due to arrive 3 were going 4 was about to pull away 5 'd be/were going to be 6 were just about to check in 7 wasn't leaving/wasn't going to leave 8 was planning/planned

Check 5

1

1 'm going 2 'm going to tell 3 're going to faint 4 aren't doing, 'll stay 5 Will you help

2

6 was due 7 was going to move 8 intends 9 are 10 would write

3

11 were about to leave 12 on the point of leaving 13 is due to finish 14 are not to write 15 do they plan to get 16 was meeting 17 was going to ring 18 would see

4

19 will 20 plans to use 21 are to build 22 will be 23 is 24 will produce 25 will begin 26 will have completed 27 will be supplying 28 were hoping 29 will have to 30 will have

5

31 'll have finished 32 'll be taking 33 'll be leaving 34 leaves 35 will have gone 36 Shall I bring 37 Will you have eaten 38 'll be having 39 'll have been working 40 won't feel

Unit 31

31a

1 could, was able to 2 could have died 3 can 4 was able to get 5 couldn't, wasn't able to 6 managed to 7 being able to 8 Can you, Will you be able to 9 eventually succeeded in 10 've been able to 11 can 12 will be able to

31b

1 is unable to see 2 will be able to understand 3 can be bad-tempered 4 succeeded in persuading 5 was able to get 6 could have left

Unit 32

32a

1 might 2 can't 3 may not 4 could 5 might not 6 must 7 could 8 have to

32b

- 1 She must be a nurse.
- 2 he may/might/could be outside
- 3 She must have forgotten our appointment.

- 4 he couldn't/can't have forgotten about it
- 5 I think it may/might/could rain this afternoon
- 6 She might have been feeling tired.
- 7 Mickey must be going out.
- 8 That can't/couldn't have been Davina you saw last night.
- 9 Our neighbours must be going away.
- 10 Some scientists believe there may/might/could/must/can't be life on other planets.

32c

- 1 could get 2 might be playing 3 must realise 4 can't be
- 5 could have been/could be 6 must have cost 7 must have been running

32d

- 1 might have killed 2 must have collided 3 may have been
- 4 can't be 5 can't have caused 6 might provide 7 may have caused 8 could have destroyed 9 may not have died out 10 could be

Unit 33

33a

- 1 have to 2 needn't 3 must 4 Did you have to 5 doesn't need to 6 having to 7 don't have to 8 needn't have worried 9 must have forgotten 10 won't have to 11 didn't need to wait 12 had to

33b

- 1 don't have to stay 2 had to run 3 must/have to be 4 having to do 5 don't/won't have to work 6 must/have to ring 7 Did you have to wear 8 mustn't be 9 doesn't/didn't/won't have to save 10 's had to see 11 mustn't forget 12 did they have to leave

33c

- 1 have got to make 2 don't need to buy/needn't buy 3 didn't have to be 4 must not park 5 needn't have spent 6 has had to cancel 7 she need to book

33d

- 1 must 2 must 3 had to/needed to 4 have to/need to 5 mustn't 6 must 7 had to/needed to 8 didn't have to/didn't need to 9 had to/needed to 10 needn't have 11 don't have to/don't need to

Unit 34

34a

- 1 ought to have/should have called 2 ✓ 3 'd better not go 4 ✓ 5 should have called 6 should/ought to have been 7 'd better ask 8 ✓

34b

- 1 must come 2 shouldn't be having 3 shouldn't have told 4 must try 5 should have been working 6 shouldn't have bought 7 mustn't speak 8 should dye, should (I) leave 9 must visit 10 should be training

34c

- 1 (You) mustn't sunbathe more than once a day.
- 2 (You) shouldn't have more than ten tanning sessions in two weeks.
- 3 (You) must wear protective goggles and keep your eyes closed if you use a sun bed.
- 4 (You) must use a sun cream that protects you against ultraviolet rays.

- 5 (You) should use skincare products after tanning as well.
- 6 (You) must check with your doctor that it is safe to tan if you are taking medication.

Unit 35

35a

- 1 Shall 2 Would 3 Will 4 Let 5 Could 6 May 1c 2e 3g 4f 5d 6a

35b

- 1 Shall I take 2 would you like 3 would you mind taking off 4 is allowed to smoke 5 couldn't keep 6 May I park 7 Can I get 8 Can I have 9 How about going

Check 6

1

- 1 ought 2 should have said 3 could 4 could/may/might 5 should

2

- 6 Why 7 Shall 8 can/may 9 was 10 better 11 mind 12 having 13 being

3

- 14 don't need to bring/needn't bring 15 mustn't park 16 didn't need to introduce 17 don't need to get up/needn't get up 18 must see 19 needn't have done 20 mustn't forget

4

- 21 could 22 able 23 been 24 were 25 to 26 must 27 have 28 could/may/might 29 have 30 Could 31 could/might/may 32 can

5

- 33 can be cold 34 to be able to speak 35 could have gone 36 succeeded in opening 37 think I should call 38 didn't have to work 39 you like me to make 40 about going somewhere different

Unit 36

36a

- 1 complement 2 adverbial phrase 3 indirect object 4 direct object 5 direct object 6 adverbial phrase 7 complement 8 complement

36b

- 1 Although they disliked one another at first/Although at first they disliked one another, they soon started to work together.
- 2 Page and Brin started the Google business in a friend's garage in 1998. / In 1998 Page and Brin started the Google business in a friend's garage.
- 3 They had been working on a search engine called 'Backrub' since 1996. / Since 1996 they had been working on a search engine called 'Backrub'.
- 4 When Page and Brin started to work together, they weren't interested in making money.
- 5 They wanted to share their ideas with the world.
- 6 Millions of people use Google today/Today millions of people use Google and the company is worth several billion dollars.

Unit 37

37a

- 1 Should he fix the car this weekend?
- 2 Has she looked everywhere for her keys?
- 3 Does Conrad want to borrow this book?
- 4 Had they given the money to Vince?
- 5 Were you watching a play last night?
- 6 Will she have finished the book by then?

37b

- 1 What colour is the new carpet?
- 2 What/What subject/Which subject did you enjoy most?
- 3 How often/How many times a week do they play?
- 4 How many eggs did he buy?
- 5 Who met Keith at the cinema?
- 6 Who did Eva meet at the cinema?
- 7 Whose electric guitar did you borrow?
- 8 What did Paul leave on the sofa?

37c

- 1 Who hasn't got one?
- 2 Why didn't you get ready sooner?
- 3 Haven't you got anything better to do?
- 4 Why don't you put it here?
- 5 Didn't the garage do a great job?

Unit 38

38a

- 1 aren't I 2 have we 3 shall we 4 will you 5 didn't she
- 6 aren't they 7 do you 8 didn't it

38b

- 1 Won't there? 2 Did I? 3 Couldn't you? 4 Isn't he? 5 Does she?
- 6 Have they? 7 Aren't there? 8 Can you?

38c

- 1 haven't 2 Did 3 didn't 4 shall 5 Have 6 have 7 will
- 8 can

Unit 39

39a

- 1 So 2 not 3 Neither/Nor 4 so 5 do 6 does
- 7 think/believe 8 either 9 have

39b

- 1 Neither have I. 2 So am I. 3 I did too. 4 Nor do I. 5 So am I.
- 6 Neither do I. 7 I couldn't either. 8 I will too.

39c

- 1 I'm going to ~~have lunch~~ 2 we should ~~stop somewhere for something to eat~~
- 3 I will ~~sit down~~ 4 she did ~~pick me up at six~~
- 5 I did ~~pay for them~~ 6 Will you ~~be attending the conference~~

Unit 40

40a

- 1 How 2 That 3 Lucky you 4 What 5 Why on earth 6 Didn't
- 7 However 8 Do

40b

- 1 (How) strange (the birds are!)
- 2 (They) have such rude children!
- 3 (What) difficult poems (she writes!)
- 4 (She's) such a beautiful (woman!)
- 5 (The problem) is so complicated!

Check 7

1

- 1 Although the meal didn't look very good, it was quite tasty.
- 2 Why didn't you call me as soon as you arrived at the hotel?
- 3 Have you been waiting here for a long time?
- 4 Sylvia is leaving next month and so am I.
- 5 Lance left his briefcase on the bus yesterday. / Yesterday Lance left his briefcase on the bus.

2

- 6 Haven't you? 7 the letter to her 8 Don't you 9 Will you?
- 10 such an

3

- 11 What 12 neither/nor 13 so 14 such 15 her 16 could
- 17 will 18 do 19 shall 20 Do

Unit 41

41a

- 1 to offend 2 smoking 3 having 4 writing 5 to learn
- 6 helping 7 to study 8 travelling 9 getting 10 to accept

41b

- 1 to tell 2 telling 3 having 4 to have 5 to concentrate
- 6 drinking 7 acting 8 to act 9 to close 10 closing

Unit 42

42a

- 1 helped 2 stay 3 allow 4 made 5 allows 6 forced
- 7 expects 8 going

42b

- 1 Police are advising motorists to avoid that section of the motorway.
- 2 Rescue services are helping injured people to get to hospital.
- 3 Police are anxious to stop people panicking.
- 4 Police are encouraging people to call a special number for more information.
- 5 Police are preventing motorists (from) approaching the scene of the accident.

42c

- 1 making/make 2 feeling/to feel 3 taking 4 beginning/begin
- 5 moving/move 6 to leave 7 rolling/roll 8 drinking/to drink
- 9 continue 10 watching/watch 11 staring
- 12 drinking 13 to pour 14 to be

Unit 43

43a

- 1 to keep 2 to be 3 to travel 4 to understand 5 to be 6 to work
- 7 to spend 8 to stay 9 to look 10 to leave 11 to love
- 12 to agree

43b

- 1 (He)'s keen to move to Italy next year.
- 2 (It's) rude to interrupt people all the time.
- 3 (Her) intention is to start up her own business.
- 4 (It's) my ambition to take part in the Olympic Games one day.
- 5 (He bought) a DVD to watch this evening.
- 6 (I was) the only person to disagree with him.

43c

1 easy to work 2 complicated to work out 3 important (for me) to get 4 great to have 5 aim (is) to save 6 time to apply 7 someone to replace 8 place to stay 9 welcome to share 10 sure to be

43d

1 to receive your letter 2 to heat this house 3 to have interests outside work 4 very quick to learn 5 to cook this fish 6 to see him

Unit 4444a

1 working, sitting 2 measuring 3 feeling 4 eating 5 giving 6 finding 7 being 8 arguing, getting 9 shopping 10 doing

44b

1 was worth paying 2 couldn't face the thought of it getting 3 'm busy taking 4 moving 5 go swimming 6 trouble studying 7 a waste of time asking 8 's always great to hear/hearing

Unit 4545a

1 to show 2 being asked 3 to be relaxing 4 being annoyed 5 to be asked

45b

1 being told 2 saying/having said 3 being/having been looked after 4 to go 5 to be given 6 to have lost 7 to be getting

Check 8

- 1
1 crying 2 to do 3 living 4 to carry 5 to close
- 2
6 for 7 go 8 to 9 in 10 waste 11 allow 12 bear/face/stand 13 help
- 3
14 to improve 15 studying 16 following 17 to turn 18 finding 19 to give 20 to live
- 4
21 to be 22 allowed me to use 23 taking 24 to get 25 to get 26 doing 27 working 28 to become 29 to have 30 to do 31 training 32 sitting
- 5
33 to be offered 34 being asked to do 35 to have left 36 to be studying 37 having lied 38 surprised to hear 39 attempts to sail 40 somewhere to have

Unit 4646a

1 couldn't 2 was 3 would 4 hadn't 5 said 6 told 7 that 8 had to 9 had to 10 hadn't

46b (Suggested answers)

- Derek said (that) I/we could leave my/our things in the wardrobe if I/we liked.
- 'We/They're leaving tomorrow,' said Beth.
- Bea told Ted (that) it wasn't far from there to her office.

- 'I saw the bank robbery this morning,' Evan told the police officer.
- Hannah said (that) we/they had to be patient.
- Nanette told Ian (that) she'd been to the restaurant once before.
- 'I didn't like the film but I enjoyed the book,' Miguel told Gloria.
- Eva said (that) she might have left her bag on the bus that morning.
- 'We/You ought to get some flowers for Penny's birthday,' said Alan.
- Lydia told her mother (that) she wouldn't be gone long.

Unit 4747a

- (Joan said that) when the project started, there had been/was a lot of interest in it.
- (Josh said that) he'd been living in France when he met Nora.
- (Ali tells me that) it's pouring with rain there.
- (Natalie said that) she'd been hoping to meet me for lunch but her car had broken down/broke down.
- (Maria told me that) the taxi had already arrived when she rang me.

47b

1 spent 2 had wanted 3 had learnt 4 had gone 5 had loved 6 had taken up 7 has done 8 moves/moved 9 won't/wouldn't be going 10 is/was planning 11 wants/wanted

Unit 4848a

- (She asked her husband) to see who was at the door.
- (He asked them) not to make so much noise.
- (She told me) to e-mail her if I needed any help.
- (Janet wanted to know) how many people were coming that night.
- (Daryl asked them) if/whether they'd enjoyed themselves at the concert.
- (The doctor enquired) if/whether I'd been eating properly.
- (Logan asked them) why they hadn't gone to the meeting.
- (Brenda asked me) to check the information for her.
- (Hasan asked us) if/whether we'd be travelling far.
- (Martin told Joanna) not to leave her bag on the floor.

48b

1 if/whether there were 2 how we could make 3 to be 4 not to use 5 how formal we should be/how formal to be 6 if/whether people sent 7 not to use 8 why companies monitored

Unit 4949a

- (Her tutor advised) her to finish her degree first.
- (Her mother begged) her to think carefully before she took such a big step.
- (Her father warned) her that she'd never find a good job if she dropped out.
- (He threatened) to stop/that he'd stop paying her rent if she left university.

- 5 (Her best friend offered) to let her stay at her flat until she found a place to live.
- 6 (Her sister suggested) that she should ask her tutor for advice.
- 7 (Her grandmother promised) to buy/that she'd buy her a car when she graduated.

49b

- 1 He refused to discuss the problem with me.
- 2 She complained about not being invited to the meeting. / She complained that she hadn't been invited to the meeting.
- 3 The police officer warned me/us not to do it again or they'd fine me/us.
- 4 She accused me/us of reading her e-mails.
- 5 He reminded me to apply for a new passport. / He reminded me that I had to apply for a new passport.
- 6 She apologised for the trouble she'd caused.
- 7 The doctor advised me to stay home for a few days.

Check 9

- 1
1 couldn't 2 said 3 'd 4 're having 5 there 6 'd gone
7 asked 8 you hadn't called 9 her 10 's feeling
- 2
11 (Malcolm said that) he'd been watching television when they arrived.
12 (Amy says that) she'll be there/here in an hour.
13 (Ulrich said that) Niels hadn't left when he rang an hour ago.
14 (Astrid asked me) where I'd left the newspaper.
15 (Leslie asked me) not to say anything to Beatrice.
16 (Jack wondered) if/whether he should ask Sophie out for a meal.
17 (Milos asked) if/whether we/they had to stay there all evening.
18 (Dieter asked Eve) if/whether she was going out that evening.
19 (Sian says that) she's been living in Cardiff for ten years.
20 (Rodney told Winnie) that he'd love her for ever.
- 3
21 advised me to rest 22 reminded him to book 23 not to go
24 invited me to have 25 congratulated me on passing 26 asked her son to clear 27 told the man not to 28 admitted taking/that he had taken
- 4
29 B 30 C 31 D 32 A 33 C 34 A 35 B 36 C 37 D 38 D
39 A 40 D

Unit 50

50a

- 1 how 2 if/whether 3 were 4 would 5 that 6 why 7 what 8 that

50b

- 1 I couldn't believe that he expected us to work on Sunday!
- 2 Have you forgotten that Anja's coming round tonight?
- 3 I'm hoping that the car will be fixed by Friday.
- 4 I used to think that football is/was boring.

- 5 Do you realise that you're an hour late?
- 6 I suppose that it's too late to apply for the job.
- 7 I understood that the treatment may/might not work.
- 8 I suddenly remembered that it's/it was my father's birthday on Sunday.

50c

- 1 where I left my bag 2 if/whether he's left his contact details
- 3 if/whether we'll get there on time 4 why you don't listen to me
- 5 when she arrived 6 what time the class starts
- 7 if/whether he'll recognise us after all these years 8 how many people turned up

50d

- 1 how to send 2 how to complete 3 where to catch 4 how to assemble 5 where to put

Unit 51

51a

- 1 We should be grateful (that) she hasn't made a complaint.
- 2 She seems very angry (that) he didn't tell her the truth.
- 3 She promised (that) she'd/she'll write to us.
- 4 I'm sure (that) he's lying to you.
- 5 I don't like the thought that we might not get a pay rise.
- 6 My problem is (that) I don't know where to go on holiday.
- 7 It was my understanding that we were going to meet outside the club.
- 8 They're concerned (that) they won't have enough money to pay their bills this month.

51b

- 1 That you're not happy about the decision is clear.
- 2 The idea that all people are equal is important in many societies.
- 3 Whether you give me the information now or later is not important.
- 4 The result gave me hope that our team could win the championship.
- 5 I'm surprised that no one was there to meet us.
- 6 I have a promise that the job will be mine if I apply for it.
- 7 That I didn't pass all of my exams is disappointing.
- 8 That we didn't notice anything was not surprising in the circumstances.

51c

- 1 worried (that) she's ill 2 a possibility that the letter got lost
- 3 doubtful if/whether they'll offer 4 whether or not he'll be
- 5 the theory that there's life 6 her ambition is to become

51d

- 1 or not they broke 2 he lied about his whereabouts 3 to cancel the event is
- 4 whether to accept/I should accept
- 5 thought that I made 6 my belief that we will 7 he has emotional problems is
- 8 not certain how to solve

Check 10

1

- 1 (I don't know) if/whether she's passed her exams.
- 2 (Have you forgotten) (that) Tursun's coming round this evening?
- 3 (Do you know) how Hannah is?

- 4 (I don't know) how many people are coming to the meeting.
- 5 (She still) holds on to the belief that he isn't dead.
- 6 (The suggestion) that she lied to you is ridiculous.

2

7 whether 8 that 9 if/whether 10 that 11 how 12 sure/certain/confident

3

13 don't understand what 14 how to solve 15 taught him how to write 16 whether or not 17 thought that we 18 the accident happened is not 19 surprise that they are getting 20 doubtful if/whether he will accept

Unit 52

52a

1 which/that 2 which/that 3 whom 4 whose 5 which/that 6 which/that 7 which/that 8 where

52b

- 1 The family who/that live next door moved here from Ireland.
- 2 The woman whose job I'm doing is coming back to work soon.
- 3 This is the job I've always wanted.
- 4 It was during my first year of university when/that I first met Bernard.
- 5 The hotel which/that overlooks the sea is the most expensive in the area.
- 6 That's the house where we lived when we were university students.

Unit 53

53a

- 1 Their e-mail, which I received yesterday, says they'll be staying for a week.
- 2 My fiancé, who/whom they haven't met, is looking forward to their visit.
- 3 Naturally, my parents want to meet my fiancé, whose parents want to meet mine.
- 4 My mother is also planning to visit Scotland, where she was born.
- 5 She wants to go in August, when the heather blooms.

53b

1 when 2 who 3 which 4 which 5 who/whom 6 when 7 where

53c

- 1 Pablo Picasso, whose paintings are some of the most famous in the world, suffered from dyslexia.
- 2 William Shakespeare, who wrote about thirty-seven plays, is considered to be one of the greatest playwrights of all time.
- 3 Muhammed Ali won the world heavyweight boxing title in 1964, when he defeated Sonny Liston.
- 4 In the 1980s Brad Pitt moved to Los Angeles, where he took acting classes and worked as a chauffeur.
- 5 Cleopatra, who married two of her brothers, is one of the most famous rulers in history.
- 6 Bill Clinton, whose father died three months before he was born, was the forty-second President of the United States.
- 7 Although he was born in Bonn, Ludwig van Beethoven moved to Vienna in 1792, where he soon established a reputation as a piano virtuoso.

218

Unit 54

54

- 1 My grandmother runs five miles every day, which is impressive for a woman of her age.
- 2 She's going to take a month off work, which will give her the rest she needs.
- 3 He spent a lot of money on a car he couldn't afford, which was an expensive mistake.
- 4 The weather there is very cold at this time of year, which means you should pack lots of warm clothing.
- 5 She arrived a day earlier than we expected, which was a surprise for everyone.
- 6 My nephew had to go into hospital suddenly, which was frightening for my sister and her husband.
- 7 He suddenly got very red in the face, which was a sign that he was getting angry.
- 8 The children ate too much cake at the party, which made them ill.

Unit 55

55a

- 1 We have already watered the flowers at the front of the house.
- 2 Clara is the girl with blond hair and green eyes.
- 3 Hester brought us some vegetables from her garden.
- 4 Alan is the tall man in the uniform.
- 5 We play tennis at the courts opposite the park.
- 6 Our players are the ones in/with the red and white shirts.

55b

- 1 The dog took the baby, wrapped in a dirty cloth, and put it next to her puppies.
- 2 A witness said he heard a baby crying.
- 3 Another witness said she saw a dog carrying a baby across a road.
- 4 A homesick Chinese cat given away by its owner walked forty days and a hundred miles to return home.
- 5 The cat's owner is a woman with a small flat in Beijing.
- 6 She gave the cat to a friend living in the country.

55c

- 1 ✓ 2 suggesting that there may be water 3 on the planet
- 4 ✓ 5 once thought to be lifeless

Check 11

1

1 who/that 2 which 3 where 4 which/that 5 whose 6 who 7 which 8 when 9 which 10 where

2

- 11 I discussed the problem with my cousin, who is a lawyer.
- 12 This is Will, whose sister I've known since we were children.
- 13 Last year we moved back to the town where I was born.
- 14 The Richardsons are the people (who/whom/that) we met on holiday last year.
- 15 The children refused to eat the food (which/that) their mother had prepared.
- 16 Elli called her brother, who/whom she hadn't spoken to for weeks. / Elli called her brother, to whom she hadn't spoken for weeks.

- 17 We walked to the top of the hill, where we had a picnic.
- 18 Do you know the people who/that live next door?
- 19 They moved in 1997, when their first child was born.
- 20 I put my contact details on the Internet, which was a mistake.

3

- 21 that shows
- 22 which is not enough
- 23 which is the recommended average
- 24 controlling appetite
- 25 who get less than eight hours a night
- 26 which we can then access
- 27 conducted on two groups of people
- 28 they had seen
- 29 in which one group slept
- 30 who had had a good night's sleep
- 31 who had not slept
- 32 he or she can help you with 4

- 33 searching for a diamond necklace
- 34 believed to have sunk with the famous ship
- 35 with a photograph of a woman
- 36 wearing the necklace
- 37 called Rose Dawson Calvert
- 38 in the photograph
- 39 played by Kate Winslett
- 40 with a lot of money

Unit 56

56

- 1 so
- 2 or
- 3 and
- 4 Although
- 5 moreover
- 6 however
- 7 Because
- 8 but
- 4 Although a Rolls Royce is a beautiful car, it's expensive to maintain.
- 5 They installed a new security system; moreover, they hired extra guards.
- 6 We've cut costs and increased production; however, we're still not making a profit.
- 7 Because he wasn't feeling well, I offered to do the shopping for him.

Unit 57

57a

- 1 as well/too
- 2 Also
- 3 both
- 4 First/First of all, Next/Then
- 5 nor
- 6 as well/too
- 7 Either, or
- 8 As well as
- 9 Also/In addition
- 10 furthermore/moreover

57b

- 1 neither
- 2 nor
- 3 as
- 4 First
- 5 Second/Secondly/
- Furthermore/Moreover
- 6 Either
- 7 or
- 8 too
- 9 addition

Unit 58

58a

- 1 while
- 2 Whereas
- 3 Despite
- 4 and
- 5 In spite of
- 6 However
- 7 On the one hand
- 8 On the other hand

58b

- 1 Even though her doctor told her to rest, she went to Spain. / She went to Spain even though her doctor told her to rest.
- 2 In spite of joining the company only a year ago, she's been promoted already. / She's been promoted already in spite of joining the company only a year ago. / In spite of the fact that she joined the company only a year ago, she's been promoted already. / She's been promoted already in spite of the fact that she joined the company only a year ago.

- 3 He hasn't got any experience. However, he's keen to learn. / He hasn't got any experience; however, he's keen to learn. / He hasn't got any experience. He's keen to learn, however. / He hasn't got any experience; he's keen to learn, however. / He hasn't got any experience. He is, however, keen to learn. / He hasn't got any experience; he is, however, keen to learn.
- 4 While I'd like to eat out, I should be saving money.
- 5 I thought he looked ill but I wasn't completely sure.
- 6 Despite the rain/Despite the fact that it was raining, we went out for the day. / We went out for the day despite the rain/despite the fact that it was raining.
- 7 Whereas the government spent money on weapons, it neglected education.

Unit 59

59a

- 1 therefore
- 2 so that
- 3 because
- 4 as
- 5 Since/As
- 6 as a result
- 7 in order to

59b

- 1 because of the driver's
- 2 in order to become
- 3 in order not to hurt
- 4 has a test tomorrow so
- 5 since his health was
- 6 so that we (can/will) avoid

Unit 60

60a

- 1 While he's working, she'll be lying on the beach. / She'll be lying on the beach while he's working.
- 2 Once you tell/'ve told me what really happened, I'll help you. / I'll help you once you tell/'ve told me what really happened.
- 3 As soon as Jake finishes/'s finished the report he's writing, he'll come over to my place. / Jake will come over to my place as soon as he finishes/'s finished the report he's writing.
- 4 After Petra and Otto do/have done the washing up, they'll go swimming. / Petra and Otto will go swimming after they do/'ve done the washing up.
- 5 When I see Helen, I'll give her your regards. / I'll give Helen your regards when I see her.
- 6 Gareth will keep looking for his wallet until he finds it. / Until he finds his wallet, Gareth will keep looking for it.
- 7 Before you can get a driving licence, you have to pass a driving test. / You have to pass a driving test before you can get a driving licence.
- 8 When she adds/'s added some herbs to the dish, it will taste better. / The dish will taste better when she adds/'s added some herbs (to it).

60b

- 1 start
- 2 finished/'d finished
- 3 leave/'ve left
- 4 chose
- 5 came
- 6 gave/'d given
- 7 look
- 8 'll see
- 9 have
- 10 think
- 11 get/'ve got

Unit 61

61

- 1 After all
- 2 Actually
- 3 or rather
- 4 Well
- 5 In other words
- 6 On the contrary
- 7 Well

Unit 62

62a

- 1 While hating the job
- 2 Having plenty of time to spare
- 3 Having been out all day
- 4 Having failed one of my exams
- 5 Being good friends
- 6 Being happy with my exam results
- 7 While/In spite of/Despite wanting them to like me
- 8 Being scared of spiders

62b

- 1 Having been wounded, Inman deserts the army.
- 2 Wanting to return home to the woman he loves, he journeys through the Appalachian Mountains.
- 3 Facing many dangers, he struggles to stay alive.
- 4 Looking at war and its effect on people, Cold Mountain is a deeply moving novel.
- 5 Being a powerful love story, it appeals to a wide readership.
- 6 Having read the book and seen the film, I would strongly recommend either.

Unit 63

63a

- 1 He set off on his journey carrying only one small bag. / Carrying only one small bag, he set off on his journey.
- 2 I've changed my job since last writing to you. / Since last writing to you, I've changed my job.
- 3 Before giving you an answer, I need to discuss the situation with my parents. / I need to discuss the situation with my parents before giving you an answer.
- 4 Having left school, he worked in a restaurant for a year.
- 5 Switching on her computer, she started to work.
- 6 Turning the corner, we saw a huge traffic jam ahead of us.
- 7 Having bought the painting, he discovered that it was a fake.
- 8 Having had a big argument, we never saw one another again.

63b (Suggested answers)

- 1 Throwing back the bedcovers, I rushed downstairs to the kitchen.
- 2 Having made some coffee, I went back upstairs to have a shower and get dressed.
- 3 I put on my best suit and tie before noticing that my jacket had a coffee stain down the front.
- 4 Changing my clothes quickly, I rushed to the station to catch the train.
- 5 On reaching the train station, I saw my train pulling away from the platform.
- 6 Reaching for my mobile so that I could ring and say I'd be late for the interview, I noticed that someone had left a message.
- 7 Reading the message, I laughed out loud with relief.
- 8 After buying myself some breakfast at the station, I sat down to plan how to get to the interview on time the following day.

Unit 64

64 (Suggested answers)

- 1 Abandoned by his parents at an early age, Peter took to stealing.
- 2 Since being promoted, I've had no time to go out.

- 3 After being released from prison, Richard couldn't find a job anywhere.
- 4 On being caught, she confessed to the crime.
- 5 If allowed to do so, I would like to present my side of the argument.
- 6 Hidden in the cellar, the money wasn't discovered for many years.
- 7 Unless treated with more respect, he will leave the company.
- 8 (If) given the opportunity, I know I can make a success of the project.
- 9 Saddened by the death of her father, Linda needed to spend time alone.
- 10 Although written many years ago, the book is still relevant today.
- 11 Before being allowed to enter the building, you will be searched.
- 12 (Being) scared of the dark, she switched on all the lights.

Check 12

1

- 1 as soon as
- 2 until
- 3 Having finished
- 4 Since leaving
- 5 but

2

- 6 After all
- 7 anyway
- 8 Actually
- 9 Well
- 10 too

3

- 11 Although/Though
- 12 whereas/while
- 13 First
- 14 However
- 15 addition
- 16 as
- 17 In
- 18 neither
- 19 nor
- 20 If
- 21 before
- 22 so

4

- 23 however
- 24 Having failed
- 25 in order to
- 26 When
- 27 Attracted
- 28 and
- 29 As a result
- 30 Inspired
- 31 also
- 32 after
- 33 because of
- 34 so

5

- 35 Having nothing better to do, I decided to go into town.
- 36 Not wanting to disturb anyone, we moved quietly.
- 37 While wishing I could help you, I can do very little.
- 38 Being so conscientious, Hal rarely leaves the office early.
- 39 Hearing a suspicious noise, Bettina called the police.
- 40 On being admitted to hospital, all patients are examined. / All patients are examined on being admitted to hospital.

Unit 65

65a

- 1 'll be, doesn't get
- 2 book, 'll be lying
- 3 call, need
- 4 hasn't read, won't hear/won't be hearing
- 5 eat, break out/'ll break out
- 6 's been raining, 'm not going to cut/won't be cutting

65b

- 1 can
- 2 stand up
- 3 will
- 4 If
- 5 should
- 6 does
- 7 feel
- 8 are
- 9 try
- 10 leaning
- 11 be

Unit 66

66a

- 1 were
- 2 thought
- 3 'd
- 4 could live
- 5 were
- 6 'd buy
- 7 to ask
- 8 might win
- 9 Were
- 10 wasn't working

66b

1 discovered 2 'd keep 3 could borrow 4 'd definitely go
5 could earn/could be earning 6 wanted 7 knew 8 'd try 9 were 10 'd call 11 had 12 wouldn't complain

Unit 67

67a

1 wouldn't have been 2 hadn't seen 3 would probably have died 4 had arrived 5 would have been 6 might have been 7 hadn't had 8 wouldn't have opened 9 might not have survived 10 had injected 11 could have died

67b

- (We)'d have got there in time if you'd phoned us.
- (I might) have been able to help you if you'd explained the problem to me.
- (They might) have understood what she was saying if they'd been listening carefully.
- (If) he could have phoned her, he could have told her what was happening.
- (If) you'd come round earlier, you'd have seen him.
- (If) you hadn't taken me to your friend's party, I wouldn't have met Kazuko.
- (She might not) have married him if she'd known how selfish he was.
- (Had) the management agreed to a pay rise, there wouldn't have been a strike.

Unit 68

68

- Don't consider running a marathon unless you are in good physical condition. / Unless you are in good physical condition, don't consider running a marathon.
- Don't leave training until just before the marathon in case you injure yourself.
- Take time off from running every week; otherwise, your body will not have a chance to rest.
- As long as you train carefully, you can avoid injury. / You can avoid injury as long as you train carefully.
- Assuming (that) you are sensible, you should run a marathon safely and successfully. / You should run a marathon safely and successfully assuming (that) you are sensible.

Unit 69

69a

1 hadn't died, would be 2 didn't work, wouldn't have been
3 hadn't wasted, could be 4 were, wouldn't have upset
5 wanted, would have moved 6 had worked, wouldn't be 7 wouldn't be doing, had known 8 hadn't been delayed, would be 9 hadn't forgotten, would be boarding 10 had followed, might not be

69b

1 wouldn't have 2 were 3 wouldn't have had 4 'd taken out 5 wouldn't be sitting 6 'd set off 7 'd be 8 'd told 9 'd have set 10 'd begun 11 wouldn't weigh 12 'd (also) be

Unit 70

70a

1 'd started 2 could study 3 hadn't done 4 lived 5 would stop 6 were

70b

1 only he had called 2 I hadn't left 3 you would stop criticising 4 we could afford 5 only we had 6 I had finished

Unit 71

71

1 were 2 didn't go 3 's 4 hadn't said 5 told 6 'd won
7 didn't leave, learnt 8 grew 9 booked 10 went

Check 13

1

1 If 2 If only 3 Unless 4 I hope 5 Assuming that

2

6 D 7 B 8 D 9 D 10 C 11 B 12 D 13 B 14 A 15 C 16 C
17 A

3

- (Had) the authorities known there was a threat, they would have issued a warning.
- (If) my car hadn't broken down, I wouldn't have been late for work.
- (If) it hadn't been raining, the event wouldn't have been cancelled.
- (If) I'd known you were coming, I'd have met you at the station.
- (If) the taxi had arrived on time, he wouldn't have missed his flight.

4

23 'd help 24 had 25 wouldn't help 26 didn't want 27 'd worked 28 wouldn't have 29 hadn't agreed 30 had 31 hadn't taken 32 wouldn't have

5

33 wish he had accepted 34 were you, I would keep 35 in case she wants 36 if it doesn't rain 37 time you found 38 would rather we stayed 39 wish I could lose 40 they to offer him

Unit 72

72a

- (Seldom) have I heard such an inspiring speech.
- (No sooner) had I started my lunch than a client arrived to see me.
- (Only) later did her words seem important.
- (Never) have I been so confused by a lecture (before).
- (Not once) did she ask me how I felt about the accident.
- (Under no circumstances) should you sign those papers.
- (Little) did I know that I would be facing such big changes at work.
- (Rarely) do my parents argue about anything.

72b

1 Comedies I (do) like. 2 My first car that was. 3 This morning they arrived. 4 Soon it will be dark. 5 But the gist I (do) want.

Unit 73

73a

- 1 The windows haven't been cleaned for weeks.
- 2 He was made redundant a year ago.
- 3 Her health was being affected by the pressures of work.
- 4 The fire was put out before it did much damage.
- 5 If it hadn't rained so much, the job would have been finished on time.
- 6 Our car is being repaired.
- 7 He was hit on the head with a heavy instrument.
- 8 I hope I'll be chosen for the basketball team.

73b

- 1 can be understood
- 2 are (usually clearly) defined
- 3 have been fought
- 4 is called
- 5 is/has been/was reared
- 6 is determined
- 7 may be divided
- 8 are allowed

Unit 74

74a

- 1 they aren't allowed to use the computer after eight
- 2 it needs to be washed/it needs washing
- 3 we'll be shown the sights by a local guide when we get there
- 4 I was made to wait for hours to see a doctor
- 5 she was seen to leave shortly after her arrival
- 6 he's also been promised a bonus
- 7 he was helped to cross the street by a kind passer-by
- 8 it must be handed out to all employees

74b

- 1 are/were allowed to borrow
- 2 were lent a sum
- 3 were given to people
- 4 needs to be faced
- 5 should not be given to people

Unit 75

75a

- 1 is thought to be living
- 2 is expected that
- 3 is said to have left
- 4 is thought that
- 5 is believed to have been
- 6 that the accident was caused

75b

- 1 (It) is said that the fire is still burning.
(The fire) is said to be still burning.
- 2 (It) is thought that the fire started in the kitchen.
(The fire) is thought to have started in the kitchen.
- 3 (It) is believed that fifteen people have been taken to hospital (by ambulances).
(Fifteen people) are believed to have been taken to hospital (by ambulances).
- 4 (It) is reported that seven people are in a serious condition.
(Seven people) are reported to be in a serious condition.
- 5 (It) is believed that the fire was started by a cigarette.
(The fire) is believed to have been started by a cigarette.
- 6 (It) is expected that the cause of the blaze will be investigated (by the police).
(The cause of the blaze) is expected to be investigated (by the police).

Unit 76

76

- 1 had his nose broken
- 2 having/getting my shoulders massaged
- 3 get/have the invitations sent out
- 4 haven't had it repaired
- 5 should have had it serviced
- 6 'll have/get it removed

Unit 77

77a

- 1 It
- 2 it
- 3 There
- 4 It
- 5 there
- 6 there
- 7 It

77b

- 1 it will be
- 2 Is there
- 3 does/did/will it take, Is/Was it
- 4 There seems/seemed/appears/appeared
- 5 It's/It was
- 6 There are/were, they're/they were

77c

- 1 (It) isn't easy saying goodbye after all this time.
- 2 (It)'s important (for us) to be there when he arrives.
- 3 (It) isn't clear when exactly they'll be sending us the papers to sign.
- 4 (It)'s amazing that you still remember me.
- 5 (It) was difficult contacting her by phone so I sent an e-mail.
- 6 (It) isn't known how they committed the crime.

Unit 78

78a

- 1 that
- 2 What
- 3 is
- 4 It
- 5 that
- 6 was
- 7 that
- 8 What
- 9 was

78b

- 1 (What) children need is love and affection.
- 2 (It)'s the way he keeps changing his mind that worries me.
- 3 (All) (that) I'm asking for is a little respect.
- 4 (What) I really hate is getting up when it's still dark.
- 5 (All) (that) I need is a hammer and some nails.
- 6 (It)'s me (who/that) you should be talking to.
- 7 (What) we should do is ring someone for help.
- 8 (It)'s a less stressful life that they want more than anything else.

Check 14

1

- 1 I was made to wait for hours at the hospital.
- 2 Rene was helped to finish the report by a/his colleague.
- 3 I am never allowed to leave work early (by my boss).
- 4 The police should have been called when the accident happened.
- 5 He is believed to have lied about the scandal.

2

- 6 (No) sooner had she left than I realised she had taken my car keys by mistake.
- 7 (Never) have I felt so confused (before).
- 8 (Gulay) is thought to be selling the company.
- 9 (What) disappointed us was the result of the match.
- 10 (The new plane) is said to be fuel-efficient.
- 11 (The butler) is believed to have inherited her money.
- 12 (There) must be someone at the door.
- 13 (What) we'll do is leave them a note so they don't worry.

- 14 (It) takes twenty hours (for us) to fly to New Zealand.
15 (It) was/is only a few minutes ago that I heard the news report.

3
16 is Franco (who/whom/that) you should 17 (they) need to be cleaned 18 is believed to have made 19 is considered (to be) 20 does Renata eat 21 no circumstances are you to 22 that matters to me is 23 haven't had my teeth

4
24 being 25 are 26 there 27 be 28 was 29 been 30 be 31 Not 32 but 33 are 34 it 35 What

5
36 get it finished 37 were having/were getting your hair cut 38 've just had my wallet stolen 39 should have/get a new engine put in 40 Have you had your eyes tested

Unit 79

79a
1 onto 2 over, to/into 3 between, into, among 4 on top of, in/inside 5 in, below/beneath 6 below 7 by/past 8 from, to, beside/by 9 next to, opposite 10 inside, across 11 at, opposite 12 over 13 against 14 along/beside, at

79b
1 across 2 at 3 in 4 in 5 at/on/by 6 over 7 from 8 to 9 along 10 into/in/inside

Unit 80

80a
1 at, in 2 during, for 3 for, Until 4 during, Before 5 by, in 6 on, until

80b
1 in 2 at/after 3 at 4 on 5 after/past 6 until/till 7 in

80c
1 In 2 in 3 for 4 by 5 After 6 until 7 during 8 Since 9 for 10 during

Unit 81

81a
1 with 2 on 3 about 4 from 5 by 6 with 7 about 8 from 9 by 10 about

81b
1 with 2 from 3 from 4 with 5 on 6 by 7 with 8 by

Unit 82

82a
1 in the end 2 on the way 3 At least 4 at the end 5 At last 6 in the way 7 at the latest 8 in time

82b
1 on 2 in 3 at 4 by 5 At 6 on 7 by 8 on 9 to 10 from 11 on 12 in 13 of 14 by 15 at 16 in 17 On 18 At 19 at

Check 15

1
1 In 2 On 3 from 4 by/with 5 at 6 In/During 7 on 8 by 9 about 10 from 11 Since 12 from

2
13 by 14 across 15 opposite 16 on 17 outside 18 in 19 for 20 with

Unit 83

83a
1 A 2 A 3 C 4 B 5 C 6 B 7 B 8 C

83b
1 from 2 for 3 about 4 about/at 5 with 6 to/towards 7 to 8 at 9 on 10 of 11 about 12 with

83c
1 with racing 2 in making 3 of owning 4 in driving 5 in getting 6 at winning 7 for building 8 to

Unit 84

84a
1 in 2 on 3 at 4 on 5 at 6 with 7 for 8 to 9 about 10 after 11 of 12 into 13 to 14 of

84b
1- 2- 3 to 4 for 5 on 6 in 7 with 8 on 9 to

84c
1 for 2 from 3 to 4 with 5 of 6 for 7 to 8 from

Unit 85

85a
1 A 2 C 3 B 4 B 5 C 6 C 7 B 8 A 9 C 10 A

85b
1 between 2 for 3 for 4 with 5 of 6 for 7 of 8 between 9 with 10 of 11 for

85c
1 discussion about 2 increase in 3 reason for 4 fall in 5 change in 6 solution to

Unit 86

86a
1 on 2 out 3 up 4 away 5 on 6 out 7 in 8 down 9 up 10 away 11 down 12 in

86b

- 1 She carried on working even after she'd had a heart attack.
- 2 They waited for him for over an hour before he finally turned up.
- 3 We stayed up (later than usual) because we wanted to watch the film.
- 4 After several tries I succeeded in getting through to her on the telephone.
- 5 It will take them ages to fill in all these forms/fill all these forms in.
- 6 We can put you up for the night in the spare room.
- 7 Please stop making up excuses/making excuses up for why you won't go out with me.
- 8 If you don't know the meaning of a word, you can look it up in a dictionary.
- 9 The machine's broken down so they'll have to call in someone to repair it.
- 10 She worked out (a solution to) the problem.

86c

1 took up 2 grew up 3 was brought up 4 didn't get on with 5 back down 6 ended up 7 gave up 8 knocked out

Unit 8787a

1 take 2 bring 3 did 4 doing, making 5 give 6 going 7 got to know 8 take 9 gets 10 coming

87b

1 going 2 take 3 making 4 know 5 get 6 get 7 do/be doing 8 Do 9 make 10 Make 11 take 12 get to know 13 do

Unit 8888

1 as 2 as 3 Like 4 as 5 like 6 as 7 like 8 As 9 like 10 Like

Unit 8989a

1 way 2 funny 3 trip 4 nature, countryside 5 journey
6 irritable

89b

1 environment 2 countryside 3 nature 4 nervous 5 trip
6 fun

Check 161

1 fun 2 countryside 3 journey 4 like 5 nervous 6 as 7 gave 8 with 9 of 10 on

2

11 doesn't look like 12 is responsible for training 13 as a waiter 14 are proud of 15 a solution to 16 borrow that book from 17 succeeded in convincing 18 approves of 3

19 C 20 D 21 B 22 A 23 D 24 D 25 B 26 A 27 D 28 C
29 B 30 A

4

31 for 32 have 33 got 34 about/at 35 in 36 for 37 round/by 38 from 39 up 40 forward

Unit 9090

1 co-star 2 miscalculated 3 Over-exposure 4 inseparable, undergraduates 5 disrespectful

Unit 9191a

1 guilty 2 courageous 3 imaginative 4 truthful 5 national

91b

1 Regional 2 weekly 3 professional 4 homeless
5 important 6 famous 7 independent 8 political

Unit 9292

1 ability 2 discovery 3 invention 4 developments
5 civilisation 6 communication(s) 7 information
8 destruction 9 pollution 10 scientists 11 politicians
12 solutions

Unit 9393a

1 interested 2 respected 3 challenging 4 expanding
5 related 6 exciting 7 completed

93b

1 embarrassing 2 dried 3 continuing 4 changing 5 stolen
6 parked 7 broken 8 loving

Unit 9494a

1 (hard-)working, (easy-)going 2 (level-)headed
3 (middle-)aged, (well-)built 4 (hand)made 5 (left-)handed
6 (world)wide

94b

1 (blue-)eyed 2 best(-selling) 3 (fast-)moving
4 (modern-)day 5 old(-fashioned) 6 (air-)conditioned
7 brand(-new) 8 (high-)rise

Unit 9595a

1 Air conditioning 2 Job sharing 3 Software 4 Feedback
5 burglar alarm

95b

1 pain(killer) 2 traffic (light) 3 computer (game) 4 food (poisoning) 5 opening (hours)

Check 171

1 ability 2 organisation 3 surprised 4 competitor
5 unable 6 effective 7 disappointing 8 solution(s) 9 action
10 important

2

11 unemployment 12 misunderstood 13 reunited 14 frozen
15 incompetent

3

16 (television) series 17 (long-)running 18 (front-)row
19 power (dressing) 20 (lateral) thinking

Z 31B25140 1xCD-ROM

Grammar Practice

for Upper Intermediate Students

The popular Grammar practice series has been thoroughly revised and updated. With a focus on context and communication, the THIRD EDITION helps learners make the leap from practice to production more easily.

Key features

- short, clear and simple grammar explanations appropriate to the level
- a wide variety of interesting and stimulating exercises
- write-in space on the page
- detailed contents page and grammar index

NEW in this edition

- revised syllabus linked to the Council of Europe Framework
- vocabulary sections, including phrasal verbs and word formation
- regular Checks to review understanding and progress
- further practice, Checks and tests on the interactive CD-ROM
- useful appendices, including spelling rules, verb patterns, lists of dependent prepositions and phrasal verbs

Four levels:

Grammar practice for ...	Common European Framework	Cambridge Assessment
Elementary Students	to A2	KET
Pre-Intermediate Students	to B1	PET
Intermediate Students	towards B2
Upper Intermediate Students	B2 +	FCE

Each level of the Grammar practice series is available with or without the Answer key.

PEARSON
Longman

www.longman.com

ISBN 978-1-4058-5300-2

9 781405 853002 >